Downtown Rahway
All Welcome
Coffee & bagels on us!

IT'S ALMOST HERE! 2ND ANNUAL RAHWAY DAY IS MAY 4TH!

Rahway Day and its theme, "Think Rahway First," was conceived by the Chamber to showcase all that Rahway has to offer to our residents and businesses, while also welcoming newcomers to our town.

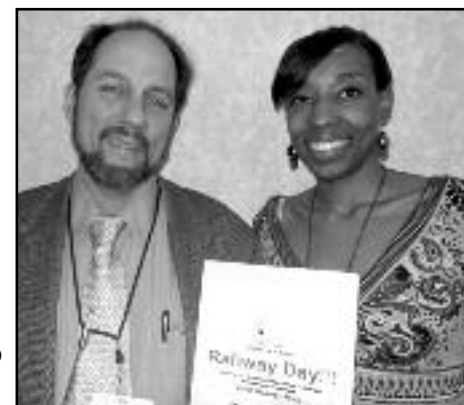

The grand event will take place on May 4, 2013, at our city's Library, from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m., rain or shine. The festive atmosphere will make this a great event for everyone. There are activities for all ages, including a moon bounce and face painter for the children.

Our anchor performer for the day will be Rahway's own Karickter, a Jazz-R&B duo of female vocal and guitar that provides stylish sophisticated music. Entertainment will also be provided by other local talent.

Our host for the event is the Rahway Public Library with the support of the Friends of the Rahway Library. As they did last year, The Friends will be running their 3rd annual "Amazing Rahway Race" in conjunction with the Rahway Day celebration. The race will begin at 11:00 a.m. that day, and the registration table can be found at Library Plaza. Registration forms can also be obtained by emailing amazingrahwayrace@yahoo.com.

The Rahway Chamber offers a huge thank-you to our generous sponsors:

- Busy Bee Childcare
- Cubesmart
- Johnson PR & Events
- Northfield Bank
- Paychex
- Rahway Dental Group
- Rahway Regional Cancer Center

CHAMBER ELECTS TOM BAYONE NEW PRESIDENT

The Rahway Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce that Tom "Mr. B" Bayone was elected as the incoming President of the Chamber at the General Membership meeting of March 28th.

Tom is the owner of Mr. B Printing located at 1850 Elizabeth Avenue, a landmark Rahway business for over 20 years.

Tom's Dad, Tony (the original Mr. B) started the business in 1979. Tom joined his Dad in 1987 and they have been working together ever since.

"I'm so happy that we moved to Rahway all those years ago. We've grown our business over time and had the opportunity to make many friends and establish hundreds of long-term clients. It's a great privilege for me to be at the helm of our Chamber and I look forward to meeting more Rahway business people in the years ahead." noted Tom.

Anyone interested in joining the Chamber or hosting a meeting can call Tom at 732-396-3990 and via email at tom@mrbprinting.com.

(above, l-r) Clea Carchia of Chameleon Design House, with new Chamber President Tom Bayone, was presented with an award for her dedication and outstanding service to the Chamber. Also honored that day for their service to the Chamber were Nate Albano, Hank Josephs and Bob Markey.

Message from the President

GREAT JOB, BOB!

I would like to take this opportunity in my first President's Message to acknowledge and thank our outgoing President Bob Markey. Many of you who know Bob will agree that his dedication to Rahway is second to none. Bob was the Chamber's first President in 1977 and President again in 1992. The Chamber dissolved for about 10 years (2000-2010) but was restarted again by - guess who? Bob Markey. Bob would be the first to tell you that it wasn't only him that got the Chamber back up and running, but the man is humble. Without Bob, the Chamber would still be a thing of the past. In 2010, Bob served as the Chairman of the newly re-formed Chamber. In 2011, he was once again (for the third time!) voted in as President. As Chairman, he spent countless hours spreading the word about the Chamber, and, much like the Pied Piper, businesses and organizations followed his lead. Regardless of what it was that motivated us to follow along, Rahway has benefitted and continues to benefit from Bob's effort to bring back the Chamber.

