TROOP 63 ATTENDED NAVAL ACADEMY STEM JAMBOREE

On January 15, Boy Scouts from New Providence Troop 63 attended the annual US Naval Academy Science Technology Engineering and Math (STEM) Jamboree in Annapolis Maryland. Run by the Naval Academy chapter of the National Eagle Scout Association (NESA), the weekend is an opportunity to watch outstanding young Eagle Scout midshipmen in action. Scout earned technology merit badges in Nuclear Science, Engineering, Programming, Oceanography, Space Exploration, and much more. The Scouts were given personal tours guided of the Naval Academy by midshipmen from New Providence before leaving Annapolis.

Troop 63 welcomes new members. The troop meets every Tuesday at 7:30 P.M. during the school year at The Presbyterian Church in New Providence, 1307 Springfield Avenue.

COOKIE WALK A BIG SUCCESS

On December 12th, American Legion Post 433 in New Providence held its 7th Annual Cookie Walk. Well over 100 trays of donated homemade cookies from which to choose, and Santa greeting children with candy canes, it was fun for the whole family!

Post 433's American Legion Volunteers in Service (A.L.V.I.S) raised almost $1700 in just a few hours. The Annual Cookie Walk contributes to the Post's LCPL Christopher B. Cosgrove III, USMC Handicap Facilities Fund. The fund was established to provide a handicap restroom, entrance ramp and doorway at the Post Home on Elkwood Ave in New Providence. If you missed the Walk last year, please mark your calendar for Saturday, December 10th 2016 so you can be sure to be there.

MAYOR MORGAN HOSTS GATEWAY CHAMBER'S JANUARY GOV AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

The Gateway Regional Chamber of Commerce's Government Affairs Committee was given a warm welcome by New Providence Mayor Al Morgan, Borough Administrator, Douglas R. Marvin and their incredible team last month.

The Committee is a forum to facilitate communication and cooperation between the business community and local government on issues of mutual interest. They meet on the second Friday of each month at a different town. Attending members of these meetings give County and Town reports. If you are interested in what is going on in Union County or want to establish and/or maintain a relationship with a municipality, these meetings are for you!!

The next Local & County Affairs Committee Meeting is February 12, at 8:30-10am. Hosted in Plainfield City Hall, 515 Watchung, Plainfield, NJ. Hosted by Mayor Briggs. Info: 908-352-0900

I'm 90! A resident of New Providence for many, many years.

Where can I find a nice, single bedroom - affordable apartment in the Borough, where I can walk to my favorite restaurant, store & church?

How about the "Manor"? Actually, the Elizabeth Barabash Manor, located on the corner of Academy Street and Elmwood Avenue. The three story brick & green building just across from the Borough Hall, the public library and next to the EMS building.

OK! What do I do next?

As a Borough resident, a senior United States citizen of 62 years or older, you qualify and have first preference for an apartment in the "Manor". Stop at the office in the building for an interview, get an application, examine an apartment and take the first step to joining our "family" & friends.

Call me at 908/400-9420 for that interview and get started on your next step forward to a simpler life of comfort, new friends & family.

Thanks for listing, please call !

MOMS HELPING MOMS

Imagine not being able to meet your baby's basic needs. Unfortunately for some parents this is reality. Bridget Cutler, a New Providence mother, founded Moms Helping Moms Foundation to help families facing financial hardship provide their babies with the essential supplies they need.

Moms Helping Moms collects diapers, wipes, toiletries and clothing for children three years old and younger. The organization serves families by providing access to these supplies and connecting them with key social services to support them during pregnancy and parenting. If you are interested in donating baby items or would like additional information about the foundation and how you can help, please visit their website <http://www.momshelpingmomsfoundation.org/home.html>.

Moms Helping Moms hosted their second annual Snow Ball on Friday, January 29, 2016 at Stone House at Stirling Ridge in Warren, New Jersey. This event featured live music from Brian Kirk and the Jirks, along with an open bar, appetizers and a silent auction with amazing prizes.

