SNOW MAKES TREE LIGHTING A WINTER WONDERLAND

A large crowd turned out for Union Township's 30th Annual Holiday Celebration and Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony held on December 8, 2013 in front of Town Hall.

Festivities included a live Nativity scene, including animals, created by Crossroads Christian Fellowship Church and families were invited to pose for pictures.

Holiday music was provided by chorus and instrumental groups including the Jefferson School Show Choir, Battle Hill Concert Choir, David Braham – Instrumental Interlude and Burnett Middle School Carolers.

The tree was lit by Santa who arrived on a fire truck, children then had the opportunity to have their pictures taken with Santa in the main meeting room of Town Hall by Molina Photography.

The festivities continue downtown with free horse drawn wagon rides Friday evenings from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm in front of the Union Movie Theatre on December 13th & 20th.

GIVE THE GIFT OF A GREAT FUTURE

The Boys & Girls Clubs of Union County is kicked off their Annual "Year End Appeal," November 15th through December 31st with a fund raising goal of $25,000!

Youth members have the opportunity to develop positive character and leadership skills through Boys & Girls Club programs. The Boys & Girls Clubs of Union County impact the lives of over 4,000 youth in Union County each year, by providing the tools for them to be productive citizens and meet their full potential as adults.

"Kids come to Boys & Girls Clubs because they are safe, and feel that they belong. Our programming provides life-long skills, including water safety, public speaking, organizing community events, and civic engagement," stated Russell Triolo, Chief Executive Officer.

Students participated in many activities this year, including assembling food packages at NJ Community Food Banks, Breast Cancer Awareness Fundraising, Blood Drive, Canned Food Drive, and "Make a Child Smile" card making event. The 2013 Youth of the Year was awarded to Justin Phillips, who has been an active member of our Elizabeth Club for over 5 years. One of our Tidal Wave swimmers, Natalia Rincon, is competing at the state level for the Junior Olympics.

Be a hero, give a gift that allows us to not only continue, but grow our mission serving the children of Union County. To make a donation and to receive a tax deduction to the extent allowed by law, visit our website: www.bgucu.org/yearendappeal or mail a check made payable to the Boys & Girls Clubs of Union County labeled "Year End Appeal" to the following address: Boys & Girls Clubs of Union County, Corporate Office, 1050 Jeanette Avenue, Union, NJ 07083.

From the outside looking in, December 21st will be like many other nights at 10th Street Live in Kenilworth. Laughter and dancing is commonplace for the music venue - bar - grille. However, while it may not be readily apparent, this night out will have a important undertone.

10th Street Live, Get Up Stand Ups Comedy, and OnFire Entertainment present "Miracle on 10th Street." This evening of comedy and dancing will raise money to provide a local family in need with extra holiday cheer.

"We are no strangers to hosting charitable events here at 10th Street Live," co-owner and production manager Kevin Bryan tweeted yesterday. With the assistance of Union resident Maria Vargo, with whom 10th Street Live has hosted several charitable events, Funk and Bryan are in touch with the local VFW to choose a family in need.

The event features the fast-emerging comedy troupe "Get Up Stand Ups." Comprised of talent from New Jersey and New York city, the troupe is accustomed to entertaining crowds, but this event brings something much bigger. "When Kevin and Funk presented the idea, I knew this was something we had to be a part of," said troupe leader and Union, NJ resident Manoli Vosoz. "Kevin has been supportive of various causes I promote" (this summer saw a successful fundraiser at 10th Street Live for 'Camp Fatima'). "To be able to contribute to this great idea is very exciting."

Union-county based party promoters / Djs "OnFire Entertainment" will keep the evening "rocking till last call" with their eclectic blend of music spanning many genres and eras. Union resident, co-founder and WKTU radio personality Michael "Mikey P" Purcell has also been an integral part of the planning process.

All proceeds from admission will be donated to the selected family. The event to be held on Saturday, December 21st, is for all-ages, with doors opening at 6pm. 10th Street Live features a full kitchen and immense selection of craft beer. In addition, those who reserve a table in advance will enjoy 20% off their food bill.

Reservations are being taken now at (908) 272-2664, from 6pm to 2am, Mondays - Saturdays. No reservations are confirmed via voice mail.

BATTLE HILL SCHOOL HELPS RELIEF EFFORTS FOR THE PHILIPPINES

Fourth grade students from Battle Hill Elementary School in Union, New Jersey collected items from the school community to help victims of the recent typhoon in the Philippines.

