LONG HILL LEADER JOINS THE RENNA MEDIA FAMILY OF COMMUNITY NEWSPARERS

Renna Media has added the Long Hill Leader, Green Brook Gazette and Dunellen Express to its family of newspapers. The husband and wife team of Joe and Tina Renna now publish eleven monthly newspapers along with the bi-monthly Around About Peterstown, Elizabeth newspaper.

The publications are "hyper-local" in nature in that they contain information that is focused on the town where they are distributed. The newspapers are mailed for free to residents and businesses, and dropped for free pick-up at distribution points.

The concept of being a hyper-local newspaper is to give local businesses an inexpensive venue to promote their services. News from the school district and each department of the town's administration is also accommodated.

Community service organizations and sports teams are encouraged to submit news of upcoming events or reports on recent events for publication.

Residents and organizations get a free connection to their hometown readers, a win-win for everyone.

The hyper-local design gives businesses the highest value for their advertising dollars. The newspapers are designed (black ink on newsprint) to keep the cost of an advertisement to as low as $50. A discount is also applied for those businesses involved in their local Chamber of Commerce.

Regional businesses can take advantage of one low rate for placement in three or more publications.

Organizations who are interested in submitting content can email Lynn Sjurset at lynn@rennamedia.com. Businesses interested in advertising should call Mollie Helck at 908-858-4012 for information about placing an ad.

TICKETS FOR FUNDRAISER “A NIGHT AT THE LIBRARY” ON SALE NOW!

Tickets are on sale for “A Night at the Library,” the Long Hill Township’s fundraiser being held October 19, 2013 from 6:00 – 9:00 pm at the Library. Tickets are $50 per person in advance and $60 per person the night of the event.

“Buy your ticket any way that works for you,” said library Director Alexandria Arnold. “Get them in person at the library, by mail in a mailing going out soon, or using the Township’s secure Community Pass website. Just go to www.longhillnj.org, go to the departments tab and click on Parks and Recreation. Then click on “Night at the Library Benefit” tab to access our online ticket sales.” The Library hopes to meet a $25,000 challenge offered by a generous anonymous donor.

The event will feature music by local musician Matt Jardim, who plays jazz guitar in the style of Wes Montgomery and Pat Metheny. Having an older brother who is also a musician and a father who is a longtime jazz fan, Matt’s musical roots and love of jazz run deep. Matt is likely to include a tune in his set by Metheny as well as a few original pieces. Also featured in the group will be piano, acoustic bass and drums.

Susan Clow of “Not By Bread Alone” will provide a splendid table of hot and cold hors d’oeuvres. “Hors d’oeuvres are my favorite food. When I’m planning the menu I think of a dinner plate, then shrink it down to two perfect bites.” Clow, an experienced chef and caterer, is committed to using seasonal foods to create a menu that is refreshing without being overwhelming. As for a library fundraiser, Clow says “I’m happy to be working for the library because I love books. I own hundreds of cookbooks, and I read them from cover to cover.”

Rounding out the evening will be a Silent Auction highlighting goods and services from generous local artists and merchants. Items up for bid will include signed books by Medal of Honor Recipient and local author Jack Jacobs, New Jersey chef David Burke, paintings and jewelry by local artists and various services including manicures, pedicures, riding lessons. Mark your calendar to join the library for a night of music and merriment!

GIRL SCOUTS MAKE THE WORLD A BETTER PLACE

Girl Scouts of Northern New Jersey is dedicated to serving all girls with its leadership training program and has focused efforts in underserved communities to ensure that all girls have access to the same high quality youth development opportunities as other communities in our service area.

Proven youth development strategies that provide mentors and extracurricular activities that go beyond the everyday classroom experience increase the likelihood of high school completion and success in later life. These programs also provide a return to the taxpayer, as much as three and a half times their cost. Investing in youth development and out of school time programs must be a central part of any strategy for our children.

As we look to the start of another school year, let us all commit to the holistic development of our children and the best school year yet in our communities. Look beyond the traditional view of Girl Scouting and see the potential opportunities that lie ahead for girls who participate in Girl Scouting. Our future lies in the leadership and success of our children.

Be the role model she'll always remember. As a volunteer, you'll introduce girls to new experiences that make every day feel like the best day ever. Imagine the smiles, the excitement, the memories made—those are the moments you'll share in Girl Scouts. Join us today. New troops will be forming this fall. Start the fun now at www.gsnj.org/join

GIRL SCOUTS MAKE WORLD A BETTER PLACE YOUTH DEVELOPMENT AGENCIES ARE UNTAPPED RESOURCES

By Betty A. Garger, President/CEO, Girl Scouts of Northern New Jersey

As a new academic year begins and our thoughts are shifting back to school, it is unfortunate that parents and society often relegate one aspect of a child's education to the back burner. Out of school time youth development programs offered by community-based organizations, government agencies, and schools provide opportunities for young people to enhance their interests, skills, and abilities as they become adults. Youth development programs help young people acquire the cognitive, social and emotional skills and abilities that are necessary to successfully navigate adolescence and later life.

The need for these particular programs is high, especially for low-income youths who may start school academically behind and lacking in high-quality before- and after-school, vacation and summer programs that support learning. Studies show that high-quality, out-of-school-time programs that engage youth in experiential learning opportunities promote important academic, social and emotional outcomes. This underscores what we know as adults and parents: learning and healthy social emotional development does not happen solely within the school day. To thrive, youths need a wide array of services and opportunities that guide them through each developmental phase and support their success.

Girl Scouts of Northern New Jersey provides leadership training and mentorship opportunities to 33,000 girls across the five northern counties of New Jersey. Although Girl Scouts often brings to mind cookies, crafts and camping, these activities are just a small part of the Girl Scout Leadership Experience. Through new opportunities and experiences, girls develop a healthy self-esteem, experience new cultures through our travel programs, learn the wonders of science through STEM activities or enjoy the support of fellow girls in a safe environment. These experiences enable a girl to develop a greater sense of self and achieve academic success.

Studies conducted by the Girl Scout Research Institute show that participation in Girl Scouting has a positive influence on girls' leadership and academic success. The Girl Scout study reinforces the belief of the National Collaboration for Youth that community-based, positive youth development agencies are untapped resources for school leaders and parents. The National Collaboration for Youth the youth development agencies "need to be at the strategy-development table of school reform with examples of how they can help American children succeed both in and out of school".

The study conducted by the Girl Scout Research Institute (GSRI) showed that girls who gain experience solving problems and seeking challenges in Girl Scouting are more successful in school than girls who were not Girl Scouts. In addition, girls in lower socio-economic status report even greater benefits from Girl Scouting.

Another recent study of the GSRI of Girl Scout alumnae also shows that women who were Girl Scouts as girls display more positive life outcomes in the areas of sense of self, community service, civic engagement, education and income, than women who were not Girl Scouts.

Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character.
