COX PRINTERS HONORED AS SMALL COMPANY OF THE YEAR BY GATEWAY REGIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Cox Printers was recently honored at the 101st Annual Awards Dinner of the Gateway Regional Chamber of Commerce. The Linden Chamber of Commerce is an affiliate of the Gateway.

Located in Linden, Cox Printers has been a family run business since 1907. Fred and Sally Kaufman purchased the business from the Cox family in 1984. At that point their son, Michael Kaufman was in his junior year at Rochester Institute of Technology studying for his BS in Printing Technology & Management. During the earlier years, in true family run business fashion, not only was Fred, Sally and Michael working day and night, but Sally's parents would also be called upon often to assist with various tasks. Today along with Michael's wife, Jill Kaufman, "The real boss" as Michael calls her, is an integral part of the daily operations. Dare there be a snow day or other interferences, a number of employees have been known to bring in their children into the office...who are of course immediately put to work.

The overall philosophy at Cox Printers is "Adapt or Die"; with their products, services, technologies and the culture. The assortment of products and services they provide is driven by their customers. They are consistently listening to their customers and always trying to seek new ideas and solutions to meet their needs. Their reputation is paramount; Cox Printers believes in honest and ethical business practices, and remain true to maintaining a balance in life...family first! The employees at Cox are some of the finest individuals, working as a cohesive team and supporting one another on every project to insure their customers are being taken care of properly, and in a timely manner.

Cox Printers customers are both national and international, but most of them are right here in the New York / New Jersey Metro Region. Their customers range from the small office with just a few people to some of the most prestigious brand names in today's business world. Their capabilities and niches serve their customer's needs impeccably.

Cox Printers believes in the environment, and are as "GREEN" as any printer can claim to be. With their own solar array, wind turbines, low-energy light fixtures, roof garden, as well as the recycling of thousands of pounds of paper monthly, they truly practice what they preach.

PROJECT HELPING HANDS, MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY OF SERVICE

Linden residents participated in Linden's Project Helping Hands held on January 21st, a national event to commemorate Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. once said, "Life's most persistent and urgent question is: 'What are you doing for others?'"

Linden Councilman Derek Armstead joined Americans from all across the country in answering the President's national call to service initiative and organized the Linden event. It calls for Americans from all walks of life to work together to provide solutions to our most pressing national problems. Volunteers registered online for the Linden MLK Day of Service Event using the Presidential Inaugural Committee National Day Of Service website and joined Councilman Armstead in sorting through clothes donated and collected for families in need in Linden. According to Armstead, "As a community leader I have learned that change happens when individuals take responsibility for one another and their communities. He added, Project Helping Hands MLK Day of Service was created as a way of transforming Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s life and teaching into community actions. It is never too early to start teaching our children to take responsibility not only for themselves, but for other people. The young people who participated in this community project learned the importance of community service and how their actions impact other families."

G&T STUDENTS FOLDS ORIGAMI BIRDS

The Linden Elementary Gifted and Talented program draws students from all schools. Grade 1 G&T students from Stephanie Webb's class created different types of origami birds after reading the Caldecott Medal-winning book, "Hey, Al."

The students learned about the Chinese art of paper-folding, which originated in the year 100 A.D, and carefully followed directions to create their birds. In the story, Al travels to an island full of different types of birds.

STUDENTS TOUR THE APOLLO THEATER, NYC

On January 16, 2013 the ESL students of Myles J. McManus Middle School had the opportunity to take a tour around the Apollo Theater in New York City. This year students have been taking an expedition through time to recall a specific moment in their life; students have been retelling their stories by writing their personal memoirs. These memoirs have allowed students to look at a specific moment in their life and to reflect on their New Beginnings and new found points of view. This year students given a tour of the Apollo Theater in New York City to share the story behind the theater, how the theater has taken on a history and story in which many peoples' lives have changed during different time periods. The Theater has its own memoir and story of how history has been made through song and dance. Students had a chance to experience the highlight tour, which lead students through inquiry-based learning; students develop an understanding of the Apollo Theater's history from its opening show in 1934 up through the 21st century. Students had an opportunity to participate in their own "mock" Amateur Night and present their memoirs on the actual Apollo Theater stage.

LINDEN POLICE HIRE 6 OFFICERS

On January 10, 2013, six new police officers were sworn in to the ranks of the Linden Police Department as family, friends, and colleagues looked on. The new officers will attend 20 weeks of training at the Union County Police Academy. The new hires were made in anticipation of a number of retirements from the department this year and to keep the complement of officers needed to service the residents of Linden.

VACANT HOME BURGLARIES

Submitted by

Acting Chief James M. Schulhafer.
Linden Police Department

Recently three vacant homes in Linden have been burglarized where thieves stole the copper piping, apparently to scrap the valuable metal for cash. According to one scrap yard, copper is going for $3.01/lb.

Many vacant homes are being managed by real estate agencies and when they periodically show up at the homes, they are discovering the houses have been forcibly entered and the copper piping cut and removed.

The Linden Police Department is asking all its residents to be aware of vacant homes in their neighborhoods, and if they see any suspicious activity at the homes, to call the police.

If they believe there is a crime in-progress, they can call 9-1-1.

