THREE NIGHTS OF SPRING DANCE CONCERTS AT WATCHUNG HILLS REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL

Some 36 students in Dance Ensemble, an extra-curricular activity at Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS), performed at the annual Spring Dance Concert, Thursday, May 12th, to Saturday, May 14th, in the school's Performing Arts Center.

The students performed 20 pieces in total, including 15 pieces that were choreographed by the students themselves. Many of the students performed in multiple pieces during the three nights of the concert.

"This this is a huge accomplishment for a high school dance program and for high school dance students," said Marisa Joshi, WHRHS Dance Instructor and Dance Ensemble Director. "The rest of the pieces were choreographed by faculty and guest choreographers. As part of the performing arts program here at WHRHS, students can take Dance I, Dance II, Advanced Dance and World Dance for arts credits."

Dancers performed a large variety of styles during the concert, including modern, contemporary, jazz and ballet.

"Audiences saw a dance concert that was full of variety," she said, "from solos to group pieces. Each work had its own message and its own flavor. We were fortunate enough to have a wonderful technical director and crew who help to make the lighting, music, and overall show look very professional."

Dancers performed, accompanied by music, and with the stage bathed in lighting, which contributed to the compositions.

"Students audition for a slot in the ensemble company in October," Joshi said. "Rehearsals start shortly thereafter. In total, rehearsal and preparation for this show is an 8 month process."

Joshi said the success of the dance ensemble requires a strong commitment by students.

"The students who are involved in Dance Ensemble are extremely focused and disciplined," she said. "They work incredibly hard over the course of the year, often balancing rehearsals with jobs, rigorous academic schedules, and dance training at local studios. Students who choreograph have the added challenge and responsibility of directing a group of their peers as they create a work of art. Faculty members often hear how surprised people are that these are high school students. Their level of commitment and professionalism is apparent in the beautiful show produced."

Joshi has been the dance teacher at Watchung Hills for 11 years. She started the program at WHRHS in the 2005-2006 school year. Joshi holds a bachelor's degree in Dance from James Madison University, Harrisonburg, Va., and a master's degree in Dance Education from New York University, New York, N.Y. She also holds a NJ Certification as Teacher of Dance K-12.

She is assisted in directing the Dance Ensemble by Melissa Markowich, who was one of her first students 10 years. "Melissa has become an invaluable asset to Dance Ensemble" Joshi said. "In addition to choreographing, she helps with rehearsals and designs lighting."

KAYLEE SPITERI OF GREEN BROOK A PROJECT FABRICLAND WINNER

The 10th Annual Project Fabricland Fashion Show was held on May 1st at the North Plainfield High School Auditorium, with close to 200 people in attendance. Students at the Fabricland Sewing School designed, created, and modeled their garments based on this year's theme "Fairy Tales."

Keeping with the Fairy Tales theme and their long tradition of community service, Fabricland donated the proceeds of the ticket sales to the North Plainfield Memorial Library.

At the beginning of the program, Bruce Heyman, owner of Fabricland, presented a $1,000 check to the library's branch manager, Christal Blue.

Making a celebrity appearance and taking questions from the students, was Dom Streater, a Project Runway All-Star contestant. Information on Project Fabricland, the Fabricland Sewing School and Sewing Summer Camp can be found at fabricland.com or at their location at 855 Route 22 West, North Plainfield.

WATCHUNG HILLS REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL FUSION CLUB BENEFIT CONCERT RESULTS IN $370 DONATION TO HEART ASSOCIATION

Fisher Hall at Wilson Memorial Church was transformed on Saturday, May 7th, into a Saturday night "Open Mike" performance space as the Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) Fusion Club sponsored by the "State of the Heart" Concert to benefit the American Heart Association.

The benefit raised some $370, which the Fusion Club donated to the American heart Association, according to Club President Emily Tang. Some 10 performers or groups of performers took the stage, mostly singers, musicians, as well as one dancer, and one poet. Performers and guests sat at some 10 round tables, cabaret-style.

"The WHRHS Fusion is a club that combines art, music, writing, and community service," explained Tang. "As a part of our mission to help others use art, we are hosting this open mic night so that all proceeds go towards helping those with high risk of cardiovascular disease and strokes. We chose to donate our profits to the American Heart Association."

Tang thanked everyone who participated in making the State of the heart Concert successful. "The Fusion Club is very grateful for everyone who came out to support our community, performers and the American Heart Association," said Tang. "We'd also like to give our highest gratitude to the Wilson Memorial Church for graciously allowing us to use their rooms for the event."

The students who performed included: Veronica Mu and Allison Horvath singing "Something Bad;" Emily Tang, accompanied by Kunwoo Park on acoustic guitar, singing "Officially Missing You," and "I'm Not the Only One;" Nikhil Bhat singing, "Not While I'm Around;" Neha Saju reading her original poetry; Edward Cai playing "Latch," a piano improvisation; Anchal Dhir singing, "Paper Hearts;" Fariha Asim performing two dances from India; Suchir Govindarajan, accompanied by Natalie Kim on electric bass, singing

"Goodbye Yellow Bick Road;" Bandon Tang playing solo on saxophone, and Justin Panzarino playing solo on piano, both on individual pieces.

Later, Tang and Panzarino played together on a jazz interpretation of the classic, "Summertime," as the concert's final number. Master of Ceremonies for the evening was Owen Bai.

