ATHLETICS NIGHT ACQUAINTS STUDENTS WITH SPORTS PROGRAM

Parents and students, including current eighth graders, who hope to play Fall sports at Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) attended a Fall Athletics Night in May to hear from Athletic Director Chris Van Vliet, and speak to team coaches.

After welcoming remarks and a presentation by Van Vliet about the philosophy, mission and information about key upcoming dates, students and parents went to breakout sessions throughout the school to meet and speak with coaches. There were coaches representing Football, Boys and Girls Cross Country, Field Hockey, Boys and Girls Soccer, Girls Tennis, Girls volleyball, Fall Cheerleading, Gymnastics and Competition Cheer.

"I was very pleased with our fall athletics night," said Van Vliet. "We had a nice turnout, and the feedback I received was all positive. My hope is that our fall athletes are now more informed about our athletic department and the important items that need to be completed before practice begins, as well as the expectations of our coaches in each of our fall programs."

The WHRHS Athletic Department has two athletic trainers, Terry Marcazo and Michelle Armonda. There are 33 head coaches and 92 coaches in all. The Athletic Department promotes the following qualities for our student-athletes, he said, including: Competitive excellence, resilience, leadership, integrity, and teamwork.

Academic eligibility is extended to all freshman athletes for teams that compete during their first Fall and Winter season, Van Vliet said. To be academically eligible to compete during the Spring season, freshman athletes must have completed 15 credits during their first semester at WHRHS. For sophomores, juniors and seniors, students must have completed 30 credits from the previous school year to be eligible to compete during the Fall and Winter Seasons. For the Spring Season, they must have 15 credits at the end of the first semester.

Students interested in participating in fall sports will faced key deadlines for forms and physicals even before the end of school in June, Van Vliet said. First day for all Fall sports is Monday, Aug. 15th, except for Football, which starts Wednesday, Aug. 10. More information can be found on the department web site at www.whrhs.org.

SOLAR-POWERED EXCELLENCE AT WARREN MIDDLE SCHOOL

Warren Middle School 8th graders Esme Abbot, Anna Ramos, Eliana Sussner, and Sarah Young took first place with their solar car “The Millennium Pigeon” as best overall in the Junior Solar Sprints competition held on May 23 in Florham Park, NJ. The girls placed 1st in craftsmanship, 1st in engineering and 2nd in “Kids’ Choice.”

After months of designing, building and testing the Millennium Pigeon, the girls competed against fellow middle school students to advance to the inter-county finals. There, the Warren Middle School team won first place over 70 other contenders from surrounding counties, all vying for the chance to show off their innovative and expertly engineered efforts.

ROBOTICS NATIONALS FOLLOW - UP

The WHRHS Team 41 Robotics Team accumulated numerous medals, banners, plaques and trophies during the season and at the World Championship, held on April 27-30 in St. Louis. The success at the World Championship completed the most successful Team 41 season since 2008. Along the way, the team scored an 8th place finish at Regionals, and a 2nd place and first place at seasonal contests at Mount Olive High School and Montgomery High School, respectively.

This year's Team 41 robot as seen from above, with a boulder on board, which could be flung by catapult at a tower window target to score points. The robot needed to contain its computer brain for remote control, propulsion mechanisms, and other mechanisms, such as the hydraulic piston that gives the catapult power. The bot had to be relatively quick, nimble, durable, with its vital components protected and easily repaired if the rough and tumble of competition caused damages.

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED TO AREA STUDENTS

Two Warren Hills Regional High School students received scholarships from the Adele DeLeeuw Scholarship Fund at a dinner held Wednesday, June 8th, at the Spain Inn in Piscataway. The scholarships are financed by a bequest from Adele DeLeeuw, longtime Plainfield resident, author of 75 books, journalist, and arts activist.

The Plainfield-North Plainfield Rotary Club administers the Adele DeLeeuw Scholarship Fund and is one of five local Rotary clubs that provide scholarships from the fund to students in their communities who pursue a course of study in poetry, art, journalism, writing or engineering. Sixty thousand dollars was distributed this year to twenty-two area students by the Fund, a fund of the Plainfield Foundation. This year's awards bring the Fund's twenty-one-year total distribution to $1,143,500.

Brenda Okereke was the scholarship recipient from the graduating class of 2016. The Scholarship Fund also provided a continuing scholarship to college student Melody Njoku. This year's Adele DeLeeuw Senior Scholars, college students who were recognized as a scholarship recipient from the Fund for each of their four years in college included Charlotte Brockway. An additional nineteen students from area high schools received scholarships from the Fund.

