LINDEN VETERAN HERMAN ZEITCHIK RECEIVED HONORARY DIPLOMA 70 YRS. LATER

Submitted by Matthew Lorenzetti, Supervisor of Fine and Performing Arts, Linden Public Schools

The Linden High School Marching Band performed in the National Memorial Day Parade representing the entire state of New Jersey. While attending the National Memorial Day Parade in Washington DC, with the Marching Band some of the parents were approached by an older gentleman who saw the band warming up. He mentioned that he grew up in Linden (he is 90 years old and currently lives in Maryland) and went to the high school. They immediately introduced me to him. He mentioned having received a medal in Paris a few years earlier but didn't speak much more about the war. He was more interested in talking about Linden. He grew up on Cranford Ave, went to School 4, the Junior High School (Soehl) and LHS. He spoke of the lake across the street from the high school and was shocked to hear there is now a second, rather large part of the high school now blocking it. He talked about playing clarinet in the band and how they would have parades for the recruits that would go down Wood Ave., stop at the theater for a pep rally and then continue on to the train station as they left to serve our country. We spoke for a few minutes longer before he returned to the group he was with in the parade. After he left I was told by one of our parents that he was honored on stage the night before at the National Memorial Day Concert on the West Lawn of the Capitol Building along with 11 others for their participation in the Normandy Landing.

When we got back home I couldn't stop thinking of my conversation with this man. I went to the high school and searched old year books from the time he would have been in school. I found him. He was in the 1941-1943 year books. His senior year yearbook did not contain any pictures of him. After we spoke about it on Wednesday I reached out to him at his home on Thursday. He was so happy not only that I remembered him but mentioned how he hasn't stopped thinking about Linden since he saw us on Monday. I jokingly explained I wasn't a stalker but was very interested in his story and that I couldn't find him in his senior yearbook. He explained that he did technically graduate and that his parents received his diploma for him since he had already enlisted.

I invited him back to Linden to receive an honorary diploma at graduation as per our discussion. He was silent for a few moments then asked numerous times why we'd want to do something like this for him because he has a diploma. I explained that it was the least we could do to show our appreciation for what he has done for our country and wanted to provide him the opportunity to get a diploma himself. The ironic thing is that this year is the 70th anniversary of him missing graduation while he was overseas fighting in the war. I spoke to his wife as well to explain to her the conversation he and I just had because he said he was too excited to explain it. She said she would get back to me in the next few days once they figure out if they can work out transportation for him. After our conversation I went back to the high school and actually found his transcript which verified the whole story including receiving "blanket credit" for his entire senior year due to him enlisting.

Friday afternoon I received a phone call for his wife saying that he, his wife, 2 daughters and sons in law would be making the trip up. They already reached out to family in the area who they haven't seen in years to share the news with them. They booked a few hotel rooms and will be arriving Thursday. I offered to give them a tour of the schools he attended if they wanted to see how somethings remained the same and how different other things are.

On June 20, 2014, Herman Zeitchik walked across the dais and received an honorary diploma from Linden High School 70 years later. I am so glad we were able to do this for this veteran.

11 CRITICAL HOME INSPECTION TRAPS TO BE AWARE OF WEEKS BEFORE LISTING YOUR HOME FOR SALE

Linden NJ - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To order a FREE Special Report, visit www.njhomeinspectiontraps.com or to hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free 1-888-243-5861 and enter 1003. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Get your free special report NOW to learn how to ensure a home inspection doesn't cost you the sale of your home.

$350-MILLION LOGISTICS CENTER TO BE BUILT

On June 25, 2014 Goodman Group announced it has received entitlement approvals for the development of a proposed $350-million logistics center in Linden.

A company press release states the City of Linden's entitlement approval is an important milestone towards Goodman Birtcher's proposed redevelopment of a prime 143 acre site in Linden, NJ into a major logistics center. The proposed development will offer a combined total of over 2.8 million s.f. of logistics space across five high grade distribution warehouses, which are to be delivered in three phases.

