OUR HOUSE, INC. 17TH ANNUAL 4 MILE RUN/2 MILE WALK BENEFITS ADULTS WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

On Saturday, May 21st over 300 runners and walkers joined together at the Village Green in Summit, New Jersey for the 17th Annual Our House 4 Mile Race and 2 Mile Walk. This USATF sanctioned event drew sports enthusiasts and casual runners and walkers alike thanks to its unique mileage and fun, friendly atmosphere where participants raise money to support adults with developmental disabilities. All proceeds from the event go directly to the Our House Foundation which funds programs and services provided by Our House, Inc. Thanks to community support, donations and sponsors, including Associate Sponsors CR Bard Foundation and Investors Bank, Our House hoped to reach its goal of raising $150,000 at the event.

Master of Ceremonies, John Elliott of CBS News, was on hand to emcee the event. "I always feel inspired when I help out Our House! I feel a special connection with many of the residents and participants, since it reminds me of my late brother in law, who, in spite of a disability, lived a rich life, full of laughter and love. At each Our House event, I hear the same kind of laughter and feel the love from the amazing people that participate," said Mr. Elliott. "I also know how important it is that people with special needs receive excellent care and ongoing social, educational and employment opportunities. The committed Our House staff and volunteers work hard to ensure that all individuals can live life to their full potential by providing them with ongoing support and chances to learn and grow"

In addition to the USATF certified races, the 13th Annual 'Everyone's A Winner Race' was held. This is a free event for the special needs community. This feel good race is a highlight of the day with medals presented to all of the participants by Mr. Elliott.

The 4 mile and 2 mile race courses traveled through the beautiful rolling hills and flat terrain of gorgeous residential and downtown Summit, New Jersey. In addition to race activities, arts and crafts, face painting, complimentary food and a DJ were hand to add to the festivities. All participants received a race bag that included a sleeveless tech tee and other goodies.

The mission of Our House Inc. is (1) to provide healthy and stimulating environments for people with developmental and other disabilities, through the provision of community residences, employment opportunities, social programs and other supports designed to help them achieve their full potential for living meaningful and productive lives; and (2) to provide affordable housing for low income individuals, consistent with IRS guidelines for low income housing programs, as a means of relieving the poor and distressed. Our House Inc. offers programs to individuals across New Jersey in towns including: Basking Ridge, Berkeley Heights, Bound Brook, Bridgewater, Maplewood, Millington, New Providence, Newark, Summit, Union, Verona, West Orange and Westfield. They are slated to open their newest residence in Livingston in summer 2016.

11 CRITICAL HOME INSPECTION TRAPS TO BE AWARE OF WEEKS BEFORE LISTING YOUR HOME FOR SALE

Summit NJ - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To order a FREE Special Report, visit www.njhomeinspectiontraps.com or to hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free 1-888-243-5861 and enter 3006. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

SUMMIT POLICE HOSTS 2ND ANNUAL FOOD & HOUSEHOLD GOODS COLLECTION

Submitted by: Nikki Griffiths, Summit Police Department

Chief Robert Weck, Summit PBA Local #55 and members of the Summit Police Department are excited to announce their 2nd annual food and household goods collection on ongoing and will conclude on Monday June 13th. The Summit Police Department will be partnering with the non-profit organization Family Promise (Union County) to be a recipient of the items collected. In addition to Family Promise, by the suggestion of Geleen Donovan, Executive Director of Family Promise- Union County, the Summit Police Department will also be teaming up with the Junior League of Summit to benefit from the items collected. The Junior League of Summit has been supportive to family's right here in our own community who struggle to supply meals for their loved ones during the summer months.

The "Summit Community Cares" food and household goods collection was first started in 2015 and proved to be quite successful with over 350 pounds of food collected. This event is held at the end of the school year where it seems to benefit the youth of our communities the most. Sadly, many don't realize the struggles that countless families face on the day to day, including affluent areas such as Summit. Amanda Parrish-Block, Community Vice President of the Junior League believes, "food insecurity is a growing concern in Summit today. The goods collected in this food drive will directly benefit the families who rely on support that goes on hiatus in the summer." Exclusively to just New Jersey, it is estimated that over 695,000 children receive free (or reduced) meals during the school year. However what happens once summer vacation starts? A staggering six out of seven children who participate in the free/reduced lunch program will not receive adequate meals during the summer months.

So what can you do to help those children, right here in our own community? The Summit Police Department is asking for your generosity in providing for these children a sense of normalcy and a healthier lifestyle. For a full listing of the items the police department is seeking and addresses for the collection bins (graciously donated by The Liberty Group of Berkeley Heights), please visit the police department website at www.cityofsummit.org or the Summit Police Department Facebook Page at www.facebook.com/SummitPD. Those that are willing to contribute items to this event can visit one of the twelve locations where collection bins will be housed: Summit City Hall, MONDO, Junior League of Summit Thrift Shop, Summit Area YMCA, The Connection for Women & Families, all five Summit Public Elementary Schools and both Summit Public Primary Schools.

