The Junior Garden Club of the Rake and Hoe Garden Club contributes to the Westfield community with many projects throughout the year. The Juniors, who range from Kindergarten through High School, meet monthly during the school year to work on projects focused on flower design, gardening and community service. They began the current school year cleaning up the garden at Shadowlawn Pocket Park.

The girls also learn the basics of flower arranging to compete in the annual New Jersey Garden show each February. This year's project for entry in the Garden Show was making "bugdominiums" taught by the Rake and Hoe members. The girls learned about solitary bees, such as mason bees, that nest in hollow plant stems and other cavities rather than in hives like honey bees. The purpose of the "bugdominiums" is to provide nesting sites for solitary bees. These may be located in the butterfly garden planted and maintained by the Junior members of The Rake and Hoe Garden Club.

The boxes are made of plywood boxes that the girls dipped in a black walnut "bath" to color the plywood. The girls decorated the outside of the boxes as well as filled the insides with plant materials that included: drilled logs, bamboo, hollow stems of shrubs such as forsythia and deutzia, pine cones, sections of plane tree branches, acorn tops dyed blue to attract bees, and slices of pine branches.

The Rake and Hoe Juniors have also completed botanic jewelry made from all natural materials – a craft entry also for the Garden Show. In 2014, they won five of the nine Top Exhibitor Awards in the Youth Division including "Best in Show" out of more than 150 entries. Call Mrs. Beth Siano at 908-2334150 if interested in joining.

This year's show was held on February 11-14, 2016 at the New Jersey Convention and Expo Center in Edison. Out of a total of 42 entries from the state, Westfield Rake & Hoe Juniors received 30 Blue Ribbons in all three grade categories: a sweepstakes win.

The Rake and Hoe Garden Club of Westfield has a long-term reputation for its service to the community and donations to worthy causes by maintaining the gardens at the northside of the Westfield Train Station, the Miller Cory House Museum, the Shadowlawn Pocket Park and the Claire Brownell Wildflower Garden at the Reeve History and Cultural Resource Center of the Westfield Historical Society.

Anyone interested in joining the Rake and Hoe Garden Club is invited to call Club President, Diana Kazazis at (908)654-8783. For additional information, you can also find us on Facebook at

7 THINGS YOU MUST KNOW BEFORE PUTTING YOUR HOME UP FOR SALE

Westfield NJ - A new report has just been released which reveals 7 costly mistakes that most homeowners make when selling their home, and a 9 Step System that can help you sell your home fast and for the most amount of money.

This industry report shows clearly how the traditional ways of selling homes have become increasingly less and less effective in today's market. The fact of the matter is that fully three quarters of homesellers don't get what they want for their homes and become disillusioned and - worse - financially disadvantaged when they put their homes on the market.

As this report uncovers, most homesellers make 7 deadly mistakes that cost them literally thousands of dollars. The good news is that each and every one of these mistakes is entirely preventable. In answer to this issue, industry insiders have prepared a free special report entitled "The 9 Step System to Get Your Home Sold Fast and For Top Dollar".

4 WESTFIELD HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR'S SCHOOLS

Four Westfield High School juniors have been nominated by the WHS Science Department to attend Governor's Schools in the summer of 2016. The New Jersey Governor's School in the Sciences is a 3-week residential program for rising high school seniors where students are immersed in intense college-level research on the campus of Drew University.

The Governor's School of Engineering & Technology -- on the campus of the Rutgers University School of Engineering -- describes its program as "a unique and intensive residential summer program that brings together some of New Jersey's most talented and motivated high school students." "This year our applicants were truly an exceptional group of students," stated Dr. Stoneback.

"Unfortunately, we could nominate only two students to each of the Governor's Schools; we congratulate our distinguished nominees and wish them the best in the final state-wide selection process," he added.

USED BOOKS, DVDS AND CDS

From April 26 to April 30, the Friends of the Westfield Memorial Library will be holding its annual used book, dvd and cd sale. The book sale financially supports the Library and such expensive Friends' activities as the Children's Programs and the Museum Guest Passes.

