STREET MAP OF KENILWORTH WILL PAY FOR STREET FAIR

Because of budgetary constraints the 2012 Kenilworth Street Fair was going to be cancelled. In the past the Borough covered the cost of police, firefighters and public works employees that were needed to produce the event. Cissy Gialanella, owner of JC Promotions, offered a solution on how the costs could be covered and the Street Fair will run as planned on October 21, 2012.

Cissy is publishing a map of Kenilworth that will raise the money needed to pay for the security and clean up services. She called on Renna Media to do the production and distribution. 10,000 maps will be printed with 3,500 to be mailed to every household and business in Kenilworth; the balance will be given to advertisers so that they may distribute them to customers.

One side of the 22" x 18" full color piece has an official street map of Kenilworth. The other side will have a hand drawn illustration of the Boulevard from the Parkway to the High School. Kenilworth businesses that advertise will be identified on the map as well. This keepsake will also contain other helpful information.

Ad space is limited, so businesses are encouraged to call Cissy Gialanella 201-998-6311 before all spots are filled.

MEMO FROM THE MAYOR

The annual carnival was a huge success. The wonderful weather made for a perfect week. On behalf of the volunteer members of the fire department and rescue squad thank you to all of the friends and volunteers who helped run the booths and games. Thank you to all those who came and enjoyed the week of rides, games and food. The proceeds from the carnival help the organization with their great work.

On September 11, 2012 at 6:00 p.m., the Borough will once again remember those who lost their lives at the World Trade Center, the Pentagon and in a field in Shanksville, Pennsylvania. The ceremony will be held at the memorial in front of Borough Hall.

The annual Historical Society community garage sale will be held on October 6 and 7, 2012. Permit applications can be obtained at the clerk's office at Borough Hall. The fee is $10.00.

The community garage sale has been very successful for the Historical Society and those holding sales. Everyone who registers will have their address listed in a booklet which will be distributed to all shoppers. Check the Borough web site, www.kenilworthborough.com for more information.

KENILWORTH PUBLIC LIBRARY TO PRESENT GETTING PUBLISHED: 10 THINGS EVERY WRITER SHOULD KNOW

The Kenilworth Public Library will offer "Getting Published: 10 Things Every Writer Should Know," a presentation by New Jersey author Jon Gibbs, at 7:00 PM on Thursday evening, September 20, in the library's activity room. The program will focus on the rapid rate of change in the publishing world and on how the development of e-books, e-zines and self-publishing have led to more opportunities for writers than ever before. Gibbs will focus on ways writers can make the path from creation to publication easier for themselves, including ways to improve your work and, for those looking to follow the traditional publishing route, ways to get that acceptance letter much faster.

Born in England, Jon Gibbs now lives in New Jersey, where he is "author in residence" at Lakehurst Elementary School. A member of several writing groups, including Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators, he's also the founder of NJAuthorsNetwork.com and FindAWritingGroup.com. His blog, An Englishman in New Jersey (<http://jongibbs.livejournal.com>) is read in more than thirty countries. His debut novel, Fur-Face (Echelon Press) a middle grade fantasy about unusual friendships, unlikely alliances, and wanting to fit in, was nominated for a Crystal Kite Award. The sequel, Barnum's Revenge, is scheduled for publication in 2012.

This program is free and open to all members of the general public. Because space is limited, preregistration is required and can be done at the library or by calling 908 276-2451 during regular library hours.

LIBRARY CELEBRATES 10-YEAR BOOK CLUB ANNIVERSARY

Ten years ago a Kenilworth Library patron suggested to Library Director Dale Spindel that a book discussion group be formed. The roots were planted when three participants met to discuss the group's first book, Tell Me a Riddle, by Tillie Olsen in August 2002. The group soon blossomed. The group read two books in 2002, 7 in 2003 and has been holding steady with 9 books annually in recent years. The group, which consists of both Kenilworth residents and out of towners, is currently reading their 89th book. Participation fluctuates with each book, anywhere between 8 and 18 people show up to meetings, which are held about every six weeks.

Participation in the book group is free and open to all members of the public age 18 and up. Previous experience in a book group is not required and new members are always welcome.

The book group of the Kenilworth Public Library will meet at 7:15 PM on Tuesday, October 2, in the library's activity room. Book title: We Need to Talk About Kevin, by Lionel Shriver

Published in 2003 and winner of the 2005 UK-based Orange Prize for best English language novel by a female writer, Shriver's book was adapted into a feature film of the same name in 2011. Told from the point of view of Kevin's mother through a series of letters written to her husband, the details of Kevin's difficult childhood, culminating in a massacre he perpetrates at his high school, are gradually revealed to the reader. Like Kevin's mother, readers will be left pondering the underlying motivations for Kevin's actions.

