BASKETBALL COURT DEDICATED TO COACH COLICCHIO

Submitted by Mike Colicchio

On January 7, 2014, in recognition of sixteen years of outstanding service to the City of Linden and the students that matriculated at Linden High School, the Linden Board of Education dedicated the basketball court at Linden High School to Coach Phil Colicchio.

A native of Elizabeth, the youngest of the three sons of Thomas and Beverly Colicchio has become one of the most successful coaches in Union County and New Jersey hoops history. From his high school playing days at St. Mary's and Elizabeth High School, where he was the point guard on the 1984 EHS Union County Championship team through his days coaching the Linden Tigers squad since 1998, he has dedicated his career to teaching young men how to be successful both on and off the court.

His coaching resume is substantial. His first coaching job was on the staff of his high school coach, the legendary Ben Candelino. As the Elizabeth High JV coach, he won eight Union County Championships. After a successful year as the head man at Barringer High School in Newark, the Linden Board of Education, Principal Joe Martino and Mayor John Gregorio convinced him that Linden was the right place to be. In sixteen years stomping the Linden sidelines he has won the only three Group IV State Championships in Linden history (2000, 2006 and 2007), five Group IV State Sectional Championships, seven Watchung Conference Championships and two Union County Championships both significant upsets over heavily favored St. Patrick's. He has won almost 450 games in his 25 years of coaching including 330 at Linden.

Phil brings much more to the table than meets the eye. As pointed out by MSG announcer Mike Quick at the dedication ceremony, this level of success does not come without personal sacrifice. There were many times when his job and team came before his wife Laila and children Tommy, Alyssa and Gia. Dividing his time between his vocation and family is a balancing act that is not always easy but is easily understood and accepted.

The reigning Union County Coach of the Year attributes his success to many. Coaches such as Jerry Moore and Bob Firestone with whom he worked at Elizabeth High, Linden officials such as the aforementioned and Al Volpe and Antoinette Modrak, players such as Desmond Wade, LJ McGhee, Jamaal Tate, Greg Parker, Danny Del Valle, Mo Wilkerson and Darryl Lampley, assistant coaches such as John Hutchinson, Marty Luc, Monte Brooks and Anthony Drejaj, the amazingly loyal fans of the Linden Tigers, his brothers Mike and Tom whom allowed him to tag along with them as a boy and his loving parents and wife all have been given credit for forging the man and coach that he has become.

As the only New Jersey coach and one of only three in the tri-state area to have received such an honor while still an active coach Phil has almost reached the pinnacle of his career. The 2013-2014 Linden squad is a very talented group that has set its sights on another Union County title and the ultimate prize, the New Jersey Tournament of Champions trophy. In Phil's words, he doesn't have a job; he has something he loves to do, something he is good at and has people that appreciate what he does. Titles and accolades aside, who could ask for more?

LINDEN TEACHER WILL PRESENT AT THE GOETHE-INSTITUT NEW YORK

Mary Turbett, German teacher at Linden High School, was invited by the Goethe-Institut New York to be a presenter at a seminar of the German American Partnership Program (GAPP). The three-day seminar from January 17-19 will be attended by teachers from all across the country. Mrs. Turbett is helping prepare teachers, who are organizing a student exchange for the first time between their school and a school in Germany. The exchange is sponsored by GAPP.

"I'm looking forward to sharing some of my expertise and ideas with teachers from around the country who are about to offer their students an experience of a lifetime," said Mrs. Turbett.

Mrs. Turbett will be presenting a new component of the exchange, a group project. Linden's project was done in conjunction with the Linden Police Department this past October when nineteen German students and their teachers visited Linden. Linden High School students and their German partners worked on a community service clean-up project in which they spruced up the 8th Ward of Linden. Students painted over graffiti on a local business and an underpass, repainted an abandoned building, weeded the playground and painted a clubhouse in the park. Detective Lt. William Turbett of the Linden Police Department organized the event.

"I liked doing the project, because in my opinion, it was a different way to bond with my partner and the others. We had to work together as a group, which shows some characteristics of people that only come out in situations like this. It was a fun experience. We need more projects like this so we can learn to work in teams and to give back to our community, both very important aspects of life," said LHS senior Krzysztof Buz.

GAPP is the largest and most successful bilateral student exchange program in the U.S. and the only short-term German-American exchange program ever to receive financial support from the U.S. federal government. The Goethe-Institut is Germany's global cultural center, with six locations in the U.S. alone. As a major promoter of the German language in North America, GAPP is one of the core activities of the Goethe-Institut.

