WESTFIELD MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

The impending thunderstorms, forecasted by several weather stations, caused some towns to cancel their Memorial Day Parade, but not the town of Westfield. The Memorial Day celebration proceeded as planned and members of the community, who were scheduled to walk were all present and accounted for.

Excitement filled the air as Westfield residents began to gather at the Lord and Taylor parking lot. The Westfield High School band tuned their instruments; you could hear them in the distance as they prepared to showcase their talents. Humvees rolled into the parking lot, filled with National Guardsmen and young boys from the Westfield Troop 73 Boy Scouts watched in awe.

This year's Grand Marshall was Sergeant Carlos Granados, Bravo Company, 2nd of the 113 Infantry Unit. Sergeant Granados deployed thrice; to Iraq from 2008 to 2009; to Afghanistan for one year in 2010; and in June 2014, to Qatar for support during Operation Enduring Freedom. Sergeant Granados stood firm and humbly as he awaited the vehicle that would parade him through the scores of patriotic Americans as a representation of the fallen service members he served with.

The event was a success and the weather cooperated. It would take a lot more than a dreary weather forecast to stop these determined residents from honoring veterans.

7 THINGS YOU MUST KNOW BEFORE PUTTING YOUR HOME UP FOR SALE

Westfield NJ - A new report has just been released which reveals 7 costly mistakes that most homeowners make when selling their home, and a 9 Step System that can help you sell your home fast and for the most amount of money.

This industry report shows clearly how the traditional ways of selling homes have become increasingly less and less effective in today's market.

The fact of the matter is that fully three quarters of homesellers don't get what they want for their homes and become disillusioned and - worse - financially disadvantaged when they put their homes on the market.

As this report uncovers, most homesellers make 7 deadly mistakes that cost them literally thousands of dollars. The good news is that each and every one of these mistakes is entirely preventable. In answer to this issue, industry insiders have prepared a free special report entitled "The 9 Step System to Get Your Home Sold Fast and For Top Dollar".

WESTFIELD HIGH SCHOOL, GIRLS ICE HOCKEY

Submitted by: Beth Ellen Hornstein

A determined Westfield High School sophomore, Ally Hornstein, dreamed of playing hockey for Westfield High School. In December of 2015, Ally and four Westfield moms, Beth Hornstein, Jennifer Katz, Marty McDevitt, and Dianna Snyder helped to turn that dream into a reality. On Tuesday, May 10th, Westfield Board of Education President Gretchan Ohlig, announced the approval of a girls' hockey team for the 2016-2017 school year. WHS becomes the 11th high school in NJ to have a girls' ice hockey team and only the third public high school in the state (after Princeton and Summit).

This initiative became reality thanks to the strong support of Sandra Mamary, Athletic Director of Westfield High School, John Devin, President of The Westfield High School Ice Hockey Association, the coaches at Union Sports Arena, and the Westfield Hockey Club. We want to thank the Westfield Superintendent, Dr. Dolan and the Members of the Westfield Board of Education for seeing the need for a WHS Girls' Ice Hockey team due to the growth in the number of girls who are playing ice hockey. At the meeting, Beth Hornstein thanked the BOE, "The girls will make you very proud."

HIGH SCHOOL PAL STUDENTS SELECTED FOR NATIONAL TOWN HALL MEETING

Two Westfield High School (WHS) students were selected by their teachers to attend the National Police Athletic League (PAL) Youth Town Hall Meeting on April 19th held in Arlington, VA. Senior Erica Simmons and 11th grader Matt Reed had the opportunity to dialogue with fellow PAL members, government and community leaders, as well as law enforcement executives from across the country to continue the fostering of a positive relationship among the groups. The PAL national leadership was interested in hearing about initiatives within various communities such as Westfield, where students like Erica and Matt volunteer weekly to provide free after school tutoring sponsored by the local PAL. Earlier in the day prior to the start of the meeting, Erica, Matt, WHS teacher Gail Alston and retired Westfield detective Ron Allen, had the unique opportunity of participating in behind-the-scenes tours of an airport control tower, TSA and US Customs areas, and a joint military base in Washington, D.C.

