RACE AROUND RAHWAY OFFERS FAST FUN

Submitted by Colin Gittens

The Second Annual Race Around Rahway, an event similar to scavenger hunts and television's "Amazing Race" program, will take place on Saturday, May 5, beginning at 11 am. But in order to have a race, there have to be competitors, and this is where you come in. The race is sponsored by the Friends of the Rahway Public Library and is held as part of Rahway Day celebration.

To participate, you will need to assemble a team of 2-4 individuals who enjoy puzzle solving and don't mind some vigorous physical activity. On the day of the race, teams are given a series of clues that require traveling about downtown Rahway, deciphering riddles, collecting objects and information, and perhaps taking photographs with a digital camera to prove you visited each spot. Then, teams must return to the starting point before any of the others. Competing teams can display their unity and spirit by dressing alike or in outrageous fashion, and they will likely be tearing about the city in this race against time.

The race begins and ends at the Library and takes approximately 2 hours to complete, and last year, nearly 20 teams competed. Families, coworkers, and students put together teams, and the result was camaraderie, competition, and a whole lot of fun. The cost for a 4-member team is $24; 3 members, $18, and a 2-member team is $12.

Preregistration is encouraged, and registration forms are available by e-mailing RaceAroundRahway@gmail.com or calling 848-628-4450, or can be picked up at the Library's reference desk. Additional race information will be provided on the race's Facebook page (Rahway Race).

RAHWAY DAY CELEBRATION ON MAY 5TH

Written by: Carmen McLendon and Jasmine Leake

Tables are filling up fast for the Rahway Chamber of Commerce sponsored "Rahway Day." The 1st Annual Community Celebration and Event will be held on Saturday, May 5th, 2012, from 10am - 2pm. It is an all-inclusive home town experience where the new and longtime residents can enjoy all that Rahway has to offer in one place. Rahway Day will be hosted by and held at the Rahway Public Library facility, utilizing the interior and exterior of the modern facility, rain or shine.

From local performers to nationally recognized presenters, the talented participant list is growing. (Just a few examples: the Jerseyaires will be singing and long time Rahway resident, J. Simone, will be performing Spoken Word.) If you would like to secure a coveted spot for Rahway Day, please contact us at RahwayDay@RahwayChamberofCommerce.com. We are currently accepting additional presenters or sponsors in the following categories for our "Hot Topic" panel: Health, Beauty and/or fitness, Zumba, Living Green, Debt Reduction, Decluttering, Healthy Cooking, Home Improvement, Couponing and Pet Care.

Sponsors should also use the above address to secure a table at the event. Volunteers are needed for check in, setup and breakdown. Thank you in advance for your support!

Message from the President

ON THE Q.T. . . MY DAILY "APPOINTMENT WITH BOB"

Today our society and most others in our world are faced with "electronic toy" addiction. If we don't have an electrical receptacle or internet connectivity close-by, we're feeling lost and anxious. I think we need to try to break this addiction and here are my two cents:

A moment ago I added into today's appointment book "Q.T." from 5:45pm till 6:15pm.

For about the last 15 years I've tried to set aside some "Q.T. or Quiet Time" each day. Most days now I manage to do it: some I don't. My "Appointments with Bob" give me a boost and a re-charge but most importantly I'm able to re-connect again with my inner life. Q.T. for me is my time of contemplation and prayer.

Sometimes during Q.T. I'll read a bit of something that's uplifting and then maybe just close my eyes and take a short nap. Other times I may listen to a piece of music that quietly moves me. Another time I'll hide out alone in my garden for half an hour. Then back to the grind....sometimes inspired and generally facing life with a bit more grace.

Being quiet and alone, if only for 30 minutes, is strange to many people. If it feels uncomfortable it's only because we're not used to it. Getting closer to yourself at first can be a little scary. I know as that was once the case for me.

We can strengthen our bodies and improve our minds but as our YMCA's have long taught, we need also to develop our spiritual side. So make an appointment with yourself each day for 30 minutes; turn that electronic device off; find a spot to be alone whether in quiet space at home or better still, a peaceful spot outside, and gently go inward. Now you're getting disconnected from the "fluff stuff" and getting re-connected to the "real stuff". You may be amazed at what happens.