Because space is limited, preregistration is requested and can be done in person at the library or by calling 908 276-2451 during regular library hours. Copies of We Need to Talk About Kevin will be available for check out at the circulation desk and people from other communities should inquire regarding ways they may be eligible to register for library privileges.

FRIENDS OF THE KENILWORTH LIBRARY HAS NEW PRESIDENT

(above) In August over a dozen participants gathered at the Library to celebrate the Book Group's 10-year anniversary. A pot luck dinner was followed by a discussion about the group.

KENILWORTH LIBRARY IS PARTNERING TO SERVE THE PRINT DISABLED

The Kenilworth Public Library and The New Jersey State Library Talking Book & Braille Center (TBBC) have partnered to bring TBBC's no-cost services to the residents of Kenilworth. Anyone who has difficulty reading standard print or has trouble either holding a book or turning the pages of a book may be eligible. Once registered for the program with TBBC, residents will be able to select from a variety of no-cost services that includes audiobook player, audiobooks, braille books, downloadable audiobooks and audio magazines, and news reading services such as audiovision and Newline.

As part of this partnership, the Kenilworth Public Library is offering free, pre-loaded flash drives of digital audiobooks to eligible residents. Those eligible can choose from a flash drive of bestsellers, mysteries or romances.

"This initiative will help us expand the services of the Talking Book and Braille Center to new, underserved populations in New Jersey," said Adam Szczepaniak, director of TBBC. "It will help to make a difference for those who, for whatever reason, have difficulty reading printed material."

Library staff will be available to help explain the eligibility criteria for TBBC's services, provide applications and explain the application process. They will offer a flash drive to those eligible and instruct them on how to use it on the digital audiobook player provided by TBBC.

"It is important that people who love to read are made to understand that a loss of vision or physical dexterity is no longer something that has to stand between them and the enjoyment of their favorite authors," said Kenilworth Public Library Director Dale Spindel. "The staff of TBBC has effectively deputized us in their efforts to reach out to everyone whose lives can be made better through access to their services."

KENILWORTH LIBRARY TO SCREEN DOCUMENTARY, IN SEARCH OF HAYDN

In a continuing series of documentaries by British filmmaker Phil Grabstein, the Kenilworth Public Library is pleased to host one of the only US screenings of his latest film, In Search of Haydn, at 6:30 PM on Thursday, September 27, in the library's activity room. Although less of a household name today than either Mozart and Beethoven (the subjects of two previous films by Grabstein), Franz Josef Haydn achieved more critical acclaim and financial success during his lifetime than either of these two younger composers, both of whom were acquainted with Haydn during their lifetimes. Credited as the father of both the modern string quartet and symphony, Haydn's status as a giant of classical music is secure, even in spite of the fact that his music remains mostly unknown to the general public.

Admission to this showing of In Search of Haydn is free and open to all members of the general public. However, because space is limited, preference in registration will be given to residents of Kenilworth; if space permits, registration will open to residents of other communities on Tuesday, September 25. Registration can be done in person or by calling the library at 908 276-2451.

LIBRARY FEST FUN

The Third Annual Library Fest was recently held at the Kenilworth Public Library to celebrate the conclusion of the 2012 Summer Reading Club. Children and their families participated in an interactive evening which included circus activities presented by The Give & Take Jugglers, and a magic show, presented by Francis Menotti.

Somerset Patriot's mascot, Sparkee the Dog, Bjorn, the unofficial mascot of the Kenilworth Public Library, and his owner, Councilman Scott Klinder also were on hand to greet the children.

Each child received a balloon sculpture designed especially for them by Wings of Magic balloon artists.

The Kenilworth Public Library also recently announced that David Murphy was the winner of the 2012 Library Mystery Photo Contest. The winner was one of many patrons who identified all the mystery photos correctly. All correct entries were entered into a raffle, and the winner received a $25.00 Barnes & Noble Gift Card.

LOCAL SINGER MOVING UP ON THE CHARTS

It's never too late to live your dream as vocal artist Leah Kamiya of Roselle Park, who's parents live in Kenilworth, is discovering. Leah's recent release of "Because the Night" has been climbing steadily in the last month on the FMQB National AC chart. It entered the chart at #145 and, as of mid-August, it is now #25. FMQB airplay tracking is of great use to artists/labels because: It tracks commercial radio (as opposed to non-commercial/college radio.) It includes small to medium radio stations (an essential pulse of America's radio markets).