When asked about his experience in the Washington DC area, Matt explained that he enjoyed the Digital Forensics Consortium the best. "I am taking Forensics in school this year and I'm really interested in it and learning about those types of jobs."

"We got to see and be part of things we never thought we would," said Erica, who has been in PAL since 9th grade. "The different lessons taught by Homeland Security and TSA were fascinating."

Back in Westfield, students of various ages come to Westfield High School once a week to get tutored by PAL volunteers. Matt, who normally provides tutoring in math, and Erica, who specializes in math and science, say they don't mind giving up their free time after school to help others. Erica will be leaving the PAL program when she graduates this year and enters Johnson & Wales University to study business management and culinary arts. Looking back on her high school career in PAL, she commented, "I've had a great experience in PAL – it's like a family environment, even on the national level."

MEDIATION OFFERS SOLUTIONS FOR ANY STAGE OF A DIVORCE

By: James McGlew, Esq.

For many couples experiencing marital difficulties and facing the end of their relationship, divorce mediation can be an appropriate alternative to litigation. While mediation may not fit every situation, for couples who are prepared to address all of the issues related to their relationship, a mediator can often assist in achieving a resolution. In mediation there are no determinations as to who will be the "winner" and who will be the "loser" as the mediator has no interest in advocating the position of one party in favor of the other. A mediator's role is to determine what common ground can be achieved between the parties.

Mediation can cover all divorce issues such as custody, parental time-sharing with respect to children, the amount and type of alimony, child support obligations, the disposition of the marital home, the division of pensions and other retirement benefits and the equitable distribution of marital assets.

Couples can avail themselves of mediation before either spouse files for divorce, while they are in the process of litigating their divorce and even after their divorce has been finalized. Some couples choose to take a step back and "pause" their divorce litigation and retain a mediator to assist in the process. Increasingly I see that divorced individuals are mediating the disputes that naturally arise in the years following their divorce. Ex-spouses will attempt to mediate such issues as responsibility for college costs for their children, the increase or decrease in alimony or child support based on a change in circumstances post-divorce, and the finalization of pension related issues.

There are specific benefits to the mediation process:

- There is confidentiality between the parties and the mediator. What you say or the position you take is confidential and the Mediator cannot be called to testify.
- The parties retain control of the process.
- No matter the subject, your case can be dealt with in an unconventional way if needed. The parties are not bound by the standard means of resolving a divorce case as a Judge would be.

A mutually-acceptable settlement can be crafted by collaboration between the mediator and the parties so that the solution fits the divorcing couple's particular situation. A successful outcome is in the hands of the parties and not the Court.

Lindabury is uniquely qualified to assist divorcing couples through the mediation process. If the need arises, our attorneys have expertise in a wide range of legal areas such as questions regarding tax, real estate, estate planning, trusts and benefits.

If you or someone you know is interested in how Lindabury can have the mediation process work for you, please visit the divorce mediation page of our website www.Lindabury.com. We provide the full range of divorce and family law services and are easily accessible from our Westfield New Jersey office. ## WESTFIELD FARMERS MARKET NOW OPENED ON SATURDAYS

The Westfield Farmers Market, sponsored by the Greater Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce (GWACC) and Two River Community Bank, held its grand opening on Saturday, June 4th, at 8:30 a.m.

Located in the parking lot on the south side of the Westfield Train Station, the market will be open each Saturday through October from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. It will reopen for a special one-day event on the Saturday before Thanksgiving.

"This is our 21st season, and it will be our best," said Christopher Devine, manager of the Westfield Farmers Market and chairman of the GWACC.

Featured this year are organic produce, baked goods, fresh pasta, prepared food, organic coffee, honey, nuts, fine oils, natural seasonings and more. The GWACC website contains a full list of vendors.

