NATIONAL GUN VIOLENCE AWARENESS AND WEAR ORANGE DAY, JUNE 2ND, 2016

On June 2nd, Fanwood was one of two towns in New Jersey that hosted a National Gun Violence Awareness Day event. One of many events held nationwide, it is sponsored by the organization Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America. A grassroots movement of American mothers fighting for public safety measures that respect the Second Amendment and protect people from gun violence.

The local chapter, Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense Union County, is led by Scotch Plains resident Lauren O'Brien. It has over 200 active members from all over Union County and 9 county leaders. Many are from Scotch Plains-Fanwood and neighboring towns.

Lauren recalls "I personally got involved because ever since Columbine, I have viewed school shootings as the greatest tragedy we can possibly face in this country. I will never accept America's children and teachers going through active shooter drills as normal. I also am propelled to action so we can feel safe again in churches, cinemas, malls, nightclubs, gas stations, college campuses and 1st grade classrooms.

"What's next for Moms Demand Action on America is an active response to the tragedy in Orlando - beyond tweets, Facebook comments, vigils, and condolences. We need a lot more than people's thoughts and prayers to make change."

For more information about what you can do to be safe in your home, or on joining, volunteering with the local chapter or donating, visit momsdemandaction.org, or visit their Facebook page: facebook.com/MomsDemandAction.

Twelve of the 21 town mayors in Union County proclaimed June 2nd as National Gun Violence Awareness day. The Fanwood event had an overflowing crowd and was attended by many Union County mayors, council members, and other officials.

Downtown Fanwood was filled with orange balloons and shopping bags, and many people wore orange in support, during the Chamber of Commerce Ladies Night Out event what was happening simultaneously across town.

The group supports wearing orange to honor all lives cut short by gun violence because orange is the color hunters wear to keep safe in the woods from other shooters.

11 CRITICAL HOME INSPECTION TRAPS TO BE AWARE OF WEEKS BEFORE LISTING YOUR HOME FOR SALE

Scotch Plains NJ - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale. Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free 1-888-243-5861 and enter 3002. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Get your free special report NOW to learn how to ensure a home inspection doesn't cost you the sale of your home.

PARK MIDDLE SCHOOL'S JUNIOR SOLAR SPRINT TEAM

Park Middle School's Junior Solar Sprint Team, under the supervision of Dr. Minerley and Ms. Cinella, included 21 sixth and seventh graders who competed in teams at this year's Junior Solar Sprint Competition against 64 solar cars from 14 schools at New Providence High School.

The Solar Tear, built by seventh graders, Elizabeth Acevedo and Kotey Ashie, won third place for "Best Use of Recycled Materials." In the speed division, The Solar Trinity, built by our sixth grade team of Emily Wywra, Alexa Fazio, Andres Seith, and Devin Mulligan won fourth place and went on to compete in the Inter-County Finals at Ridgedale Middle School in Florham park. These sixth graders never lost heart and exhibited extraordinary teamwork by methodically discussing their aerodynamics and guidance system, and repairing and redesigning The Solar Trinity between heats. When the dust settled, they had scored 2nd, 2nd, 1st, 2nd, 4th, and 4th in their six heats.

Students who participated, shared their experiences. Emily said, Overall, Junior Solar Sprint was an amazing experience and I would jump on any opportunity to do it again!" Andrew explained, "One of the many things I especially liked about the Junior Solar Sprint was building the car after school because it really put your mind to the test to figure out the possibilities and variables you were dealing with. For example, we had to think about the amount of power we were getting from the sun and the aerodynamics of the car. These things were very important to the car and its performance." Alexa was excited to share that, "Junior Solar Spring was a thrilling experience that challenged our minds to think outside the box. It was so thought provoking how so many different variables fit into the solar car itself not to mention the surface, the sun's position, and the direction the wind is going. I would totally do it again next year!"

1ST ANNUAL 5K RUN TO SUMMER

By: Edir Coronado

Local residents got together this year and created the first ever Race to Summer 5K, in memory of Patrick J. Allocca to raise money for their downtown area and allocate funds to a charitable recipient.

This year the committee will make a donation to Camp Clover, a week-long summer camp for children's ages 5- 7 who've experience grief. The camp provides tools for children to cope with their sorrow, along with original forms of summer camp activities. These coping skills learned at the camp, are aids that the campers can use for the rest of their lives.

Hundreds of residents, both young and old, gathered at the Scotch Plains municipal building to show their support. There was no limit on how you participated in the race, community members ran, jogged, and even used jogging strollers.

