RENNA MEDIA LAUNCHES BERKELEY HEIGHTS NEWS

Beginning in October 2015 Berkeley Heights News will join Renna Media's family of newspapers, bringing the number of publications to eighteen. Berkeley Heights News will be direct mailed to every postal patron in Berkeley Heights with a total circulation of 4,800, and will deliver important information from the departments in town hall, along with news from the schools and library. Community service organizations are encouraged to promote their events and businesses and residents can celebrate their accomplishments free of charge. The newspaper's goal is to be a positive influence on the economic development and overall well-being of Berkeley Heights.

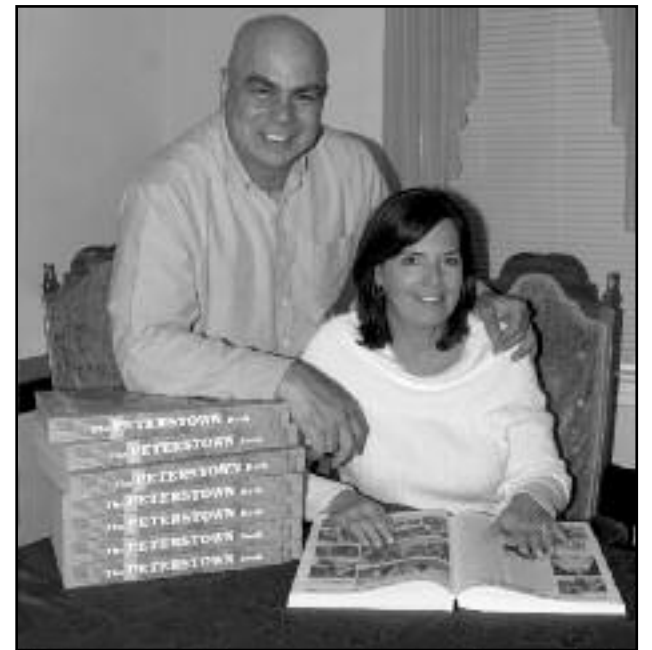

Renna Media is a Cranford based business owned and operated by husband and wife team Joe and Tina Renna. Renna Media's family of 18 community newspapers are published in and around Union and Somerset counties with a total circulation of 100,000 newspapers mailed monthly. The publications are "hyper-local" in nature in that they contain information focused on each individual town and are direct mailed within those towns.

The hyper-local design gives businesses the highest value for their advertising dollars. The newspapers are designed (black ink on newsprint) to keep the cost of an advertisement to as low as $60 for a business card size ad. Regional businesses can take advantage of one low rate for being in multiple publications. Inserts are also available.

Joe and Tina Renna, owners of Renna Media, LLC, have been publishing community newspapers since 1998 with the launch of Around About Peterstown, a regional newspaper about the Italian-American neighborhood in Elizabeth, NJ.

For info about Renna Media publications, please contact info@rennamedia.com; or call 908-418-5586.

FIRE DEPARTMENT HOSTED A FUN-FILLED FIREHOUSE FRENZY FOR BOYS ENTERING GRADES FIRST THROUGH FIFTH

Kids got to squirt a fire hose, do real archery, tour a fire truck, eat hot dogs, tie knots they could eat, battled robots, and drive radio-controlled cars around an obstacle course! They were also be able to make their own Pinewood Derby cars and race them, or sail mini boats along rain gutters. All these highlighted the kinds of fun activities that boys get to do in the Cub Scouts program.

While Cub Scouts is all about fun for the kids, it is fun with a purpose – that of raising confident, inquisitive, resilient, cooperative and respectful boys. As they continue from Cub Scouts into Boy Scouts through middle school and high school they take those principles to a higher level through fun-filled and challenging activities such as canoe treks, backpacking trips, crewing a sail boat, SCUBA diving and other high adventures. They also learn STEM skills through scout engineering and robotics.

Along the way they learn to communicate and lead, explore potential careers through the merit badge program, and give back through community service.

The Firehouse Frenzy open house was held at the Berkeley Heights Firehouse on 411 Hamilton Ave., Berkeley Heights.

HOMELESS DOGS FIND FOREVER FAMILIES AT ANNUAL 'BARK-A-QUE'

Nearly thirty dogs found permanent homes at Home for Good Dog Rescue's Fifth Annual Bark-a-Que on Sept. 12. In addition to hosting the organization's largest adoption event of the year, the annual celebration welcomed the organization's 3,800 adopters back to reunite with their pet's foster families and siblings.

"We have been celebrating our yearly Bark-a-Que since our inception in 2010," Home for Good Dog Rescue's co-founder and treasurer, Rich Errico, said. "Each year, it continues to grow, and we could not be more grateful."