Student council members and some of Battle Hill's finest fourth grade art students helped gather some of the most necessary items. Some of the items that were needed were: canned goods, plastic cutlery, over the counter medications, flash lights, batteries, baby supplies, toiletries, clean blankets, and sheets. The students were asked to decorate a puzzle piece that would be placed on the boxes. These puzzle pieces shared messages of hope and support. Student Council Advisors Alison Brehm and John Bogner, along with building Principal, Michelle Warren, organized the donations. Through the Joel P. Longares Foundation and Atlas Shippers, the boxes will ship for free. They will go directly to the most impacted areas.

CRANFORD MONTHLY JOINS RENNA MEDIA'S FAMILY OF NEWSPAPERS

YMCA ANNOUNCES NAME CHANGE TO THE GATEWAY FAMILY YMCA

The YMCA of Eastern Union County is changing our name to better recognize the communities we serve. In 2014, look for us as The Gateway Family YMCA. This change provides an opportunity to redefine ourselves as an organization. We are changing our name, but our programs and services remain the same. Look for our exciting transition throughout the upcoming months.

The Gateway Family YMCA was a name chosen as part of a contest in which the community was asked to participate in helping to define an open, engaging name. Krystal R. Canady, CEO of The Gateway Family YMCA shared, "Our Y serves communities further reaching than the area defined as 'Eastern Union County', and we wanted to celebrate all members of our community. The Gateway Family YMCA defines the reach of our organization and our impact in the region."

Geographically, our branches are located in the Gateway Region of our state. In addition, many times the Y is first option for a family towards health; programs that help them reach their potential, or services like child care or housing. The Y stands as a personal Gateway for someone who is at the beginning of their journey towards improving their life. At The Gateway Family YMCA, we feel that Healthy Starts Here!

For more information about community programs and services provided by The Gateway Family YMCA, please visit www.tgfymca.org or contact the Elizabeth Branch at elizabethinfo@tgfymca.org, 908-355-9622, Five Points Branch at fivepointsinfo@tgfymca.org, 908-688-9622, Rahway Branch at rahwayinfo@tgfymca.org, 908-388-0057, or the Wellness Center Branch at wellnessinfo@tgfymca.org

Beginning in January 2014 Cranford Monthly will join Renna Media's family of newspapers. Just like Spirit of Union, Cranford Monthly will deliver important information from the departments in town hall, along with news from the schools and library. Community service organizations are encouraged to promote their events and celebrate their accomplishments free of charge. The newspaper's goal is to be a positive influence on the economic development and overall well-being of Cranford. There will be no investigative reporting or political content; Cranford Monthly exists to share all of the good things that are happening in town.

Renna Media is a Cranford based business owned and operated by husband and wife team Joe and Tina Renna. Cranford Monthly joins Renna Media's family of twelve community newspapers published in and around Union and Somerset counties. The publications are "hyper-local" in nature in that they contain information focused on each individual town and are direct mailed within those towns.

The concept of being hyper-local is to give local businesses a venue to promote events and services. Reaching local customers gives you the highest return for your advertising dollars. The newspapers are designed (black ink on newsprint) to keep the cost of an advertisement to as low as $60. A discount is also applied for those businesses involved in their local Chamber of Commerce. Regional businesses can take advantage of one low rate for advertising in multi publications.

Joe and Tina Renna, owners of Renna Media, have been publishing community newspapers since 1998 with the launch of Around About Peterstown, a regional newspaper about the Italian-American neighborhood in Elizabeth, NJ.

Renna Media sought to fill what they saw as a void in other communities and created newspapers that would give a venue to town administrations and non-profit organizations to promote upcoming events as well as to showcase the accomplishments of local residents and businesses.

Call Renna Media at 908-418-5586 or email info@rennamedia.com for more info.

LIBRARY AWARDED 350TH ANNIVERSARY OF NJ GRANT

The Union Public Library is one of twelve New Jersey libraries that have been selected as recipients of The New Jersey Center of the Book's Anniversary Grants of $500. The library will use these funds to provide free programs to the public celebrating 350 years of the founding of the state of New Jersey.

In keeping with one of the grant's stated purposes, the Union Public Library's winning entry "James Caldwell: The Fighting Parson of the Revolution" celebrates "an event of importance to that library's area of the state". Beginning in June, 2014 the library will present a series of free public events, exhibits and a walking tour celebrating the role played by the Reverend James Caldwell in one of the pivotal, final battles of our nation's fight for independence. Reverend Caldwell joined the rebel resistance in fighting the British and Hessian troops in the June, 1780 Battle of Springfield after his wife, Hannah was shot and killed days before during the fighting at Connecticut Farms, just blocks from where the Union Public Library stands today.

The Union Public Library invites the public to watch for news of these exciting upcoming events!
