FANWOOD FLEA MARKET & COLLECTIBLE SHOW

SATURDAY,
JULY 16, 2016

10:00am - 5:00pm

FANWOOD TRAIN STATION

There will be 50+ exhibitors displaying an array of quality merchandise such as handbags, sports collectibles, jewelry for all ages, clothing, gift items, gloves & scarves, toys, perfumes, antiques & collectibles, and garage/tag sale items.

NATIONAL GUN VIOLENCE AWARENESS AND WEAR ORANGE DAY, JUNE 2ND, 2016

On June 2nd, Fanwood was one of two towns in New Jersey that hosted a National Gun Violence Awareness Day event. One of many events held nationwide, it is sponsored by the organization Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America. A grassroots movement of American mothers fighting for public safety measures that respect the Second Amendment and protect people from gun violence.

The local chapter, Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense Union County, is led by Scotch Plains resident Lauren O'Brien. It has over 200 active members from all over Union County and 9 county leaders. Many are from Scotch Plains-Fanwood and neighboring towns.

Lauren recalls "I personally got involved because ever since Columbine, I have viewed school shootings as the greatest tragedy we can possibly face in this country. I will never accept America's children and teachers going through active shooter drills as normal. I also am propelled to action so we can feel safe again in churches, cinemas, malls, nightclubs, gas stations, college campuses and 1st grade classrooms.

"What's next for Moms Demand Action is an active response to the tragedy in Orlando - beyond tweets, Facebook comments, vigils, and condolences. We need a lot more than people's thoughts and prayers to make change."

For more information about what you can do to be safe in your home, or on joining, volunteering with the local chapter or donating, visit momsdemandaction.org, or visit their Facebook page: facebook.com/MomsDemandAction.

Twelve of the 21 town mayors in Union County proclaimed June 2nd as National Gun Violence Awareness day. The Fanwood event had an overflowing crowd and was attended by many Union County mayors, council members, and other officials.

Downtown Fanwood was filled with orange balloons and shopping bags, and many people wore orange in support, during the Chamber of Commerce Ladies Night Out event that was happening simultaneously across town.

The group supports wearing orange to honor all lives cut short by gun violence because orange is the color hunters wear to keep safe in the woods from other shooters.

LA GRANDE PARK ANNUAL PARTY

Hundreds of Fanwood residents gathered at La Grande Park for the annual Party in the Park on Wednesday, June 29 from 6 - 8:30 p.m. This year's event boasted a wide array of activities including bouncy houses, slides, laser-tag, a challenge course, and a special minion banana eating contest. A 16-foot wide state-of-the-art outdoor movie screen towered over the park and made it possible for everyone of all ages (and heights) to enjoy the movie.

The Free Summer Movie Series will continue every Tuesday through August 16 at La Grande Park. Screenings begin at approximately 8:30 p.m.

ROTARY CLUB AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS TO SPF HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Eight Scotch Plains Fanwood High School students were presented with scholarships from the Adele DeLeeuw Scholarship Fund at a dinner held on Wednesday, June 8th, at the Spain Inn in Piscataway. The scholarships are financed by a bequest from Adele DeLeeuw, longtime Plainfield resident, author of 75 books, journalist, and arts activist.

The Plainfield-North Plainfield Rotary Club administers the Adele DeLeeuw Scholarship Fund and is one of five local Rotary clubs that provide scholarships from the fund to students in their communities who pursue a course of study in poetry, art, journalism, writing or engineering. Sixty thousand dollars was distributed this year to twenty-two area students by the Fund, a fund of the Plainfield Foundation. This year's awards bring the Fund's twenty-one-year total distribution to $1,143,500.

Brenda Okereke was the scholarship recipient from the graduating class of 2016. The Scholarship Fund also provided a continuing scholarship to college student Melody Njoku. This year's Adele DeLeeuw Senior Scholars, college students who were recognized as a scholarship recipient from the Fund for each of their four years in college included Charlotte Brockway. An additional nineteen students from area high schools received scholarships from the Fund.

Applications for the 2017 Adele DeLeeuw Scholarships will be available in January from North Plainfield High School guidance office. For further information, call Johanna Salvemini, Scholarship Administrator, at (908) 755-8098.

