POLITO AND NARUS HONORED BY CRANFORD ROTARY

The Rotary Club of Cranford honored two outstanding members of the Cranford Community at a Rotary meeting on June 11. Cranford Police Lieutenant Chris Polito was given the Dr. Edward M. Coe Award and Cranford High School faculty member Barbara Narus received the Vincent Sarnowski Award. "Both individuals represent the very best of their chosen vocation" said Lou Brigando, Cranford Rotary's Vocational Chair.

"Lieutenant Polito is a 16-year veteran of the Cranford Police Department and has been the Executive Director of the Cranford P.A.L. for over 10 years. Lt. Polito has quietly changed the lives of thousands of young people in Cranford through sports" according to Chief James Wozniak who nominated Lt. Polito. The honorarium he received as part of the Edward Coe award will be donated to the Michael Wielgus Foundation.

The Edward M. Coe Award is given to a member of the uniformed municipal services on a rotating basis, as suggested by the Cranford Rotary and recommendation of the appropriate Municipal Chief or other Cranford Official. Dr. Coe was a member of the Cranford Rotary from 1949 until his death in 1997. He was past President of the Rotary and a founding member of the Cranford First Aid Squad.

School Superintendent and Rotarian Gayle Carrick presented Barbara Narus with the Vincent F. Sarnowski Award. Ms. Narus runs the Teacher Cadet Program and was nominated for the honor by Superintendent Carrick. Ms Narus has asked that the honorarium that is associated with the award go to the College Woman's Club.

The Vincent F. Sarnowski award is given to a Cranford Educator as recommended by the Cranford school system. Mr. Sarnowski was Superintendent of the Cranford Public Schools until 1973 and was a Past President of the Cranford Rotary Club.

The Rotary Club of Cranford was established in 1923 and provides diverse programs that support education, and other community services. Past beneficiaries of Rotary support include Cranford Schools and Scholarship Recipients, Cranford First Aid Squad, Cranford Family Care, Cranford Cerebral Palsy League, Cranford United Way, Cranford Historical Society, Cranford PAL and the Rotary International Foundation. The Cranford Rotary Club meets every Thursday morning at 7:45 am at the Cranford Community Center. Any business or professional, active or retired, is cordially invited to attend our meeting. For additional information, please contact Membership Chair Rich Feder at 908-276-8086.

11 CRITICAL HOME INSPECTION TRAPS TO BE AWARE OF WEEKS BEFORE LISTING YOUR HOME FOR SALE

Cranford NJ - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To order a FREE Special Report, visit www.njhomeinspectiontraps.com or to hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free 1-888-243-5861 and enter 3002. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Get your free special report NOW to learn how to ensure a home inspection doesn't cost you the sale of your home.

CRANFORD ROTARY AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS

At the June 11 meeting of the Rotary Club of Cranford, Rotary Scholarship Committee Chair Steve Lieberman introduced the recipients of the 2015 Rotary Scholarships. In presenting the scholarships to graduating seniors, Mr. Lieberman said "This was a very difficult year with so many excellent students applying for scholarships, but after reviewing numerous applications and interviewing many students, we are pleased to be recognizing the best of the best".

The Cranford High School students selected to receive Rotary Scholarships based on their involvement in their school and in the community are Louis Cappucci, Kaitlyn Carroll, Jennifer Schneider, and Julia Wilson. Brendan Kane received the Rotary Leadership Scholarship.

Louis, who will be attending Holy Cross University majoring in economics or Italian, represented all of the students when he said that he has benefitted from his service as much as he gave. Kaitlyn, who collected equipment for children in a Newark gym where she played volleyball, will attend Loyola University Maryland to major in speech pathology. Jennifer will major in economics at Syracuse University and has worked to raise awareness of veterans' issues as well as obtained tablets for use by the vets in the Veterans Memorial Home in Edison. Julia, who will attend DeSales University, volunteers with the Cranford First Aid Squad and coaches a Special Olympics swim team.

Brendan was awarded Rotary's Leadership Award, and will be attending Seton Hall University in a five-year MBA program, majoring in sports management and marketing. His many leadership activities included spearheading the Cranford High School Buzzoff in which students shaved their heads to raise funds for cancer research, and collecting spare change from fellow-students at lunch, raising over $1000 for Relay for Life.

Scholarship awardees, each of whom will receive $3,000 towards their college education. The scholarships are underwritten by the Cranford Rotary Scholarship Foundation, with funds collected from the annual Cranford Rotary Golf tournament.

LIBRARY NOW OFFERING AUTOMATIC RENEWAL

The Cranford Public Library recently upgraded its Polaris automated library system, which, along with a number of other enhancements, includes an automatic renewal feature. Henceforth, any borrowed items that come due will be renewed automatically on their due date, except for items that are reserved or have reached their renewal limit.