So give Q.T. a try yourself but be careful.... it can be addicting.

“OPERATION TAKE BACK NEW JERSEY” SATURDAY APRIL 28TH 10AM TO 2PM

Rahway residents who want to rid their homes of potentially dangerous prescription drugs in a safe and non-hazardous manner will be able to do so on Saturday, April 28th, 2012. From 10:00 A.M. to 2:00 P.M., The Rahway Police Department will be hosting “Operation Take Back New Jersey” at the Rahway Police Headquarters, located at 1 City Hall Plaza Rahway.

Prescription drug abuse is rapidly becoming one of our nation’s greatest emerging drug problems and it is widely recognized that a majority of abused prescription drugs are obtained from home medicine cabinets.

According to the 2011 Substance Abuse and Mental Health Administration’s National Survey on Drug Use and Health, more than seven million Americans currently abuse prescription drugs. Additionally, the survey reported for the 3rd year in a row that prescription drugs are the 2nd most abused drug category behind only marijuana.

The goal of “Operation Take Back New Jersey” is to allow the citizens of New Jersey to deliver all of their unused, unwanted, or expired medications to law enforcement officials who can in turn dispose of these controlled substances in a safe and non-hazardous manner, preventing these pills from falling into the hands of juveniles or into the illicit market in our communities.

In addition to this growing drug problem, unused and expired prescription medications also represent a severe environmental hazard. Most individuals are not aware of methods to properly dispose of their unused medicine, often flushing them down the toilet or throwing them away; both potential safety and health hazards.

In 2011, Operation Take Back New Jersey was a tremendous success collecting over 14,400 pounds of potentially dangerous medications.

Nationwide the program collected 245,500 pounds of unwanted, unused or expired medication.

RAHWAY JERSEYAIRES PRESENT THEIR 54TH ANNUAL HARMONY FEST

The Rahway Jerseyaires, the all-male barbershop harmony chorus headquartered in Rahway, New Jersey, will present their 54th annual show, called "Music Makes Our World Go 'Round", on Sunday, April 22, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. at the beautiful Union County Performing Arts Center on Irving Street in downtown Rahway. The Jerseyaires have been a part of the community since 1954 and are one of over 750 chapters of the International Barbershop Harmony Society, the largest male singing organization in the world. They perform songs from all genres of music including Broadway, Contemporary, Patriotic, DooWop and traditional barbershop songs from the turn of the 20th century.

The show will feature the harmony of the acclaimed Jerseyaires, along with their chapter quartets. In addition, guest artists will include

"JUST 4", a comedy quartet of ladies from the Sweet Adelines International organization, and a championship contemporary a cappella group from Rutgers University called "THE ORPHANSPORKS". JUST 4 are former Region 15 (Sweet Adelines) medalists and will bring smiles to every person at the UCPAC on the 22nd. THE ORPHANSPORKS have been perennial competitors in the ICCA (International Competition of College Acapella), having placed 2nd in the Eastern Regional Competition in 2011. They have just completed their debut CD that will be released at the Rahway Jerseyaires Show. These two guest artists will round out an incredible afternoon of vocal music at the UCPAC.

Tickets can be purchased on the Jerseyaires web site at www.jerseyaires.org, or by contacting the Union County Performing Arts Center box office at (732)499-8226. Tickets are $20.00 and $30.00 (the $30.00 tickets include a reception prior to the show with the performers). Groups of 10 or more can call 973-592-7351 to receive a discount on their tickets.

April is National Harmony month celebrating the founding of the barbershop harmony society on April 11, 1938 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Jerseyaires are looking for men from the community above the age of 16 to join the Jerseyaires. No formal musical training is required, but any prospective members will be taken through a voice analysis.

For information about attending a rehearsal of the Jerseyaires, please call Musical Director Rich Taylor at 973-592-7351. Rich Taylor would be happy to talk to any group about having the Jerseyaires entertain their group or to perform at community events.

