SAMANTHA DONATES HAIR FOR GOOD CAUSE

By Melissa Noble

When is a haircut more than just a fashion statement? When the clippings are harvested to provide natural hair wigs for women living with cancer. On February 28th, 8 year old, Samantha Noble from Green Brook IEF Elementary School walked into Melanie's Salon in Dunellen to get her hair cut in hopes of helping someone she had never met through a difficult time.

Samantha had been growing her hair for 2 years with the intent of donating it to Pantene Beautiful Lengths, a charity that uses pony tail clippings of 8 inches or longer to create real-hair wigs for women with cancer. According to Pantene's website, the organization has donated 24,000 free real-hair wigs to the American Cancer Society's wig banks. These wigs get distributed to patients across the United States.

After her cut, Samantha commented, "I got a really nice haircut and I got to help someone else too." Samantha wants to spread the word about donating hair in hopes of getting others to join her in the cause. "It takes 8-15 ponytails to make a wig for someone, so we need people to share their hair" said Samantha. "It will grow back and you'll help someone feel better about themselves."

If you would like to join Samantha in her crusade to help women with cancer through hair donation, visit pantene.com/en-us/brandexperience/make-the-cut.

MULTICULTURAL WEEK A FUN-FILLED EXPERIENCE!

During the week of February 23rd, Irene E. Feldkirchner (IEF) Elementary School celebrated Multicultural Week. During that week, each classroom presented Multicultural projects on specific countries.

Projects were displayed in the school's hallways outside grade-level classrooms. Students learned about countries from all seven world continents, including countries that our students' families originate from.

Some of the other activities that occurred during the week included:

1) making medallions that represented each student's country of origin; 2) learning a continent song; 3) listening to and reading stories about other cultures; 4) learning cultural games; 5) continuing to learn about Spain in Spanish classes and researching other countries in Computer classes.

The culmination of the multicultural event occurred on Friday, February 27, 2015. On that day parents/guardians were invited to come see the school's displays/activities, and hear the student body sing the "continent song". Also on that day, everyone sampled a variety of cultural foods within the classrooms.

Parents volunteered to bring in a dish to their child's classroom that is representative of their cultural background and heritage.

Multicultural week was all-in-all a fun-filled educational (and culinary) experience for the entire IEF School community.

“CINDERELLA” FOCUSES ON MAKING YOUR OWN DREAMS COME TRUE

The Musical Theatre Department at Green Brook Middle School presented a middle school version of Rodgers and Hammerstein’s “Cinderella” on Thursday, March 19 and Monday, March 23.

The Rodgers and Hammerstein version is different from the Disney version of the story because it focuses more on making your own dreams come true instead of hoping that things will fall in your lap.

Cinderella (Christine T.) lives with her Stepmother (Aurora B.) and Stepsisters

(Mallory H., Victoria P., and Dana W.) and wishes she can attend the Royal Ball, thrown by the King (Adam N.) and Queen (Megan C.) in hopes to find their son Prince Christopher (Sam. B) a wife. Her Stepmother does not let her attend, but her Godmother (Kyra A.) magically appears and helps her realize that she must make things happen for herself.

Once Cinderella realizes this, she is transformed from rags to riches and attends the ball, where she and the Prince fall in love. When she leaves in a hurry and loses her glass slipper, the Herald (Daria A.) travels the kingdom in search of the girl who fits the missing shoe. The chefs (Rhea K., Jordan P., Christina P., and Kaitlyn L.), Select Chorus (Julie A., Michelle C., Giovanna D., and Maria I) and the Chorus (Rhea Cariappa, Shannon C., Kaylin D., Rhea F., Meghan F., Katrina G., Calyn G., Mia H., Mihika I., Courtney M., Samantha M., Erin P., Lauren Q., Deziree S., Katie S., Amelia T., Abigail W., Savera Z., and Sydney Z.) made the show come to life! The production also included 11 stage crew members (Vivian C., Reshma D., Roshni D., Jordan H., Brandon H., Alli M., Nina M., Sophia P., Evelin P., Alexa R., and Annika R.) and 24 pit band members (Jason A., Aditi B., Zach B., Kathy C., Ben D., Elliot D., Taylor H., Calvin K., Ben K., Omar L., Kevin L., Kyle M., Michael M., Achyuta M., Jack O., Aanika S., Jason S., Max S., Sean W., Tyler W., Jessica Y., Tim Z., Vivian Z., and Lynn Z.).