So where are we nearly 3 years later? I'm happy to say the Chamber is "thriving". We are growing in numbers, surpassing our original goal of 100 members and closing in on our next goal of 150 by the end of the year. We hold General Meetings every other month and Networking Events throughout the year. Last year we published the 7th edition of the Rahway Chamber of Commerce Business Directory, which has proved a valuable tool used by residents and businesses alike. Last year also brought our first ever Rahway Day. Rahway Day is a collaborative effort between the Chamber and the Friends of the Rahway Public Library and is a great way for residents to meet Rahway's businesses, public school officials, the mayor, city council and city departments, as well as churches, clubs and other residents. Our second annual Rahway Day will take place next month on Saturday, May 4th.

This month, in partnership with Union County College, the Chamber is offering FREE computer classes to our members. Next month, we will be recognizing a Rahway business as the Rahway Chamber of Commerce "BUSINESS OF THE YEAR."

While we all contribute to and are responsible for the success of the Chamber, it was Bob Markey who paved a path of a respectful and thriving Chamber. It is an honor for me to succeed Bob in this position.

Thank you for the job well done, Bob!

BOWTIES AND SUSPENDERS NOW TRENDING AT RAHWAY HIGH

Recently, two Rahway High School seniors, Colin Quinn and Tyler Recinos emulated a fashion trend begun by their teachers and came to school fashionably attired in bowties and suspenders. This followed the example shown during an evening production of "Dancing with the Staff" where senior teachers, Sonia Saadeh and Sara Obergfell won the award for best costume, with their top hats, suspenders, and bow ties. Even earlier, in December, teachers and interns had a special Bow Ties and Suspenders day and a number dressed in this spiffy manner. How encouraging to see students looking to their teachers for fashion sense.

ROBOTICS TEAM TAKES HOME EXCELLENCE IN ENGINEERING TROPHY

At the Mount Olive FIRST Robotics District Competition held March 23 and 24, Rahway High School Robotics Team 1228, Robotribe, qualified for the quarter finals in a field of 35 teams. They also received the Excellence in Engineering Award, sponsored by Delphi, for demonstrating and describing two different chosen machine features, their very accurate shooter and their speed climbing mechanism.

The goal of the 2013 FIRST competition is to create a robot that can play a game called Ultimate Ascent, where two alliances made up of three teams each score points by throwing Frisbees into specified goals, then the robots must climb a pyramid, and finally in the final thirty seconds, humans throw the Frisbees into the goals.

Rahway's next FIRST competition will be at Bridgewater High School on April 6 and 7. Team 1228 coaches are teachers Adam Slack, John Marks, Pat Gailliot, and district administrator Ray Candiloro.

IMPATIENS PROBLEM IN NEW JERSEY DOWNEY MILDEW DISEASE

By mid-summer of 2012 gardeners across New Jersey helplessly watched as our beloved impatiens, the colorful backbone of shade gardens, weakened, turned yellow, dropped their leaves, wilted and died.

By October it was confirmed that Downey Mildew disease had been confirmed in our landscapes. From Massachusetts to Florida; New Jersey to Missouri and even Southern California the impatiens failed. By the end of last year, 32 states reported Downey Mildew.

This disease, known as a "water mold" (formerly called a fungus) was quickly spread by spores. Unfortunately these spores overwinter in garden bed soil and can remain viable for years.

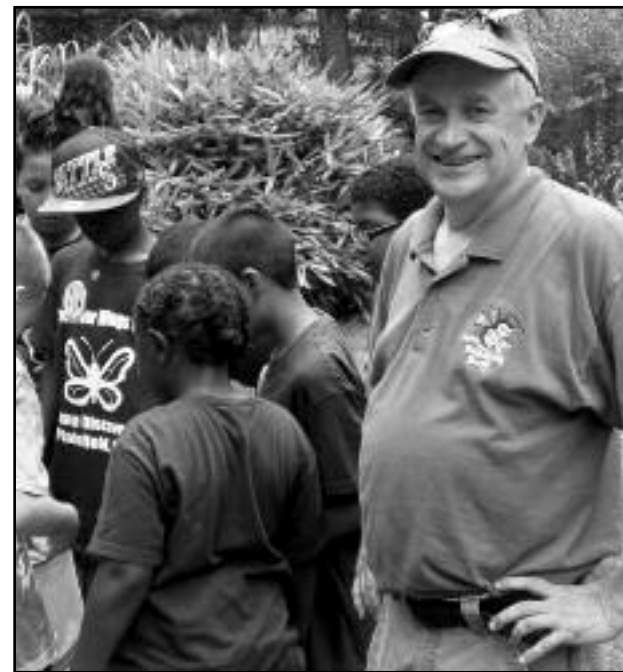

IT IS NOT RECOMMENDED WE PLANT IMPATIENS THIS YEAR.