NOTABLE FIGURES TO COME OUT OF RAHWAY

4th in a series of articles related to Rahway History by city historian and Rahway Library research consultant, Al Shipley.

Over the years, I've made many presentations to groups interested in Rahway History and topics related to Rahway. I always conclude my talks by asking for questions from the group. One question I'm often asked is, "Who do you feel are the important or famous people who came out of this city?" The following is the list I usually give. Although one might be familiar with only two or three of the names, I think the accomplishments of these Rahwayites put them in a category of Rahway's finest.

Carl Sagan - World-famous scientist and author. A graduate of Rahway High School (Class of 1951) he is best known for his record breaking television series "Cosmos", based on his "best-seller" book of the same name. Sagan was involved in several of our country's space missions and was one of the early pioneers to study the "greenhouse effect."

Abraham Clark - signer of the Declaration of Independence and only member of congress to serve during the entire period of the Revolutionary War. Clark was reelected to congress three times and was chosen to represent New Jersey at the Philadelphia Convention in 1787. This famous statesman and patriot conducted business in Rahway, was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in the city, and is buried in the Rahway Cemetery. In 1848, fifty-four years after his death, the citizens of Rahway erected a twenty-two feet high obelisk in his memory which is located a short distance from his grave.

Milton Friedman - winner of the Nobel Prize in Economics in 1976, he became an important author whose theories are recognized throughout the world. On many occasions his advice was sought by American Presidents and their administrations. Friedman was the valedictorian of his class at Rahway High School in 1928.

Boland Brothers - the three Boland Brothers, Frank, Joe and James, gained national attention in the early 1900's by building and flying the first airplane over New Jersey on December 6, 1909. In 1912, Frank became the first pilot to fly over South and Central America. A scale model of the Boland tailless aircraft of 1910 is on exhibit in the Smithsonian Institution in Washington D. C.

John Frazee – one of the first and finest sculptors of monumental marble pieces in America. In 1831, Congress commissioned him to do the bust of Chief Justice John Jay which put him in the forefront of Washingtonian artists. Frazee would go on to complete busts of Benjamin Franklin, General Lafayette, John Marshall, Andrew Jackson and many other notable statesmen. His works have been featured in the National Portrait Gallery of the Smithsonian Institution.

Clifford Case – United States Senator for twenty-four years, 1954–1978. Prior to his terms in the Senate, he served in the House of Representatives for ten years. A liberal representative, he championed a wide range of social and civil-rights legislation. Senator Case was a lifelong adult resident of Rahway.

Carolyn Wells – author of 170 books, she was regarded as America's most famous woman mystery writer in the 1920's and 30's. Wells began her career in 1896 as a writer of children's stories and jingles and by 1910 her focus shifted to the mystery genre. Besides creating mystery novels, Wells was considered an authority on the craft of writing the mystery story.

Future issues of Our Town will feature each of these notable citizens in full articles.

SHARED EXPERIENCE

Former RHS student T-Kea Blackman looks to continue a career in broadcast journalism, inspired by her time at Rahway High School's "Kudos Broadcast Program" which was followed by exciting internships at TV 1 and BET's "Black Girls Rock!" while a student at Howard University. She visited Rahway High School to Share Her Success with students and her Former Teachers.

293 STUDENTS RECOGNIZED FOR HONOR ROLL

On Thursday, February 23, Rahway High School administrators and parents gathered in the school gymnasium to recognize the achievements of 293 students who had attained Honor Roll or High Honor Roll status. Principal Farinella addressed the students and parents and then Vice-Principals presented certificates to the students. Gifts were also raffled off to the students.

To recognize student achievement, the Rahway Board of Education has established these honor rolls. Pupils earning a marking period average between 94-100 with no grade below 87 attain High Honor Roll, while pupils earning a marking period average between 87-93 with no grade below 80 are placed on the Honor Roll.