Throng of happy dogs—many sporting "I was rescued" bandanas—gathered on the Village

Green with their families to enjoy live music by New York-based rock, funk, and soul band Deep C Revival, food and merchandise vendors from the local community, and special canine contests.

This year, Home for Good adoptee Mellow took home the coveted title of 'Mr. Bark-a-Que' in a yearly costume contest judged by Summit Mayor Ellen Dickson. Other fun competitions included prizes for the shortest and longest tail and a special doggie obstacle course.

However, despite the crowds that gathered to see the contestants strut the runway, the day's most popular destination remained the adoption tent, which ultimately placed 24 homeless dogs with loving families of their own.

Home for Good Dog Rescue is committed to rescuing dogs from high-kill shelters throughout South Carolina and Georgia. Once rescued, dogs stay with southern foster families until they are transported north, either by plane or by van.

This year's Bark-a-Que hosted many of those southern fosters, including guest of honor Shari Watt of Swainsboro, Ga.

Once Home for Good's dogs arrive in New Jersey, they are bathed, micro-chipped, and altered as needed. They then remain in one of the organization's foster homes until adoption.

For more information on the organization and its upcoming events, including its first annual 5K and Doggy Dash on Oct. 3, visit www.HomeforGoodDogs.org.

Home for Good Dog Rescue (HFGDR) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization headquartered in Summit with offices in Berkeley Heights, NJ. We rescue dogs from high-kill shelters in the South, transport them to our rescue, and give them a second chance at life. As a 100 percent foster-based rescue, we place each dog in a loving foster home until adoption. Since our inception in 2010, we have rescued more than 3,800 dogs and given them loving homes for good. To inquire about fostering, adopting or making a donation to help the HFGDR organization, visit our website at www.HomeforGoodDogs.org and on Facebook www.facebook.com/HomeForGoodDogRescue.

The Crane's Ford Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, in Cranford, is conducting a membership drive as part of a nationwide celebration to commemorate the 125th anniversary of the founding of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. All women who can document descent from a Revolutionary War Patriot are encouraged to consider the many benefits of joining a vibrant service organization which has promoted historic preservation, education and patriotism since its formation in 1890.

"Our chapter, which was organized in 1944 carries out the important mission of the National Society here on the local level", said Chapter Regent Mary Leonard. "We are eager to welcome new members to our chapter, and we have volunteers available to help them research and complete their genealogy in order to apply for membership."

Due to the ability to exchange and obtain genealogical information over the internet, interest in joining the DAR is at an all-time high, with six of the highest years of application submittals occurring in the last decade. The Genealogical Research System (GRS), which is a free online resource provided by the DAR to aid general genealogical research and to assist with the DAR membership process, has made joining the DAR even more accessible to any women. Explore these resources at www.dar.org/grs.

"Truly, there has never been a more exciting time to join the DAR. We offer today's busy woman an opportunity to celebrate the joys of American citizenship in meaningful ways, and we are enthusiastic about the future of our Society", said National Society DAR President General Lynn Forney Young, who noted that there are currently nearly 180,000 members of the DAR, serving in nearly 3,000 chapters across the nation, 47 chapters in New Jersey and in several foreign countries. "I extend a warm invitation to all eligible women to join us in a rewarding future of service to America".

Since its founding 125 years ago, more than 940,000 women have been inducted into membership. During the current three-year administration coinciding with the 125th anniversary celebration, the organization has issued a challenge to complete 10 million hours of service to America. Local DAR chapters nationwide are coordination service projects in honor of DAR's 125th anniversary throughout the year and members from coast to coast will participate in the National DAR Day of Service on October 11, 2015.

"From caring for veteran patients to assisting active duty service personnel, from preserving locations of historic significance to welcoming new citizens, there are thousands of ways that Daughters are proudly answering the call to service in their local communities", said Regent Mary Leonard. "Here in Cranford, the Crane's Ford Chapter, for example, serves by visiting veterans at Lyons Hospital in Basking Ridge and collecting school supplies for disadvantaged children. We are proud to carry out DAR's mission to celebrate our American way of life".

We invite women who are interested in membership to visit www.DAR.org and to contact the local Crane's Ford chapter at patushkat@aol.com to obtain more information.

Four Centuries in a Weekend is an award winning program that started in 1994 as the first of its kind in New Jersey, and it has been growing ever since. This event includes 27 diverse historic sites, from humble farmhouses to extravagant mansions, which tell the story of our evolution from the Colonial era Elizabethtown of 1664 into the twenty-one thriving, bustling municipalities that make up modern day Union County.