LINDEN HIGH SCHOOL CAD/CAM STUDENTS DESIGN RECYCLOSAURUS

Linden High School students in the CAD/CAM program work on an Independent Design Project. Students must come up with a design problem, outline the criteria that need to be fulfilled in order to solve the problem, do independent research to better understand the problem and to intelligently generate different design solutions, then make a functional prototype or model of their chosen solution. Lastly, students must evaluate not only their design solution, but also their process. Pictured is Jorge Delgado. His project is to design a recycling container for children that makes recycling fun. To that extent, his design is a dinosaur - so by recycling students can "feed the recyclosaurus." This will help cement good habits early in life so students would be more apt to recycle later on.

NUSTAR MAKES THE LIST OF 100 BEST COMPANIES TO WORK FOR, FOR THE FIFTH YEAR IN A ROW

NuStar Energy L.P. (NYSE: NS) announced today that for the fifth year in a row, it made FORTUNE's list of the 100 Best Companies to Work For, coming in at #38.

NuStar is one of only five energy companies on the magazine's 16th annual top employer list, along with Hilcorp Energy Company, Chesapeake Energy, Devon Energy and EOG Resources, and one of only three San Antonio-based companies, including Rackspace and USAA.

"Of course, it's our employees who make NuStar such a great place to work," said Curt Anastasio, President and CEO of NuStar Energy. "We are deeply appreciative of all that they do day in and day out to operate our business safely and reliably and position our company for the future."

"Our employees worked very hard last year to help forge a new strategic direction for NuStar. And we are excited about our outlook for the future, as we are expanding our presence in the lucrative Eagle Ford Shale through some major transactions and expansion projects in the region, and we have many other internal growth projects that also have great rates of return. And what's really exciting is that we have so many more great opportunities for growth that we believe will be transformative for NuStar in the coming years," he said.

Some of the considerations in NuStar's selection for the 100 Best honor include the company's employee benefits plan, which has been rated the best in its industry by Hewitt Associates; its reward and recognition programs; commitment to volunteerism and charitable giving; and special corporate culture. NuStar, which has a voluntary turnover rate of only 3 percent, offers all-employee bonuses; a retirement savings plan that includes a 401(k) match of 100 percent up to 6 percent of pay and a company-funded retirement plan; company-paid health and welfare benefits that are 100 percent funded for employees and their families; a health and wellness program; and much more. The company also has never had a layoff in its history, and instills in employees the philosophy that if they do a good job, they will always have a good job.

According to FORTUNE, Google claims the No. 1 spot for the second year in a row and the fourth time overall. Find out more about the new issue here: <http://bit.ly/W5HB0n>. To see the full list, download FORTUNE's free iPad app here: <http://bit.ly/13nvAsi>.

The February 4th issue of FORTUNE goes on sale on Monday, January 21.

Methodology for the "100 Best Companies to Work For" List

To pick the 100 Best Companies to Work For, FORTUNE partners with the Great Place to Work Institute to conduct the most extensive employee survey in corporate America: 259 firms participated in this year's survey. More than 277,000 employees at those companies responded to a survey created by the institute, a global research and consulting firm operating in 45 countries around the world. Two-thirds of a company's score is based on the results of the institute's Trust Index survey, which is sent to a random sample of employees from each company. The survey asks questions related to their attitudes about management's credibility, job satisfaction, and camaraderie. The other third is based on responses to the institute's Culture Audit, which includes detailed questions about pay and benefit programs and a series of open-ended questions about hiring practices, methods of internal communication, training, recognition programs, and diversity efforts. After evaluations are completed, if news about a company comes to light that may significantly damage employees' faith in management, FORTUNE may exclude it from the list. Any company that is at least five years old and has more than 1,000 U.S. employees is eligible.

PAWS PROGRAM

Linden High School staff is recognizing their student's positive behaviors one tiger PAW at a time. The PAWS program was introduced during the 2011-2012 school year. Students are acknowledged for their positive interactions between the faculty and staff, demonstrating positive peer leadership actions, and going above and beyond in showing respect and common courtesy.

STUDENTS DRESS FOR SUCCESS ON TIE DAY

School No. 6 5th grade student Kevin Medina in Mrs. Secor's class recently wore a tie with his school uniform. It made him "look fancy" according to his 5th grade peers. Kevin asked if he could organize a "tie day" for the 5th grade in the near future to promote self-confidence and model success.

Source: Informa Research Services, Inc., Calabasas, CA. www.informars.com. Although the information has been obtained from the various financial institutions as of January 29, 2013, the accuracy cannot be guaranteed as these financial institutions may change their programs and rates at any time. <sup>3</sup>Annual Percentage Yields (APYs) are accurate as of publication date and are subject to change without notice. The minimum balance to earn the stated APY for the 7 month or 14 month Liquid CD is $2,500. The interest rate remains fixed until maturity. Fees could reduce earnings. In order to qualify for the stated APYs, you must either have or open a core account (checking, savings, or money market account). If you do not have an existing core account and will be opening a new core account, you must open the core account on the same day that you open the CD. The CD must be opened with new money not currently on deposit with the Bank. Advantage Banking customers who open one of these advertised CDs will receive the stated APYs and will not receive the additional APY increase as part of their Advantage Banking Relationship package. <sup>4</sup>A penalty may be imposed for withdrawals before maturity. The penalty will be waived if the withdrawal is made after the first six days of the account term or after the first six days following any partial withdrawal. The bank is not responsible for typographical errors. Offer may be withdrawn at the discretion of the bank at any time.

HIGH SCHOOL SWIM TEAM RESTORED TO FULL FORCE

The Linden High School Swim Team was cut in 2010 in the face of massive state aid reductions. This year the team was restored and Linden High School students have responded in large numbers. Swimming is a coed sport during the winter season.