Among the market's highlights are organic produce from Chickadee Creek Farm, located in Pennington; organic coffee from Reign Coffee; apples and other assorted fresh produce from Donaldson's Farm in Hackettstown; a selection of organic, grass-fed beef from Creamrich Farms in Bensalem, PA; a huge selection of potted plants, flowers and vegetables from Skeba Farms in Monroe Township; and organic dog treats from Little Bear's Biscuit Barkery.

"This is my fifth year as head of the Westfield Farmer's Market, and I want it to be our best year yet," said Devine. "As the ultimate supporter of the Westfield Farmer's Market, I want our market to be the premier destination for fresh fruits and vegetables throughout the state of New Jersey."

SUSANNE BONHOTE AWARDED PHILHOWER FELLOWSHIP

Susanne Bonhote, Achieve teacher at McKinley Elementary School in Westfield, is the 2016 recipient of the Westfield Rotary Club's Philhower Fellowship in recognition of outstanding teaching at the elementary school level.

Mrs. Bonhote joined the Westfield Public Schools in 1990, when she began her teaching career at McKinley Elementary School as a second grade teacher. Remaining at McKinley, she later moved to the position as Achieve Language Arts teacher.

A graduate of Boston College, Mrs. Bonhote majored in English and Elementary Education.

She holds a Master of Arts degree in Reading Specialization from Kean College and a Master of Administration & Supervision in Elementary Education from Rutgers University earning a Principal Certificate of Eligibility.

In nominations received on her behalf, Mrs. Bonhote was described as "a guiding light in reading education, creating a positive environment in order to meet the needs of all of her students."

One of her current students stated, "Mrs. Bonhote helps kids so much, they feel inspired. She cares about kids because she amazingly takes her own time to help kids and she is always happy because I have never seen her sad."

A first grader wrote, "Mrs. Bonhote helps me with my writing and when I get stuck. She works extra hard with me at lunchtime. She also helps me with trick words."

In one of many letters of nominations received by school children, a fifth grader said, "I want to thank her for all she does with me in reading and writing. Mrs. Bonhote helps me so much with my reading fluency. This is important to me because I am dyslexic. Because I am dyslexic, I read very slowly. My brain works differently than most peoples' brains and Mrs. Bonhote understands that."

A parent of one of Mrs. Bonhote's students wrote, "My third grade son now loves to read Harry Potter books every night. What he has accomplished in the past two years under the caring, dedicated direction of Mrs. Bonhote is something I wasn't sure was possible."

Added another parent, "Her patience, knowledge and love have been instrumental in helping my reluctant reader from a struggling first grader to a confident second grader. We adore her and feel that she deserves this honor so very much."

Mrs. Bonhote was thanked by a former student, now an 8th grader, for "helping me be the best student I can be."

One of several letters of nomination from her colleagues included these comments: "Susanne continues to avidly pursue professional development, obtaining two Master degrees, training first grade teachers in reading programs, and attending conferences on Dyslexia. Her rapport with students, parents and colleagues is exceptional."

Upon receiving notification of the Philhower Fellowship, Mrs. Bonhote stated, "I am humbled and honored to have been selected as the recipient of the Charles Philhower Fellowship Award, knowing that my colleagues, both at McKinley School and across our district, are incredibly talented and dedicated to their students and the teaching profession. Working with my students and their families in a community that so strongly values and supports education has been a rewarding and inspiring experience."

Superintendent of Schools Margaret Dolan congratulated Susanne Bonhote on becoming the 24th recipient of the Philhower Fellowship. She also thanked the Rotary for "its recognition of this meaningful profession".

The Philhower Fellowship was established in 1993 by the Rotary Club to honor former Westfield Educator and Rotarian Charles Philhower and to recognize the importance of teaching in the elementary grades.

CRISIS HOTLINE CARING CONTACT TO HOLD ANNUAL ALIVE & RUNNING 5K JUNE 11 TO HELP SAVE LIVES

Are you alive and running? You can help others stay alive by joining the "Alive & Running" Caring Contact 5K Walk/Run being held Saturday, June 11th, at Warinanco Park in Roselle. Registration is at 8:30 a.m. and the race/walk begins at 9:30 a.m.