(above) Organizers of the Watchung Hills Regional High School Fusion Club sponsored State of the Heart Concert, on May 7, at Wilson Memorial Church, include, crouching in front, Edward Cai, standing in the middle, from left, Jenny and Emily Yan, Emily Yang, Julianne Lin, Aditi Joshi, and McKenzie Schulyer, and standing in the back, Owen Bai. The benefit concert, featuring "open mic" performances by student singers, musicians, as well as a dancer and a poet, raised some $370 for the American Heart Association.

Scholarship Applications are required to be submitted by mail no later than June 10, 2016.

Scholarship contributions may also be made to the Green Brook Lions Club Scholarship Fund at the address above.

BEAR FACTS & TIPS FROM THE NJDEP

If a bear comes into your yard or you see one while camping, do not be afraid, but remember bears are not tame animals, they are wild creatures.

Here are some tips that you should follow if you see a bear: ...

- Do not get scared and do not run.
- Talk to the bear to let it know you are there.
- Never feed the bear!
- Do not go near the black bear.
- Do not look directly into the bear's eyes.
- Make sure the bear can get out of your yard or campground easily if it wants to. Don't stand in front of the escape route!
- Make lots of noise. It could scare the bear away.

- If you are playing with friends, get in a big group. Talk and wave your arms. You will look really big and the bear might leave.
- Bears can make a lot of noise, so they may huff, snap their jaws and slap the ground if they think you are too close. Back away slowly.

A bear that stands on its back legs is not about to attack you. It just wants to see and smell you better. Let a bear know you are there by waving your arms and talking to it.

Bears may pretend to attack by running at you. DO NOT RUN!

Back away slowly and get to a safe area. Black bears rarely hurt people. If a black bear attacks, fight back!

GREENBROOK MIDDLE SCHOOL SPRING CONCERT

Submitted By: Vinnie Sorensen

On Wednesday, May 18th our students performed in our annual Spring Concert. This one, however, was notably bigger and better than ever before. The music program has seen tremendous growth over the last year with not only numbers, but the caliber of the program and the students' musicianship as a whole. We now have five bands including a brand new Wind Ensemble and five choirs including a Men's Chorus and the select, Green Brook Singers.

Parents were able to enjoy the Art Show as they eagerly awaited their child's performance.

The night began with the 5th grade band, a group of students that just picked up their instruments for the first time eight short months ago. They played with the technique and maturity of a much older ensemble. Their set included "Fanfare and March" and ended with the main theme from "Star Wars".

Immediately following the band was the newest group to the program, the Men's Chorus performed. Green Brook is one of the only schools in the state that has such a robust Men's Chorus program at the middle school level. They shocked their peers and parents with the beautiful rendition of "Home" and (with some awesome backup vocals from the audience,) "Sweet Caroline".

The program continued the with Junior Chorus who sang three selections, including the native American folk melody, "Canoe Song". It should also be noted that every single song was accompanied on piano (among other instruments) by Green Brook middle school students.

The jazz band brought down the house with some incredible charts including a definite crowd-pleaser, "Uptown Funk" and an awe-inspiring performance of "Caravan". Their players did an amazing job of nailing down some of the most difficult of Jazz Band favorites.

After a brief intermission we moved in the second half of the evening which began with the Senior Chorus. They performed five selections including the acapella Swahili piece "Bonse Aba" and the spiritual "Didn't My Lord Deliver Daniel".

The 6th Grade Band performed two pieces including a Patrick Burns' "Pride and Purpose". The other piece, "Knights of Destiny" featured trumpet soloist Samuel Jiang.

Green Brook Singers began with a processional version of "Bring Me Little Water Silvy" which now has over 30,000 views on Deke Sharon's Facebook page. They finished with the Pentatonix difficult but beautiful arrangement of "Radioactive" which featured Tyler Wu on violin, Ben Kosakowski on guitar, Sam Schwartz on bass, Max Schwartz on drums, Katie Tan on piano, and Mr. Ellis on cello.

Wind Ensemble played with the precision of high school ensemble. The audience thoroughly enjoyed their set, which included some extremely difficult arrangements including Rimsky-Korsakov's "Sheherazade".

The night ended with the Senior Band whose theme for the evening was music from movies and Broadway shows. They played an incredible medley of John William's pieces and ended the night with a dramatic and moving performance of "Les Miserable".

Other accompanists throughout the night included Tyler Wu, Philip Ding, Lynn Zhou, Vivian Zhang, Annabell Puand Katie Tan on piano; Lauren Chapleski, Chris Larsen, Jason Schlachtun, John Strong, Max Schwartz, Jack Onufer, Zach Bokhari and Morgan Kyer on percussion.

Soloists featured throughout the evening included Jossie Sapia, Ambika Muralitharan, Seth Calindas, Manthan Naik, Tyler Wu, Sam Schwartz, BenKosakowski, Max Schwartz, Kyle Merritts, Thy Nguyen, Katie Strong, Aurora Baker, Samuel Jiang, Gabby Clark, Rhea Cariappa, Dana Wasserman, Katie Tan, Lynn Zhou, Jason Allen, and Sean Wittmaack.

SUSHI

Fantastic range of freshly prepared sushi.
Most selection and top quality among all competitors.
It is far from the typical "buffet quality" sushi.
At HIBACHI, you don't sacrifice taste for price.

BUFFET

Elegant, modern, fresh, executed with care and confidence. HIBACHI Grill Supreme Buffet brings together 250+ of fresh-made Asian dishes in eleven buffet bars.

HIBACHI

Choose your favorite ingredients from dozens of seafood, meats and vegetables. Watch our chef preparing them in our special hibachi sauce to create a full-flavored dish.