Linden has had a successful exchange with a school in Butzbach, Germany since 2001. To date over 120 LHS students have visited Germany as exchange students.

LINDEN YOUTH SOCCER ASSOCIATION U-14 FLIGHT WINNERS

SCHOOL NO. 4 HELD A "TOUR OF ITALY"

School No. 4 held a "Tour of Italy" to celebrate the Linden's World Language Program. The event focused on the connection between the school and home. It was designed to be an enjoyable way for students, parents and community members to receive a hands-on experience with the World Language Program. Those that participated in the event went on a "Tour of Italy" to develop an understanding of the Italian culture, history and language. At each destination guests were given a tour of the city they were visiting by one of the Districts Italian Teachers. They learned interesting facts, saw popular sites, and received a taste of Italy at each stop. Guests were given a passport as they entered the school and got a stamp at each of the destinations they visited throughout the evening. The cities included Rome, Florence, Sicily, Naples and Venice. Other destinations were Gelato, Bocce Ball, Pasta Making, Tarantella, and a Pizzelle making station.

MODERN FOODS STUDENTS HOST FRENCH CHEF

A chef? Yes a Chef! Not often do we get to see people in their profession come to schools to inspire students with their work. On December 16th, 2013 the French/ Modern Foods students of Linden High School got to experience the culinary expertise of French Chef Philippe from Rendez-Vous restaurant in Kenilworth. The students gathered in the Modern Foods Classroom to make the traditional French holiday pastry; 'La Bûche de Noël'. Bon-Appetit!

We're fast approaching the end of another busy year at the Friends of Linden Animal Shelter, one in which we have faced many challenges - some new, some familiar. In addition to our continuously stagnant economy, we've had to handle a number of necessary but ultimately costly endeavors, including facility repairs, special surgical and medical needs, and an influx of animals.

It should be noted that none of these obstacles could be addressed without the ongoing support from our animal loving community. Your donations make our operations possible. You provide the means for us to provide our pets with top quality vet care, and to purchase food, liter, and all the other little extras (like toys and special treats) that make the animals' stay at the shelter fell more like home. And for that we would like to take this opportunity to say thank you.

This year, we've had to replace three sets of stairs and two awnings in our facilities. For our safety and the safety of our animals, this was a crucial expense, and your donations have insured that we can do our jobs unhindered and without worry.

More importantly, we've had a lot of special needs cases this year that have required surgery, the attention of specialists, or both.

Max the cat, for example, required extensive nasal surgery for a fungal infection that was quickly eating away at the bones in his face. Similarly, Blue, the dog, also had a skin condition, though his was the result of severe allergies. And while it was heartbreaking to watch his adoption prospects decline because of these purely superficial issues, we were eventually able to treat and maintain his condition, too, and help him find a loving home.

Tessa and Mona, on the other hand, are two of our dogs that suffered from severe leg injuries, ranging from a torn ACL to a luxating patella.

All of these conditions required significant surgery to rectify. We are happy to say that we had accrued enough donations to afford them and thus ease their pain, ensuring their ability to play and truly enjoy their little lives.

One of our biggest problems, however, was the surge of cats and kittens. At this point, 2013 has brought FOLAS approximately 300 cats and kittens, which has resulted in exceptionally high vet bills due to a number of cats with respiratory issues, as well as the sheer volume of spays and neutering.

Without your generous and continued donations, we would never have been able to both fix our premises and provide the level of specialty care crucial to the lives of some of our pets. Your compassionate generosity directly impacts the health and futures of our animals, as well as our ability to do our jobs safely, efficiently, and successfully. For this, Max, Blue, Tessa, Mona, and all the animals and volunteers at FOLAS with you, your families, and your pets a happy, healthy holiday season and the best of everything in the New Year.

ABOUT THE FRIENDS OF LINDEN ANIMAL SHELTER

FOLAS is an all-volunteer, non-profit animal rescue group formed in 2000. We are dedicated to finding lifelong, committed and loving homes for the many deserving animals that have lost their home. We care for and find adoptive homes for unwanted previous pets, or unclaimed strays, regardless of the manner they arrive into our system.

SOEHL MIDDLE SCHOOL SPONSORS COAT DRIVE

The 21st Century Community Learning Center of Soehl Middle School recently collaborated with Jersey Cares to coordinate a Gently Used Coat Drive. Students, families and staff members generously donated their winter coats to support this local community service project. A total of eighty-two coats were collected and given to Jersey Cares where they will later be distributed to local homeless shelters and outreach programs. After school students participated in a "Note in a Coat" program this year and wrote letters of encouragement and holiday wishes. Each note was placed in the zipper pocket of every donated coat.