A few garden centers and big chain stores plan to grow and sell impatiens this year. They are able to control the disease with fungicides in greenhouses which will wear off quickly once moved away. Even potted plants are not safe from the air-born spores.

Find an alternative to plant in your garden. New Guinea impatiens and Sunpatiens (Hybrid of regular & New Guinea) have a higher resistance to downy mildew. Coleus with colorful leaves, Begonias or Caladium would be a few good choices.

Find more information in the March edition of 'Gardeners News'. If you cannot find a copy at your local garden center you can read it online. The article is entitled 'Time to Start Thinking About Annuals in NJ'.

Although this is very disappointing to gardeners, it is a disaster to landscapers, greenhouses and seed companies. Researchers across the country and the Department of Agriculture are working to solve this problem as quickly as possible.

Rahway resident gardener "Extraordinaire" James Keane, has been researching and answering garden questions since 1995.

RAHWAY DAY MAY 5TH (10 A.M. TO 2 P.M.)

Visit our table. This year the Rahway Garden Club will display 'Plants For The 5 Senses' This will be educational for kids and fun for adults. Rutgers Masters Gardeners Of Union County will join us with a display of insects local to our area.

The Rahway Garden Club will meet Thursday April 18th at our Public Library.

UNIVERSITY RESEARCHER COLLABORATES WITH HIGH SCHOOL STAFF

On March 27, Professor Rebecca Dedmond of George Washington University spent the day working with Guidance Counselors and Freshman Transition Teachers at Rahway High School. Dr. Dedmond is the author of course standards used in the Freshman Transition initiative in its second year at the high school, and she has visited and worked with staff previously.

She reviewed with the staff what research has to show about improving not just the rigor of high schools, but the success of its students. Research shows that building relationships with students helps them set goals both academically and with regard to career planning. Such relationships help them focus on their futures and become internally motivated, connecting current actions with future goals.

MUSIC THROUGH THE AGES WAX MUSEUM

Each year, the fourth graders participate in a Wax Museum. The fourth grade teachers get together to pick a topic for the Wax Museum. Once the theme is decided, a letter is sent home to the parents explaining the theme and what is required of their child. This year our theme is Music through the Ages. Some of the artists represented are Frank Sinatra, Madonna, the Supremes, Elvis Presley, and John Bon Jovi. The decades depicted began with the 1930s to present day.

Once the student's topic is assigned, students are given acceptable web sites to do their research. Research and participation in the Wax Museum is a cross-curricula activity, and locating information is a difficult skill for some fourth graders. Their research hones in on their technology skills and enhances their information gathering skills, as well as skills in reading in the content area. Once all the information is organized, the students write a short biography about their person. The ability to apply research information to their writing is an important skill for success on the NJASK.

After weeks of research, writing and memorizing, the day finally arrives. Students are dressed in their costumes, and the auditorium is decorated according to the theme. Parent involvement is very much in evidence. Parents, community members and school administrators are invited to the museum. Our students really shine, especially with their public speaking skills. Our annual Wax Museum is always a highlight of fourth grade.

RAHWAY HIGH SCHOOL STAFF RAISES $600 TO HELP CHILD FIGHT BRAIN CANCER

On Thursday March 28, 2013, the final day of classes before the Spring break, Rahway High School staff worked together to raise over $600 for charity while gaining the privilege of wearing jeans. Each staff member donated $5 or more for medical care for four-year old Brooke Healey, a child diagnosed with Diffuse Intrinsic Pontine Glioma (DIPG), a rare and inoperable brain tumor. Faculty members also wore grey that day to show support since grey is the color for brain cancer awareness. Teacher Donna Gerardo, a friend of Brooke's family, coordinated this event with the support of the high school administration.

Follow Brooke's story at www.brookehealey.com.

RAHWAY HIGH SCHOOL CELEBRATES STUDENTS ON HONOR ROLL

Rahway High School recently held an Honor Roll celebration to recognize student accomplishments during the second marking period and on midterm examinations. All students meeting requirements for Honor Roll (198) and High Honor Roll (33) were invited as were their parents. During the celebration, students had an opportunity to receive gifts that were raffled off.