The cost of participation is $25, $15 for students. All money raised will go toward funding the operation of Caring Contact's listening line, including keeping more than 200 trained volunteer listeners available for callers in crisis. The hotline takes more than 15,000 calls each year. Just $15 pays for one of those calls from someone in pain or crisis or having suicidal thoughts.

Caring Contact is an award-winning, volunteer-staffed caring and crisis hotline and listening community, providing active listening support and best-in-class training to the Central and Northern New Jersey community.

The suicide rate in the United States has been increasing every year since 1999, rising more than 24 percent between 1999 and 2014. Every 13.7 minutes someone in the United States dies by suicide and more than 42,000 people died by suicide in 2013, including 4,600 young people.

"Studies show a decrease in feelings of emotional distress and suicide both during and following calls to a crisis hotline," said Joanne Oppelt, Caring Contact's executive director. "The most effective solution for preventing suicide is interaction with another human being."

To register visit <http://caringcontact.org/alive-and-running-5k-run-walk/>

Caring Contact serves Central and Northern New Jersey and is a primary responder to calls to the national suicide prevention line (1-800-273-TALK or 1-800-SUICIDE) that originate in New Jersey. Callers also reach Caring Contact by dialing 908-232-2880. Those preferring to seek supporting through texting may text "heart" to 741-741. The hotline also provides best-in-class training to the Central and Northern New Jersey Community.

A Long Island native, Kenn has played in many venues, including New York City's Bitter End and the International Festival of Arts and Ideas in New Haven, CT. ## SYMPATHY CARDS MADE BY CHILDREN FOR CHILDREN

After searching in card stores and online for sympathy cards designed for children and teens and not finding any, Imagine, A Center for Coping with Loss decided to make its own. It invited participants in its programs to come in and work with local artist, Sara Lowry, to design the covers and spoke with children and teens who had experienced the death of a parent or sibling about what words they would most want to read inside a sympathy card.

The collaboration produced seven cards in what is intended to be a new line of greeting cards and other items more suited to the grieving process of children than what is ordinarily available. Imagine is now selling the cards on its website. Any proceeds from the sale of the cards will benefit Imagine grief support programs.

The underlying idea for the project is very personal to Imagine Founder and Executive Director Mary Robinson of Madison, whose father died when she was 14. At the time, she received the following sympathy card:

"Dear Mary, I am so sorry for your great loss. I always think unhappy times are the hardest for young people to bear. But I think they have a way of making one grow up with a lot more compassion. The thing that helps me feel better when I'm sad is to think that nothing – feelings or situations – good or bad, last forever. Take Care. Sincerely, Eleanor Schenck."

"I don't know if this was the only sympathy card I received from an adult after my father's death, but 42 years later it is the only one I have kept. It is yellowed and well-read. I held on to it like a lifeline, for it gave me hope that something good could come out of something so incomprehensible and painful," said Robinson.

The good that eventually came from Robinson's loss was the creation of two New Jersey grief support centers for children and a life now dedicated to providing children and teens the support they need following any painful loss.

Inspired by the way Mrs. Schenck's card spoke to the sadness in young Mary Robinson, these cards say to grieving young people:

I see you.

Your loss matters.

Your sadness won't last forever.

These are the messages grieving children need from adults.

"Parents, teachers and family friends often ask 'What should I say?' or 'What should I do?'" when a child they know has experienced a painful loss. At Imagine we say give them your love, your time, your attention. Give them your optimism that they will get through this. And let them lead the way. They will show you what they need.

(above) One of 7 sympathy card designs made by youth participants at Imagine for other children who have experienced loss. Cards can be purchase at www.imagenj.org/store

"It is our hope these cards will let children and teens coping with loss know they are not alone in their grief," says Robinson.