Franklin School honors our school nurse, Mrs. Barbara Maher by awarding her "Staff Member of the Year." Not only is she a nurturing and exceptional nurse, but she is also a valuable team player at Franklin School. She organizes various training opportunities for staff. She conducts health and environmental preservation lessons with students throughout the year. She organizes and manages all the service projects that our school conducts with the community, such as "Lions Recycle for Sight," "Jeans for Teens," "Pennies for Patients," and "Mugs of Love." She promotes and facilitates all student poster contests, such as "Bicycle and Helmet Safety," "Drug Awareness," and "Dental Health Awareness." Mrs. Maher has also begun a collection for bottle tops of Coca-Cola Products. As the students collect an increasing number of bottle tops, Franklin School is rewarded with an item or additional resource to be used in our school. In addition, she is a member of our Sunshine Committee at school and helps organize events for staff recognition and congratulations, as well as quarterly staff breakfast gatherings. Mrs. Maher assists families with finding medical insurance and dealing with individual medical concerns and issues, including but not limited to, "Sight for Students." She also collects food and clothing for families in need. Undoubtedly, Mrs. Maher is not only a highly qualified nurse, but also an extraordinary woman and humanitarian. We are lucky to have her as a member of our staff, and appreciate all that she contributes to our "Franklin School Family."

HIGH SCHOOL '42ND STREET' IS HUGE SUCCESS

"Come and meet those dancing feet, on the avenue I'm taking you to... 42nd Street." Union County Performing Arts Center is the site where Rahway High School presented "42nd Street" during the weekend of March 30th. "42 Street" is a long-running Broadway musical that focuses on the efforts of Julian Marsh, the famous but dictatorial Broadway director, to mount a successful stage production of a musical extravaganza at the height of the Great Depression.

Rahway's Director, Alison Dooley was excited by this production, saying, "I am very blessed to have the opportunity to share my passion for Song & Dance with the students of Rahway and truly thankful to those that support my efforts and theatrical endeavors." One of her all-time favorite quotes comes from Julian Marsh, a character in this show, who says, "I'm talking about musical comedy, the two most glorious words in the English language!" Dooley says that she could not agree with him more!

BY ANY NAME IT'S STILL RAHWAY

FROM THE PAGES OF HISTORY BY B.E. BERNZOTT

The earliest mention of Rahway and the settlers residing or owning land there can be found in the records of Elizabethtown and Woodbridge Township. The two town boundaries met at Robinsons Branch of the Rahway River.

The land on the Woodbridge side of the Rahway River was known as Bridgetown or Lower Rahway. Rahway also included Milton and Leesville within the corporate limits of the city. The Indian name Rahwack was applied to the river and the land along side.

During the Revolution, Rahway was spoken of as [Spanktown]. There is an old wives tale as to the names origin. It is said; a matron was enraged by her aggravating husband and took issue with him that ended up in a test of endurance. As the story goes, "The Old Gray Mare proved the better horse; she subdued him and with her slipper administered the corporal punishment supposed to be reserved only for disobedient children."

OUR TOWN Rahway • Page 15 • April 2012

CHANGES TO THE MAP OF RAHWAY

Lower Rahway was a part of Middlesex County and Upper Rahway of Essex County which made it difficult for the residents where were governed by two cities. When the Woodbridge Township met on January 1701, it granted the privilege of building a pound for the lodgment of animals unlawfully running at large to a resident in the Woodbridge part of Rahway. Rahway is incorporated as a city on March 12, 1858 but it wasn't until an act of the legislature on February 16, 1860, that the part of Woodbridge included in Rahway was taken from Middlesex County and attached to Rahway. Rahway underwent two more changes before it became the Rahway it is today. First, Upper Rahway became part of a new Township of Linden. Then, in 1864, the farmers of Rahway's fifth Ward formed Clark Township.

NORTHFIELD BANK FOUNDATION SUPPORTS HELPING HANDS FUND

Northfield Bank Foundation has generously donated $8,000 to RWJ Rahway Foundation's Helping Hands Fund.

According to Marlene Lubinger, "Our Helping Hands Fund was established to assist uninsured and underinsured patients who cannot afford to pay for basic medical needs." This fund provides vital prescriptions, walkers, wheelchairs, tests and treatments, physician office visits, and transportation home or transportation to doctor appointments once they leave the hospital.