Further questions; please direct them to Nikki Griffiths of the Summit Police Department at 908-277-9472, or ngriffiths@spdnj.org.

TATLOCK TENNIS COURT PROJECT COMPLETION

The City of Summit is announcing that the Tatlock Tennis Court Replacement Project has reached completion. Four new courts with state-of-the-art post-tension concrete technology is now ready for play. Recently, each court was color coated and lined to meet United States Tennis Association and USTA Youth Tennis program teaching standards. LED lighting, new fencing, seating, and shade structures are also new additions to the courts.

Evening play is permitted until 10:30 p.m. only; lighting structures will not work past this time. Residents are encouraged to stay off courts until all signs have been removed, indicating that courts are ready for play. "Through the support of the city, county and Summit Tennis Association, we have created a fabulous new tennis complex for the Summit community," explains Director of Community Programs Judith Josephs. "I look forward to our beautiful new courts being put to good use very soon."

The Tatlock Tennis Court Replacement Project is funded through the City's Capital Improvement Fund, the Union County Kids Recreation Trust Fund, and by a generous donation from the Summit Tennis Association. Leading the project along with city engineers is project designer, Thomas Miller of Premiere Product Design. Miller has developed extensive experience in the design of athletic complexes through the years. The contractor for the project is Classic Turf of Connecticut. Plans for the official opening ceremony will be announced in early June. Reservations for court play are suggested but not required; those with reservations will have priority on the courts. To make a reservation, please email recdept@cityofsummit.org. For more information about the Tatlock Tennis Court Replacement Project, please visit www.summitcommunityprograms.com or call the Department of Community Programs at 908-277-2932.

BRADLEY FUNERAL HOMES ANNOUNCES NEW AND EXPANDED LOCATION FOR BRADLEY, BROUGH & DANGLER FUNERAL HOME IN SUMMIT

Bradley & Son Funeral Homes is pleased to announce the relocation of Bradley, Brough & Dangler Funeral Home to 299 Morris Avenue in Summit, NJ. Formerly located at 309 Springfield Avenue next to the Unitarian Church, the new building offers families enhanced facilities and increased parking for their funeral services.

Indeed, the new location is not only a funeral home, but also a Tribute Center, offering many options for the personalized memorial gatherings and customized tributes for which Bradley has become known.

The brick building, originally built as a bank in the 1960s, has been extensively renovated and tastefully decorated in a serene, artistic design to inspire community and reflection. Able to host gatherings of up to 172 people, the building is unique in its capacity to hold two services at once. From a grand center hallway flanked by double-door front and rear entrances, there are three welcoming rooms available for services ranging from a few family and friends to 100 persons or more.

"We are excited to open the new location for Bradley, Brough & Dangler and to provide enhanced facilities and services to our local families. At the former location, we could only seat 20 per service and had extremely limited parking. The new building offers vastly increased facilities and ample parking on-site," comments Scott Bradley, President, Bradley & Son Funeral Homes.

Another unique feature of the new Funeral Home & Tribute Center is its art collection. Curated by Bradley and his wife, Lezli Salz-Bradley, owner of Willow Street Boutique on Springfield Avenue, the collection is inspiring and reflective. Bradley plans to showcase local artists in the future.

"The design, decor and art displays are like no other funeral home and were created to complement our mission of ensuring each life is well remembered," says Bradley.

Bradley, Brough & Dangler will continue to be managed by Patrick Reynolds, a native of Summit. Graduated from Summit High School in 1985, Reynolds is a former member of St. Teresa of Avila Church and has over 32 years experience in the funeral profession.

Bradley & Son Funeral Homes, based in Chatham, NJ, has been serving local communities for over 80 years. Today five funeral homes—in Summit, Springfield, Union, Chatham and Whippany—offer personalized and extraordinary care to families. ## IRS SCAM - PROTECT YOURSELF

The Summit Police Department issued an advisory on their FaceBook page on May 27, 2016: "Advisory: IRS scam going wild. Dispatch received 100 calls about the scam today. Do not fall for it. The IRS does not call and will never direct you to make a payment or confirm your Social Security number over the phone."

In March the IRS issued a Consumer Alert. According to the IRS website aggressive and threatening phone calls by criminals impersonating IRS agents remain a major threat to taxpayers, but now the IRS is receiving new reports of scammers calling under the guise of verifying tax return information over the phone.

