SONDHEIM'S ASSASSINS OPENS CDC THEATRE'S 98TH SEASON

CDC Theatre, New Jersey's oldest continually producing community theatre, oped its 98th season Friday, October 7 at 8pm with the bold, original, disturbing and alarmingly funny musical Assassins.

A multiple Tony Award-winning theatrical tour-de-force with music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim and book by John Weidman, Assassins combines Sondheim's signature blend of intelligently stunning lyrics and beautiful music with a panoramic story of our nation's culture of celebrity and the violent means some will use to obtain it, embodied by America's four successful and five would-be presidential assassins.

Assassins lays bare the lives of nine individuals who assassinated or tried to assassinate the President of the United States, in a one-act historical "revusical" that explores the dark side of the American experience. From John Wilkes Booth to Lee Harvey Oswald, writers, Stephen Sondheim and John Weidman, bend the rules of time and space, taking us on a nightmarish roller coaster ride in which assassins and would-be assassins from different historical periods meet, interact and inspire each other to harrowing acts in the name of the American Dream.

Director Alan Van Antwerp says, "In the weeks leading up to the election, there is never been a better time to produce a musical about the men and women who felt the peaceful transition of power we strive for every first Tuesday in November was not enough. Assassins challenges us to see the stories behind those who felt alienated, lost, and forgotten and went to extreme measures to make their situation better."

The cast includes Keith White as John Wilkes Booth, Gene Lough as Charles Guiteau, Zach Love as Leon Czolgosz, Shane Long as Giuseppe Zangara, Matt Burns as Samuel Byck, Lindsay Braverman as Lynette "Squeaky" Fromme, Lauren Grof-Tisza as Sarah Jane Moore, Zach Mazouat as John Hinckley, Chris Cantalupo as The Balladeer/Lee Harvey Oswald and Rich Colonna as The Proprietor.

Performances will run Friday and Saturdays at 8pm from October 7 through the 22 with a 1pm matinee on Saturday, October 15. Tickets and additional information can be found by visiting www.cdctheatre.org. Funding has been made possible in part by the NJ State Council on the Arts, Dept. of State, and a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, through a grant administered by the Union County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs.

"MS. BULA BANERJEE" TO BE SHOWN AT LIBRARY OCT 22

The Friends of the Cranford Public Library are pleased to sponsor a screening of "Ms. Bula Banerjee," a short comedy, on Saturday, October 22, at 2:00 p.m. in the Cranford Community Center. The Community Center is located at 220 Walnut Avenue. In July 2015, Rakesh Baruah, a student at the Columbia University Film School, used the Cranford Public Library as the setting for the film. The film stars Aparna Nancherla, an up-and-coming writer, standup comedian, and actor. Ms. Nancherla has appeared on television on Conan and Inside Amy Schumer, and she recently recorded a half-hour special for Comedy Central. She was also profiled in an article in the New York Times this past July. In the film, Ms. Nancherla plays Bula Banerjee, a quiet librarian who must take a stand when a brash consultant arrives to modernize the business. Mr. Baruah will introduce the film and field questions about the process of making it. Admission is free and all are welcome. See if you can spot Cranford Public Library staff members among the extras!

7 THINGS YOU MUST KNOW BEFORE PUTTING YOUR HOME UP FOR SALE

Cranford NJ - A new report has just been released which reveals 7 costly mistakes that most homeowners make when selling their home, and a 9 Step System that can help you sell your home fast and for the most amount of money.

This industry report shows clearly how the traditional ways of selling homes have become increasingly less and less effective in today's market. The fact of the matter is that fully three quarters of homesellers don't get what they want for their homes and become disillusioned and - worse - financially disadvantaged when they put their homes on the market.

As this report uncovers, most homesellers make 7 deadly mistakes that cost them literally thousands of dollars. The good news is that each and every one of these mistakes is entirely preventable. In answer to this issue, industry insiders have prepared a free special report entitled "The 9 Step System to Get Your Home Sold Fast and For Top Dollar".

CHIEF JAMES WOZNIAK GRADUATED THE FBI NATIONAL ACADEMY

Chief James Wozniak graduated from the prestigious FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia on Friday, September 16, 2016. The 265th Session of the National Academy consisted of leaders in law enforcement from 47 states and 24 countries. The two hundred and thirty graduates represented law enforcement agencies ranging from cities to small towns, from colleges to military organizations. Collectively the group had over 4,600 years of law enforcement experience.

