FANWOOD RESIDENTS AMONG NEW FOSTER CHILD ADVOCATES

On December 14, 2016 Union County Superior Court Judge Daniel R. Lindemann administered oaths to two graduating classes of community members — among them Katherina Abreu and Karen Flood of Fanwood — who've stepped up to serve as extra eyes and ears for Family Court judges on cases involving the county's abused, neglected or abandoned children currently in foster care. Of the two classes, one had 19 participants, including CASA of Union County's new executive director, Marla Higginbotham. The second is the result of the nonprofit offering for the first time a five-session, intensive day training at its offices, and included nine volunteers.

The new CASA volunteers completed 30 hours of training. After performing the oaths, Judge Lindemann stepped off the bench and personally thanked each advocate for committing to serve children in need of a voice. Members of the organization's board participated, and each new advocate received a commemorative pin and certificate. During celebratory luncheons that followed, advocates were matched to their new case and learned about their youth.

Volunteers with varied backgrounds and experiences make successful advocates, and these classes are no exception: They range in age from 22 to 75 and most have no prior knowledge of the foster system. They include parents, non-parents and empty-nesters; a recent college graduate and recent retiree; careers include health professionals, school personnel, counselors, legal professionals, former military, business entrepreneurs and homemakers. Languages spoken in addition to English include Spanish, German, French and Yoruba.

Several experienced abuse in their own childhoods.

William "Joe" Goodson of Plainfield, a CASA volunteer years ago who returned to help another child now that his own schedule allowed, said this work is a calling. "I know the situation in the African-American community, and I want to give back. I've been there and done that. We need more positive role models for these children who need us. I can make a difference and be someone they relate to, and that's what I'm looking for." Goodson added that on Thanksgiving, his CASA youth weighed heavily on his mind: "I'm looking at a table full of food and family and thinking of him, wondering, 'Is he ok, today?'"

CASA volunteers have court-ordered access to all parties in a child's life, including foster parents, doctors, caseworkers, therapists and teachers, and incorporate into court reports findings from these contacts as well as time spent with the youth. Volunteers advocate both in the community and court to ensure their youth's needs are met and time in care is as short as possible. There are 600 Union County children currently in foster care; CASA of Union County serves approximately one-third of those and its mission is to provide an advocate for every child that needs one.

For details on future training sessions, several of which incorporate new, flexible options and timeframes, contact Lisa at 908-527-7048 or lporis@casaofunioncounty.org. To inquire about other ways to support CASA of Union County, contact Marla at 908-527-7041 or marlah@casaofunioncounty.org.

(above) New CASA volunteers include Katherina Abreu and Karen Flood of Fanwood; Mureen Allen and Padmini Bagchee of Linden; Anne Bristow and Phyllis Dunlop of Westfield; Quanae Chambliss of Rahway; Julie Exarhakos of Cranford; Aase Forbes of Union; Julie Goldman of Short Hills; William "Joe" Goodson of Plainfield; Nataly Gutierrez of Elizabeth; Maryann Higgins of Mountainside; Marty Jeiven, Carol Pinkus and Maria Rodriguez of Scotch Plains; Katherine Taylor of Somerset; and Ashley Trotter of Piscataway.

APPLICATIONS DUE FOR DELEEUEW SCHOLARSHIP

High school seniors wishing to apply for the Adele DeLeeuw Scholarship should obtain applications now from their school guidance office. The scholarships range from $1,000 to $5,000. Deadline for submission of applications is March 8, 2017.

Previous DeLeeuw scholarship recipients already in college are also eligible to apply. They must submit complete official transcripts of college grades with a new application.

This is the twenty-second year the scholarships have been offered. To date, the Adele DeLeeuw Scholarship Fund, which is a fund of the Plainfield Foundation, has awarded over one million dollars. Interested students should consult their guidance counselors to obtain the necessary application information or go to the Plainfield/North Plainfield Rotary Club website at www.rotarypnp.org/cs-adele-deleeuw-scholarship.php. ## FANWOOD RECEIVES ROID GRANT AWARD

The Borough of Fanwood has received a Recreational Opportunities for Individuals with Disabilities for 2017 from the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs. The grant will fund additional programming to include children with disabilities in sports programs and teen social nights, building on the success of Fanwood's existing program.

The project unites Fanwood and Intensive Therapeutics, a Fanwood based non-profit, charitable organization that provides group and individual occupational therapy services to children with special needs. Executive Director Scott Matthews added "We are thrilled to expand our services and programming to meet more of the needs of children with special needs in Fanwood and the surrounding areas. The support of Mayor Mahr and the community of Fanwood has been tremendous and it is greatly appreciated by the children and the families we serve."

With peer-mentors and the collaborative efforts of the local leagues coaches, the program will provide opportunities for children and teens with disabilities to be successful in participating in a variety of recreational programs within their own community. The program creates cost-effective recreational alternative for parents and will focus on building skills for children to participate in mainstream programs.

"I'm thrilled to get this grant again," said Mayor Colleen Mahr, "It will go a long way to ensuring this vital program continues to grow and provide safe, affordable, and positive recreational programs for children with disabilities".

Fanwood has operated a successful program for several years, with over 50 children each year participating and roughly 75% of children interested in sports programming moving forward with a mainstream league once they feel comfortable and able.

Previous programming had focused on active recreation alongside Occupational Therapy (OT), however the Borough recognized a need to expand passive recreational opportunities. Based on the needs and desires of participants, Intensive Therapeutics and the Borough of Fanwood developed social activities for older students in 2015. "Teen Nights" have become unprecedentedly popular and attract students of all ages to participate and socialize with other disabled children throughout Northern and Central New Jersey.

The goal of this program is to increase recreational opportunities for individuals with disabilities year-round, so various components of this program must operate independently of one another.

These programs include youth soccer, youth basketball, and bicycle riding skill-building lessons. Finally, teen social nights will take place monthly in coordination with the Borough of Fanwood, the Borough of Scotch Plains, Intensive Therapeutics and representatives from an organization formerly known as 'Autism Family Times'. The program enables disabled and non-disabled children to come together during inclusive recreational activity, and allows for access of active and passive recreational opportunities year-round.

Details and registration for the programs can be found at intensivetherapeutics.org.

While Hart remains "otherwise engaged," the women give their workplace a dream makeover, taking control of the company that had always kept them down. Hey, a girl can scheme, can't she?

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FIRST KNOWN SALE OF COOKIES BY GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scouts Heart of New Jersey announced in January the celebration of the 100th season of Girl Scouts selling cookies. A century ago, girls started participating in what would evolve into the largest entrepreneurial training program for girls in the world: the Girl Scout Cookie Program®, through which girls learn the essential skills they need to become effective leaders, manage finances, and gain self-sufficiency and confidence in handling money. To commemorate this banner year for the organization, the highly-anticipated Girl Scout S'mores™ cookies are now available, joining classics like Thin Mints and Trefoils/Shortbreads.

The celebration of 100 years of Girl Scouts selling cookies will kick into high gear during National Girl Scout Cookie Weekend 2017.
