SCHOOL JOINS MILLIONS IN TEACHING COMPUTER SCIENCE

90 percent of American schools don't teach computer science. Fewer students are learning how computers work than a decade ago. Girls and minorities are severely underrepresented. And yet, technology is increasingly shaping almost every aspect of how we live our lives.

That's why 621 of the students at Franklin Elementary School in Rahway are joining in on the largest education event in history: The Hour of Code. During Computer Science Education Week (December 8-14), Mrs. Linda Lampert, the school's Elementary Technology Facilitator had every student from kindergarten through 6th grade spend one hour learning computer science, doing online tutorials featuring Bill Gates, Mark Zuckerberg and Angry Birds.

The Hour of Code is a campaign to prove that regardless of age, race or gender, anyone can learn how to not just consume, but build the technologies of the future.

Franklin School students are joining 2 million already planning to try one Hour of Code during Dec. 8-14 worldwide. This movement, organized by Code.org and supported by Apple, Google, Microsoft, Amazon, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, and over 100 others, is a statement that today's generation of students are ready to learn critical skills for 21st century success. For more information, you can go to hourofcode.com.

A bust of the famous scientist was recently donated to the city by the Tesla Science Foundation and has been temporarily placed on the east side of the station, under the canopy, at Train Station Plaza.

"A permanent location for the bust will be determined but the current spot was chosen because it fit nicely in the space and was protected from the weather", City Administrator Cherron Rountree said. "We are also reviewing options for a more prominent location at or near Train Station Plaza, where Tesla flipped the switch for the first time" she said. An small unveiling ceremony is expected once a permanent location is chosen.

Some commuters and residents wish that the bust be moved sooner rather than later. A commuter recently voiced on Rahway Rising's blog "They couldn't have put this in a worse spot. Nobody but us commuters sees this piece of art where they situated it. It's an insult to Tesla's work and residency in Rahway."

Nikola Tesla formed the Tesla Electric Light & Manufacturing company in April 1887. Based on Irving street, the company started after Tesla left Thomas Edison's employment following a disagreement over payment. Tesla found financial backers who funded a laboratory where Tesla developed an arc lamp for streetlights; the design was patented, the lamps built and first installed in Rahway.

11 CRITICAL HOME INSPECTION TRAPS TO BE AWARE OF WEEKS BEFORE LISTING YOUR HOME FOR SALE

Rahway NJ - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To order a FREE Special Report, visit www.njhomeinspectiontraps.com or to hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free 1-888-243-5861 and enter 3000. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Get your free special report NOW to learn how to ensure a home inspection doesn't cost you the sale of your home.

RAHEWAY SCOUTS HAVE BEEN VERY BUSY

So far this year, Cub Scout Pack 47 and Boy Scout Troop 40 of Rahway have been very busy. The Cub Scouts had a successful fund raiser in October and cleaned Veterans Memorial Park in November. The Boy Scouts sold popcorn and helped our first Eagle Scout since 2006 with his project. Together our Pack and Troop have collected "Food For Friends" and coats and blankets for the needy in November. Once again they are joining forces to put together holiday baskets for shelter families in December. We always try to "Do Our Best" and will continue working together to make Rahway proud.

Rahway's Community Garden on Central Ave and St. Georges is still producing crops. "The day after Christmas I harvested some fresh parsley and brusell sprouts that I'll bring tonight to a family holiday dinner" remarked Rahway resident and Community Gardener Pat Marlinski of Pierpont Street. The garden plots are in raised beds 4'x8' and designed using the specs of the Square Foot Gardening Foundation. All of Rahway's Community Gardeners agree to use only organic methods in raising their vegetables and flowers. LAFAYETTE VILLAGE PROJECT NOW UNDER WAY

Construction of the 115 unit Lafayette Village in our downtown is underway. Excavation equipment began moving earth in mid-December and building supplies can be seen stockpiled at the former vacant lot at the corner of Main Street and Monroe. Difficulties had plagued the project over many years. Most recently in 2013, the NJ DEP put the project on hold delaying the issuance of necessary permits.

EASY WINTER BIRD FEEDING: FRUIT

Mockingbirds, Cardinals and Purple Finches are a few of our local back yard birds that eat fruit. Bountiful in the summer a planting of fruiting trees and shrubs is a sure way to bring these and many other beautiful migrating birds into our gardens. Most birds follow these fruiting trees and flowers as they migrate south in the winter months.

For the birds that don't migrate, fruit in winter is impossible to find but still greatly appreciated if you can supply it.

Apples, grapes, raisins are the best choice for winter bird feeding.*

Raisins are the easiest fruit to supply. Just put a few in the same area each day and your birds will make a daily visit to that area.

If you have extra apples, rather than putting them in the trash feed them to birds. Apples store for a long period of time so keep them in your crisper until you want them. They don't have to be perfect. Over-ripe apples with a few brown spots are fine. Birds aren't picky. Simply cut off the top or slice them if you prefer. You can toss them out the door but I put them on a spike where I have a good view from my window.

