FANWOOD SCOTCH PLAINS MEMORIAL DAY CONCERT

A Memorial Day Concert was held on May 29th, serving as a preceding celebration to pay tribute to the fallen men and women of the United States Armed Forces. The concert commenced with the presentation of colors by Color Guard Anthony Parenti, of the American Legion Post 209.

Deacon Robert Gurske's Invocation followed, Parenti then lead off the Pledge of Allegiance, and Scotch Plains Mayor Kevin Glover welcomed all those who attended. Acknowledgements were given to Fanwood Mayor Colleen Mahr, who was also in attendance.

A special presentation ensued in memory of Corporal Don Wussler; a Korean War Veteran, in the 7th Infantry Division, and Purple Heart recipient. Vietnam Army Veteran Joseph McCourt had the honor of leading the presentation as this year's parade Grand Marshall.

Droves of people gathered by the municipal building to hear the Westfield Community Band perform a host of patriotic songs in memory of service members who paid the ultimate sacrifice. Songs like Coming to America, This Land is Your Land, and America the Beautiful stretched across the municipal buildings lawn.

In between the patriotic melodies, three Army veterans took the podium to read letters written by departed U.S. service members and their families. Raymond Lo, Lieutenant Colonel, U.S. Army, who served in Operation Enduring Freedom, Afghanistan; Srikanth Reddy, Warrant Officer 1, U.S. Army, Operation Iraqi Freedom; and Joseph McCourt, read these intimate letters, to give the public an understanding of what service members encounter both physically and mentally during wartime.

The occasion ended fittingly, with the Westfield Community Band playing The Star and Stripes Forever.

CRISIS HOTLINE CARING CONTACT TO HOLD ANNUAL ALIVE & RUNNING 5K JUNE 11 TO HELP SAVE LIVES

Are you alive and running? You can help others stay alive by joining the "Alive & Running" Caring Contact 5K Walk/Run being held Saturday, June 11th, at Warinanco Park in Roselle. Registration is at 8:30 a.m. and the race/walk begins at 9:30 a.m.

The cost of participation is $25, $15 for students. All money raised will go toward funding the operation of Caring Contact's listening line, including keeping more than 200 trained volunteer listeners available for callers in crisis. The hotline takes more than 15,000 calls each year. Just $15 pays for one of those calls from someone in pain or crisis or having suicidal thoughts.

Caring Contact is an award-winning, volunteer-staffed caring and crisis hotline and listening community, providing active listening support and best-in-class training to the Central and Northern New Jersey community.

The suicide rate in the United States has been increasing every year since 1999, rising more than 24 percent between 1999 and 2014. Every 13.7 minutes someone in the United States dies by suicide and more than 42,000 people died by suicide in 2013, including 4,600 young people.

"Studies show a decrease in feelings of emotional distress and suicide both during and following calls to a crisis hotline," said Joanne Oppelt, Caring Contact's executive director. "The most effective solution for preventing suicide is interaction with another human being."

To register visit <http://caringcontact.org/alive-and-running-5k-run-walk/>

Caring Contact serves Central and Northern New Jersey and is a primary responder to calls to the national suicide prevention line (1-800-273-TALK or 1-800-SUICIDE) that originate in New Jersey. Callers also reach Caring Contact by dialing 908-232-2880. Those preferring to seek supporting through texting may text "heart" to 741-741. The hotline also provides best-in-class training to the Central and Northern New Jersey Community.

FANWOOD WELCOMES BACK THE GRAZING GOATS

During Memorial Day Weekend the Fanwood Environmental Commission welcomed back a number of grazing goats to do what they do best—eat non-native, invasive plants. This is the second year the Fanwood Environmental Commission has employed the use of goats as an eco friendly solution to weed management.

Environmental Commission Chairman Gary Szelc said, "To paraphrase that old song, 'We're doing what comes naturally, using nature to work with nature to control invasive plants'."

The goats were located at Fanwood's Nature Center. They started on the north side, where they addressed the emerging non-native plants they managed last season. Later in the summer the goats will be moved to the south side of the Nature Center. Some of the Nature Center trails will be closed from time to time and visitors should stay on the outside of the two fences—the smaller inner fence is to keep the goats in the desired area and is mildly electrified. We also ask that visitors not walk their dogs through the Nature Center while the goats are there. The commission asks visitors to observe the goats quietly and let them do their work. No one should try to pet the goats and definitely don't feed them as that would defeat the purpose of why they are there.