For 10 weeks Chief Wozniak underwent intensive professional development course work under the guidance of FBI leadership. At the Academy, he integrated with other law enforcement leaders, living in academy dorms, undergoing strenuous physical training and classroom instruction by seasoned special agents and subject matter experts through the University of Virginia.

The NA has been around since 1935. Prompted by twenty-first century challenges, FBI leadership has adjusted the NA's curriculum to address a host of issues ranging from threats posed by homegrown extremists to tensions between police departments and the communities they serve. One of the bedrock principles of the NA since its inception has been to build strong relationships amongst local, state, federal, and international agencies in order to enhance the flow of critical information and intelligence. And in the current terrorism threat environment and age of Internet radicalization, those bonds are more important than ever before.

All candidates of the academy must be recommended by a leader in law enforcement and then invited by administrators with the academy. There is a waiting list and candidates can sometimes wait years to receive their appointment. Fewer than one percent of American law enforcement is chosen to attend the NA. Graduating the NA is one of the highest achievements for law enforcement worldwide.

FBI Director James Comey was the principal speaker at the ceremony. He spoke of the challenges facing law enforcement and the threats ahead. He praised the graduates for their commitment to the law enforcement profession and willingness to take on the challenges ahead.

A total of 49,464 law enforcement leaders has graduated the NA since its inception. It is the largest law enforcement network in the world.

CHILD SUPPORT – HOW NEW JERSEY COURTS CALCULATE AND MODIFY SUPPORT OBLIGATIONS

By: James McGlew II, Esq.

In New Jersey, child support is defined as a financial payment from one parent to the other to provide for the needs of their child or children. Child support is the right of every child and neither spouse can waive this responsibility. All parents regardless of their marital status have an obligation to support their children until they are deemed emancipated.

In most instances, the amount of child support to be paid is calculated by using New Jersey's Child Support Guidelines. Income information is exchanged between the parents and this data is used in combination with factors such as the number of children, percentage of non-custodial parenting time and other prior child support obligations, to determine the amount of child support that is to be paid weekly. The Guidelines take into account the amount of funds necessary between the two parents to cover the basic needs of the children including, but not limited to, their food, shelter, healthcare and clothing expenses.

Child support obligations will remain in place for many years. Child support is not terminated automatically and may continue longer based on extraordinary circumstances such as the special needs of a child. As such, a common aspect of many divorce agreements is an agreement between the parties for the use of a “COLA” which is an acronym for Cost-of-Living Adjustment. This procedure automatically raises child support awards every two or three years, the specific details of which are negotiated and agreed to before any final divorce judgment is entered. The purpose of a COLA is to keep the child support award's value current due to inflation. If child support is payable through the Probation Department, parents are often contacted directly regarding the implementation of a cost of living adjustment.

Changes to child support obligations can be made. Child support orders in New Jersey are subject to modification based upon what the Court may define as a change in circumstances. While there are numerous situations that can be defined as a change in circumstances, some of the more common situations that would qualify include:

- an increase in the cost of living
- the emancipation (as defined under law) of one or more of the children
- a demonstrable increase or decrease in the paying parents income
- a parent or child suffering a disability or serious illness
- or, in some instances, the maturation of the child or children.

If a modification in the amount of child support is appropriate, the party seeking to modify the amount paid is obligated to file an application with the Court. These written applications can sometimes be extremely fact sensitive and require extensive documented proof of the change in circumstances. This is particularly relevant if the reason for seeking a modification is employment or health related on the part of the paying parent.

Lindabury's Family Law Group has decades of experience representing clients in negotiating, enforcing and amending child support obligations. We provide the full range of divorce and family law services and are easily accessible from our Westfield New Jersey office. Call today to schedule a consultation with James McGlew at (908) 233-6800.

SECOND ANNUAL FLAG RETIREMENT CEREMONY HELD IN CRANFORD

Submitted by Cranford VFW Post #335

A very reverent United States Flag Retirement ceremony was held at the historic Post Office Plaza in downtown Cranford on Saturday, September 17th. Cranford's VFW Post #335 was the sponsor of this second annual event featuring participation by town Boy Scout Troops #75 and #80 as well as a significant Girl Scout contingent. A combined color guard made up of both Cranford Fire Department and Cranford Police Department officers were in attendance along with Post #335's Color Guard.