OUR ANNUAL BOOKSALE - WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

Submitted by Colin Gittens, President of the Friends of the Rahway Public Library.

Colin Gittens

Rahway Public Library is looking for!

No, we haven't gone off the deep end in our quest for new members. We're still the cheerful, levelheaded fundraising volunteers providing that little bit of extra support to our public library. But we do have something brewing that is perfect for anyone who fits the above description.

As part of the second annual Rahway Day on May 4, the Friends will once again be hosting "The Amazing Rahway Race." Styled after the television scavenger hunt programs that took America by storm not long ago, the race pits teams (of up to 4 people) against one other in a

Are you the curious sort? Competitive? Are you good with puzzles? Have you got a sense of derring-do? Are you willing to indulge in goofy fun? If so, you're exactly the sort of person that the Friends of the bid to solve clues hidden around downtown Rahway locations, collect evidence or proof of these visits, and then return to the starting point at the library.

For example, a clue from a previous race stated the following:

In order to find your next location, you must find the color placed on the electromagnetic spectrum between about 420 and 450 nm in wavelength.

The answer, of course (of course!), is Indigo, which when arrived at (with the help of a smart phone) occasioned a stampede to the downtown hotel!

Think you can handle it? Of course you can! Begin now by assembling your team (you can have 2-4 members); then pick up a registration form at the library's reference desk. More information on the race will continue to be posted until race day at the Facebook page (Rahway Race—please like it!), and you can also call 848-628-4450.

The race is fun for the whole family, and all profits go to the worthy goal of supporting the library and its programs. Plus, the cost is less than that of a movie ticket ($7/team member), or many other possible entertainments. At the risk of sounding like one of the clues from the race, "What are you waiting for?"

RAHWAY HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY TREATED TO A FRENCH CAFÉ DINING EXPERIENCE

During a recent school day extended for professional development workshops, the members of the faculty of Rahway High School enjoyed a lunch in the ambience of a Parisian café presented by the members of the school's French Club with the help of teacher/advisor Robert Kinch. Delicious authentic entrees like escargot (snails) in butter and strawberries drizzled in chocolate were complemented by mood music played by student pianist, Leon Chou.

KINDERGARTEN CLASS PARADES ON ELMER DAY

Students in Mrs. Peggy McGovern's kindergarten class at Roosevelt School in Rahway, celebrated Elmer Day after reading the book "Elmer" By David McKee. Students had a parade around the school. The story is about a bright-colored patchwork elephant. The surprise ending of this comical story is a celebration of individuality and the power of laughter.

LESSONS ON EGYPT

As a culminating activity for 6th graders at Roosevelt School in Rahway, students had the pleasure of listening to Khadra Elsakary speak about modern day Egypt during their social studies class. Mrs. Elsakary brought in examples of clothing, pyramids, and camel figurines to show the students. She was also wonderful in entertaining questions asked by students.

2012 SENIOR OF THE YEAR ANGELO A. SERVEDIO

Angelo Servedio has been chosen as Rahway Senior of the Year for 2012. Angelo was born in Elizabeth and moved to Rahway at the age of two. He graduated from Rahway High School and after graduation began an apprenticeship at Quinn & Boden as a printer.

After one year Angelo joined the U.S. Army Air Corp and worked on B17 and B27 bombers and P47 fighter planes as a mechanic. After his military service he returned to Quinn and Boden as a typesetter and later joined his father and brothers in the fuel oil business. He met and married Josephine Miele and they settled in Rahway where they raised their family of four boys. They were happily married for 58 years before she passed away. Angelo is the proud grandfather of 6 granddaughters, 2 grandsons and one great grandson.

Angelo has been very active in serving the community. He has been a member of the Retired Men's Club since 2001 and Chairman of the Sick and Welfare Committee since 2008. As Chairman he makes sure that all members receive a cheery get well card or a visit in the hospital. He keeps all members of the Men's Club informed of who is ill and reports on their recovery. Whenever other members of the club are in need of transportation, Angelo is ready to drive them. Angelo received the distinguished honor of being chosen "2010 Member of Year" presented by the Retired Men's Club.