Applications for the 2017 Adele DeLeeuw Scholarships will be available in January from North Plainfield High School guidance office. For further information, call Johanna Salvemini, Scholarship Administrator, at (908) 755-8098.

(above) Photo taken of Troop 228 at their 2016 Spaghetti Dinner held on April 16th at Our Lady of the Mount Church. It was a huge success, attended by 340 people. The troop would like to thank all of their supporters who came to the dinner, paid for an ad in the journal, or donated to the troop in any other way. Funds raised from the spaghetti dinner help to purchase equipment for the troop, offset camping costs for trips throughout the year, and aids in youth and adult leadership training.

NOMINATING PETITIONS FOR SCHOOL BOARD ELECTIONS DUE BY JULY 25

On November 8th, in the General Election, school board members will be elected in more than 90 percent of New Jersey's school districts, according to the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

“While November may seem a long way off, the time to decide to run for the local board of education is now,” says NJSBA President Donald Webster, Jr. “Nominating petitions for this year's Annual School Election must be submitted to county clerks by 4 p.m., Monday, July 25, 2016.”

This fall, voters in Warren will elect local candidates to three seats on the Warren Township Board of Education. Those interested in serving on the Warren Township board are encouraged to review the NJSBA's School Board Candidate Kit (www.njsba.org/candidacy), which includes information on the responsibilities of local school boards, qualifications for membership, the filing process, and a brief video produced by the NJSBA, “Consider Serving on Your Local School Board.”

“New Jersey's 5,000 volunteer school board members govern the education of approximately 1.4 million public school students,” Webster says. “No other public officials – elected or appointed – have as great an impact on the lives of our children.”

A sample nominating petition is included in the NJSBA's candidate kit. However, in order to explain the process, the Somerset County Clerk's Office prefers that candidates pick up the petition in person at 20 Grove Street, Somerville, NJ 08876, Monday through Friday, 8:15 a.m. – 4 p.m. Please call (908) 231-7013 with any questions.

FRANCESCA SALAS TAKES 1ST PLACE

By: Edir Coronado

Local Warren superstar, Francesca Salas, recently took first place in the New Jersey State Gymnastics completion for the Bronze Diamond Level, while representing the Summit Summies in Summit, New Jersey.

Francesca is a fifth grade student from Central school and has been involved in gymnastics for three years now and her talents continue to grow.

Gymnastics is not the only athletic activities Francesca is involved in, she is also a complete dancer. It is no wonder her favorite event is the beam routine, it gives Francesca a chance to show off how multi-talented she is.

Earning the Bronze Diamond All Around championship with a score of 36.45 was not an easy task for this young gymnastic elite. Francesca dedicates three days a week to gymnastic practice and each day of training involves hard work and commitment, which she clearly exhibited.

WHRHS DANCING WITH THE TEACHERS

An enthusiastic crowd of students, teachers, and parents filled the Performing Arts Center on Wednesday, May 25th, at Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) to witness and participate in Dancing With the Teachers.

Dancing with the Teachers is one of a year-long series of fundraising and awareness raising events sponsored by student groups in support of Project ALS (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis, also called Lou Gehrig's Disease). Project ALS is the non-profit organization started by the late Jenifer Estess, who died from the disease, and her family to seek out and support leading edge research to find treatment and a cure for ALS.

The Project ALS has special significance to the students and staff of WHRHS because of English Teacher Laura Goodson. Goodson's brother battled ALS, like Jenifer Estess, and it was Goodson who first discovered Project ALS, and encouraged the WHRHS student government to adopt ALS as their year-long community service effort.

"Thank you for all of your support this year," Goodson said. "As you know, this is a cause that is near and dear to my heart."

Ms. Goodson welcomed everyone to Dancing With the Teachers, and thanked the co-sponsors of the event, the Sophomore Grade Level Council and the WHRHS Dance Ensemble. Student Masters of Ceremonies for the night were Suchir Govindarajan and Schuyler Weisberg.

Students from the WHRHS Dance Ensemble, which had just staged its three-night Spring Dance Concert May 12th, 13th, and 14th, to rave reviews, provided the framework for the 14 dance numbers performed at Dancing With the Teachers. A number of teachers and administrators were featured performers in each number, with Dance Ensemble students and their Faculty Advisor, Marisa Joshi, a talented dancer and choreographer in her own right, providing guidance and spirited support for the teachers.

Among the dances were many of the numbers that highlighted the Spring Dance Concert. The Dancing with the Teachers event benefited from having the services of the Performing Arts Center's technical director Chris Valenti and his crew, according to event organizers. Valenti and his crew bathed the stage in appropriate and professional mood lighting and theatrical spot lighting, just as they had for the Spring Dance Concert.

