THINK LINDEN FIRST" AND SHOP LOCALLY FOR THE HOLIDAYS!

The City of Linden held their annual Tree Lighting on Friday, December 6th at City Hall. After the tree was lit by Linden's former first lady Marie Gregorio, Santa Claus arrived at City Hall and Linden children and their families were invited to the JTG Center to meet him. They had the opportunity to have their photo taken with Santa and Mrs. Clause and enjoyed free treats. All children were given a gift and children 10-years-old and younger were given raffle tickets for bikes which were donated by Andy's Cycle of Linden. The event is sponsored by the Linden Cultural Committee which raises money during Linden's September to Remember to cover the costs. Left over gifts will be donated to LINC.S. Throughout the holiday season visitors to the Wood Avenue shopping district will be able to enjoy the Raymond Wood Bauer Promenade which is decorated with beautiful holiday lights.

CRANFORD MONTHLY JOINS RENNA MEDIA'S FAMILY OF NEWSPAPERS

Beginning in January 2014 Cranford Monthly will join Renna Media's family of newspapers. Just like Life In Linden, Cranford Monthly will deliver important information from the departments in town hall, along with news from the schools and library. Community service organizations are encouraged to promote their events and celebrate their accomplishments free of charge. The newspaper's goal is to be a positive influence on the economic development and overall well-being of Cranford. There will be no investigative reporting or political content; Cranford Monthly exists to share all of the good things that are happening in town.

Renna Media is a Cranford based business owned and operated by husband and wife team Joe and Tina Renna. Cranford Monthly joins Renna Media's family of twelve community newspapers published in and around Union and Somerset counties. The publications are "hyper-local" in nature in that they contain information focused on each individual town and are direct mailed within those towns.

The concept of being hyper-local is to give local businesses a venue to promote events and services. Reaching local customers gives you the highest return for your advertising dollars. The newspapers are designed (black ink on newsprint) to keep the cost of an advertisement to as low as $60. A discount is also applied for those businesses involved in their local Chamber of Commerce. Regional businesses can take advantage of one low rate for advertising in multi publications.

Joe and Tina Renna, owners of Renna Media, LLC, have been publishing community newspapers since 1998 with the launch of Around About Peterstown, a regional newspaper about the Italian-American neighborhood in Elizabeth, NJ.

Renna Media sought to fill what they saw as a void in other communities and created newspapers that would give a venue to town administrations and non-profit organizations to promote upcoming events as well as to showcase the accomplishments of local residents and businesses.

For more information about Renna Media publications, please visit www.rennamedia.com. Contact information: info@rennamedia.com; 908-418-5586.

VOLUNTEER DELORES HYNES HONORED

Homefirst
Interfaith Housing & Family Services
Honoree
Delores
Hynes.

Lifetime Linden resident Delores Hynes was honored by the Homefirst Interfaith Housing & Family Services during "An Evening of Thanks" event held in October. The Family Service Awards event honors and celebrates citizens from throughout Union County who volunteer their time to help families and children in extraordinary ways. The event is intended to raise awareness about families in need, celebrate private citizens who make a difference in the lives of others, encourage other individuals to make a commitment to service families in need and support the many free programs made available to families in crisis by Homefirst. Delores was nominated for the award by Linden Mayor Richard Gerbounka.

Delores Hynes has a long history of volunteerism and has been active in numerous community and civic programs. Forty-eight weekends a year, Delores can be found on Friday and Saturday evenings until 1 a.m. at the Linden Recreation Center serving food, chaperoning and mentoring children and young adults. The program is run under the Mayor's Youth Commission and is called the Masterpiece Program. The time at the center provides a "safe-haven" for youth in the neighborhood to congregate and participate in various activities. Another program which Dolores enjoys volunteering for is Project Graduation. In her own words, it makes her "feel like I'm 17 again!" This annual event is held on the evening of graduation. Each year over 250 graduating high school seniors participate in this unforgettable evening. The event is held at a facility outside of the city that offers many enjoyable activities for the graduates. Although it is a one-day event there is much coordination and preparation involved. Dolores organizes the entire event.

A lifetime resident of Linden, Dolores is involved with many other clubs and organizations including the Lion's Club, Senior Citizen's Club, St. Elizabeth's Church as well as being an active volunteer at Center for Hope Hospice. Delores is an avid doll collector, when time permits she enjoys attending doll shows and events.

LIONS CLUB COLLECTS EYEGLASSES FOR THE NEEDY

Thirty members of the Linden Lions and Kiwanis Club met for a Thanksgiving Luncheon held at the Roselle Gold Club on November 26th. The Linden based groups meet every year for a luncheon. The featured guest speaker was Warren Murray who is with the Corrections Department. He spoke about recycled eyeglasses, how they are processed by inmates and distributed to needy people around the world. He praised the Linden Lions Club for doing an excellent job of collecting used eyeglasses and asked everyone to consider donating their used eyeglasses as there is a tremendous need and is so greatly appreciated by so many.

Linden Police Juvenile detectives have exhausted all leads into the investigation of a missing girl and are asking the public's help in locating her. Shania Foley, age 16, was last seen on November 19th after she had an argument with her foster mother and left her Linden home. She broke her cell phone during the argument and may have no means of communication. She is an 11th grade student at Linden High School and school officials have described her as an above-average "B" student who plays in the orchestra and was Student of the Month for October. Investigators have spoken to her father, a Linden resident, and her biological mother, who lives in Newark, and neither claims to have had any contact with her.