CALLING ALL WOMEN OF HOLY CROSS... PRESENT, AND ESPECIALLY PAST

The women of the Church of the Holy Cross (40 Mercer Ave., New Providence) are a particularly dynamic group that forms a diverse, strong, tolerant network of empowerment and enrichment. Their camaraderie and commitment sustains them and their Holy Cross family...most often with food, fellowship and fun! They laugh a lot and eat well!

Holy Cross women are having their quarterly gathering on Friday, Feb. 26 at 6 PM in Embury Hall. Have you ever visited Holy Cross, been a sometime parishioner, attended a while ago, or have a family member/friend associated with Holy Cross in some way? Feel free to attend our (free) gathering, and do spread the word among those who may not receive this publication as yet.

At the women's meetings there is never a hidden agenda or any kind of pressure. There is always the commitment to lively conversation and an outpouring of fellowship.

Please contact eventsathc@gmail.com if you would like to attend and/or get more details.

FREE TAX RETURN HELP AT THE NEW PROVIDENCE SENIOR CITIZENS CENTER

New Providence, Berkeley Heights, and other area residents can obtain free assistance in preparing and filing their individual 2015 tax returns. There are no age or income limitations for participation in the program, but preference will be given to low and moderate income filers and senior citizens. Taxpayers with complex returns may be advised to seek paid assistance. Free assistance will be provided at the New Providence Senior Citizens Center (NPSCC), 15 East Fourth Street, New Providence, by volunteer tax counselors under a program sponsored jointly by the AARP, the Internal Revenue Service, and the New Jersey State Division of Taxation.

Assistance will cover individual federal and NJ state income taxes, the NJ Homestead Property Tax Rebate, and the Property Tax Reimbursement Program (PTR – 1 & 2), as applicable. Emphasis will be on filing returns electronically, resulting in refunds being received relatively quickly. Any taxes due would not be payable until mid-April. Taxpayers will be provided with vouchers to be submitted by the due date with payments due.

Tax counselors will be available on Mondays and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., from Saturday, February 6, 2016, through Monday, April 11, 2016. Beginning January 25, 2016, taxpayers seeking assistance in preparing and filing their returns may call the NPSCC at 908-665-0046, between the hours of 10:30 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., Mondays through Fridays, for an appointment, or they may sign up at the center. The Internal Revenue Service is again advising taxpayers to file their returns as early as possible to reduce the potential for identity theft.

Taxpayers must bring photo identification, social security cards of persons filing the return and of any dependents listed on the return; copies of their 2014 federal and state returns, and any 2015 federal forms W-2, 1099-R, 1099-INT, 1099-DIV, 1099-B, SSA-1099, etc.; documentation of the amount of rent or real estate taxes paid in 2015 and of other expenses if the taxpayers wish to itemize deductions; and, if they wish to have any refund directly deposited to their bank account, a check showing their bank's routing number and their account number. In the case of taxpayers filing joint returns, both taxpayers should be present to authorize the electronic filing.

NEW JERSEY YOUTH SYMPHONY TO PERFORM AT KENNEDY CENTER

The New Jersey Youth Symphony will perform at The Concert Hall at the John F. Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. on Sunday, February 14 at 8:00 p.m.

The New Jersey Youth Symphony (NJYS) will perform in The Concert Hall at the John F. Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. on Sunday, February 14, 2016 as one of three select orchestras chosen to participate in the Capital Orchestra Festival presented by Music Celebrations International. Tickets are free but must be reserved online at <http://capitalorchestrafestival.org/>.

Youth Symphony, one of NJYS's two advanced, full orchestras in the NJYS family of ensembles, will perform Shostakovich's Symphony No. 5, Op. 47 led by Artistic Director and Conductor Jeffrey Grogan. Youth Symphony is open to students in grades 9-12 and was awarded first place in the prestigious 2014 Summa Cum Laude International Youth Music Festival. Youth Symphony has appeared in such internationally renowned concert halls as Carnegie Hall in New York City and Musikverein in Vienna.