These patients may be clinic, outpatient or inpatients. Although some may qualify for charity care, charity care does not cover these needs nor include coverage for these necessary items or services after the patient leaves the hospital. Often, a patient's length of stay is longer because they cannot afford the necessary prescriptions or medical equipment to make the transition from hospital to home and continue their recovery.

Through the years, this fund has truly made a difference and has helped many people. In the past year, a 60-year-old woman was hospitalized and was totally paralyzed. The hospital successfully partnered with a local acute rehab facility to continue her care, and the transport costs were covered by the Fund.

In another case, the hospital was able to locate a dialysis slot for a single, unemployed male who required dialysis 3 times per week. The Helping Hands Fund covered his medications for 30 days until he would qualify for SSI or other programs.

Ms. Lubinger added, "The support for these needy patients is of tremendous benefit to them and helps to overcome insurmountable obstacles for their recovery."

In addition to the generous support from the Northfield Bank Foundation, the fund has received grants from the Lowell F. Johnson Foundation, The Nicholas & Anna Bouras Foundation, Bonaventura Devine Foundation and David & Margaret Clare Foundation.

In celebration of Arbor Day
Garden Club will show
Academy Award Winning Animation

"THE MAN WHO PLANTED TREES"

The Rahway Garden Club is pleased to invite all to their Thursday, April 19th monthly meeting which is free and starts at 7:pm at the Rahway Public Library.

A special feature will be the showing of the 30 minute Academy Award winning animation by Frederick Back, "The Man Who Planted Trees" in celebration of this Arbor Day on April 27th. The story written in 1974 by Jean Giono, is about the unique achievement of Elzéard Bouffier, a Provençal French shepherd who patiently reforests a barren piece of land. "When I think that one man, one body, and one spirit was enough to turn a desert into the land of Canaan, I find after all that a man's destiny can be truly wonderful. But when I consider the passionate determination, the unfailing generosity of spirit it took to achieve this end, I'm filled with admiration for this old, unlearned peasant, who was able to complete a task worthy of God" noted film critic Ron Reed.

The Rahway Garden Club has formed under the umbrella of the NJ Garden Club and is open to any area person who has a gardening interest. If you have a passion for flowers, vegetables, plants, trees or shrubs then this is the group for you to meet up with. Additional information can be obtained by calling 732-388-1765..

THE GARDEN AWAKES LAST FROST DATE IS MAY 10TH VEGETABLE, HERB & CONTAINER GARDENING

Although we have had a mild winter and early spring, our last frost date is still weeks away, May 10th. I know it is hard to resist the urge to get an early start on our favorite summer vegetables. It is even more frustrating when we see the local garden center stocking heat loving plants.

There are things that we can plant now that will be able to withstand the cold nights: lettuce, peas, beets and radish to name a few. These vegetables will be ready to harvest when the time arrives to plant warm weather veggies.

If you do decide to try to plant early you'll need to give your tender plants a lot of extra care and protection.

Thanks to the advancement of information on CONTAINER GARDENING, growing vegetables is now easier for folks with very limited space. A small terrace or back porch is enough room to supply tomatoes during the summer. The key to success is the correct container with drainage, good soil, at least six hours of sunlight a day, and the proper plant. You can have a good supply of medium sized tomatoes all summer long. More information can be found in the usual places, the Rahway Library, the Internet, and your local Rutgers Garden Helpline.

Those without the time to care for vegetables might like to consider planting a few of your favorite herbs. A few fresh basil leaves, a clipping of thyme or rosemary will add flavor to your meals and brighten your day.

Fresh parsley is easy to grow but it is the main host for the caterpillars of the beautiful Swallowtail Butterfly. If your parsley is disappearing look to see if it's being eaten by brightly colored green caterpillars. If it is, do what I do. Enjoy watching the life cycle as these caterpillars turn into butterflies and buy parsley when you need it for dinner.

Happy Gardening