For the last scheduled dance of the evening, all were invited, including audience members, to come on stage to dance the currently popular funky line dance, "The Cha Cha Slide." Many in the audience filled the stage, caught up in the fun.

The Dancing With the Teachers line-up of dances included several from the Spring Dance Concert, including "Phishy," "Collateral Damage," "Incandescent," "Becoming Human," and "Masala Chai." The rest of the program for Dancing With the Teachers included popular favorites, "The YMCA," "Uptown Funk," "Whip/Nae Nae," and "Thriller."

The smiles. The laughs. The hopes and dreams. You know they're in there. But how do you bring them out when your child is struggling in school? Imagine your child working one-on-one with a personal trainer, doing fun, challenging mental exercises that work on the skills the brain uses to learn and perform. It's an innovative solution with lasting results that's different than tutoring. We call it brain training. Parents and kids call it life changing.

DANCING SCIENTIST AT MT. HOREB SCHOOL

(above) Wearing a bespangled lab coat and white sneakers aglow in red and blue lighted trim, the Dancing Scientist (a.k.a. Jeffrey Vinokur) wowed Mt. Horeb students on May 31, combining music, dance moves and jaw-dropping science demonstrations. "I'm a real scientist," said Vinokur, a Biochemistry PhD candidate at UCLA who has appeared on the Discovery Channel, NBC's "Today" Show, the Weather Channel and other major media outlets. "I like to dance and I like science." The Dancing Scientist is the last in a series of educational and entertaining assemblies provided to Mt. Horeb students this year by the PTO and its cultural arts program.

ALT'S NEW PRINCIPAL

Christine L. Smith joined the Warren Township School District as the new principal of Angelo L. Tomaso School, effective as of July 1st, 2016.

The Board of Education approved Smith's appointment at its June 6th meeting. Smith, who was principal of Memorial Middle School in Spotswood, will succeed Kathryn Bond, who retired at the end of the June after 18 years with the district, 11 years as ALT principal and 7 as dean of students at Warren Middle School.

Smith says she looks forward to serving "as the instructional leader with talented staff at a level that matches my experience as a teacher." And she says she is eager to get back "to the elementary world and to work with our youngest learners."

VIDEO CREW VISITS WOODLAND SCHOOL TO HIGHLIGHT TECHNOLOGIES

Inspired by former Woodland student Peyton Walton, who has been battling a rare form of cancer for the past year, a video production crew recently shadowed Woodland School 5th graders and their teacher Colleen Krumm for two days as part of a project to highlight how adaptive technology can be used to connect homebound students to their classrooms.

No small task given that the six-person crew consisted of two camera operators, sound and lighting technicians, a director and the product marketing manager for Cisco Systems, the California-based technology company that is producing two short videos to showcase collaborative technology and the positive impact it can have in the classroom.

At the heart of the project are Peyton and her mother, Lynn Schaeber, who are on a mission to educate policymakers, healthcare providers, teachers and others about the uses and benefits of video collaboration and other technology for children unable to attend school due to a critical illness or other reason.

"It's unconscionable that, in today's day and age, children can't attend school just because they physically can't be there," says Schaeber. "We have the technology to keep these kids connected and the benefits far outweigh the costs. This technology costs less than tutors, the kids can go to school in real time, and they can be actively engaged in their own education with their peers."

Peyton, who turns 11 this summer, was diagnosed with Embryonal Hepatic Liver Sarcoma in June 2015, as her family was preparing to move from Warren to Maryland. While undergoing rounds of chemotherapy and radiation at hospitals in Washington, D.C. and New York, Peyton was able to continue her schoolwork with the help of her Chromebook, video conferencing and a robot she dubbed PAVS for "Peyton's Awesome Virtual Self."

PAINTINGS BY RALPH GARAFOLA FEATURED AT ART SPACE IN WARREN LIBRARY

The Art Space at Somerset County Library System of New Jersey's Warren Township Library branch, located at 42 Mountain Blvd. in Warren Township, showcased the work of local artist, educator, and author, Ralph Garafola in the month of June. Garafola, whose commissioned portraits hang in several countries as well as in private collections throughout the United States, had nine of his paintings on display on the Art Space's gallery wall.

Garafola has been a commercial illustrator and fine artist for more than 65 years. He brings his style of contemporary realism to his oil and watercolor paintings of portraits, landscapes, seascapes and still life. Garafola is a member of numerous art associations and is the recipient of countless awards.

Artists interested in exhibiting their work in the Art Space at SCLSNJ's Warren Township Library branch, either in the small, glass-enclosed display case or on the gallery wall, should contact Kathy DeCristofaro at kdecrist@scslibnj.org.