The proposed logistics center, to be named Goodman Logistics Center Linden, will be strategically located in close proximity to major road, air and sea infrastructure, including direct access to the New Jersey Turnpike and just seven miles to Newark International Airport and the Port of Newark.

Brandon Birtcher, Chief Executive Officer of Goodman Birtcher said, "Goodman Birtcher acknowledges the invaluable support and positive engagement by Mayor Richard Gerbounka of City of Linden and all the city council members associated with the approval process. We value the collaborative and productive relationship that has been established, which has resulted in a quick and decisive planning outcome and we look forward to working closely with the City as we progress with our vision for Goodman Logistics Center Linden."

Mayor Gerbounka said, "I've been working with Goodman Birtcher for more than 12 months and am very pleased that such a high quality developer intends to undertake the redevelopment of this site in Linden. This redevelopment project will not only serve as an economic benefit to Linden and Union County, but Goodman Birtcher has also proven to be a corporate partner that will work closely with my administration to improve our residents' quality of life. I am glad to be working with Goodman Birtcher and look forward to continuing the positive relationship we've established."

Three Linden officers were recently honored at a breakfast ceremony on June 11, 2014 at Middlesex County College, Edison, hosted by the New Jersey Chapter of Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (M.A.D.D.). The officers were cited for their aggressive efforts in the enforcement of the DWI law resulting in the top number of arrests for the year 2013. The theme of the ceremony was titled, "Saving Lives by Preventing Crashes". Linden Police Chief James M. Schulhafer also attended the ceremony and personally congratulated the men on their achievement.

FOUR LINDEN POLICE OFFICERS HONORED AT STATE NARCOTICS OFFICERS' CONVENTION

Four Linden patrol officers were recently honored at the statewide Narcotics Enforcement Officers' Association dinner held in Atlantic City on June 5, 2014. The officers were cited for their continuing aggressive efforts in the enforcement of narcotics laws by patrol officers, which have resulted in numerous arrests and the seizure of a significant amount of illegal and prescription drugs. In addition, a large amount of currency, several handguns, and several vehicles have been seized for forfeiture. Linden Police Chief James M. Schulhafer also attended the dinner and personally congratulated the men for their efforts.

SIX LINDEN OFFICERS PROMOTED

Six veteran Linden police superior officers were recently promoted during a ceremony at Linden City Hall held on July 1, 2014, before an audience filled with family, friends, colleagues, and city officials.

Jonathan R. Parham, a nearly 16-year veteran, and William F. Turbett, Jr., a 17 ½-year veteran, were promoted to the rank of Captain. Turbett worked for the New Jersey State Police prior to coming to Linden. Michael E. Babulski, a 19-year veteran, Nancy E. Petroski, a 22 ½-year veteran, Joseph A. Cacioppo, a 15-year veteran, and Abdul Williams, a 13-year veteran, were each promoted to the rank of Lieutenant.

It was also a milestone event for the police department as Parham's promotion signified a first for an African-American officer reaching the rank of Captain, and Petroski was the first female officer to attain the rank of Lieutenant.

Both Mayor Richard J. Gerbounka and Chief Schulhafer congratulated the officers and wished them continued success in their careers.

RESIDENTS HOST ALEX'S LEMONADE STAND TO FIGHT CHILDHOOD CANCER

In an effort to join the battle against childhood cancer, Linden residents hosted an Alex's Lemonade Stand on Saturday, June 21st in Linden, NJ. This Alex's Lemonade Stand was a family affair complete with 7-year-old Gabriella, her mom Mary and aunt Kathie. What started out as finding a lemon decorated table cloth at a clearance event has been transformed into a family life lesson. The family feels that it's the perfect opportunity to show Gabriella that you are never too young to make a difference and that it can be easy to help others through simple actions. Gabriella shared day with several of her classmates and fellow Girl Scouts raising funds to help find a cure for all kids with cancer.

Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation (ALSF) emerged from the front yard lemonade stand of cancer patient Alexandra "Alex" Scott (1996-2004). In 2000, 4-year-old Alex announced that she wanted to hold a lemonade stand to raise money to help find a cure for all children with cancer. Since Alex held that first stand, the Foundation bearing her name has evolved into a national fundraising movement, complete with thousands of supporters across the country carrying on her legacy of hope. To date, Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation, a registered 501(c)3 charity, has raised more than $55 million toward fulfilling Alex's dream of finding a cure, funding over 250 research projects nationally.

LINDEN TEACHER PENS BESTSELLER

Michael D'Amato, a Social Studies teacher at Soehl Middle School, recently made Barnes & Noble's Top Ten Bestsellers List with his new book, The Dominican Experiment. The book, which focuses on the social justice trips to the Dominican Republic run by fellow teacher Kevin LaMastra, (an adventure in which dozens of Linden students and teachers have taken part in), challenges readers to look past the pictures of an island paradise and instead contemplate how the average adult on the island survives making less than fifteen dollars a day.

The Dominican Experiment, which has been labeled "affectionate, humorous, and insightful," invites the reader to look at extreme poverty up close through the eyes of teenagers as they encounter a sweatshop, an actual Vodou ceremony, and a colossal garbage dump where stateless people work.

6 LANGUAGE HONOR SOCIETIES INDUCTEES

This spring, Linden Public Schools honored over 130 language students participating in the Linden High School's annual World Language Honor Society's Induction Ceremony. Linden High offers six world languages: Spanish, French, Italian, German, Russian, and Chinese. Each language has its own honor society with its unique requirements, but one constant is the outstanding academic performance of its members and the community service projects in which the students engage. New inductees all received membership certificates.

The society advisors Ms. M. Romero (Spanish), Ms. A. Foy (French), Mr. A. Fischetti (Italian), Mrs. M. Turbett (German), Mrs. B. Szulc, and Mr. J. Hu (Chinese) each spent time praising the graduating seniors, highlighting their accomplishments and future career goals. Seniors were presented with tassels and cords in the colors of the flag of the language they studied, which they wore at graduation.

SENIOR AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

Linden High School Senior, Francesse Dolbrice, was awarded $44,000 to attend the prestigious School of Visual Arts in New York City. Francesse came to America when she was three years old from Haiti. She has excelled as an International Baccalaureate certificate scholar. Dolbrice is an honors student whose academic and personal achievements are remarkable. Francesse helps care for her 9th grade brother who has suffered with bone cancer and is often hospitalized. She credits her artistic inspiration to her uncles, and to the great artists: Van Gogh, Picasso, Pollock and Dali. Francesse's talent has earned her recognition in the International Baccalaureate Program, in the Entrepreneurial Management Achievement Program (EMAP), in the Linden High School Animé and Art Club, and clearly as an aspiring artist at one of the most renowned art institutes in the country. The Linden Public School Community is so very proud of her.

LINDEN HIGH SCHOOL AND SCHOOL NO. 6 BUDDY BENCH PROJECT

Linden High School and Linden School No. 6 are involved in a joint character education-inspiring project. The schools are collaborating on the Buddy Bench Project.

It's a bench for students and children of the community to come and sit when they're feeling lonely or need a friend, you can go sit on the buddy bench and someone will join you. The buddy bench is a simple idea to promote the seven pillars of character and foster friendship on the playground and beyond.

The Linden High School Culture Club wanted to do the Buddy Bench Project for their community service project and selected Linden School No. 6. Ms. Fran Malik the advisor for the Culture Club who then went to Home Depot of Linden, and they donated $25.00 towards the lumber. The Wood shop and Art students contributed their skills of building and painting to produce the Buddy Bench.

Through the Buddy Bench Project students of the School No. 6 community will feel more connected with each other, and in return strengthen the bonds of friendships and being an overall good citizens. At all of Linden Public Schools the administration, teachers and staff are challenging our students to live their lives of kindness and integrity.
