UNION FIREFIGHTERS WIN TOP HONORS IN COOK-OFF

Fifth annual event to benefit NJ State Firefighter's Mutual Benevolent Assoc. and Saint Barnabas Burn Foundation

On Monday February 23, 2015, firefighters from around New Jersey competed at the Cooked and Uncorked Food and Wine Festival benefiting New Jersey State Firefighter's Mutual Benevolent Association (NJSFMB) and Saint Barnabas Burn Foundation. The competition is part of the culinary extravaganza where participants experienced the tastes and flavors of more than twenty-eight of New Jersey's finest restaurants, caterers and dessert shops, as well as 34 tables of liquor vendors all in one location.

The event, which drew more than 1,000 people from throughout New Jersey, was held at The Pines Manor in Edison. Some of the quotes heard were "Amazing Event", "The Food and Beverages were incredible", "The Fire Departments out did themselves this year", "Tried so many different kinds of beverages", "I'll be back next year and bring my friends".

The Ultimate Fire Department Cook-off was an integral part of the evening as twenty-five fire departments competed for top honors in "Gourmet Cooking", "Firehouse Cooking", and "Peoples' Choice". Union competed against teams from Rahway, Cranford, Bayonne, Carteret, Elizabeth, Hillside, Hamilton Twp., New Brunswick, Long Branch, Linden, Plainfield, South Orange, Trenton, Roselle, Millburn, Rahway, Maplewood, Nutley, and Paterson.

The Union Fire Department team consisted of Lead chef: Louis Ferroni; and Sous chefs: Stephen Moro, Brian Luizza, John Sorrentino. The line for their table didn't subside all night. It was no surprise when they took away two awards including 1st Place "People's Choice Winners", and 2nd Place "Gourmet Cooking". Their menu: Fresh Maine Lobster Sliders served with lobster cream on a toasted bun, homemade old bay potato chips, and coleslaw. Union took home first place "Gourmet Cooking" in 2011.

Established in 1987, Saint Barnabas Burn Foundation serves as the education, research and fundraising arm of The Burn Center. It provides essential financial support to burn patients and their families, fire safety programs for the community, training programs for professionals, as well as medical equipment for The Burn Center.

UNION HIGH PRESENTS DUKE ELLINGTON'S "SOPHISTICATED LADIES" A HIGH ENERGY JOURNEY THROUGH "THE DUKES" MOST CLASSIC HITS

Join the award winning Union High School Performing Arts Company as they present their larger than life production of Duke Ellington's Sophisticated Ladies; March 20th, 21st, 26th, 27th and 28th at 7:30pm and March 22nd and 29th at 2pm in the Theater at Union High School, located at 2350 North Third Street, Union, NJ. Please visit www.uhspac.com for ticket information.

Sophisticated Ladies takes you on a musical journey through "The Duke's" most iconic hits in this revue style musical, sighting the evolution of his sound and style through exhilarating Broadway style arrangements. Some of those classics include: "It Don't Mean a Thing (If It Ain't Got That Swing)", "Take the "A" Train", "Hit Me with a Hot Note and Watch Me Bounce", "Sophisticated Lady", and so many more. The original production, starring tap dance legend Gregory Hines, was a critical success, noting Frank Rich from the New York Times "the new musical revue...is an Ellington celebration that just won't quit unit it has won over the audience with dynamic showmanship...it rises so high on affection, skill and of course, stunning music. What's more, this is the only Broadway revue of recent vintage that operates on a truly grand scale." That energy is sure to be brought to the UHS stage with a young crop of triple threat performers waiting to show off their skills.

Choreographer Jennifer Williams had this to say regarding the young cast "It's crazy to think these are only high school aged students. What they are doing out there, some professional performers wouldn't be able to do. The show is nonstop energy from start to finish – I get tired just watching them! To me it's like a Las Vegas stage show complete with elaborate costumes, a rocking band playing the best jazz classics and of course two hours of high energy dancing sure to blow the audience away. Some of our students have never stepped in dance studio in their life and here they are performing jazz, swing and tap numbers like seasoned professionals, this truly is a show not to be missed."

That young cast includes: Kristian Adap, Katrina Adap, Monique Bingham, Deanna Bullock, Alyssa Carbonell, Michael De Los Angeles, Jonathan Duvleson, Ashley Figueiredo, James Frazier, Javon King, Joesph Laurino Jr., Leanne Laurino, Bernice Onanuga, Anissa Prescott, Charlene Puertollano, Lyndsay Richeme, Manuel Ruste, Andrea Santiago, Asia Suggs, Crystal Wright, Jason Yanto, Jackie Yoselevich.

The Union High School Performing Arts Company remains to be at the top of its game in the world of High School Theater. Their most recent productions of Cats and Miss Saigon:

School Edition went on to be nominated for over 20 Paper Mill Rising Star Awards bringing their 8 year total to over 100 nominations in all of the major categories. They have taken home awards for Best Musical, Best Director, Best Musical Direction, Best Choreography, Best Chorus, Best Orchestra, Best Supporting Actor, Best Actress, to name a few. Their actors have also continued to be a force in the theater world working on Broadway, National Tours, Disney Theme Parks, Paper Mill's Summer Music Conservatory, and the Paper Mill Show Choir. Last Spring, UHSPAC alumni Emma Magbanua went to represent Union High School in the Jimmy Awards, a national musical theater competition for young actors, after her win for Best Actress at the Rising Star Awards. Sophisticated Ladies promises to continue the tradition of high level theater produced by the staff and students of Union High School.