VFW Post Commander Jay Boxwell was the master of ceremonies of the well-attended event which featured several boy and girl scouts speaking on the meaning and history of "Old Glory". The center piece of the day was the solemn presentation of several faded flags which were customarily retired by ceremonial burning in a fire pit at the plaza while surrounded by patriotic onlookers.

"This was a great opportunity to not only teach our youth the history and traditions of our flag but also to remind our community once again, of the importance of our flag and showing the respect that the long standing symbol of our nation so greatly deserves," said Commander Boxwell.

Of special note was the very moving playing of TAPS by a talented Boy Scout member, which when combined with the VFW Color Guards memorial rifle volley added greatly to solemnity of the event.

The ceremony was held beneath the Post Office Plaza flag pole originally constructed and dedicated in 1918, that was hastily removed and sent to the muddy fields of the town Conservation Center in 2003, only to be returned though the dedication of a committee made up of various townspeople which raised thousands of dollars to bring back the flag pole to its original glory and place in 2009.

MEET JIMMY ROBERTS ONE OF CRANFORD'S 86

By Don Sweeney,

Cranford 86 Adopt A Vet Committee

It was the morning of September 11, 2016. As a member of the Cranford 86 Adopt A Vet committee, I was scheduled to meet a family of one of our Cranford 86 to hear their story of their loved one who perished in World War II. When we arranged the meeting it hadn't occurred that this Saturday was 911. I spent my morning as many do on that sad day, watching the families of the 911 families read the endless list of names that we have all become so familiar with. Although fifteen years have gone by, it still has a way of feeling like yesterday, I wiped some tears from my eye as the names past the letter G and went off to the home of Mary Roberts where she had gathered six Roberts/ Benoit family members.

They lined the dining room table, stacked on the table were articles and scrap books from their family archives that told the story of this brave young Cranford boy, James D. Roberts that went to war shortly after his last day as a Cranford High School senior in 1943.

Donna Roberts, Jimmy's cousin, took the lead as the coordinator of the articles into the family scrap book. They started telling me the stories and showing me their picture collection that would soon have everyone in attendance wiping tears from their eyes. For them 1944 was like yesterday.

The Roberts family already had 2 sons in the war by 1943, Alan and Edgar. Jimmy would be the third, he joined the Army at age 19 with his two school buddies Joe Griffin and Bob Greco. They reported before the actual commencement ceremony at Cranford High School. All three were assigned to the heavy cruiser Canberra. Bob Greco and Joe Griffin later told of a pact that was made between the three of them. If anything happened to any of them, they would visit the other families regularly upon their return.

As a part of the Aircraft Carrier Task Force they were positioned 70 miles off the China coast, making air strikes on the island of Formosa. On the evening of Friday, October the 13th, 1944 a Japanese attack squadron of 30 planes set out to take out this formation of destroyers, cruisers and four aircraft carriers. After a lengthy battle the guns went silent, the black smoke was clearing, many enemy and American fighters were downed and it seemed that this battle was over. Then a stream of bubbles were spotted heading toward the Canberra. A torpedo had been dropped and was heading toward the center of the ship. It exploded a 55 by 140-foot hole in the boiler room, killing 23 of the nearly 3,000 men on board. Jimmy was on duty that night in the boiler room.

On November 7th, 1944 a Western Union car pulled up in front of the Roberts home on 163 N. Union Ave. Jimmy's younger brother Walter was on a ladder repairing a window. It is told that he put the hammer through the window as the courier walked up the drive. He didn't know which one it was, but he knew one of his brothers were gone.

Formosa was a crucial naval base for the Japanese; it housed a large number of the naval war ships and was the primary source of air attacks for the region. The battles at Formosa were carried out from October 10th - 20th, more than 300 Japanese attack planes were downed during the 10-day encounter. The first report of a Kamikaze strike happened here. More details of the battle of Formosa and the strategies that followed can be found online by simply googling the words Formosa battles or www.historyofwar.org/articles/battles_formosa.html

After nine years a letter reached the Roberts family, they were informed that the remains of nine sailors from the Canberra would be relocated back to American soil. The family, along with Bob Greco and Joe Griffin, would travel to Zachary Taylor National Cemetery in Kentucky. They weren't given the opportunity to select the burial spot. It seemed that this spot was a central point for all the nine families. Interestingly the remains of 9 sailors were put in 3 pine coffins. None of them were identified individually.