Although hundreds of determined runners crossed that starting line, some posted impressive running times. In first place was Joseph Brancale, age 29, coming in at 17 minutes and 19 seconds; then Brian Trembley, age 28, coming in at a very close second 17 minutes 31 seconds; and third was Ben Fleischer, age 15, coming in at 18 minutes 22 seconds.

Melissa Cerimele, age 31, finished first in the female category at 19 minutes 21 seconds; Rachel Ackerman, age 32, finished second, with 20 minutes 33 seconds; and Adrienne Foote, age 33, finished third with. 20 minutes 45 seconds.

After the race was completed participants enjoyed live music from "The Neighbors" band and BBQ from the Stagehouse Tavern.

FANWOOD SCOTCH PLAINS ROTARY CLUB

At a recent Fanwood Scotch Plains Rotary Club lunch meeting, Sandy Rodriguez from Family Promise of Union County discussed how they help homeless families achieve independence. Join us any Wednesday for Lunch At the Stage House Inn, Park Avenue, Scotch Plains.

Luncheon, with fellowship and a speaker, often a community leader with an update on themes of interest to the local communities or bearing on charitable activities that receive or seek Rotary support. We deliberate new ways to serve our community. We laugh. We re-examine ourselves at each weekly meeting, recalling the Rotary "Four Way Test" of the things we think or do:

- Is it the truth?
- Is it fair to all concerned?
- Will it build good will and better friendships?
- Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

We break up promptly after 90 minutes to enable our members to resume meeting their clients' needs and business responsibilities. For more information visit www.fsprotary.org.

ANOTHER EXCITING SUMMER READING SEASON

The Scotch Plains Public Library is proud to announce another exciting summer reading season. This year's theme inspires participants to think about art, reading, gaming, health, wellness, sports, and the upcoming Olympics. SCOTCH PLAINS CELEBRATES INDEPENDENCE DAY

In honor of Independence Day, the township hosted its first-ever fireworks display on Saturday, July 2nd. Hundreds of residents brought their blankets and lawn chairs to the Scotch Hills Golf Course to enjoy a nice evening with neighbors.

Before the fireworks show Mayor Kevin

Glover stated "This event could not become a reality without the help of a great many volunteers, so I would like to thank all the members of the Cultural Arts Committee, the Fireworks Committee, the Police and Fire Departments, the Rescue Squad and of course the individual and corporate sponsors."

SCOTCH PLAINS ITALIAN AMERICAN CLUB DEDICATES MONTAZZOLI PLAZA

On June 4, 2016 the Scotch Plains Italian American Club held a dedication ceremony for the plaza located in front of their club house at 1976 Valley Avenue in Scotch Plains. The location was named Montazzoli Plaza in tribute to the Italian Village in the Abruzzi Region of Italy where many of the original immigrants from 1906 originated. The club and its members still have strong ties to their hometown.

Joe Bruno was the master of ceremonies and introduced Father David Santos of St.

Bartholomew Church to give the invocation. Former New Jersey Governor Donald DeFrancesco was the guest speaker and spoke of the meaning of the Montazzoless Heritage. Scotch Plains Mayor Kevin Glover presented a proclamation to the club's president, John Appezzato. Mayor Colleen Mahr from neighboring Fanwood also addressed the crowd.

Entertainment was supplied by the Moonglowers, a band made up of students from Scotch Plains Fanwood High School.

"ENTREPRENEURSHIP 101" WORKSHOP

Prepares You for Small Business Ownership

It's the American dream – having your own business, being your own boss, setting your own hours....But before you take the plunge (or before you get in too deep in a business that you just started), you need to do some serious self-reflection and homework.

That's why UCEDC, a statewide economic development corporation, is offering an intensive six-week workshop for start-up businesses (those in the idea/planning phase or in operation less than a year).

The next session of Entrepreneurship 101 is scheduled for Tuesday evenings (6:00 – 9:00 pm), July 12 – August 23, 2016 at UCEDC's headquarters in Cranford.

"The small business failure rate is staggering," warns Erich Peter, UCEDC's Director of Training. "But you'll be more likely to succeed if you consider every challenge ahead of you and make sure you have what it takes to meet them."

Participants will be guided through a real-world assessment of their business idea and market feasibility as well as their own ability to handle the demands of business ownership. The steps to opening a business in New Jersey, choosing a legal structure, developing a business plan and establishing cost, revenue and cash flow projections will be addressed in a variety of interactive exercises.

"Being a business owner is hard work and this workshop is equally demanding," says Peter. "But we're going to work with you both in and outside of the classroom to make sure that the class material is relevant to your specific needs. And, we stick with our graduates for 12 months, providing free counseling services."

Registration is now open for Entrepreneurship 101. Complete information can be found on the UCEDC website at www.ucedc.com or by calling 908-527-1166.