If you have a lot of extra grapes put some in the freezer until you need them. I only put out three or four grapes a day. You can also serve blueberries or cranberries if available.

I try to avoid waste that can attract unwanted visitors at night, such as mice.

Don't be surprised to see a beautiful Mockingbird in your garden every winter day enjoying an apple or a few grapes.

*Our local birds do not eat oranges, bananas and other tropical fruit so don't put them out.

Enjoy your garden all year long,

*Enjoy your garden all year long,
James*

(above) Best known for their song during the summer nights, Mockingbirds can be attracted to your garden all winter long with fruit.

A LOOK AT RAHWAY 50, 75, AND 100 YEARS AGO

Submitted by Al Shipley, City Historian and Rahway Library Research Consultant

This time of year always brings an opportunity to look ahead and wonder what the next twelve months may bring. It's a time for resolutions and a new beginning. It's also a time to be nostalgic, to long for "the good old days" when life seemed to be less complex and less hurried. Yet because time has a way of clouding our memories, it might be interesting to look back at what was really happening in our city 50, 75, and 100 years ago.

Jan. 8 - Rahway Board of Education purchased Riverside Park (Veterans' Field) for $3,100. Renovations were made to the field transforming it into a first class baseball diamond, track, and tennis court. On Wednesday, August 4, 1915, the field was covered by six feet of flood water.

Issues of women's equality were reaching a boiling point in 1915 - Jan. 8 - The question of appointing women to the Board of Education was discussed. May 7 - The question of appointing women to the police force was being debated by the common council. Aug. 7 - Rahway women rallied for the right to vote when the "Torch of Liberty" was brought to the city. On October 19 a vote was taken on three Constitutional Amendments including women's voting rights. Equal suffrage was defeated in both Rahway 972 - 602 and on the state level 175,000 - 125,000. Women would wait another five years before they got the right to vote.

April 30 - The Board of Education reported that more school rooms were needed. The four grammar schools, Franklin, Washington, Columbia, and Lincoln had more students than desks.

June 15 - 42 students graduated from Rahway High. To that point, it was the largest number of seniors to graduate in the school's history.

July 4 - A big rally for prohibition was held which featured a speaker from Kentucky who spoke on the evils of "King Alcohol." The 21 saloons in the city were under attack by members of the clergy and prohibition groups. In 1920, the 18th Amendment of the Constitution would ban the sale of alcohol.

Oct 5 - A survivor of the Lusitania visited Rahway and told of her ordeal on the ill-fated ship that was sunk by a German U-Boat. Of the 1,198 passengers and crew members who perished, 110 were Americans. War was in the air.

Nov. 30 - Rahway doctors promote the need for a local hospital. It would eventually be housed in the building on the corner of W. Hazelwood Ave. and Jaques Ave., which incidentally, still stands.

1940

Jan. 4 - Building in the city in 1939 was reported to have been the best since the record year of 1927. Forty-eight new homes were built and 286 permits were issued for building valued at a total of $1,156,427.

(above) A number of locals pose at the corner of Hazelwood Avenue and Main Street after the flood of Wednesday, August 4, 1915.

Jan. 25 - A discussion was held regarding the disposition of the Campbell Street high school. Dedicated in 1909, by 1940 it was outmoded and too small to accommodate the growing number of students. City officials would eventually opt to renovate and restructure the building to serve as the city hall. In June 1940, the police department would move into what had been the high school annex.

May 23 - Traffic concerns were an issue in 1940 with an increase in speeding violations. Traffic lights were finally installed on major intersections along St. Georges Avenue.

May 28 - The population of Rahway was listed as 17,579.

June 20 - The first appeals were made by the Rahway Chapter of the American Cross to aid to civilian refugees in Europe. War was in the air.

1965

Jan. 14 - Contracts were signed for the redevelopment of Lower Main Street. Today, the property is the site of the City Hall/Police Headquarters, Recreation Center, Library, Rahway Plaza Apartments, SDI Technologies, Meridia Water's Edge Apartments, Center

Circle Sports "Tents", the Post Office and the Fire Headquarters.

April 1 - Captain Herbert T. Kinch was named Deputy Chief of the Rahway Police Department. He was the first African American to attain that rank in any municipality in the state.

Several new civic buildings were being planned in 1965 - April 15 - An ordinance was passed to build a new library. July 22 - Bids were taken to build a new Fire Headquarters. Oct. 1 - Plans for a new post office were approved.

June 24 - Rahway High school graduates 508 seniors (largest in city's history to this day).

July 15 - Plans were made with the Army Corps of Engineers for flood control remediation.

Sept. 2 - Lincoln School was razed. Built in 1873, it served as Rahway's first high school until 1909 and later as a grammar school until it was demolished.

Oct. 28 - The names of Rahway boys stationed in Vietnam were listed in the Rahway News Record. War was in the air.