The Friends are seeking volunteer workers, donors and customers. In addition to the sale dates, the Friends seek volunteers during the donation and sorting period from Thursday April 21 to Tuesday April 26, and when we box the unsold books after the sale ends at 1pm on Saturday April 30.

Volunteers are needed for a wide variety of crucial roles--helping donors drop off books; helping customers find books; sorting books; and being a cashier. It is a great opportunity for students to earn service credits. Those interested should email Wmlvolunteers@gmail.com with when you are available and what you would like to do for the sale. Those interested in donating good condition books, dvds or cds to the sale (but not encyclopedias, textbooks, manuals or tapes) can do so at the library from 10-3 on Thursday April 21 and Friday April 22 and from 10-1 on Saturday April 23.

FUNDING YOUR CHILD'S COLLEGE EDUCATION AFTER DIVORCE

By: James McGlew, Esq.

Each spring thousands of New Jersey high school seniors undergo the process of applying to colleges and universities to continue their education. The cost of college tuition, room and board and related expenses can be exorbitant. While the financial strain of funding a child's higher education to intact families is significant, it is often more of a burden for divorced parents of soon-to-be high school graduates.

Over 30 years ago, the New Jersey Supreme Court determined that divorced parents could be held financially responsible for the college education of their children. In analyzing the reasonableness and level of such an obligation, the Court set forth a number of factors to be weighed by Judges. These factors include, but are not limited to:

- The amount sought by a child for the cost of such college education
- The financial ability of the parent or parents to pay those costs
- Whether the parent would have contributed toward the costs of college if the family were still intact
- The financial resources of the child including bank accounts of the child or whether the child has college savings accounts
- The ability of a child to obtain grants and scholarships
- The aptitude of the child
- The educational level of the parent or parents
- The child's relationship with the parent from whom financial contribution is sought

A more complete list of the factors noted above can be found on the Divorce & Family law page of Lindabury.com.

The cost of higher education is not limited to just tuition and fees such as application and registration, but potentially room and board, books, transportation, course related materials and supplies, a laptop computer and even items incidental to the child moving into a dormitory (i.e. bedding, microwave, etc.). These expenses are in addition to the parents' child support obligation. Many parents are misinformed and believe that child support ceases when a child starts college. Child support obligations continue until a child is emancipated under the law. However, if a child attends college and lives away from home, often times the child support amount can be reassessed based on these new circumstances.

The discussion about college education expenses for your child and the allocation of these expenses between you and your "ex", should start in fall of the student's senior year of high school but certainly not any later than mid-March of the child's senior year. The financial capability of parents to meet these expenses is often a key component which needs to be resolved as far in advance of the date of school selection as possible. For over 30 years, the family department at Lindabury has been assisting our clients in guiding them through this process (both the custodial and non-custodial parent alike). This generally requires a full review of the parties' settlement agreement together with a complete examination of any and all factors which the Court will consider as well as a review of the family's and child's circumstances.

Lindabury's Family Law Group has decades of experience representing clients in all aspects of divorce and other serious New Jersey family law matters. We provide the full range of divorce and family law services and are easily accessible from our Westfield New Jersey office. Call today to schedule a consultation with James McGlew at (908) 897-0055.

Westfield High School was visited on February 18 by New Jersey Commissioner of Education, David C. Hespe (second from left), who was accompanied by Assistant Commissioner, Robert Bumpus; Chief Performance Officer, Donald Mitchell; and Union County Interim Executive County Superintendent, Roger Jinks. They were welcomed by Superintendent of Schools, Margaret Dolan, and other district administrators including the school's Principal, Peter Renwick

In addition to observing a freshman Humanities class, the guests visited a special education class, the school's digital learning center, and Project "79 – an alternative education program. ## AARP APRIL MEETING

The April meeting of the AARP Westfield Area Chapter 4137 will be held on Monday, April 4 beginning at 1:00 PM at the Scotch Hills Country Club, at the intersection of Plainfield Ave. and Jerusalem Rd. in Scotch Plains. Ms. Marilyn Schnaars, who is a resident of Maplewood and an active member of our Chapter, is happy to tell her story of her connection with the once famous Gruning Ice Cream enterprise. Marilyn is a niece of William Gruning, the founder of the once well-known Gruning ice cream and candy "parlors", which were first started in New York City on West 125th Street. When he expanded into New Jersey, William Gruning opened his first store in Newark on Roosevelt Avenue, and eventually established 7 ice cream stores throughout the State. Marilyn, as a member of the Gruning family, will tell us her story.