Protect Yourself

Scammers make unsolicited calls claiming to be IRS officials. They demand that the victim pay a bogus tax bill. They con the victim into sending cash, usually through a prepaid debit card or wire transfer. They may also leave "urgent" callback requests through phone "robo-calls," or via phishing email. They've even begun politely asking taxpayers to verify their identity over the phone.

Many phone scams use threats to intimidate and bully a victim into paying. They may even threaten to arrest, deport or revoke the license of their victim if they don't get the money.

Scammers often alter caller ID numbers to make it look like the IRS or another agency is calling. The callers use IRS titles and fake badge numbers to appear legitimate. They may use the victim's name, address and other personal information to make the call sound official.

Here are some things the scammers often do but the IRS will not do. Any one of these five things is a tell-tale sign of a scam.

The IRS will never:

Call to demand immediate payment over the phone, nor will the agency call about taxes owed without first having mailed you several bills.

Call or email you to verify your identity by asking for personal and financial information.

Demand that you pay taxes without giving you the opportunity to question or appeal the amount they say you owe.

Require you to use a specific payment method for your taxes, such as a prepaid debit card.

Ask for credit or debit card numbers over the phone or e-mail.

Threaten to immediately bring in local police or other law-enforcement groups to have you arrested for not paying.

If you get a phone call from someone claiming to be from the IRS and asking for money or to verify your identity, here's what you should do:

If you don't owe taxes, or have no reason to think that you do:

Do not give out any information. Hang up immediately.

Contact TIGTA to report the call. Use their "IRS Impersonation Scam Reporting" web page. You can also call 800-366-4484.

Report it to the Federal Trade Commission. Use the "FTC Complaint Assistant" on FTC.gov. Please add "IRS Telephone Scam" in the notes.

If you know you owe, or think you may owe tax: Call the IRS at 800-829-1040. IRS workers can help you.

Stay alert to scams that use the IRS as a lure. Tax scams can happen any time of year, not just at tax time. For more, visit "Tax Scams and Consumer Alerts" on IRS.gov.

REEVES-REED ARBORETUM DEDICATES MARY REINHART STACKHOUSE EDUCATION CENTER

The extraordinary work of the Reeves-Reed Arboretum education staff has been lauded and emulated for many years. Director of Children's Education, Jackie Kondel, and Environmental Educator, Lisa Martin, continually strive to create exciting, nature-rich programming that is not only innovative, but directly tied to the core curriculum standards set forth each year by the Board of Education. It is no wonder that more than 10,000 children benefited from their efforts and talents in 2015.

On Friday evening May 20th, the Board of Trustees, the Staff, and the Executive Director of Reeves-Reed Arboretum named the Arboretum's education building, the Mary Reinhart Stackhouse Education Center, in appreciation and recognition of the legacy of Mary Stackhouse.

The late Mrs. Stackhouse was a great fan and generous supporter of the Arboretum. An avid golfer and naturalist, Mrs. Stackhouse established her Foundation to specifically support environmental causes, including the preservation and growth of natural open space. Thanks to the Stackhouse Foundation, Reeves-Reed Arboretum has been able to grow the Arboretum's staffing capacity with the addition of a second environmental educator and three paid horticultural internships.

The Foundation's trustees, Robert McCurdy, Mary Parker, and Anne Hennessy, were on hand for the ceremony as were the staff and trustees of RRA, and Summit Council Member, David Naidu. Mary McCurdy, wife of Stackhouse trustee Robert McCurdy, spoke of her long friendship with Mary Stackhouse and how happy and proud she would have been with the work being done by the Arboretum's staff in support of the Stackhouse vision.

Councilman Naidu spoke lovingly about his many visits to the Arboretum, "sometimes alone but never feeling lonely here." At the moment Director Juliano dedicated the building, a beautiful new hand-crafted fused glass sign, created by artist Barbara Galazzo, blazed the name Mary Reinhart Stackhouse Education Center in a profusion of color and whimsy. A champagne reception immediately followed the dedication ceremony.

SUMMIT SPRING STREET FESTIVAL

By: Edir Coronado

Vendors from as far as Sparta, NJ came to the six-square mile town of Summit to place their products on display, on an unseasonably cold spring day, during this year's Summit Spring Street Festival held on Sunday, May 15th.

The purveyors did not disappoint, impressing newcomers Aaron Hickman and Amy Lewis, two former Virginians, "Being able to walk out your door to something like a street fair is one of the cool things about Jersey," said Hickman.

While it is true that most patrons and merchants did not realize how cold it would be, families still gathered to enjoy the unique variety of products on display.