93 students will travel to Washington DC to perform. The students hail from 13 counties in New Jersey. Artistic Director Jeffrey Grogan said that "you cannot underestimate the power of touring and performing in these fabulous concert halls. The bonding that happens between students has a direct impact on the musical product, and their excitement at playing in such storied venues provides an excitement that lasts far beyond the actual performance."

Other orchestras participating in the 8:00 p.m. concert are the Southwest Florida Youth Symphony, David Cole, conductor, based in Fort Meyers, Florida and the Anne Arundel Community College Symphony Orchestra, Anna Binneweg, conductor from Maryland. Four other ensembles from Indiana, Utah, Wisconsin and Wyoming will be featured at a 2:00 p.m. performance. All ensembles went through a screening process managed by Music Celebrations International.

The New Jersey Youth Symphony, the orchestral and ensemble affiliate of Wharton Institute for the Performing Arts, features fourteen ensembles, available by audition for students in grades 3 – 12. NJYS was recently featured on NJTV's The State of the Arts and all of its ensembles appeared at the New Jersey Performing Arts Center for its 35th Anniversary gala concert. NJYS includes string, winds and brass, and jazz ensembles as well as three full orchestras. Its tiered family of ensembles range from beginner to advanced, with many students remaining a part of the organization for up to 10 years.

Applauded for performances "high in energy, with close attention to ebb and flow," American conductor Jeffrey Grogan is hailed as a musical leader who "knows what kind of sound he wants from an orchestra...rich and vibrant." His humanistic leadership style, coupled with a strong command of skills as a musical communicator, has earned him an impressive reputation with audiences and music programs throughout the country. Known for "shrewd programming, skillful rehearsing, and an energized performance," he was chosen in 2009 to participate in the Bruno Walter National Conductor Preview sponsored by the League of American Orchestras.

Mr. Grogan joined NJYS in 2011. Considering his work with young musicians to be a cornerstone of his career, Mr. Grogan also serves as Artistic Director of the Greater Newark Youth Orchestras and the InterSchool Orchestras of New York. Mr. Grogan is Artistic Director of two El Sistema-inspired music programs: the Wharton Institute for the Performing Arts' Paterson Music Project and the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra's CHAMPS. As Education and Community Engagement Conductor of the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra since 2006, Mr. Grogan leads the NJSO in a variety of concerts each season.

PUBLIC ART EVENT WELL ATTENDED

Submitted by: Marjan Nirou Saniee

On Saturday, Jan. 16th, NP Public Art held a fundraiser at the DeCorso Center, 15 East Fourth St., New Providence.

NP Public Art i(NPPA) is a newly formed committee of the Borough of New Providence. Its mission, according to Marjan Nirou Saniee (NPPA chairperson), who spoke at the event, is to "bring public sculpture to open spaces in New Providence by way of private donations and grants."

Attending were over a hundred members of the community who were treated to a performance of a comedy by a group of students from New Providence High School. The performance was directed by Theresa Turner, NP Recreation instructor and NPPA committee member, and was preceded by a silent auction. The attendees had a chance to bid on the silent auction items and enjoy refreshments while socializing before the performance.

A total of $1,505 was raised through ticket sales and the silent auction, which will be used to bring public art to New Providence.

Tax deductible donations to NPPA can be sent to NP Public Art, c/o Borough of New Providence, 360 Elkwood Ave., New Providence NJ 07974.

NP Public Art can be found on Facebook.

TECHNOLOGY HAS GIVEN US THE ABILITY TO FIND OUT WHY YOU ARE STORING FAT AND HOW TO GET RID OF IT!

A "one-size-fits-all" weight loss program will only take you so far (and after many months of hunger and a boatload of cash).

Targeting your specific hormone makeup is the key to fast and effective weight loss. Our NRF Technology essentially takes your hormonal fingerprint to determine the exact ingredients you need to bring your body into an optimal state of fat burning. And beyond the initial weight loss, restoring balance with the system actually resets your metabolism and weight set point so that you keep the weight off after you lose it.