Angelo makes it part of his routine to visit homebound seniors to see if they are okay and in need of anything. For seniors who cannot get to the library Angelo operates a mobile, circulating library. He makes himself available to anyone in need. He was a member of the Holy Name Society for 30 years and served as President before they disbanded. He is a member of AARP Rahway Chapter #607 where he has served as Vice President for the past two years. On the second Sunday of the month Angelo can be found helping out at Divine Mercy Parish's Sandwiches for the Homeless program.

These are some of the numerous reasons why Angelo A. Servedio has been chosen as Outstanding Rahway Senior Citizen of the Year for 2012. Angelo was presented with a Resolution at the City of Rahway Council meeting on April 8, 2013.

PAPER MILL PLAYHOUSE BROADWAY SHOW CHOIR

OUR TOWN Rahway • Page 15 • April 2013

Selects Two Rahway High School Students
Paper Mill Playhouse recently announced that those selected to its new Broadway Show Choir, a “tuition-free, audition-based, performance show choir” include Rahway High School Junior Shanice Scales-Williams and Sophomore Dion Grier. This choir of singer/dancers aged 16 to 22 will receive instruction from professionals and then will perform in the community at numerous events, culminating in opening Paper Mill’s Rising Star Awards.

For two students to be chosen from one high school is a testimony to the strength of the Rahway Arts program, which was recognized by the New Jersey Department of Education, the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, and the New Jersey Arts Education Partnership as a “Model School of the School of the Arts” – one of only 19 schools in the entire State of New Jersey – due to its exemplary programs offered in all four arts disciplines: dance, music, theatre, and the visual arts.

Rahway High School congratulates these two fine young musicians and their teachers.

(above) Shanice Scales-Williams and Dion Grier, chosen by audition for their singing and dancing skills, are attending weekly rehearsals and performing with the Paper Mill Playhouse Show Choir for the next five months.

RAHWAY REMEMBERS THE REGINA PLANT

The company had been awarded the Army/Navy "E" Award for Excellent and Efficient Efforts in the production of vital war materials on August 25, 1942. PHILLIPS 66 & INFINEUM CO-SPONSOR TRIBUTE TO WOMEN & INDUSTRY AWARDS DINNER

The YWCA of Central New Jersey and the YWCA of Eastern Union County's joint Tribute to Women & Industry (TWIN) Award is a nationally-recognized honor for women. Since creating the TWIN award 34 years ago, the YWCA has honored women in executive, managerial, and other professional roles who have made significant contributions in their fields. This important award recognizes successful women executives for their outstanding achievements and honors those companies that have provided opportunities for women to achieve their potential.

Phillips 66 Bayway Refinery and Infineum USA L.P. have been long-time supporters of TWIN, and have made generous donations as co-sponsors of the 34th Annual TWIN Awards Dinner, to be held on Monday, May 13, 2013, at the Hanover Marriott Hotel, Whippany, NJ at 6:00 p.m.

This year's theme - Women Empowering Women - captures the significant contributions of women in paving the way for other women to succeed in their chosen endeavor. "This event benefits the YWCA of Central New Jersey and the YWCA of Eastern Union County. Both YWCA's provide life-changing services for women, helping them achieve their potential," stated Jan Lilien, Executive Director, YWCA of Eastern Union County, and Dr. Gary Kirkwood, Chief Executive Officer, YWCA of Central New Jersey. "We gratefully thank Phillips 66 Bayway Refinery and Infineum USA L.P. for their support and commitment to the program, and their dedication to improving lives in the community over the past few decades."

ABOUT YWCA EASTERN UNION COUNTY

YWCA Eastern Union County provides comprehensive, caring services to victims of domestic violence and their children, and advocate for the elimination of violence against women. The YWCA EUC opened its doors in 1920 and has been serving the women, children, and families of Union County ever since, with a long history of promoting the rights and health of women and their families at home and in the workplace, as well as social and racial justice. In 1978, in response to the growing concern about domestic violence in Union County, the YWCA EUC established Project Protect to provide shelter for battered women and their children. Today, the association is recognized as the lead domestic violence agency in Union County. Our goal is to empower survivors of domestic violence to increase skills and independence, and to work to achieve an end to violence and oppression. For more information, visit www.ywcaeuc.org.
