WHITE CASTLE HOSTS BOY SCOUT CHESS TOURNAMENTS

The Scotch Plains Baptist Church was the site for the latest Boy Scouts Chess Tournament sponsored by White Castle. The tournament was open to all registered Boy Scouts, Venturers and Explorers. This was the second annual tournament for the Watchung Mountain District.

Robert Mehorter of Scotch Plains won third place honors. Second place was won by Harrison Hahne-Lum of Springfield and first place went to Kevin Cavicchia of Summit, who won all four of his games.

White Castle purchased 20 sets, boards and clocks for the Boy Scouts and will continue to sponsor tournaments in all seven Boy Scout Districts in New Jersey.

The company covered expenses for running the tournament including trophies for the top three winners and ribbons for participants. They also supplied lunch for all players and spectators. White Castle will continue to support the Boy Scouts and the Chess program. The Program is coordinated by Joe Renna of Renna Media, a Chess Merit Badge Counselor.

Boys and girls who are Boy Scouts, Venturers and Explorers are invited to play in all districts. The next scheduled tournament will be in Cranford on Saturday, February 27, 2016.

TRINITAS DESIGNS PROGRAMS TO SERVE ITS MILITARY VETERAN PATIENTS

The specific medical and mental health needs of veterans are being addressed through a series of programs offered by Trinitas Regional Medical Center in Elizabeth, New Jersey.

Thanks to the support of the Thomas Glasser Foundation, Inc., Trinitas participates in a special National Hospital and Palliative Care Organization (NHPCO) and Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) program that offers enhanced patient care and other services to veterans. To address the needs of current veterans and the growing number of veterans in the next 10 to 20 years, the interface with the VA and the NHPCO gives veterans care with the dignity, recognition, and gratitude they deserve.

"The new grant-funded program supports the ongoing measures Trinitas uses each day to meet the health care needs of service men and women while they are under our care," explains Magie Cruz, RN, MSN, Director of Palliative Care. "This program is another way that Trinitas doctors, nurses, and other health care professionals members, as well as our volunteers, respond to the needs of veterans, their families and caregivers. It's a natural complement to our existing Palliative Care program and a fitting way to treat our valued veterans who deserve everyone's respect and gratitude."

Johanna Thomas, Intervention Clinician of Hospital Elder Life Program (HELP), at Trinitas works closely with Trinitas staff and volunteers to identify vets when they are admitted for care. "Upon admission to the hospital, we ask patients if they are military veterans and if they'd like information about veterans' benefits. We are also proud to give them a formal acknowledgment of their service to our country."

The Behavioral Health and Psychiatry Department of Trinitas makes a valuable contribution to the mental health needs of veterans who suffer from a range of mental health issues, including Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), all of which negatively impact their quality of life. Linda Reynolds, Director of Adult Outpatient Services, explains: "In partnership with the Elizabeth Veterans Administration (VA), Project Pride for Veterans is a counseling and case management program. One of our two licensed social workers is an active reservist and our Advance Practice Nurse is retired from the Air Force. Their common bond with veterans is so important to the positive patient outcomes we strive for in this program. The Project Pride program provides individual, group, and family psychiatric services designed to reduce symptoms and improve the quality of life for veterans and their families. Ultimately, in partnership with the VA, we direct our energies toward helping veterans live the life they want and deserve."

A CRESCENDO OF AWARD WINNING PERFORMANCES BY MARCHING BAND

by Rob Kinch

In a season highlighted by, as band member Alisha Griffin describes, “surprise after surprise,” the high school’s Marching Band garnered three 1st Place awards, along with a series of additional awards for their competitive performances. Led by Band Director Miguel Bolivar, whom band members affectionately refer to as ‘Dad’, the high school also achieved 4th Place in October’s States Competition (including Best Visual) and an impressive 5th Place in November’s Nationals Competition (2nd in Visual and 2nd in Percussion). Bolivar praises his students’ achievements and talents by adding, “Never before has our high school placed that high in a Nationals Competition!”

When asked to what the band attributes its many successes, along with hours of practice, the word ‘family’ is repeated without exception. Band members Brandon Krutzler and William

Sanders offer, respectively, “We could never do something so amazing unless we were a like a family” and “It makes me proud to be part of this family.” Student Lily Viteka praises director Bolivar for being “one of the most supportive teachers I know.” A very personal sentiment is shared by Senior Osaze Morris, “My four years in the Marching Band have been very fulfilling but to accomplish all this lets me end on a high note.”