Shania Foley, age 16 (in two different poses)

She is 5'3", 120 lbs., olive-skin complexion, and reddish-brown long hair. She also wears glasses and was last seen wearing a Guess black pea coat-style jacket, a black and orange hooded-sweatshirt, black pants, and black slippers. She also was carrying a patchwork multi-colored messenger style bookbag/purse.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Steve Zevlikaris at 908-474-8520 or the Linden Police at 908-474-8500.

Tips can also be emailed to crimetips@police.linden-nj.org.

STS MARY AND ELIZABETH ACADEMY GOOD DEEDS PROGRAM HELPS LINGS

The Student Council of Saints Mary and Elizabeth Academy in Linden headed a Good Deeds program in conjunction with the Linden LINGS Food Program. The students donated food for those in need. Student Council Officers Colleen Badalis, Trinelle Williams and David Labrador packed all food items that were collected. Each grade was assigned a specific item to donate and their generosity was admirable. Volunteers from the LINGS came to the school and thanked the students and families for all their generous donations. One of the lessons taught at SME Academy is the lesson of giving from the heart. This is the time of year that we should all give thanks for all that we have, both material and emotional. Our children know that we are very fortunate and always look forward to sharing what we have with others. It is a lesson that will last them a lifetime.

Together We Make A Difference

The residents of Hilton Gardens, Rosalia Manor and Franciszka Gardens generously responded to a food drive with non-perishable food items and K&J Niemczyk donated turkeys for 10 families to the Pantry. John Niemczyk, a partner at the firm, commented, "Thanks to the generosity of our residents, the enthusiasm of our staff and our contribution we were able to help meet the needs of our local community." Due to the impressive support from residents one more food drive will be organized in December before Christmas. All donations will be made to LINGS Food Pantry which helps feed 204 families in the township of Linden. The two representatives of Linden Apartments photographed are Christina Wojton and Tim McLeod. We would like to thank all of our residents for participating and making this a success.

LINDEN APARTMENTS AND K&J HELPS LINGS

Having recognized the needs of the local community, residents of Linden Apartments together with K&J Niemczyk a local management and development company made a sizeable donation to the LINGS food pantry.

The residents of Hilton Gardens, Rosalia Manor and Franciszka Gardens generously responded to a food drive with non-perishable food items and K&J Niemczyk donated turkeys for 10 families to the Pantry. John Niemczyk, a partner at the firm, commented, "Thanks to the generosity of our residents, the enthusiasm of our staff and our contribution we were able to help meet the needs of our local community." Due to the impressive support from residents one more food drive will be organized in

LIBRARY FOOD DRIVE

Help check out hunger this holiday season with donations to a Food Drive being sponsored by the Union County Public Libraries. Through December 16, the Linden Public Library will be accepting donations of non-perishable food items to benefit the New Jersey Community Food Bank and other local food pantries. Collection bins will be conveniently located and library staff will then route 100% of the donations to designated food banks.

During these tough economic times, many people in New Jersey have been left behind; low income families; struggling single parents; the elderly on a fixed income; the unemployed. One year later many people are still suffering the effects of super storm Sandy. The New Jersey Community Food Bank assists by supplying food to over 1,500 non-profit charities in 19 counties, including soup kitchens, food pantries, shelters, local food banks, after school programs and senior centers.

To make this holiday season hunger free, simply visit your local library with a donation of non-perishable items.

PEOPLE CAME TOGETHER TO BRING TRAIN STATION MURAL TO LIFE

During a meeting between concerned Linden citizen Michael Aneson, his 9th Ward Councilman Armando Medina, and Mayor Gerbounka an idea for revitalization was born. While discussing some of the issues in Linden, Mr. Aneson decided he wanted to do something to help uplift the town he proudly grew up in. "I wanted to do something to elevate our town. After Hurricane Sandy and all the economic hardships Linden had faced, I thought it was time to make a positive change."

Michael Aneson first reached out to his fraternity, Gamma Psi Epsilon from Kean University for help. He also contacted professor Norma Bowe, who runs a community service organization at Kean University called, 'Be The Change'. Their group has traveled all over the country volunteering to help rebuild communities. They went to New Orleans after Katrina and the Jersey Shore after Sandy. They also make weekly trips to Newark, NJ to distribute food to the homeless. In addition to these groups, two more sororities, Delta Phi Epsilon and Nu Sigma Tau decided to join the effort.

Through various grant funding the town was able to pay for the paint, brushes, and other materials. The city also offered to provide breakfast and lunch for all the volunteers who assisted. All this was performed without any burden to taxpayers.

Mayor Richard Gerbounka and a group of city officials met with Mr. Aneson, Dr. Bowe, Linden Artist Pavol Olsavsky, and other Kean representatives to discuss the details of the project encompassing 3,500 square feet. As daunting as the project appeared, Dr. Bowe declared it would be done in one day. Despite the Mayor's jovial skepticism he said, "Let's do it!"

On October 5th, nearly 100 people came together and within one day the mural was complete. A landmark was born.

The goal of this project was to brighten and uplift a dark corridor of the town. The bright colors used as well as the inspirational quotes and ideas artists left next to their work, accomplished just that. Every passerby was asked to pick up a brush and help out. Through this many residents were able to add their own personal touch and inspirational quotes to the wall. It was the fact that people came together to enrich the community's quality of life that truly brought the mural to life!
