

97 SENIORS INDUCTED IN NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Some 97 seniors inducted into the Watchung Hills Regional High School chapter of the National Honor Society, on Thursday, Dec. 3, in the school's Performing Arts Center.

Family, friends and school officials gathered to witness the induction, and to hear words from the teacher that this year's newest chapter members selected as their Teacher of the Year: Social Studies Teacher Greg Biniukow. The Teacher of the Year is also inducted as an Honorary Member of the National Honor Society.

Biniukow is in his 11th year teaching at Watchung Hills, and has taught during that time Modern European History, U.S. History 1, and AP European History. He also acts as advisor to the Mock Trial student activity.

In thanking the students for selecting him, Biniukow said he was humbled, and added he had never before been selected for such an honor.

"Thank you for allowing me to celebrate this night with you," he said.

He said he felt privileged and grateful when he was hired "to work at such a great school district and community. Tonight, I fell privileged and grateful again."

Students Dana Bernhaut of Watchung, Palmer Ferrara of Warren Township, Jack Lane of Watchung and Shivam Patel of Green Brook Township spoke about Biniukow. They said he is approachable, easy to talk to, dedicated and a hard worker.

"His class was demanding," said Bernhaut. "Tests were very challenging, and his essays were very difficult as well. We were often assigned large homework notes packets that could take hours to complete. Mr. Biniukow's class put a lot on our plates, but for as much effort as we put into our studies, Mr. Biniukow exceeded in his commitment to helping us to succeed."

Despite being a demanding class, the students said, Mr. Biniukow's passion and interest in teaching made the class enjoyable.

Connell Rae has been selected president of the Watchung Hills 2015 chapter. Vice President is Jillian Carbone, Secretary is Alyssa Rosenblum, and Treasurer is Ajey Gangwani. Community Service Coordinators are Sylvia Baeyens and Lizann Sung, and Tutoring Coordinators are Indeevar Beeram and Ari Scherzer.

Chemistry Teacher Michelle Madigan is advisor to the National Honor Society. She said this was the 37th annual induction ceremony of National Honor Society members at Watchung Hills. The National Honor Society was founded in 1921. According to society history, the objectives of the Inductee David Kalwicz led the Pledge of Allegiance. Superintendent Elizabeth Jewett welcomed parents and students to the ceremony, and Principal George Alexis gave congratulatory remarks. Chapter Student Vice President Carbone played piano as guests gathered in the Performing Arts Center.

8TH GRADE GIRLS - TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

The Long Hill 8th grade girls travel basketball team won the Sixth Annual Scott W. Andersen Tournament held in Warren. The team trailed for most of the first half in their semifinal game against

Warren but utilized a strong defensive effort in the second half to gain the victory by a score of 46-36. They then went on to defeat Clark 49-39 in a very exciting championship game. Long Hill had a 10 point lead early in the second half but Clark scored 9 straight points to cut the lead to just one. Long Hill answered with an 8-0 run and then held that lead for the remainder of the game. Alexa Santo, Scarlett Glasser-Nehls and Caitlin Bonnesen were the high scorers in the championship game with 13, 11 and 8 points, respectively. Alexa Santo was named the MVP.