THE 1950S – WHEN CARS WERE KING, AND DEALERSHIPS LINED ST. GEORGES AVE

Submitted by Al Shipley, City Historian and Rahway Library Research Consultant

Nothing evokes memories of the 50s like the sleek automobiles coming out of Detroit that embodied the spirit of a new and modern American society where the biggest and the best seemed available to all. It was a time when the major car companies introduced their new models on TV spots featuring the sparkling beauties in lavish, albeit shown on black and white screens, unveiling ceremonies. It was a time when the make and model were easily recognizable by rocket inspired grills, wraparound windshields, or the size and shape of tail fins. It was a time when automobile dealerships lined the major thoroughfares of cities and towns across the country. In Rahway, twelve dealerships, eleven of them on St. Georges Avenue, were in operation ready to help put the latest models in everyone's driveway.

The following is a list of local dealerships and a sample of the advertising come-ons they used in print ads to entice car buyers to visit their showrooms. The ads focused on style, economy and above all else – newness.

Frank Van Syckle's Dodge -Plymouth Agency was opened in 1926 when it was located on the corner of Murray Street. In 1950 the business moved to the property opposite Elm Avenue which had been recently vacated by Amon Buick who had moved into newer, larger quarters near Lake Avenue. Van Syckle's, which was one of the original Dodge-Plymouth dealerships in the United States, was gone by 1959. The building was later used as a dry cleaning establishment until it was razed in 2011. Today, a modern structure houses a Subway sandwich shop and Skaff's Pharmacy on the site.

In 1957 the C. Gordon Miller family took over the Cadillac dealership located on the corner of Milton Avenue that had been operated by the Boland Brothers since 1904. In a 1959 print ad, Miller touted the new Cadillac as "Motordom's new measurement of greatness," and promised, "Satisfaction beyond its cost." Miller was at the Rahway location until the end of 1998 when the business moved to Routes 1&9 in Woodbridge. The Milton Avenue showroom was razed a few years later and is now the site of TD Bank.

Rahway Motors Company, located between Milton Avenue and Maple Avenue, sold Packards and was established at the beginning of the auto boom in 1950. Rahway Motors ran ads introducing their 1955 Clipper as, "The car that makes it smart to be different!" By 1959 they were selling Mercurys and praising "Their space age-planned bodies, advanced design, superior performance, and economy." They were "the cars that show you what new really means." Rahway Motors lasted until the early 1980s. The building still stands and is used for medical offices.

West End Garage was the oldest Chrysler-Plymouth dealer in Union County having been established in 1914. In 1931, Nelson Taylor, owner of the dealership, built a new showroom on the corner of Maple Avenue. In '59, West End publicized the "Lion-Hearted '59 Chrysler...Elegance without equal...the car that's every inch a new adventure." The Taylor family owned and operated West End for just short of 100 years. Today the building serves as a showroom for DZ Motors.

C.W. Rich & Son opened its doors to the public in 1940. By the '50s the agency was introducing "The all new Galaxy with Thunderbird elegance, Ford size, and savings." Located next to West End Garage, the dealership became Bell Ford in 1957 and remained at the site until the mid-60s when Bell moved to Route 27 in Colonia. The Rahway building continued to serve as a showroom for several dealerships and today is part of the DZ Motors complex.

Alex Amon, who came to Rahway in 1926, had a showroom on Irving Street (1926-1928) and St. Georges Avenue opposite Elm Avenue (1929-1950). In 1950, ground was broken for a new sales and service facility located across from Roosevelt School that would become the home of Amon Buick. From their modern new showroom they would advertise, "The best Buick yet with new sweep-ahead styling and new sizzle to match," and recommend that, "Before you buy a car with a low price name, see why you're better off with a Buick." The facility was razed in the 1990s and is now the site of Walgreens.

South of Inman Avenue, still on St. Georges, were five more dealerships including Martin Kaiser-Frazer, a dealership on the corner of Orchard Street which was in operation from 1950-1959. Today, a Quick Check stands on the site. On the lot next to Martin's was Metchick Motors on the corner of Plainfield Avenue. Metchick sold DeSoto and Plymouth models from 1947-1953. Today, an empty lot marks the site of the dealership.

Laurie Motors, on the site of what is today the Firehouse Restaurant, sold DeSotos from 1950-1957. They advertised, "It's Here! A great and glorious new beauty – the '56 DeSoto with new V-8 Power...designed for the super highway age with new pushbutton driving and 255 horsepower."

The Hinkle Motors showroom still stands between Murray Street and Colonia Boulevard and today houses the United Auto Service Center. Hinkle sold Oldsmobiles from 1945-1956. "Oh-h-h those '56 Oldsmobiles!"

Sun Motors stood on the site of what is today STS Tires from 1958 to the late 1990s. In a 1958 ad they featured the ill-fated Edsel as "An exciting new kind of car...a full six passenger beauty... a car that makes history by making sense."

The lone dealership off the St. Georges Avenue tract was Rahway Auto Supply and Service Company, the oldest Chevrolet dealer in Union County. Founded in 1919 by William Hoblitzell and his three sons, the dealership was located on W. Milton Avenue next to the railroad elevation and served the Rahway area until the early 1990s. Today the remodeled building is the showroom of Liberty Harley Davidson.