Imagine is a free year-round peer grief support center located in Westfield, New Jersey serving all of Union County and beyond. Its services are provided free of charge and year-round. Imagine serves children age 3-18 who have had a parent or sibling die, with concurrent support groups for their parents or guardians. Support is also available for children and teens living with a parent or sibling with a life-altering physical illness. Free year-round support groups are also available for adults 18 and up who have had a friend, sibling, parent or other important person in their life die, or who have a parent, sibling or friend living with an illness.

AUDITIONS FOR SONDHEIM'S ASSASSINS

CDC Theatre announces auditions for a new, fresh, dark, and timely production of Assassins. A multiple Tony Award-winning theatrical tour-de-force, Assassins combines Stephen Sondheim's signature blend of intelligently stunning lyrics and beautiful music with a panoramic story of our nation's culture of celebrity and the violent means some will use to obtain it, embodied by America's four successful and five would-be presidential assassins. Bold, original, disturbing, and alarmingly funny, Assassins is perhaps the most controversial musical ever written.

Auditions will be June 13 - 7:30 p.m. and June

18th - 1:00 p.m. Callbacks by Invitation, will be June 18th 2:00 p.m. at CDC Theatre, 78 Winans Ave., Cranford, NJ. The show is set to run October 7-22, 2016.

Directed by Alan Van Antwerp, Musically Directed by Jack Bender, Choreographed by Megan Ferentinos.

STRIDES4STRENGTH: A WALK TO END DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Join the YWCA Union County for the First Annual Strides4Strength: A Walk to End Domestic Violence on Sunday, June 12th from 9am-2pm. Every step raises awareness and all event proceeds support the YWCA Union County's Domestic Violence Programs. The event is free for children under 12 & furry friends. Register today at Strides4Strength.EventBrite.com.

The YWCA Union County, now 96 years old, has been providing services to survivors of domestic violence since 1978. The YWCA is the only agency in Union County that provides an emergency domestic violence shelter, in addition to supportive and transitional housing, counseling, legal advocacy and representation, children's services, 24 hour crisis intervention and more. All YWCA services are free and confidential.

Domestic violence is a crime that impacts people regardless of race, ethnicity, economic status, education, or religion; it is estimated to impact 1 in every 3 women nationally, and 1 in every 7 men. It impacts more women than breast cancer, lung cancer and ovarian cancer combined.

Domestic violence breaks all barriers of race, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, gender and socioeconomic status. It is a crime that impacts our entire community. It is estimated that 1 in every 4 women will be effected by domestic violence in her life, which equals more than breast cancer, lung cancer, and ovarian cancer combined. Domestic violence is estimated to cost employers in the U.S. up to $8.3 billion each year. An average of 3 women per day in the United States are killed as a result of domestic violence.

Register today at Strides4Strength.EventBrite.com. Interested in renting vendor space at the event? Please, contact us at tpackard@ywcaunioncounty.org for more information.

If you or anyone you know is experiencing domestic violence, call the 24-Hour Hotline at 908-355-HELP (4357).

CAP CADET PROGRAM IS OPEN TO STUDENTS

On May 14, 2016, teenagers from ages 12 to 18 participated in the Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst Open House Air Show as part of the Civil Air Patrol Cadet Program for middle school and high school students.

CAP members provided STEM demonstrations, aircraft static displays, event program sales, and some had the honor of escorting distinguished visitors to the Center Stage. In addition, CAP members provided flight orientation training on computer simulators to young visitors that stopped by the CAP booth.

Children also had the chance to pose in the CAP F-16 model. During this event, CAP members answered many questions from the public about the CAP youth program in areas such as Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math activities (STEM), Cyber Security activities, Robotics competitions, the Orientation Flight program, basic customs, courtesies, drills, and much more.

The Civil Air Patrol Capt. "Bud" Jackson Squadron is open to the youth of Union County (west area) and Morris County (south east area). Cadets meet every Tuesday from 7:00PM to 9:00PM at the Chatham High School in room L10. The CAP cadet program is open to students from ages 12 to 18 years old.

For more information about the Civil Air Patrol Cadet Program, please contact Mary Romany at 732-424-6484