“MEET THE MAYOR” EVENT A SUCCESS

The Union Township Chamber of Commerce’s annual “Meet the Mayor” networking event drew more than 70 attendees who came to hear Mayor Manuel Figueiredo share his vision for the Township. The event was held at ConnectOne Bank in Union.

The program featured time for Chamber business owners to hear from the Mayor, who provided the group with information on several initiatives affecting the business community, which included updates on the Merck site, a property tax rebate program for Union residents who shop locally, the opening of the new Union Theater and other news about local businesses and industry coming into the area.

Additionally, the event provided a social setting for local business owners to meet and speak with various Township department heads.

“This annual networking opportunity is one of the Chamber’s most popular offerings,” said James Masterson, Chamber CEO. “We are grateful to Mayor Figueiredo for taking the time to meet our members and speak about issues relevant to them, and we thank our friends at ConnectOne Bank for their hospitality.”

The Union Township Chamber of Commerce is a professional association dedicated to strengthening, uniting, promoting and representing member businesses located in Union and the surrounding area.

BLUE RIBBONS SHOW SUPPORT FOR POLICE

After riots broke out in Missouri and New York, and NYPD officers Wenjian Liu and Rafeal Ramos were shot and killed as they sat in a marked squad car in Brooklyn on December 20, 2014, Kenilworth's borough clerk Laura Reinertsen was dismayed by the anti-police sentiment that was being reported in the national news. She had an idea of placing blue ribbons around Kenilworth Borough Hall to show support for the police and she called the Kenilworth Garden Center for help. It was right in the midst of the Christmas holiday bustle, but owners Gail and Art Russo thought it was a great idea and they tracked down some blue ribbon for the effort. Gail and Art along with Art's mom Mary, created the bows and installed them at Kenilworth's Borough Hall free of charge.

The Russo's thought it was such a great idea that they offered their services free of charge to other towns. Laura sent a blast email to other Union County clerks asking if they'd like blue ribbons to decorate their municipal buildings. The response was overwhelming. To date the Russo's have placed blue ribbons to show support in Union, Cranford, Winfield Park, Elizabeth, Springfield, Fanwood, Scotch Plains, Clark, Roselle Park and Kenilworth.

Remembers Gail Russo, owner of Kenilworth Garden Center, "The police were getting a bad rap. We wanted to show our support."

ARE THERE BULLIES IN YOUR WORKPLACE?

The Union Township Chamber of Commerce will address the topic of bullying in the workplace at its March networking event, scheduled for Wednesday, March 18, 2015, from 5-7 pm, at Café Z, 2333 Morris Avenue, Union (at the Ideal Professional Park).

"The topic of bullying has certainly been addressed in the school systems, but there is also a need for greater awareness on the effects of bullies when they grow up and operate in the workplace," said Chamber Executive James Masterson. "Whether your business is large or small, your employees can experience bullying on the job, and it can contribute to absenteeism, high turnover and litigation."

Presenting that evening is Mary Anne Kochut of Champions for Success, LLC. She is an author, motivational speaker, coach and trainer who specializes in the areas of leadership, communications and financial services.

Admission for the event is $10 for members and $15 for guests. Preregistration is required.

Contact the Chamber by calling 908-688-2777, or by emailing executivedirector@unionchamber.com.

The Union Township Chamber of Commerce is a professional association dedicated to strengthening, uniting, promoting and representing member businesses located in Union and the surrounding area.

LORDS & LADIES TAKE PART IN MOCK INTERVIEW DAY AT BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS

Twenty-five members of the Lords & Ladies Program at Boys & Girls Clubs of Union County had their first introduction to life after high school by participating in "Mock Interview Day" at our Union Club.

Lords & Ladies Program works with high school members to discuss and learn etiquette in professional, social and dating environments. The professional segment includes college and career preparation; mock interviews are an important part of preparing for future careers. Teens had an opportunity to interview in a variety of settings including one-on-one, two-on-one and in a group.

Many thanks to our local partners who came out to help the teens and serve as interviewers: John Ferraz, Community Leader, Walgreens; Mr. Angel Cartagena, Owner, Batteries Plus Bulbs, Board Member of BGCUC; Joseph Stampone, Owner, Major Printing Company; Brian Castell, CEO, BSFC Marketing; Gregory Cromwell, Manager, Red Lobster; and Ariel Rodriguez, Manager, Blink Fitness. Without your support and time we could not have given our teens this valuable experience.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for our teens to have an introduction to what to expect as they enter the workforce", said Russell Triolo, Chief Executive Officer. "Thank you to everyone who participated; the teens who took so much effort to prepare for the interviews and our partners who donated their time to helping our members."

Teen Programs are available at our Union, Plainfield and Elizabeth Clubs. Members participate in character, leadership, career preparation and community service activities throughout the year. Youth programs are available in Hillside, Roselle, Linden, Union, Elizabeth and Plainfield. For information on our clubs and programs, please visit our website www.bgcuc.org or contact us 908-687-2697.