Leah takes this Bruce Springsteen/Patti Smith hit to a whole new creative level with her lilting, acoustic version of this well-known song. Raised on an inspiring dose of Pat Benatar, Natalie Merchant, Madonna and Shakira, the Japan-born, Jersey-bred singer and performer discovered her calling early, at age 13 to be exact, when she set foot in a Tokyo studio to record tracks for TDK Electronics, where her grandfather was vice president at the time.

Arranged and produced by Joe Kurasz on the Ren Music record label, Leah's version of "Because the Night" was recorded at the New Jersey Center for Media Arts in Linden. Her video can be seen on www.njcfma.com.

Wanting to touch people through music, Leah has worked hard to develop her talents in multiple styles of dance and voice. Only recently has she been able to turn her dreams into reality with this recording and video.

For more information or to arrange for interviews or personal appearances, please contact Ren Music at 908-925-1908.

WITH THE OPENING OF THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR COMES PROGRESS

Dr. Scott Taylor, Assistant Superintendent, Kenilworth Public Schools

The start of the 2012-2013 academic year is a marker of how far the Kenilworth School District has come in promoting positive change that is focused on student achievement. This is what students and parents can expect to see when they come back to school on September 6:

The "story" of a child told-

Student performance information, culled from standardized test scores, an in-house assessment tool called Measures of Academic Progress (MAP), and end-of-year unit tests are now warehoused in the district's student information system. Every teacher has access to his/her student's performance since the data has been collected. Ultimately, the warehouse will be populated with years worth of performance information that will enable teachers to look at the history of the child's abilities over vast periods of time.

Implementation of high quality curricula now aligned to the rigorous national standards-

Harding Elementary School teachers will be using a new math program called Go Math that is aligned to the Common Core Standards. A school-wide emphasis will be on providing individualized instruction in small group settings which will allow for the differentiation of instruction on a much greater scale. The high school's math and language arts curricula have been aligned to the national standards as well. Students served in both subject areas will be using new textbooks and a more diverse collection of high-interest novels. In the area of history, a greater focus will be placed on Kenilworth history as the social studies department in the district revised its Grades 7-11 program. The capstone course for this program will have every Kenilworth young adult engaged in critical analysis of current issues around the world in a class called "Global Studies." Other curricula revised this year are the middle school's Quest Program (a social-emotional skills building class) and the Harding Elementary School gifted and talented program.

Start of two important programs to meet individual student needs-

The Brearley Middle-High School will launch two programs that target young adults' specific learning requirements and career interests. The Alternative Classroom Experience (ACE) will help adolescents recover high school credit they did not acquire during the regular school day. The Kenilworth Scholars' Academy will enroll Grades 7-9 students looking for a "university-level" experience with a focus on the science, technology, engineering, mathematics and art fields (STEM-A).

Deployment of iPads and document cameras throughout the district-

To ensure Kenilworth's children and young adults are prepared to enter the 21st Century workforce, the school district will be engaging them with the same technology they'll use "on the job" when they graduate Brearley High School. Over 100 iPads are being distributed to classrooms in all three schools and more than 60 document cameras (devices that project anything placed under a high resolution digital camera) will be given to teachers and students so that the visual learning experience is greatly enhanced in all content areas.

I invite Kenilworth's residents to call my office or email me to learn more about the long-range plans the district has put in place to turn the town's schools into world class institutions.

The district's website also provides information that elaborates on what has been described in this article. You can access the site by going to www.kenilworthschools.com, clicking "Departments" and the "Curriculum, Instruction, and Professional Development".

KENILWORTH CLASSIC CAR SHOW

(above) The Kenilworth Classic Car Show was held in July. A special award called the "Mayor's Trophy" was presented by Police Chief Kenneth Grady to Mr. Barry Johnstone of Kenilworth and his 1967 Chevrolet Corvette.

There were numerous trophies awarded at the 1st Annual Pride in Kenilworth & Kenilworth Veterans Center Hot Rods & Classic Car Show held in July along with the Best in Show Award going to John Sierant of Kenilworth with his 1967 Chevelle. "The show was a complete success even with the threat of rain hanging over our heads all day. We had 67 cars register with a few more that came in late due to the overcast of clouds, We expected close to 100 cars and if the sun had come out, we would have reached that number with no problem." Chief Grady stated.