The business meeting will follow our program and end with refreshments and fellowship. A reminder: please bring a non-perishable food item to contribute to the Westfield Food Pantry as this is our main charitable undertaking. The need is always there.

WESTFIELD HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS PERFORM IN ALL-STATE BAND CONCERT

Three Westfield High School 11th graders were selected to perform in the elite All-State Band Concert which was held on February 20 at the New Jersey Performing Arts Center in Newark, NJ. "These three musicians are extremely dedicated students who spent months preparing for their Region and All-State auditions and were chosen among the finest high school instrumentalists in the state of New Jersey," remarked Westfield High School Instrumental Music/Band teacher, Christopher Vitale. The three students also were selected among hundreds of other auditioning students throughout Central New Jersey to perform in the Central Jersey Music Educators Association Region Band and Symphony Orchestra in January. "I couldn't think of three more deserving members of our program to represent our band, school, or community at the state level," added Vitale.

STUDENTS READ TO SEND PRINCIPAL DUELKS TO THE ROOF

Tamaques Elementary students broke records at their Reading Marathon this March, almost tripling fundraising goals. Students through all grades raised close to $10,000 for the school library and local charities by collecting pledges for minutes read during the Reading Marathon week. Upon meeting goals, Principal Duelks promised students he would literally sleep over Tamaques...on the roof. His tent will be set up later in the spring. Highlights of the week included a PJ story night, book drive, and a student awards assembly. The event was made possible by parent co-chairs Jenn Carbone and Barbara Wellnitz as well as the efforts of Tamaques faculty. Wellnitz reacted to the event's success, "We were thrilled with the level of participation this year, and are so proud of our Tamaques students....We are so fortunate to be a part of such an amazing community with such dedicated teachers and staff, and a principal who is willing to go the extra distance for our students."

WESTFIELD RESIDENTS CREATE WEBSITE FOR SPORTS FANS

There's a great website for sports fans run by two Westfield residents called moresportsnow.com. The site is designed to provide the fan with the latest take on the hottest topics in all of sports. You will find the latest sports news through shared articles, a blog, audio content and a link to their own YouTube channel.

The site is run by Matt Loughlin and Steve Tichenor of Westfield with contributions from John McAleavey of Short Hills. Matt Loughlin is the reigning NJ Sportscaster of the year. He currently can be heard on the FAN as the radio play by play announcer for the New Jersey Devils. Before that he was an Emmy award winning sideline reporter covering the Mets, Devils and Nets for the MSG Network. Steve Tichenor is a freelance producer, writer and voice talent who runs his own audio studio in his Westfield home. His voice has been featured on numerous TV and radio commercials. He also produces video and audio projects for corporate clients.

"Matt lives across the street and I had recorded him for a few projects. We thought it would be fun putting a sports show together," Tichenor explains. "We started with a weekly audio segment called 5 on 5, which is five minutes on the top five sports stories of the week and it evolved from there." They later added the Daily Brief, which is one minute on the hot topic of the day.

Last year, John McAleavey, who has worked for a couple of sports media outlets, joined the team and began writing a blog called My Two Sense. After that a YouTube channel was launched featuring two segments; 'On the Road', where they travel to various businesses and discuss sports, and 'Friday Coffee', where they chat about the latest hot topic at a local coffee shop.

The site's audience is steadily growing and currently averages close to 10,000 hits a week. They raise revenue by offering banner space on the site. Current sponsors are Beach House Brewery, the Sports Academy, Athletic Development Coaching and two sports bars.

Matt, Steve and John are always looking for new sponsors and would love to come out and shoot a segment at your business. If interested please contact info@moresportsnow.com.