Park Middle School's Junior Solar Sprint Team, under the supervision of Dr. Minerley and Ms. Cinella, included 21 sixth and seventh graders who competed in teams at this year's Junior Solar Sprint Competition against 64 solar cars from 14 schools at New Providence High School.

The Solar Tear, built by seventh graders, Elizabeth Acevedo and Kotey Ashie, won third place for "Best Use of Recycled Materials." In the speed division, The Solar Trinity, built by our sixth grade team of Emily Wywra, Alexa Fazio, Andres Seith, and Devin Mulligan won fourth place and went on to compete in the Inter-County Finals at Ridgedale Middle School in Florham park. These sixth graders never lost heart and exhibited extraordinary teamwork by methodically discussing their aerodynamics and guidance system, and repairing and redesigning The Solar Trinity between heats. When the dust settled, they had scored 2nd, 2nd, 1st, 2rd, 4th, and 4th in their six heats.

Students who participated, shared their experiences. Emily said, Overall, Junior Solar Sprint was an amazing experience and I would jump on any opportunity to do it again!" Andrew explained, "One of the many things I especially liked about the Junior Solar Sprint was building the car after school because it really put your mind to the test to figure out the possibilities and variables you were dealing with. For example, we had to think about the amount of power we were getting from the sun and the aerodynamics of the car. These things were very important to the car and its performance." Alexa was excited to share that, "Junior Solar Spring was a thrilling experience that challenged our minds to think outside the box. It was so thought provoking how so many different variables fit into the solar car itself not to mention the surface, the sun's position, and the direction the wind is going. I would totally do it again next year!"

FANWOOD SCOTCH PLAINS ROTARY CLUB

At a recent Fanwood Scotch Plains Rotary Club lunch meeting, Sandy Rodriguez from Family Promise of Union County discussed how they help homeless families achieve independence. Join us any Wednesday for Lunch At the Stage House Inn, Park Avenue, Scotch Plains.

Luncheon, with fellowship and a speaker, often a community leader with an update on themes of interest to the local communities or bearing on charitable activities that receive or seek Rotary support. We deliberate new ways to serve our community. We laugh. We re-examine ourselves at each weekly meeting, recalling the Rotary "Four Way Test" of the things we think or do:

- Is it the truth?
- Is it fair to all concerned?
- Will it build good will and better friendships?
- Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

We break up promptly after 90 minutes to enable our members to resume meeting their clients' needs and business responsibilities. For more information visit www.fsprotary.org.

CHC SENIOR HOUSING

Approximately 50 Fanwoodians gathered on Saturday morning, June 18th, for an informal chat with Fanwood Mayor Colleen Mahr at Mara's Cafe in downtown Fanwood. Discussion topics ranged from the anticipated parking lot at Park Middle School, the current status of the local recycling program, the July 13th public meeting on a potential library expansion and pedestrian safety throughout the community.

Residents were interested to hear about future development plans and expressed their hope to retain the "small town feel" that epitomizes this one-square-mile community.

The first in what promises to be a series of regular gatherings, the 2-hour event stretched to 3 hours as the Mayor and residents clearly enjoyed the opportunity for a free-wheeling conversation.

(above) Mayor Colleen Mahr discusses current community issues with several local residents.

LADIES NIGHT OUT

Downtown Fanwood was bustling with activity, June 2nd, as over 300 women arrived for an evening of shopping at the 5th Annual Ladies Night Out. The event took place from 6-9 p.m. in downtown Fanwood.

"This event is meant to showcase Fanwood businesses," said Mindy Scarlett, chair of the Ladies Night Out Committee.

The event was sponsored by the Fanwood division of the Westfield Chamber of Commerce. Earlier this year, the Fanwood Business and Professional Association (FBPA), which had put on the shopping event in the past, joined the chamber to bring more services and support to Fanwood businesses.

Arriving shoppers received goody bags before heading out to explore Fanwood's shops. The evening included shopping, mingling, and a Tricky Tray at the end of the evening. The downtown was filled with orange balloons and shopping bags, in support of Fanwood's Wear Orange event, happening simultaneously across town.
