America's veterans, particularly those from Fanwood who have served or are currently on active duty, were honored Wednesday, Nov. 11, in Veterans' Day ceremonies at the Fanwood Memorial Library.

Jointly sponsored by American Legion Post 209 and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 10122, the ceremonies featured speakers, an eight-person joint color guard from the two organizations, the laying of memorial wreaths and a rifle salute.

Fanwood Mayor Colleen Mahr delivered remarks to the crowd and presented families of Fanwood residents now serving in the military with service flags featuring a blue star on a red and white background. The banner, which dates back to World War I, is for display by families who have members serving in the Armed Forces during any period of war or hostilities.

Those honored included Navy Petty Officer Francis Celardo, Army Sgt. 1st Class Colin Craig, Army Lt. Michael Lubinski and Army Ranger Tom Sutter.

STUDENTS ATTEND THE CONGRESS OF FUTURE SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY LEADERS IN BOSTON

Sean Meisch and Matthew Garber, both senior students at Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, were selected as Delegates to the Congress of Future Science and Technology Leaders in Lowell, MA from June 28th to June 30th, 2015.

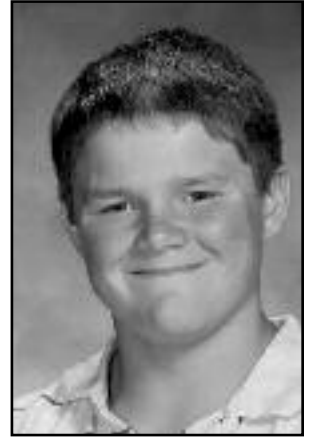

The Congress is an honors only program for high school students who are passionate about science, technology, engineering or mathematics (STEM). The purpose of this event is to honor, inspire, motivate and direct the top students in the country who aspire to be scientists and technologists, to stay true to their dream and, after the event, to provide a path, plan and resources to help them reach their goal.

American hero and astronaut Buzz Aldrin, Science Director of the National Academy of Future Scientists, nominated both Sean Meisch and Matthew Garber to represent Scotch Plains-Fanwood High school based on their academic achievement, leadership potential and passion for science and technology.

During the three-day congress, Sean and Matthew joined students from across the country and heard Nobel Laureates and National Medal of Science winners talk about leading scientific research. They were given advice from deans of the world's top tech universities and they were inspired by fellow teen science prodigies. They also learned about cutting-edge advances and the future of science and technology.

Richard Rossi, Executive Director, National Academy of Future Scientists and Technologists said, "Focused, bright and determined students like Sean Meisch and Matthew Garber, are our future and they deserve all the mentoring and guidance we can give them."

THREE CLUBS JOIN TO HOLD COLUMBUS DAY CEREMONY

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood chapter of UNICO National together with the Italian American Club of Scotch Plains and the Knights of Columbus Council #5730 held a Columbus Day ceremony on 10/10/15 at the town hall plaza in Scotch Plains.

After a great welcome by emcee Sal Perillo, the invocation was given by Deacon John Lynch of Immaculate Heart of Mary RCC. Local Columbus monument historian Tom Donatelli gave the pledge to the flag. The American National Anthem was played and the Italian National Anthem was also played once again sang by Romano Del Roio, a past President of the Italian American Club of Scotch Plains. Knights of Columbus Grand Knight Seth McQuillan spoke on the knights and Father Michael McGivney, and Chapter President Paul Raphael spoke on the importance of Columbus Day traditions.

The chapter had two essay winners, both 7th grade students at St. Bartholomew Academy. They were Meghan Mahaffey and Giovanni-Young Annunizato. They each were given an award for their efforts. Kevin Glover, Mayor of Scotch Plains spoke on the many accomplishments of the Italian-Americans that settled in Scotch Plains after coming from the town of Montazzoli in the Abruzzi region of Italy. He also read a proclamation adding the name of Montazzoli Plaza to the street where the Italian American club hall is located.

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood chapter was very much honored to have as our main speaker the President of UNICO National, Dr. Ann Walko. Her very timely and inspiring words were well received by all in the audience.

A floral wreath was presented at the monument and the benediction was given by Deacon Lynch. Member Sal Perillo introduced the Westfield Community Band Brass Ensemble who entertained everyone with Italian music selection under the direction of Ed Rommel. The Italian American Club provided sandwiches and water and UNICO provided coffee and donuts for all to enjoy. Emcee Sal thanked everyone in attendance and those that helped make the event a success. The program was organized by chapter members Carmen Ponzio (Chairman of the event) and Jeff Blanck.

Proven success for 25 years!

SPFHS MARCHING BAND FINISHES SUCCESSFUL 2015 SEASON

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Marching Band wrapped up the 2015 season with a November 7 performance at the USBands Open Class National Championships, held at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, NJ. The band achieved its highest score of the season, 93.900. SPF faced stiff competition in its category against six bands from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Virginia, five of which received higher scores. The top score in the group was 97.200 received by Norwin Senior High School from North Huntingdon, PA.

For the 2015 season the 180-member SPF band was reassigned from USBands Group 6A to the more competitive Group 6-Open. In its first season at this level, the band's scores increased steadily over six competitions. In the New Jersey State Championship on Oct. 31 the SPF band placed second in its group, received the award for Best Percussion, and won the Cadets Award of Excellence, presented to the band that best reflects overall effect, creativity and pursuit of excellence.

"This has been a phenomenal journey," said SPF band director Durand Thomas. "It's especially fulfilling to have the senior class lead as they have – they create the magic." Student drum majors for 2015 were Kaavya Krishna-Kumar, Mary Catherine Stovall and Melody Weigel. Band staff also includes assistant director John Gillick and color guard director Jackie Tumolo.

The 2015 show was titled "Chance Love - Tales Beneath a Persian Moon" and featured music from Scheherazade by Nikolai Andreyevich Rimsky-Korsakov, Samson and Delilah by Camille Saint-Saëns, and Cleopatra by Alex North. Soloists were Shay Blechinger-Slocum on flute and Kevin Sonpar on baritone horn. In addition to USBands competitions the band performed at many Raiders football games.

USBands, a program of Youth Education in the Arts, is a competitive circuit for scholastic band programs nationwide and has a membership of more than 700 high school marching bands.

NOTES FROM 11/16 TOWN COUNCIL MEETING

Fanwood Council honored Joe Nagy as the borough's volunteer-of-the-month and Councilman Dan Levine bid farewell at the group's meeting Monday night at Borough Hall.

Nagy, a Fanwood resident for more than 50 years, has served in a wide variety of volunteer positions, including helping to start TV35 and the Fanwoodian and being Fanwood's historian.

Many a local school student has heard about Fanwood's history during tours Nagy conducts of the museum in the historic north side train station. Mayor Colleen Mahr presented Nagy with a framed print of the train station where he has spent so many hours volunteering.

In a heartwarming thank you to the council, Nagy related that he had been honored to give back to the borough that had given his family a great place to live.

Council also bid farewell to Levine, who leaves the group at the end of the year. Levine has been the chairman of the Administration and Finance committee and has been an integral part of the borough's budgeting process. Mahr and each member of the council individually thanked Levine for his service.