FRANKLIN SCHOOL PUTS A CAP ON DRUGS

The students of Franklin Elementary School, Rahway, celebrated the annual Red Ribbon Week during the week of October 26-30. To show that they are drug free, the students participated in various activities from wearing a favorite hat to representing "putting a cap on drugs" to wearing jeans to represent "being a genius" and "don't do drugs". Students in grades fourth through sixth were also able to participate in poster and essay contests. Pictured below are the winners of said contests.

LETTERS & GOODY BAGS

Recently, Franklin Elementary School in Rahway came together to show some love and appreciation to our veterans and active servicemen and women. The project all began when members of the school's Blue and Gold Club sent a letter to all of the teachers at the school and asked them to participate. They asked them to have their students write a letter to the veterans and active servicemen and women. They also asked for donations based upon items that they were told that the active servicemen and women needed.

All of the grades wrote letters and it was great to see the school come together. Some of the letters were brought to the Veterans Memorial Home in Menlo Park, NJ and were distributed to the Veterans there. This surely put a smile on the veterans faces. The rest of the letters were placed in goody bags that the Blue and Gold Club members put together. The goody bags were then sent to the servicemen and women that are currently stationed overseas.

Franklin School's Blue and Gold Club is a school based club made up of students that volunteer their time throughout the year to help with different community service activities. The club is overseen by the school's nurse, Mrs.

Barbara Maher. They do a great job and we're proud of these young men and women. Keep up the great work kids!

BOOK CLUB APPROACHING 100TH BOOK READ

Our Book Club, Books Unite Friends, was founded in October 2006 at the Roselle Golf Club. It consists of nine golfers, mainly teachers, nurses, and businesswomen! Each member recommends one book for the calendar year. It is highly suggested that this person first read the book to eliminate "word of mouth" or rely on the opinions of Best Sellers Lists! After a lively respectable group discussion each person then rates the book from 1 to 5 as well as share their final comments and insights! It should be also noted that monthly meetings are conducted in a restaurant which eliminates all household and dining pressures for a hostess!

After reading 86 books, East of Eden by John Steinbeck received our highest rating of a perfect 5.0! Our holiday meeting in December encourages each member to bring a mystery gift that related to the previous year's literature!!! Over the past nine years this fun challenge has truly reflected the intellectual creativity of the group. We are anxiously approaching our 100th book and are considering several ways to celebrate our extremely accomplished endeavor. Our bonded group is always on the search for that one special "WOW" book!!!! Therefore, we always look forward to other Book Club inputs and suggestions!!!

HISTORY OF WREATHS

Wreaths have been a part of human civilization for thousands of years going back as far as the ancient Persian empire. As decoration, wreaths appear on the ceiling tiles of 'Dura Europus', a 2000 year old synagogue in Syria. They were commonly used by Hebrews and Ancient Greeks.

Wreaths first appeared in history as crowns for royalty. Made by twisting branches into a circle and decorating them with flowers, pine cones and colorful ribbons which were worn on their heads. Later crowns evolved into the hat style made of gold and gems which kings and queens still wear during state ceremonies.

In many cultures young maidens would adorn themselves with headdress wreaths decorated with seasonal flowers and worn during festive celebrations until their wedding day. This practice is still popular in many counties around the world.

Pagans made wreaths of evergreen branches with four candles representing the elements of Earth, wind, fire and water which were lit during pagan religious gatherings. This custom was adopted by Christians, the Advent Wreath with three purple candles for penance and one pink for 'the coming joy'. One advent candle is lighted on successive Friday evenings during the four weeks of advent and all are blown out on Christmas eve.

In Rome, wreaths made of laurel leaves were awarded to victors in athletic games, who would then hang them on their wall as a souvenir. Later many rich Romans hung wreaths on their door as a status symbol. This tradition was adopted by early Christians and became the popular Christmas wreaths we now enjoy.

In Christian tradition, the Christmas wreath symbolizes the circle of life and eternal life promised by Jesus Christ as well as God's strength. Today Christmas wreaths are highly decorated with brightly colored ornaments and lights.

(above) President of The Rahway Garden Club, James Keane has been researching and answering garden questions since 1995.

Visit 'Keane Gardener' blog at:
keanegardener.blogspot.com

In modern culture, welcome wreaths are hung on front doors and can be used to celebrate every holiday throughout the year.

*Enjoy your garden
all year long,

HONK IF YOU SUPPORT POLICE

In September 10 year old Rahway resident, George O'Connell, and his dad James, took time out of their busy schedule to show their appreciation for Rahway Police Officers. George created a sign asking people to "HONK if they support police". He received hundreds of "honks". Rahway Police responded on their Facebook page "Thank you George for showing us how much you care! Your kindness means so much to us!"
