IT'S THE HAP-HAPPIEST SEASON OF ALL

A large crowd turned out for Union Township's 29th Annual Holiday Celebration and Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony held on December 2, 2012 in front of Town Hall.

Festivities included a live Nativity scene created by Crossroads Christian Fellowship Church and families were invited to pose for pictures. The church also handed out snowman balloon creations.

Holiday music was provided by the Union Municipal Band Brass Ensemble directed by Dr. John Bunnell and Chorale Groups from Franklin School's 3rd grade and Burnet Middle School. Instrumentalists performed from Washington and Livingston Schools.

After Santa's arrival on a fire truck, children had their pictures taken with Santa in the main meeting room of Town Hall by Molina Photography.

There will be free Horse Drawn Wagon Rides on Friday evenings from 5:00 to 8:00 PM on December 21 in front of the Union Movie Theater. Christmas Carolers will also be strolling through Union Center during the holiday season.

SANTA IN BLUE

On Sunday, December 16th, the Township of Union Police Department will be hosting a Toy Collection and Sorting Event from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm at the Union High School gymnasium. The volunteer effort will feature appearances by several notable celebrity guests such as radio DJ's and sports players. All the toys and gifts collected will be donated to the victims affected by Hurricane Sandy. "Over 75,000 people in New Jersey were affected by Hurricane Sandy and we are trying to help them out," stated Sgt. Boll who is organizing this event.

The event is open to the entire state of New Jersey a sizable turnout is expected. Everyone is encouraged to attend sporting their individual town or school colors. New or slightly used toys will be accepted; especially certain indispensable items such as video games, bicycles, skateboards, and other types of athletic equipment. The toy drive will continue after the event till December 31st. For more information contact Union Township Police Sgt. Michael Boll at (973) 332-1556.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY HOSTS CHRISTMAS PARTY & OPEN HOUSE

The officers, trustees, and members of the Union Township Historical Society will gather at the Caldwell Parsonage for their annual holiday celebration on Sunday, December 16, from 4 to 7 p.m. The Christmas tree and mantel in the meeting room were decorated for the festivities by Marie Canarelli.

On Sunday, January 6, and Sunday, January 13, 2013, from 2 to 5 p.m. an open house will be held at the Parsonage, 909 Caldwell Avenue, Union. The museum, once the residence of Rev. James and Mrs. Hannah Caldwell, is listed on both the National and State Registers of Historic Places. Lore Ullrich, a UTHS member, dressed in authentic colonial attire, will serve as docent. Admission is free. More information is available at one of the Society's websites, www.uniontwphistoricalsociety.webs.com or by calling Barbara La Mort at 908-687-0048.

Spirit of Union is published by Renna Media. Five thousand newspapers are printed monthly and 4,000 are mailed free to businesses and residents in Union and distributed free at distribution sites throughout town.

UNION WELCOMES A NEW WALGREENS

On Saturday, November 17, a ribbon ceremony was held to welcome a brand new Walgreens to the township of Union. The new store is located on the corner of Morris Avenue and Salem Avenue and sits next to another fresh addition to the community, the Northfield Bank. A convenient retailer, Walgreens stores also operate pharmacies and health centers which provide immunizations and are recognized as the number one provider of flu shots other than the federal government. Mayor Joseph Florio was proud to present Walgreens with a Mayor's Award at the ribbon cutting and wished the business continued success.

HIFE WILL CONDUCT COLLEGE PLANNING PROGRAM AT LIBRARY

The Heartland Institute of Financial Education (HIFE), a national non-profit organization whose mission is to promote financial literacy across America, will conduct a program providing families with college planning solutions at the Union Public Library on Saturday, December 22, 2012 at 1 PM. SAL DECESARE MADE TREASURE OUT OF TRASH

Submitted by Pastor Anthony Rodriguez First Baptist Church of Union

First Baptist was blessed at least twice a year with remarkable paintings from Salvatore DeCesare, a gifted artist. One for every Christmas Candlelight Service and for each Vacation Bible School. As a child of the depression, Sal's canvas was the little cardboard that he could scrape up as a kid. This grew to be his means even as an adult. He still used cardboard and other material that was discarded and meant for the trash to create his art work.

Sal would often speak of how God takes such broken people and turns them into treasures of His heart. The Bible even says that we are jars of clay, simple, breakable jars full of cracks and blemishes, but that God places His light in us, that we may shine forth brightly. Sal's art spoke volumes, in the painting, on the canvas, and from his very soul.

Dedicating what talents and time he could, Sal threw himself into being our church video librarian. No inappropriate movie sneaked its way into that library. Screening every movie carefully; never once using the budget, but paying out of his own pocket for each one. A recommendation for every person, a review on every film, Sal did nothing half-heartedly.

Like the initials of an artist on his masterpiece, like the telling of a painter in his brush stroke, Salvatore DeCesare has left his mark on First Baptist Church of Union. A passion for God, a personality that everyone enjoyed, an unbreakable spirit forged in war and perfected in peace. We here at First Baptist remember fondly our dear brother Sal, and await to see him once more in God's heavenly kingdom.

Our beloved Salvatore DeCesare was all about redemption. With devotion both to art and to his Lord Jesus, Sal used the gifts that God granted him to paint pictures inspired by the Bible itself. Baby Jesus lying in a manger while shepherds adore the newborn king. Magi in conference with Herod as the star peeks out just outside the window. Even the angel Gabriel taking Mary by such surprise by his appearance that she drops her basket of fruit. These are the paintings of a true artist, not looking to shock or repel, but looking to inspire others.

Though this will be the first year in many that Sal will not be with us for our Candlelight service, we invite everyone to come see a display his many works of art and celebrate Christmas together at 5pm on December 23rd at First Baptist Church of Union, 525 Thoreau Terrace.

TOWNSHIP BREAKS GROUND ON NEW PARK

Submitted by Bob Knecht

A new park, dedicated to Union veterans, will be built soon, and ground was recently broken by the Township Committee and local veterans group representatives.

The town already has its Memorial Park; which recognizes veterans who entered service while residents of Union. The Township Committee initiated a program to consider adding to that a place to also honor long-time citizens who moved to Union after they had served. It approached and received whole-hearted support from the Veterans' Alliance whose membership includes the Michael A. Kelly Post 2433. Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Connecticut Farms American Legion Post 35, the I.D. Harris Post 49 Disables American Veterans and the Milton Waldor Post 49, Jewish War Veterans. A piece of township property at the corner of Globe and Chestnut was made available, plans for the park generally formulated and authorization to go ahead was finalized.

The park will contain names of veterans who have lived in Union for over 25 years, but are not recognized in the Memorial Park. Although plans are still ongoing, funding will be provided through donations and the sale of bricks, honoring individual veterans, which will be placed in the park area. The Township will provide long term care of the facility.
