WARREN TOWNSHIP KICKOFF MEETING DRAWS 80 ATTENDEES

The Gateway Regional Chamber of Commerce announced that the newest group under their umbrella, the Warren Township Chamber of Commerce, hosted 80 attendees at their kickoff meeting.

Warren Township Chamber of Commerce, an organization that will meet monthly for breakfast, networking and presentations from experts in various industries, heard from Jim Coyle of the Gateway Regional Chamber of Commerce, as well as representatives from the township, including Mayor Victor Sordillo, Police Lieutenant Bill Keane, Superintendent of Schools Tami Crader and Carolyn Della Sala, director of the Warren Township library.

The group will next meet Oct. 24 at 8:00 a.m. in the Warren Township Courtroom and the meeting will be hosted by the Warren Township library.

“The Gateway Chamber is thrilled to be a part of such an endeavor,” said Jim Coyle. “There is no additional membership fee to be part of this group. Once you’re part of the Gateway Chamber, you’re automatically a member of all our local groups and are invited to attend as many as you’d like.”

While there is no cost to attend the Warren Township Chamber Meetings, members and attendees can expect serious interaction with other businesses and township officials. The mayor, chief of police, superintendents of schools and library director will be invited to every meeting and encouraged to offer information on what’s going on in town.

Evan Tornquist of Fulton Bank of New Jersey commented, “I am so pleased to chair this new group. Warren hasn’t had a business organization since the Warren Business & Professional Association and it’s time for a fresh start. We welcome businesses large and small to attend the meetings and we look forward to working together to make Warren an even better place to live and work.”

Tornquist’s sentiments were echoed by Kate Conroy, vice president of the Gateway Chamber.

“We feel overwhelmed by the support members of the Warren business community have shown for this new group,” she said. “The Warren Township Chamber of Commerce is off to a great start, and we can’t wait to see where the journey takes us.”

LET'S GIVE THANKS

On Wednesday, November 13, 2013, at 6:00 p.m., the Warren Township Committee will hold its regular meeting at the Watchung Hills Regional High School, 108 Stirling Road, Warren, NJ in the South Building Auditorium. The Township Leadership would like to give thanks to any and all volunteers, residents, businesses, and employees of Warren in recognition of New Jersey Monthly honoring Warren Township as the 2013 #1 Best Place to Live in Central Jersey and #2 in the State of New Jersey.

New Jersey Monthly recognized the Township in its September 2013 issue, "Best Places to Live; Top Ranked Towns for Young Families, Singles and Empty Nesters".

Comments were made by Mayor Victor J. Sordillo in the article, acknowledging Warren's: 1) Fiscal conservatism, 2) Low debt limit, 3) Recreation programming, 4) Volunteerism as a way of life in Warren

The Mayor praised the volunteerism of emergency service personnel in both Fire and Rescue and the dedicated service provided by the numerous members of Boards, Commissions and Recreational Organizations from Sports to Scouting; all contributing to a significant method of reducing governmental costs.

The Township was recognized for its location, mix of neighborhoods, and excellent schools. In addition, the ability to attract businesses such as Chubb and Citigroup has assisted in maintaining a low tax rate.

The diversity of restaurants and shops on Mountain Boulevard and throughout the Township also makes Warren an attractive community.

Warren Township is #1 in Central Jersey because of its residents; it is not the dwellings or the businesses, but the people that make Warren special.

The Township Committee is recognizing all of those who make this community special at their meeting on November 13th to be held at the High School. ALL residents and businesses are invited to join them for this celebration. Refreshments will be served in the south building cafeteria after the meeting.

All attendees are asked to R.S.V.P. by November 1, 2013

Join us for a cup of coffee ... and a second opinion.

During volatile and confusing markets, we understand that even the most patient investors may come to question the wisdom of the investment plan they've been following. We'd like to help - and we can start by offering a cup of coffee and a second opinion.

By appointment, you're welcome to come in and talk with us about your investment portfolio. If we think your investments continue to be well-suited to your long-term goals - in spite of the current market turmoil - we'll gladly tell you so, and send you on your way. If, on the other hand, we think some of your investments no longer fit with your goals, we'll explain why, in plain English. And, if you like, we'll recommend some alternatives.

Either way, the coffee is on us. For a free consultation, please contact us and let us know if you prefer milk or cream.

HILLS' STUDENT NAMED TO SPECIAL OLYMPICS TEAM NJ

By Eleanor Mathews

In what is a "first" for Watchung Hills Regional High School, and, indeed, for New Jersey, a local student, Alex Scheck, has won a position on Team New Jersey for soccer in the 2014 Special Olympics USA Games.

The 2014 Special Olympics USA Games, to be held June 14-21, will involve 3,500 athletes from all over the United States, 1,000 coaches and Delegates, 10,000 volunteers, and some 70,000 spectators and families.

Participants will vie in aquatics, baseball, bocce, bowling, cycling, flag football, golf gymnastics, powerlifting, soccer, softball, tennis and volleyball. In addition, there will be demonstrations in baseball and triathlon. Team New Jersey will include 280 athletes, and will have representatives in every sport.

Alex Scheck has not only been appointed to the soccer team (in the position of forward), but has also been selected to be a team representative for media interviews, a task which should not be difficult for this enthusiastic and knowledgeable athlete. Scheck has been involved in the game since age 10, when he joined the New Providence soccer team outside of school. He now plays with the New Jersey Hawks, who hone their skills in Clark, N.J. and the Mercer County Park.

