EMMA MAGBANUA WINS BEST ACTRESS IN A LEADING ROLE AT THE 2014 PAPER MILL RISING STAR AWARDS

The heat was certainly on, June 3rd, 2014 outside the Paper Mill Playhouse, transporting the team of Union High School's Miss Saigon: School Edition to the hot and humid temperatures their characters faced in Saigon. An environment that led to a very special evening for the Cast, Crew, Orchestra and Staff as they witnessed Emma Magbanua, the Union County Academy for Allied Health Sciences Senior, win Best Actress in a Leading Role at the 2014 Paper Mill Rising Star Awards. The girl with the big smile and even bigger heart took the stage to accept her honor Tuesday night with an endearing speech that only she could make, which had the entire audience laughing and on their feet. Along with her win, she will now represent the UHSPAC and the Paper Mill Playhouse in the National High School Musical Theatre Awards held in New York City on Broadway. As part of the process she will partake in a series of workshops over the week culminating with the competition being held on June 30th at the Minskoff Theatre. Magbanua had this to say about her upcoming participation in the Awards: "Although I'm really nervous, I'm so grateful and humbled by this opportunity to represent this region, but more importantly to represent the people who have guided me over the past four years. I couldn't have gotten here without them."

The UHSPAC received two additional awards winning Best Achievement in Scenic Design and Best Achievement in Lighting Design for their technical team of Scott Aronow and Dan Ozminkowski respectively. The cast also took to the stage performing "The Heat is on in Saigon" as part of their nomination for Best Overall Musical. The UHSPAC was nominated for 11 awards, the most in the state for the adjudicated categories including, Best Supporting Actor – Jonathan Duvelson, Best Supporting Actress – Raquel Martine, Best Chorus, Best Orchestra and Best Director to name a few.

"The Rising Star Awards help to cultivate the future of musical theatre. It gives our students something to strive for and a chance to be recognized by a leader in the professional theatre community: The Paper Mill Playhouse. Emma has worked extremely hard during her UHSPAC career, and this is a wonderful capstone for her. I am excited for her to go on to the nationals and be seen by so many influential people, and have the chance to perform on a Broadway stage."

11 CRITICAL HOME INSPECTION TRAPS TO BE AWARE OF WEEKS BEFORE LISTING YOUR HOME FOR SALE

New Jersey - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To order a FREE Special Report, visit www.njhomeinspectiontraps.com or to hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free 1-888-243-5861 and enter 1003. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Get your free special report NOW to learn how to ensure a home inspection doesn't cost you the sale of your home.

BATTLE HILL SCHOOL - BUBBLES FOR AUTISM

Battle Hill Elementary School in Union Township recognized National Autism Awareness Month on April 22nd. The occasion was highlighted when all of the Battle Hill students and staff gathered in the playground and blew bubbles at 10:00 am. The purpose of Bubble Day is to help children with Autism Spectrum Conditions (ASC), burst out of their bubble of isolation and raise awareness and understanding of autism in the community. Details about the event are available on their website at: www.faces4autism.org.

The Union Fire Department attended, as well Union Township Administrative staff. The event was coordinated by Alison Brehm and John Bogner, 4th grade teachers and Student Council Advisors along with Lisa Cassano, Pre-School Special Education Teacher. Prior to and during the event staff and Student Council assisted in collecting donations. This year the school also participating the ribbon challenge in which the school formed a human ribbon. A total of $430 was collected and donated to the Face4Autism organization.

PASTA SUPPER TO BENEFIT UNION POLICE OFFICER DAVID CUOZZO

A Benefit Pasta Supper for Union Police Officer David Cuozzo will be held at Grace Lutheran Church, 2222 Vauxhall Road, Union, on Friday, June 20. Tickets are $10, with serving from 4:30 -7:30 p.m. Takeouts will be available.

Officer Cuozzo has been a police officer for over 25 years. He is married and has four children. In December 2013 David became very ill due to a viral infection, which left him paralyzed from the neck down. After some extensive physical therapy he has regained some movement below the neck. Although there is no known cure, with continued therapy there is a chance of full recovery. There are obvious medical expenses being incurred as well as the cost of having his home renovated to accommodate his wheelchair.

Grace has been challenged with a $1,000 grant from Thrivent Financial for Lutherans. To meet this challenge, Grace needs to raise $3,000. Therefore the goal is to sell 300 tickets to this Benefit Pasta Supper. For tickets call the church office at 908-686-3965.

CHAMBER'S ANNUAL LEGISLATIVE BREAKFAST

Looking for an opportunity to meet and hear from your elected officials? Join the Union Township Chamber of Commerce at its 18th Annual Legislative Breakfast, which will feature state, county and local officials who will share issues and updates pertinent to the business community.