Goods like, rustic farmhouse décor, from Villa Stash. Nastassia Vilardo, the owner of the Villa Stash in Sparta, NJ, wanted to get her business, now in its infancy, some recognition. She felt that Summit, "is a great location." When asked about the weather she responded, "we have been getting a lot of traffic despite the weather, but it could be warmer."

Maria Andrianova and her family had their own display, handmade crocheted items from Mary Magic Store, a homebased business in Summit, and while the weather in her words was "terrible," Andrianova and her family still enjoyed themselves. She wasn't the only homebased business at the fair this year, making their debut were sisters Katia and Fabiola Negron, proud owners of Peruvian Crafts. The sisters created a multitude of charms, all of which are handmade.

Distinctive art had a presence at the fair, courtesy of Victoria Ramirez, through her business Motifs by Victoria. She exhibited jewelry, which Ramirez handcrafts herself. The process she uses is enameling, Ramirez incorporates fused powdered glass onto copper metal to create pieces that are each unique.

Although the Spring Festival resembled more of a Fall fair, the community members and sellers enjoyed the innovative atmosphere.

SUMMIT HIGH SCHOOL BOYS VOLLEYBALL TEAM CELEBRATES 100TH ALL-TIME WIN

The Summit High School Varsity Boys Volleyball celebrated its 100th all-time win on in May defeating Watchung Hills in a three game match: 25-19; 25-27; 25-18.

Head Coach John Ross has lead the team since its founding by a small group of students in 2007. Since that time, the team has seen strong growth in student participation and increased success on the court, leading to this milestone.

This year shows the strength of the program that has been built, with the Varsity currently having a record of 14-6, and the Junior Varsity, lead by Coach Kevin Kostibos, currently being undefeated.

OVERLOOK AUXILIARY

The Overlook Auxiliary, an organization that has had a significant impact on Overlook Hospital itself, the staff, patients, and community, celebrated over 100 years of community service at its Spring Luncheon at Fairmont Country Club on May 19.

The volunteer organization's ongoing mission is to cultivate a compassionate and comforting environment throughout the entire Medical Center community.

The Auxiliary serves members of the Overlook community, and has supported numerous initiatives, from the Gift Shop & Bloom, to the Thomas Glasser Caregivers Center, the refurbishment of the third floor Oncology Lounge, and raising funds for the Valerie Center for pediatric cancer treatment. This year, the Auxiliary honored its co-chairs of the 2015

House Tour for their dedication and fundraising efforts. The 2015 House Tour raised over $30,000 for the Eating Disorders Clinic at Overlook Hospital.

The luncheon featured the music of "Married to Broadway" headlined by Ron Sharpe and Barbra Russell, an accomplished husband-and-wife team who met on the stage of Broadway's Les Miserables. Joining in the performance was Samantha Sharpe, their equally accomplished daughter, and Daniel Zorovich, their Broadway colleague

The Overlook Auxiliary is a volunteer organization cultivating a compassionate and comforting environment throughout the entire Medical Center community with active volunteering and imaginative fundraising. More information is available at www.oaux.org.

WORLD'S LARGEST SWIM LESSON

On Friday, June 24, 2016, tens of thousands of children and adults at aquatic facilities around the world will participate in The World's Largest Swim Lesson™. As an official host location, the Summit Family Aquatic Center will welcome all to participate in this global event.

Since its inception, more than 155,000 children and adults have participated in the WLSL™ with the 2015 event alone hosting over 38,000 participants from 22 countries.

Research shows participation in formal swimming lessons can reduce the risk of drowning by 88% among children aged 1 to 4, yet many do not receive formal swimming or water safety training. Drowning remains the leading cause of unintended, injury-related death for child ages 1 to 4 and the second leading cause of accidental death for children under the age of 14.

The 2016 WLSL™ event at the SFAC will kick off at 10 a.m., welcoming both members and non-members to participate. No pre-registration required. Participants will be asked to sign in on the day of the event. The SFAC is located at 100 Ashwood Avenue. Free event parking will be available on-site.

Join the movement to help spread awareness on the importance of learning to swim at the WLSL™ 2016 event.

For more on the SFAC's WLSL™ event, visit summitcommunityprograms.com.

Parents are encouraged to visit wsl.org for additional information and resources on drowning prevention.

TECHNOLOGY HAS GIVEN US THE ABILITY TO FIND OUT WHY YOU ARE STORING FAT AND HOW TO GET RID OF IT!

A "one-size-fits-all" weight loss program will only take you so far (and after many months of hunger and a boatload of cash).

Targeting your specific hormone makeup is the key to fast and effective weight loss. Our NRF Technology essentially takes your hormonal fingerprint to determine the exact ingredients you need to bring your body into an optimal state of fat burning. And beyond the initial weight loss, restoring balance with the system actually resets your metabolism and weight set point so that you keep the weight off after you lose it.