The following merchants donated door prizes that helped make the event a success:

The Atlantic Beach Soap Company, Kenilworth VFW, Mike's Luncheonette, Mike and Annie's Ice Cream, The Greek Store, Kenilworth Diner, Southside Café, Installations Unlimited, Ralph's Italian Ices, Kenilworth Garden Center, BuyWise Auto Parts, Especially Yours Flowers, Big Apple Pizza, Bella Palermo Pastry Shop, NAPA Auto Parts, Carracino's Auto & Light Truck Service, Better Auto Care, Jimmy Buff's, Pro Tour Cycle Shop, Esmar Auto Repair, Peerless Beverage, NorthEast Tire.

"The main reason the car show was a success was the "Car Guys" who brought their cars to our show. They have a huge investment in these cars and love to show them off. Car shows are the premiere way for different automotive and performance enthusiasts to interact and share thoughts and ideas. I want to thank all of them for participating in the first annual Classic Car show in Kenilworth" said Chief Grady.

A COMMUNITYWIDE GARAGE SALE WILL BE HELD IN KENILWORTH OCT 6 & OCT 7, 2012.

This major event, sponsored by the Kenilworth Historical Society, will take place, rain or shine, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. each day. Nearly 200 residences participated in Kenilworth's Communitywide Garage Sale last fall, and this year's participation is expected to equal or exceed that of last year.

Residents who register and pay a $10 fee to hold garage sales at their homes anytime during the Oct. 6/Oct. 7 weekend will receive a certificate representing the Borough's permission to proceed and will benefit from the Kenilworth Historical Society's statewide advertising of the communitywide event via major newspapers, Web sites and prominently placed signage and fliers.

The addresses of registered participating residences will be included in a Kenilworth Communitywide Garage Sale listing and map that will be available in quantity, free of charge, at the Kenilworth A&P Customer Service desk (801 Boulevard), Borough Clerk's Office (567 Boulevard), Public Library (548 Boulevard), and Especially Yours Florist (13 N. 20th Street) after Oct. 3.

Communitywide Garage Sale registration forms with instructions may be obtained at the Kenilworth Borough Clerk's Office/Borough Hall, Public Library and Especially Yours Florist. The registration deadline is Sept. 26.

For further information, please call 908-709-0434.

The Kenilworth Historical Society is sponsoring the Communitywide Garage Sale as a service to the community. Any proceeds after Borough permit fees, advertising and other related costs are paid will benefit the organization's ongoing project to restore the 19th-century Oswald J. Nitschke House and transform it into Kenilworth's first "living history" museum and cultural arts center.

EDITH BIRD, OF SISTERS, OREGON PASSED AWAY

Edith S. Bird
September 30, 1918 -
August 3, 2012

Edith was born September 30, 1918 in Cerrito Sannita, Italy to Francesco and Rosalee Savelli. Her family immigrated to the United States through Ellis Island the same year and settled in Bayonne, New Jersey, where her father made and repaired shoes.

She met her husband, Henry Bird, when she went to a dance where he was performing as a musician, and they were married in 1941. In 1948, they moved to Kenilworth, New Jersey. Her husband passed away in 1966 and Edith continued to live there until 2000, when she moved to Sisters to be closer to her daughter Pam.

Edith was an avid knitter. She also loved to read, play cards, solve various types of puzzles and work in her yard. She served as a SMART reader at Sisters Elementary School and looked forward to seeing her friends every week at the Seniors' lunch.

She is survived by her daughter Pam Bird and son-in-law David Hewett.

Donations can be made to Partners In Care, Hospice of Bend, Oregon.

Trinitas Leads the Nation in Creating Educational Environments That Support Nursing Excellence!

Trinitas Regional Medical Center is the first healthcare institution in the nation to receive not one but two Center of Excellence designations from the National League for Nursing, the pre-eminent organization in the country for promoting quality nursing standards and initiatives.

The Trinitas School of Nursing is a repeat recipient of the NLN's Center of Excellence designation in the category of "Creating Environments that Enhance Student Learning and Professional Development." This honor was followed just recently by another accolade, Center of Excellence recognition of Trinitas in the category of "Creating Workplace Environments that Promote Academic Progression of Nurses." Trinitas is one of three hospitals in the United States to attain this second honor, which recognizes our significant achievements in providing nursing staff with opportunities for academic advancement, enabling nurses to use their new knowledge to improve patient care and outcomes.

This dual honor means that Trinitas nurses – both those in basic nursing education as well as those established in their careers – can benefit from programs that have been recognized as the best in the field. And that is very good news for our patients!

Proud graduates of the Trinitas School of Nursing, Class of May 2012, join a long line of expertly educated nurses going back to 1891.