Cranford Library director John Malar noted, "I think our patrons will really like this feature. It will cut down on the number of items that are overdue, which will, in turn, cut down on the amount of overdue fines patrons will have to pay.

Our library, along with many other Polaris libraries, had been requesting this enhancement for some time, and I am very glad that it's become available at last."

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY MUSEUM PASSES

The Cranford Public Library recently added the Battleship New Jersey Museum and Memorial to its museum pass program. The library also lends passes to the Cooper-Hewitt National Design Museum, the Frick Collection, Grounds for Sculpture, the Guggenheim Museum, the Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum, Liberty Hall Museum at Kean University, the Montclair Art Museum, the Morris Museum, the Museum of the City of New York, the New-York Historical Society Museum, and the DiMenna Children's History Museum. Purchased for the library by the Friends of the Cranford Public Library, the passes can be borrowed by adult Cranford

A Cranford native, Mr. Korba is equally comfortable performing pop, jazz, and R&B. He has toured with Phoebe Snow and Hall & Oates, and he played in the house bands for Rent, the long running Broadway musical, and Rain, the Broadway tribute to the Beatles. In 2012 he released a solo CD entitled In the Muse, an eclectic mix of pop standards ("Almost Like Being in Love"), classic pop (the Beatles' "Julia," Danny O'Keefe's "Magdalena"), blues ("C.O.D. Blues"), and R&B (Donny Hathaway's "Tryin' Times"). Admission to the program is free and all are welcome.

BROOKSIDE IGNITES STUDENTS IMAGINATION WITH VISITING AUTHOR SERIES

Brookside Place School celebrated the art of imagination with two special visits by well-known children's authors. First, Elizabeth Levy shared her personal writing inspirations with Brookside's students in May. The second author visited the children in June. Known for her work on Scholastic's popular Amber Brown series, Ms. Levy wrote Amber Brown: Horses Around which was a Book of the Month Club selection and a Junior Literary Club Selection for 2014.

"When you write, you always want to write about bits and pieces of your life," said Ms. Levy as she showed the children photos of herself with horses and dogs, and immediately afterward displayed covers of her published books that featured similar-looking horses and dogs. "Everything in our life becomes the stories in which we write."

Levy has worked as a full-time writer for over 40 years, and has published over 100 books with over 6 million sold. She held three separate sessions so that each student from kindergarten through 5th grade had the opportunity to meet with her.

"The children were excited to meet an author who wrote so many stories that are in our library," said Brookside Principal Michael Klimko. "Ms. Levy's visit really made her popular books come alive for our students. It's as if she stepped out of the book herself – and put a real person to the name that appears on the book's cover."

Ms. Levy shared words of wisdom from her decades of experience in the literary field. She also discussed the many people who are responsible for publishing the books that the students read, including writers, illustrators, editors, publishers and distributors.

"There are so many people involved in the process. It's important to take constructive criticism positively," she advised as she showed her editor's markings on a draft of Amber Brown. "Even with all these corrections, the story was better for it."

In early June, author Laura Sassi of Cranford will visit with the students. The two-part series is intended to encourage students to learn more about creative writing. The visiting author series is arranged and funded by the Brookside PTA.

"When I was growing up, some kids loved music and some loved art. I was one of those kids who loved making up stories," Ms. Levy said in her closing remarks. "If you love what you do, you will find the magic within you."

WE CARE $3,000 FOR SUICIDE PREVENTION

Nearly 100 runners and walkers took strides to help prevent suicide and help people in crisis on May 30th when CONTACT We Care held its Second Annual Alive and Running 5K Walk/Run at Nomahegan Park in Cranford. The event raised nearly $3,000 for the nonprofit.

Headquartered in Westfield, CONTACT We Care is a suicide prevention agency that operates a suicide prevention and crisis intervention hotline and provides suicide prevention training to the public, community groups and businesses. Just $15 pays to answer one call or text to the hotline from someone in crisis or contemplating suicide. More than 200 volunteer listeners and texters field more than 15,000 calls and texts annually.

"This event is a way to raise awareness about suicide and mental health issues and to raise funds to help us address these issues," said Joanne Oppelt, CONTACT's executive director. "One in four American adults experiences mental health illness in any given year. This event helps us raise funds to attempt to counter those statistics.

CONTACT We Care serves Central and Northern New Jersey and is a primary responder to calls to the national suicide prevention line (1-800-273-TALK or 1-800-SUICIDE) that originate in New Jersey. Callers also reach CONTACT by dialing 908-232-2880 or texting "CWC" to 839863.

Anyone interested in becoming a volunteer listener or text consultant at CONTACT We Care should contact the agency at 908.301.1899.