RAHWAY HIGH SCHOOL BAND PERFORMS AT BEACON THEATER

OUR TOWN Rahway • Page 11 • January 2015

On Saturday, December 6, 2014, the Rahway High School Marching Band, conducted by Miguel Bolivar, had the pleasure of being asked to perform again with Ballets with a Twist at this year's venue, the iconic Beacon Theatre in New York City. The event was sponsored by the True Colors Fund, co-founded by Cyndi Lauper, to raise awareness about and bring an end to gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender youth homelessness and to inspire everyone, especially straight people, to become active participants in the advancement of equality for all.

The RHS students were thrilled to perform for this sold-out crowd of 3,000 that was filled with plenty of celebrities! The Rahway Band also got the chance to sit in on the sound check of such superstars as Salt and Pepa, as well as the host herself, Cyndi Lauper. It was truly an amazing experience that both students and band staff will never forget.

THE TEEN CLOSET

The Junior League of Elizabeth-Plainfield announces newest community service project

The Junior League of Elizabeth-Plainfield (JLEP) is pleased to announce their newest community service project, The Teen Closet. The Teen Closet is a girls empowerment initiative providing at-risk female students from local area high schools with a "Dress Write Starter Kit" of college essay and resume advice, and professional clothing.

Following on successful resume workshops in prior years, the Teen Closet held its inaugural College Essay Workshop on Wednesday, October 22nd, hosting 23 seniors and juniors from Rahway High School at JLEP Headquarters in Cranford. The teens enjoyed dinner, essay tips, one-on-one college essay editing and selected three key articles of clothing appropriate for college interviews and events, all packaged in a Teen Closet bag. Over 20 JLEP volunteers donated time and resources to preparing and hosting the event.

"We are so pleased with the outcome of our first college essay editing event", said JLEP President, Josephine Ferrigno-Stack. "This is a critical time for students and a little help can send them in a positive direction for their future. We, at the JLEP, are so happy to provide this valuable service to the girls. We had such a great response to our resume editing events in 2013 and 2014, it was a natural fit to expand our community service projects to college essay editing."

Teen Closet is the newest successful offshoot of the JLEP Career Closet, which provides career wear at no charge to women in Union County who are returning to work. In the past 11 years, the Career Closet has outfitted over 1,500 women.

THE LIBRARY: RAHWAY'S OTHER COMMUNITY CENTER

Submitted by Friends of the Rahway Public Library.

Want to take out book? Go to the library. Want to rent a DVD? Go to the library. Want to learn Tai Chi? Go to the library! Yes, the Rahway Public Library offers more to members than simply supplying books, DVDs, and a quiet place in which to read. The Library is very much a center of our community, providing meeting space for such local organizations as the Garden Club, Girl Scouts, NJ Association for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, as well as various alumni associations.

The library itself also offers a wide variety of programs, some sponsored by the Library Board or Friends of the Library, which provide free live entertainment for those who may not be able to get to other venues in New Jersey. These programs often have an educational focus as well, such as the small business and the job search programs.

The library plays a key role in preparing very young children to read and go to school. The Every Rahway Child Ready to Read program enhances existing story time programs with guidance for parents to take home and read to their children. Special children's events, such as baking gingerbread cookies, bring children of all ages to the library. For older children, the Teen Circle is an enclosed space where teens can gather and feel a little freer to be themselves.

As people rely more and more on computers, the library's role in providing public computers has become the single biggest challenge in the last decade. The Library is an essential support center for those without other regular computer access, or for whose skills are not strong and may need a helping hand. The Library strives to keep its technology current and its staff helpful with it.

The library, now ten years old, is a welcoming physical space. The cafe area is the most popular wi-fi center^{3/4}people spread out with their laptops and coffee. This high-ceilinged, light space with a view of the river is also used for musical performances. The Board Room/Rahway History Room is a quiet study area containing an impressive collection of books, photos, and artifacts from Rahway. The library also offers conference spaces, individual study carrels, and a computer classroom. Last year, well over 100,000 people came to the library to use computers, attend meetings, and enjoy programs.

If you haven't yet checked out everything that the library has to offer, please make it a point to do so. And just as the Library has expanded its offerings, the Friends organization is adding to the events it sponsors. In March, we will be holding a Murder Mystery Dinner! More information about this event will be coming soon.

BLUE AND GOLD CLUB COLLECTED 160 COATS FOR ANNUAL COAT DRIVE

The Blue and Gold Club at Franklin Elementary School in Rahway collected 160 coats for their annual coat drive. Students that are a part of this school based club, volunteer their time throughout the year to organize and take part in various projects to help their community.

The coats were delivered to Jersey Cares, an organization which helps people in New Jersey. This is the 19th year that Jersey Cares has collected coats. This year, they plan to collect and distribute more than 35,000 “gently used” winter coats to men, women and children in need throughout New Jersey. Over the past eighteen years, Jersey Cares has collected, sorted and distributed more than 400,000 coats to New Jersey residents through their annual drive. Companies, churches, fire departments, police stations, schools and other organizations set up sites across the state to collect coats. Coats are then delivered by collection site representatives to the nearest container site. Volunteers then sort the donated coats at the container site and bag them for pick-up, after which nonprofit organizations pick up their coats and distribute them to people in need. For more information about Jersey Cares, check out jerseycares.org.
