The Union County Day of Prayer, held Thursday, Sept. 18, at the First United Methodist Church in Westfield, drew hundreds to hear those messages, as delivered by a slate of leaders from houses of worship from throughout Union County and the nonprofit community.

The Day of Prayer, the first of a planned annual celebration, was an interfaith gathering of the faith-based, nonprofit and government communities to unite people from throughout the county regardless of race, religion or disability and to bring greater awareness of the support services available to them, according to Sid Blanchard, executive director of Community Access Unlimited (CAU).

CAU provides support programs and services to people with disabilities and youth served under the Department of Children and Families (DCF) to enable them to live independently in the community, in areas including housing, vocational and life-skills training, education, advocacy and recreation.

The event was sponsored by the Union County Interfaith Coordinating Committee Council, an organization comprising 40 interfaith congregations and community-based nonprofits, including CAU, the driving force behind creation of the council. The council was formed to promote inclusion of all people within the community, without regard to race, religion or disability, and to create a clearing house of faith-based, nonprofit and government community services available to the public, according to Blanchard.

The theme of the evening was "The Ethics of Reciprocity – Your Faith, Your Golden Rule." Attendees heard multiple readings from the Bible and Koran and a panel discussion about what the reciprocity of faith, or Golden Rule, means within different faiths.

The panel discussion featured Imam Ali Jaaber of Masjid Darul Islam Mosque in Elizabeth; Sister Mary Carrington, vice president of missions and effectiveness at Trinitas Regional Medical Center and the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth; Pastor William Ingram of the Shiloh Baptist Church in Elizabeth; and Rev. L.L. DuBrevil of the Faith United Church of Christ in Union. Rev. Erica Crawford of the Ebenezer African Methodist Episcopal Church in Rahway served as the discussion facilitator.

About CAU

Community Access Unlimited (CAU), celebrating its 35th anniversary, supports people with special needs in achieving real lives in the community. CAU provides support and gives a voice to adults and youth who traditionally have little support and no voice in society. CAU helps people with housing, life skills, employment, money management, socialization and civic activities. CAU also supports opportunities for advocacy through training in assertiveness, decision-making and civil rights. CAU serves more than 5,000 individuals each year. For more information about CAU and its services, contact us by phone at 908.354.3040, online at www.caunj.org or by mail at 80 West Grand Street, Elizabeth, NJ 07202.

ZUMA CLASS TO RAISE FUNDS FOR BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

'Zumba with Chrissy' is dedicating all proceeds from one Zumba session to Keystone and Torch Clubs of Boys & Girls Clubs of Union County for their efforts to raise funds for Breast Cancer Awareness. Chrissy offers Zumba classes at Boys & Girls Clubs of Union County, Union Club weekly on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM.

All proceeds from the class on Saturday October 18, 2014 at the Union Club will be donated to Keystone and Torch Clubs for their project to raise money during Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Class is from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM at the Union Club; cost is $15 at the door.

The Union Keystone and Torch Clubs will also be participating in the Making Strides Walk on Sunday October 19, 2014 at Military Park, Park Place and Broad Street, Newark. The Club members and staff team will be walking the entire 5K distance with a goal to raise $1,000. All money raised from both events will be donated to American Cancer Society Breast Cancer Awareness.

11 CRITICAL HOME INSPECTION TRAPS TO BE AWARE OF WEEKS BEFORE LISTING YOUR HOME FOR SALE

Union NJ - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To order a FREE Special Report, visit www.njhomeinspectiontraps.com or to hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free 1-888-243-5861 and enter 1003. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Get your free special report NOW to learn how to ensure a home inspection doesn't cost you the sale of your home.

UNION CENTER SID FESTIVAL ON THE GREEN WAS HELD ON SEPT. 20TH

From noon until 5:00 p.m., the free, long-running town classic art festival dating back to 1973, transformed Friberger Park and the area around the municipal building at 1976 Morris Avenue into a mecca of family fun. The popular rock band, "The Nerds," performed live. In addition, attractions included food vendors, interactive workshops, community mural painting, karate performance from Union's

United Taekwondo Academy, dance performances from ATD Dance Center and the Jennifer Lynn School of Irish Dance, and even "Yoga on the Green."

More than 60 art and craft vendors included painters, photographers, sculptors, potters, whittlers, clothing and jewelry designers, indie crafters, hat smiths, glass blowers, up cyclers, accessory vendors and creative crafters.