The production was directed by Mrs. Cifelli, choreographed by Mrs. Chehade, instrumentally musically directed by Mr. Sorensen, and the set was designed by Mrs. Rego.

RESIDENT IS ONE OF SOMERSET COUNTY'S 20 OUTSTANDING WOMEN

Somerset County Freeholder Deputy Director Patricia Walsh, liaison to the county Commission on the Status of Women, joins the commission in announcing the 2015 Outstanding Women in Somerset County award winners.

"We have many women in Somerset County doing amazing things every day," said Freeholder Walsh. "It is most appropriate that during Women's History Month, we take the time to publicly recognize them and say thank you." The Outstanding Women in Somerset County awards dinner was held March 27 at The Imperia in Franklin.

"This year marks the 30th anniversary of the Somerset County Commission on the Status of Women," she added, noting it was founded in January 1985 with the support of then-Freeholder and later Governor Christine Todd Whitman.

Honorees are women who live in Somerset County. Among this year's award recipients is Green Brook resident, Florence Larkin recognized for her work in arts and entertainment. She has been a member of the Board of Trustees of the Watchung Arts Center (WAC) for 13 years and currently serves as vice-president of education. As a former school teacher who always advocated for the arts, she has used her insight in overseeing the WAC's very successful children's art classes and children's art summer camp. Working with a fellow trustee, she has been instrumental in developing a relationship with the Watchung Hills Regional High School Art Department to showcase the works of advanced arts students and their faculty in a month-long art exhibition at the WAC. She also is coordinator and host of the Meet the Performers Reception held with each WAC concert and event.

HILLS GRADUATE AND TREASURE HUNTER DONATES HISTORICAL ARTIFACTS

(above) Brad Bocksel, a 2001 graduate of Watchung Hills Regional High School and former resident of Warren Township, returned to his alma mater on Monday, March 9, to share his success at finding and donating to museums historical artifacts such as Revolutionary War and Civil War-era coins, musket balls, and belt buckles, among other artifacts. With Bocksel (third left) are students (l-r): Senior Brooke Bahooshian of Green Brook Township, Senior Greg Lockwood of Millington, Junior Brianna Torrisi of Warren Township, Junior Brianna Walker of Watchung, Senior Liddy Tino of Watchung, and Freshman Alexa Chavez of Watchung.

“DANCIN’ WITH THE SUPERSTARS” BENEFIT

Submitted by Lorinda Haver

On Saturday, February 7, 2015, Broadway Dance Theatre hosted “Dancin’ With The Superstars,” a benefit competition & performance for Pediatric Cancer Research & Marinda Davis (Dysautonomia Awareness). The event was held at Governor Livingston High School in Berkeley Heights and raised $12, 450.

Broadway Dance Theatre invited four dance studios to participate (Epic Dance Company of Flemington, Denville Dance Arts of Denville, Ms. Doreen's Fabulous Feet of Metuchen and Chez Renee of Middlesex) to the event, and along with the dancers of Broadway Dance Theatre...they danced to raise thousands of dollars for two amazing causes.

Each studio had to choose a "superstar" (or dance dad) and create a dance performance around the superstar. THEY WERE FANTASTIC...and great sports about the whole performance. The studios raised money for the two causes by getting sponsors in the name of their superstar. Broadway Veteran, Ben Cameron MC'd the event, and we had star studded judges (Nikki Hester, Robert DuSold & Emily Hsu) who critiqued the "superstars" live at the event. Nobody was "hired" as we all volunteered our time to be part of this beautiful night. It was an incredible event full of laughs and friendships and spectacular performances.