Held in conjunction with the Greater Elizabeth Chamber of Commerce, the event is scheduled for Friday, June 27, 2013, at 8:30 a.m., at the Boys and Girls Clubs of Union County, 1050 Jeanette Ave., Union. Breakfast will be served courtesy of the Elzibethtown Gas Co. Preregistration is required and the cost is $20 for chamber members/$30 for guests.

"We always enjoy a large turnout for this important event," said Chamber Executive James Masterson. "This program provides our members with the chance to meet with their elected officials and discuss specific items of interest to them."

LIBRARY LAUNCHES SUMMER READING CLUB "FIZZ, BOOM, READ!"

Readers of all ages will explore all things science this summer as the Union Public Library presents, "Fizz, Boom, Read" as their 2014 summer reading club.

Join us as we explore all things underground – science experiments, nature, robots, grossology fun, and more through storytelling, crafts, music, dance, and other activities.

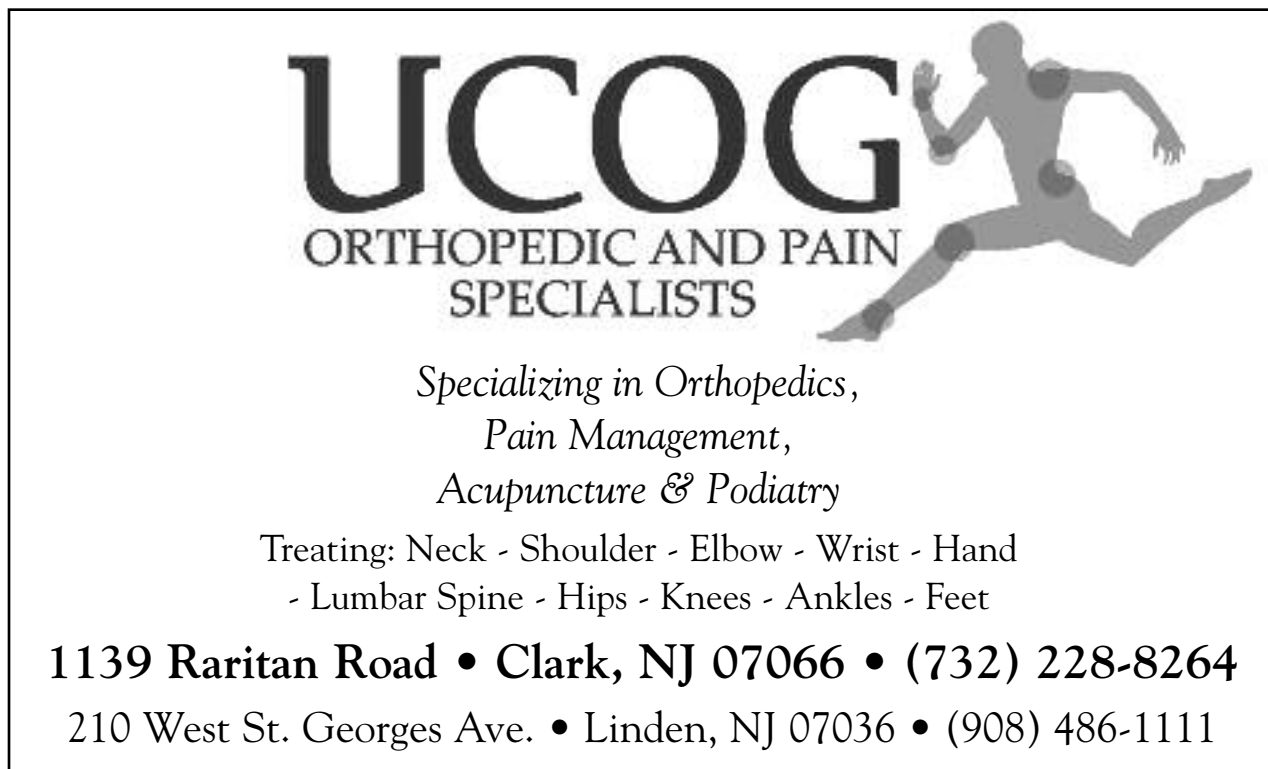

The 2014 Summer Reading Club Program is open to young people, preschool through grade

8. Registration for the Summer Reading Club begins at the Main Library and Vauxhall Branch on June 2nd.

The Library would like to thank the following sponsors for making this year's summer reading club possible: County of Union - Office of the County Clerk – In Memory of the DiRado Family; Target Grant Foundation; Union Center National Bank; and the Walmart Grant Foundation.