MIKE ZUKO/RAY POWERS, IRISH DANCERS

to Play Northern New Jersey's Most Intimate Coffeehouse, SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ at Townley Presbyterian Church, 829 Salem Road, Union, NJ 07083

The SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ proudly presents Mike Zuko and Ray Powers with an opening by the Jennifer Lynn Irish Dancers on Saturday, October 11, 2014. Doors open 7:00 p.m. The show starts at 7:30 p.m. Admission is $15.00/$10.00 students with ID.

Mike Zuko and Ray Powers have played to sellout audiences every year since the Roadhouse began operation. Ray's original rock tunes coupled with his fun, energetic style have won over audiences in many states. Mike Zuko, a solid, well known performer in the NY/NJ musical scene, performs his own intelligently songs written about the life and times around him. Done with a flair for early rock and pop with a heavy Beatles influence, his tunes are memorable and always totally captivate audiences.

The award winning Jennifer Lynn Irish Dancers are starting things off for the show.

With traditional Irish costumes, these young people perform traditional dances evoking the style of River Dance and other well known dancing troupes. Their energy and enthusiasm is reflected in their presentations.

Original art by Natalie Losada and Friends will be on display on the Roadhouse Fine Art Gallery walls.

Plan now for an evening of great music and art in Northern New Jersey's Most Intimate Coffeehouse™.

The Roadhouse presents original art work on display and available for purchase in the ROADHOUSE FINE ARTS GALLERY.

Show proceeds always benefit local NJ charities.

All ages welcome. It's a wholesome show, so bring the entire family.

See the Roadhouse on Union TV Channel 34's "Union After Dark" nightly music series.

TOWNSHIP PROMOTES THREE POLICE OFFICERS

Police Commissioner Suzette Cavadas promoted three police officers to sergeants on Tuesday, September 9th during the Township Committee Meeting. Among one of the promotions was Sergeant Chantel Brochu who was honored as Union's 1st female sergeant. "Today we acknowledge a great woman who was the first in the police department to move up in ranks to sergeant," stated Police Commissioner Suzette Cavadas, "Public safety has always been and will continue to be an important factor to our Township Committee and we as a whole continue to support our police department and their hard work."

There were also two other promotions that night; Sergeant Matthew Brescia and Sergeant Timothy Ford, who both continue their family's tradition of law enforcement.

Biographies for each sergeant to follow:

Chantel Brochu holds a Bachelors' degree in Political Science from Kean University. She also attended numerous specialized training courses, including various investigative courses. She was appointed to the Union Police Department as a Communications Operator in January on 1991, she was appointed as a Police Officer in January of 1997. During her career, Chantel has been assigned to the Patrol Bureau, the Detective Bureau and the Traffic Bureau. While assigned to the Patrol Bureau she was also designated as a Field Training Officer. This is a position that is only entrusted to the finest of sworn personnel, due to the requirement that they train all new officers.

Chantel received the Anthony Lordi Award and has also received the award for the highest academic achievement in her graduating class. She carries on in the family tradition of Law Enforcement. Her father, Douglas, served as a Police Sergeant with the Township of Union from 1966-1992, Chantel's brother, Keith, currently serves the township as a police officer.

Chantel is a member of PBA Local #69 and the Union County Traffic Officers Association.

Matthew Brescia attended Ocean County Community college where he studied Criminal Justice. He also attended numerous specialized training courses, including those in various investigative techniques. He served for 5 years with the Seaside Park New Jersey Police Department prior to joining the Union Police Department. Matthew has received numerous department awards for bravery and also carried on the tradition of Law Enforcement in his family as his father, Robert, served as a Deputy Chief with the New Jersey Attorney General's Office. Matthew is a member of PBA Local #69. He and his wife Melissa are the parents of two children, Ryan, age 7 and Aiden, age 5.

Timothy Ford holds a Bachelor's Degree in criminal Justice from Ramapo College. He attended numerous training courses, including specializing in Advance Driving While Intoxicated and Enforcement techniques. Timothy is certified with the State of New Jersey as a Drug Recognition Expert. He was appointed to the Union Police Department in July of 2005 and while assigned to the patrol Bureau, he served as a Field Training Officer. Tim has received numerous departmental awards for bravery, awards in the area of Drunk Driving Enforcement and awarded the "Top Gun" award by the New Jersey Division of Highway Traffic Safety. Timothy, along with his fellow sergeants also continued to uphold the family tradition of Law Enforcement. His late grandfather, James Ford Sr., retired after 25 years of serving in Union Country Corrections as a corrections officer. Timothy's father, Jim, served as a Lieutenant with the Chatham Township Police Department and is currently serving as a Professor of law at Saint Elizabeth's College. Timothy's brother, Brian, currently serves as a Detective with the Florham Park Township Police Department. Timothy is a member of PBA Local #69, St. Michaels Church and the Knights of Columbus.
