WARRENBROOK SENIORS SUPPORTING OUR TROOPS!

The Warrenbrook Senior Center members have been collecting food and personal hygiene items since the beginning of May for Operation Shoebox. The items will be sent to U.S. soldiers and Marines serving in Iraq and Afghanistan. Inside each package will be a hand made card from the center's members. On May 10th, under the direction of Donna Hollmann and her sister, Jan Wisse, the members made a variety of cards with one of the following sayings inside:

- Thanks for your dedicated service and sacrifice
- Thank you for protecting our freedom
- Land of the free because of the brave

Each card was signed by a member, and the back of each card was stamped with the following words, "Handmade with love," the words were surrounded with hearts. The front of the cards were patriotic in theme with stars, eagles and the American Flag.

Thanks goes out to everyone who so generously donated and to the Frippery Thrift Shop - Wilson Memorial Church in Watchung who donated beanie babies, decks of cards, travel entertainment games and paperback books for Operation Shoebox. The entire donation will be presented to the organization on Monday, May 20th.

"FOR ALL YOU DO, WE APPRECIATE YOU!"

On April 17, the Warrenbrook Senior Center members held a Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon for the over 30 volunteers that help prepare Meals On Wheels meals and implement the many activities that make Warrenbrook a "Young and Happening" senior center. This is a yearly event that allows the center's member to thank the volunteers for their dedicated service and to show their appreciation for the difference they make in the members' lives.

The program's guest speaker was Caitlin Witucki, Health Promotion Specialist from the Somerset County Office on Aging and Disability Services. Words of appreciation were also given by Angela Dubivsky, Nutrition Program Administrator for the Somerset County Office on Aging and Disability Services.

This year's theme was "For All You Do, We Appreciate You!" The members assembled gifts of appreciation. Each volunteer was also given a certificate of appreciation.

The celebration also included an interactive game where the members had to seek out each volunteer and write down the volunteer's area of responsibility so that the members had an opportunity personally thank all the volunteers.

WARREN RESIDENTS "SAVE A LIFE."

The Warren Township Education Association sponsored a Blood Drive on April 25th. Over 30 Warren teachers along with administrators, parents, and community members donated at Warren Middle School. There were 19 first time donors which shows how easy it is to "Save a life". A total of 35 pints of blood were successfully donated to the New Jersey Blood Services. Five donors were able to use the new Alyx system. If you qualify to donate with the Alyx System, you can safely and comfortably provide two units of red blood cells with one donation.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO DONATE WITH ALYX SYSTEM?

Blood contains red cells, plasma and platelets. Red blood cells are an absolutely essential component in emergency medical situations and can mean the difference between life and death for trauma victims and those undergoing surgery. Red blood cells are also used to treat people with certain types of cancer and sickle cell anemia. Because red blood cells are so essential, they are also the most needed blood component – with approximately 14 million units transfused every year.

Systems that collect individual blood components have been in use for over 20 years, safely providing millions of doses of platelets and plasma. The new Alyx System specifically collects red blood cells and helps increase the supply of this critically needed blood component.

If you qualify to donate with the Alyx System, you can safely and comfortably provide two units of red blood cells with one donation – and touch more lives.

IT'S EASY BEING GREEN!

Written by Zoe, Troop 65900

On Saturday, April 27, 2013, Warren Township held a Green Fair event and Girl Scout Troop 65900 participated to help make people "Air Aware." The troop joined the fair to complete their Girl Scout Cadette Journey that they have been working on.

The Journey involved learning about the problems that air pollution causes and doing something about it. The troop made displays to put up at the fair. These displays included information about the ways in which pollution can affect our lives and the atmosphere. Pollution makes Poison Ivy more toxic and Noise Pollution is unwelcome noise that causes stress. Loud noises are a major cause of hearing loss. Smoking is also a part of air pollution problems. Our Ozone layer levels are now on the mend as more countries are banning the use of chemicals.

The Girls Scouts gave out Troop 65900 "Air Aware" pens. They also gave out books and bookmarks from the EPA and sunflower seedlings that they planted. The girls impacted and informed 100 guests to commit to being "Air Aware." It was a fun and rewarding day especially for the girls of Troop 65900.

LIBRARY'S 1ST OPEN HOUSE DRAWS LARGE CROWD

On Saturday, April 20 the Warren Twp Library opened its doors to host its first Open House. Nearly two hundred visitors talked with staff about library offerings, played Wii games and enjoyed a performance by singer/storyteller Jim Rohe. Township Committee Person George Lazo read a proclamation that had been issued by the mayor in honor of National Library Week. Library Director Carolyn Della Sala accepted the proclamation plaque on behalf of the library.

A station with live demos on how to download free music, eBooks and other materials was very popular. The table with information about the Museum Pass Program, which enables library cardholders to check out passes for free admission to select museums in the metropolitan area, also attracted a great number of visitors. A Social Media station highlighted the Warren Business Professional Networking Community in LinkedIn, as well as the library's presence in Facebook and Twitter.

Several visitors were lucky winners of raffle prizes donated by local businesses.

LIBRARY HOSTS FLORAL DESIGNER FOR MOTHER'S DAY!

On Thursday, May 9th, the library hosted floral designer Rosemary Allen, who created different flower arrangements, which were raffled off at the end of the program. As usual she charmed all the attendees with her great sense of humor and charming personality. This is one of the last few programs that Rosemary will be presenting in New Jersey as she will be moving to Pennsylvania soon, and won't be doing these flower arrangement classes anymore. She will be missed!

ANNUAL BUTTERFLY RELEASE & CRAFT FAYRE

Wagner Farm Arboretum's 2nd Annual Butterfly Release & Craft Fayre will be held June 14, 2013 at the Arboretum. Festivities kick off at 10 a.m. with the Fun Bus, craft & food vendors, and much more. Starting at 10:30 a.m., Rich the beekeeper will hold his annual honey extraction demos in the office building.

The Children's Garden will turn into a butterfly garden with two releases: 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. This year folks can sponsor Painted Ladies ($5.00 each) or Monarch ($7.00 each) butterflies or both.

Will you help save the butterflies?

Butterflies play an important part in our ecosystem: their larvae (caterpillars) are an important food source for nestlings and butterflies themselves provide important pollination services essential for food production and general ecosystem health.

However, an increased number of roads, mowed lawns, and buildings are negatively impacting the diversity and abundance of butterfly species and the plants that are hosts for them.

Wagner Farm Arboretum wants to change this. We're asking butterfly lovers to find a sunny space – approximately 10' x 3' – and to plant a butterfly garden.

To make it easy, we're also offering a butterfly garden starter kit for $10.00 that includes 10 butterfly-friendly plants in 3" pots, planting directions, and care guidelines. You can pick up your order on July 14 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

To sponsor a butterfly or to purchase a butterfly garden starter kit, visit the Arboretum's website at www.wfafnj.org.

ABOUT WAGNER FARM ARBORETUM

Established in 2004, the Arboretum is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization that provides environmental and horticultural education of children and adults through the development of plant life in a natural suburban learning setting. The Arboretum offers on-going events and programs for children and adults. For more information call 908-350-7383 or visit our web site at www.wfafnj.org.
