STUDENTS WEAR WHITE TO UNITE AGAINST BULLYING

Friday, March 8th was "Wear White to Unite Against Bullying Day" at Watchung Hills Regional High School.

Watchung Mayor Gerald Mobus presented a Proclamation to the WHRHS students in honor of a "White Out to Unite Against Bullying" campaign. The Borough staff and the students gathered at Borough Hall as Mayor Mobus presented and read the Proclamation aloud. All wore white in support of raising awareness for the campaign to wipe out bullying in our schools. White ribbons have been tied on the trees around Watchung Lake along with flyers to clarify what the ribbons represent.

WARREN YOUTH AND ADULTS TO TAKE MISSION TRIP TO APPALACHIA

Three fundraisers are scheduled in April to support mission

Teams of youth and adults from Warren and Bridgewater will be traveling to West Virginia this summer as part of a week-long mission trip to rebuild homes in Appalachia. To help fund this mission, three fundraising events are scheduled for April at Mt. Horeb United Methodist Church, 42 Liberty Corner Road, Warren.

The events will begin with a Pork Roast Dinner on Saturday, April 13, in the church's Codington Hall. The buffet will feature pork roast and gravy with stuffing, roasted potatoes, spring vegetables, savory chutney, salad, bread and homemade desserts. Two seatings are offered at 5 pm and 7 pm, with tickets at $15 per person or $8 per child under 12. For reservations, please call 908-647-7739.

The following weekend, the church will host a Parents'

Night Out on Friday, April 19, from 6 - 9 pm, in Codington Hall. Parents can drop-off children for an evening of games, crafts and fellowship. There is no set fee for the event. However, parents are encouraged to make a donation to the mission trip fund. To register, please email myhl@optonline.net.

The final fundraising event, a Car Wash, is scheduled for Saturday, April 20, from 9 a.m. to noon, in the Mt. Horeb UMC parking lot.

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH: IN THE KITCHEN WITH JULIA

On March 2, 2013, actress Linda Kenyon portrayed Julia Child, the famous cook, author and television personality. This program was part of a series of programs celebrating Women's History Month. The Julia Child program was another successful presentation in terms of high attendance and excellent feedback from the attendees. Linda Kenyon's portrayal was very accurate, down to the recognizable voice of Julia Child. Participants enjoyed this program so much, that they have asked to bring Ms. Kenyon back for the portrayal of another famous woman, Eleanor Roosevelt. This presentation will be scheduled for the fall.

HURRICANE SANDY PROGRAM.

A little blurb could say: that the meeting room was packed to capacity, it was basically standing room only. The program started with a slide show presentation of photos, most of them taken by Amy Ellis Nutt ( 2011 Pulitzer Prize winner) about the devastation post-Sandy in the Shore area. It was fascinating to listen to the stories they told about what they saw, such as a full-size walk-in freezer from a restaurant, which had floated away and was found intact several blocks from its original place. Although we saw our share of destruction in Morris and Somerset Counties, and most of us had to contend with days or weeks being without power, our problems paled in comparison to the people who saw their whole lives being washed away, houses completely destroyed, where the only thing left standing were cinder blocks. Both Amy and Mark are obviously very good writers, so their descriptions were very visual and some stories just heartbreaking. The attendees were very engaged and at the end there was a very spirited Q&A session.