In addition to playing in forward and goalie positions himself, Scheck also serves as manager for Watchung Hills Boys Soccer Team and as Manager of Girls Basketball, in both of which positions he is serving for the fifth year.

Over the years, Scheck has been active in track and field, basketball, swimming, bowling.

With fellow Olympians, Scheck will take part in the Opening Ceremonies for the national sports event on June 15 at the Prudential Center, Newark, where the traditionally impressive Parade of Athletes will take place, as well as the lighting of the Special Olympics Cauldron which opens the games.

The Closing Ceremonies will be held on June 20 at the Sun Bank Arena, Trenton, a celebration and culmination of the 2014 Games. In the intervening days, competition will take place at various venues, such as Rider College, Princeton University, Mercer County Park. Athletes will be housed at the various local universities in the area.

Before the big event, however, the public will get a preview of Team New Jersey. Along with the other athletes in a variety of sports, Scheck will be introduced during the Rutgers football game at noon on Saturday, November 2.

All those years of practice, all those competitions, all the team coaching Scheck has done have now culminated in the biggest challenge of all: the 2014 Special Olympics USA Games.

WARREN RESIDENT NAMED ANGEL IN ADOPTION

Warren resident Carrie Kitzte has been named an Angel in Adoption by the Congressional Coalition on Adoption Institute (CCAI). Kitzte was honored at an awards ceremony and gala Oct. 8-9, in Washington, DC.

The Angels in Adoption program provides an opportunity for all members of the U.S. Congress to honor constituents who have enriched the lives of foster children and orphans in the US and abroad. Kitzte was selected as an Angel in Adoption for her years of work supporting foster and adoptive families through her company EMK Press, which has published several books for children, teens and adults living in non-traditional families.

“The most important work I do is to help families be successful parenting the children who come to them,” said Kitzte. “Many families find themselves ill-prepared for the issues children have coming out of institutionalization, foster care, or abusive situations.”

Kitzte’s latest publication, The Foster Parenting Toolbox, has been recognized this year with an Independent Publisher Book Award and as one of the Foreward Books of the Year. Additionally, Kitzte volunteers her time as a Court Appointed Special Advocate, representing in court the voice of foster children assigned to her, and was recently named to the board at the Attachment & Trauma Network, Inc.

At the events in Washington, Kitzte was honored along with 140 Angels and honorees, including Korie and Willie Robertson of Duck Dynasty and actress Deborra-Lee Furness, wife of Hugh Jackman. Former National Angels in Adoption have included First Lady Laura Bush, Muhammad Ali, Bruce Willis, Rhea Perlman, and Kristin Chenoweth among others.

The Congressional Coalition on Adoption Institute is a not-for-profit, nonpartisan organization created in 2001 to raise awareness about foster children and orphans in the United States and the millions more around the world in need of permanent, safe and loving homes through adoption.

For more information about the books and resources available from EMK Press, please visit www.emkpress.com

LIBRARY VOLUNTEER WINS 2013 CANRIGHT AWARD

Library volunteer Sue Polucki was the recipient of the 2013 Canright Award. A Canright recipient is named annually by the Friends of the Warren Twp Library in recognition of their individual or group efforts. Ms. Polucki has been in charge of organizing the shelves and displays for the successful book sale to raise funds for the Friends of the Library. The Canright Award is named for Betty Lou and John Canright, township residents who were active in their support of the library. The couple's son, Mark Canright, attended the reception following the presentation ceremony.

FOUR HILLS SENIORS ARE MERIT SEMIFINALISTS

In addition, 22 Watchung Hills seniors were named Commended Students.

Four members of Watchung Hills Regional High School's Class of 2014 achieved Semifinalist standing in the 59th annual National Merit Scholarship Program competition. They are: Nicholas Akrawi, Alexander Rucker, Albert Zeng, all of Warren, and Jesse Lu of Green Brook. (Note: Lu has transferred to another school district.)

The Merit honorees are among some 16,000 Class of 2014 students nationwide to have achieved Semifinalist status in the annual National Merit Scholarship Program. In addition, 22 Watchung Hills seniors were named Commended Students in the annual scholarship program.

Last fall, more than 1.5 million juniors in more than 22,000 high schools entered the 2014 National Merit Program by taking the 2012 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT), which served as an initial screen of program entrants. The nationwide pool of Semifinalists represents less than one percent of the nation's Class of 2014 graduates.

As Semifinalists, they become eligible to advance in competition for some 8,300 Merit Scholarship awards, worth $35 million, to be distributed next spring.

JOSHUA'S CLOSET RAISES MONEY FOR CANCER!

On Tuesday, September 24th members of Joshua's Closet, a North Plainfield based non-profit organization that donates to cancer research, picked up over 50 bags of donated clothing from Chubb Insurance of Warren. Chubb employee, Katie Stachler, coordinated the 2nd annual week long clothing drive. At the employee picnic, money was raised via 50/50 raffle which totaled $448.00 and the companies matching gift program totaled $300.00. With the donated clothing, Joshua's Closet sells it to A&E Clothing Corporation who in turn pays $0.20 per pound. The Chubb Insurance clothing drive, and other donated bags, resulted in 1,355 pounds, totaling $271.00! All money donated and from A&E Clothing Corporation is donated to the Cancer Institute of New Jersey located in

New Brunswick, NJ. For more information about Joshua's Closet, please find them on Facebook or email joshuasclinet@live.com