I asked the family if they could describe what kind of guy Jimmy was. They said he was a happy go lucky guy that loved to drive his mother crazy with wacky antics. He was a real fun character.

For many years the Roberts family members along with Bob Greco and Joe Griffin make their way to Canberra reunions around the country. Bob and Joe are gone now as well, but always remembered their pact, each year on October 13th they would always gather for a drink and a toast to their lost buddy and brother James D. Roberts.

THE FRIENDS OF CHS GYMNASTICS PURCHASES NEW SPRING FLOOR

The Friends of CHS Gymnastics recently purchased a new spring floor for the Cranford High School gymnastics team. Formed in January 2016, the 501(c)(3) NJ non-profit organization set an original goal to raise $17,500 for the purchase of a new spring floor.

We are pleased to announce that the new floor was installed in August, in time for the 2016 season. The Friends of CHS Gymnastics would like to thank all the families and local businesses that made donations and helped in our fundraising efforts, in particular, The Cranford Jaycees and Investors Bank. Because of the amazing support from our community, the Friends of CHS Gymnastics was also able to purchase $2,000 in extra safety mats for the team. In addition, the Cranford Public Schools purchased a new springboard.

All of this new equipment will not only help the gymnasts reach their full potential; it limits the risk of injury. Staying healthy is a key component to the team's success.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 75 SPENDS A WEEK AT WINNEBAGO RESERVATION

By: Orest Hrycak

Cranford's Troop 75 had an eventful and productive week of summer camp at the Winnebago Scout Reservation, located in Rockaway, N.J. from July 24-30.

Thirty-six Scouts and 5 adult leaders attended, with the Boy Scouts learning Scout skills, renewing friendships, and just plain-old having fun.

Each year, summer camp at Winnebago Scout Reservation features a particular theme. The 2016 theme was the "The Old West at Winnebago," with the slogan "Old West, the Best!" resoundingly shouted back to camp leader Mr.

Rich Mager, a Winnebago legend in his own right since 1959. While the weather was mostly hot and rainy, the clear morning air in the woods and a swim in the lake resulted in a great time for all the Boy Scouts and adult leaders who attended.

The Scouts were kept very busy all week in Merit Badge workshops, recreational sports, an all-night Fire-Watch around the Troop campfire, Camp wide Games, a Water Carnival, a Movie Night and Scout-generated campfire entertainment.

After filling out their stacks of "Blue Cards," each Scout worked on 3-6 Merit Badges, learning more about practical areas such as First Aid, Cooking, Camping, Hiking, Wilderness Survival, Communications, Cycling, Personal Management, Space Exploration and 85 other areas of interest.

Three meals per day are served for the 300 plus participants and camp staff at the centrally located dining hall. The dining hall staff did a great job of providing delicious and nutritious meals. All the Boy Scouts took turns serving their fellow Scouts as waiters, setting the table and cleaning up after each meal.

On Tuesday night, all Scout Troops cooked their dinner in their individual campsites. According to the Wild West theme, Troop 75 cooked up excellent Tex-Mex fajitas and won the Dutch Oven Dessert Competition with their Famous "McNamara Surprise" Blueberry Cobbler. After Wednesday night dinner, all Scouts had the opportunity to burn off whatever energy they had left at the Camp wide Games, then enjoy the rest of the evening together at "Movie Night." Not to be left out, the Troop 75 adult leaders took part in an "Old Man of the Mountain" rifle competition, a "Robin Hood" archery contest and a "Turkey Shoot" shotgun blast. The Friday afternoon Water Carnival was a nail-biter, with Troop 75's champion swimmers coming out as dark horse winners.

Before you could blink, it was Saturday and the week was over, with Scouts packing up their equipment and heading home.

Troop 75 adult leaders Cheryl Macri (Advancement Chair), Rob McNamara (Camp Leader, Assistant Scout Master (ASM) and Cobbler Crafter), Lou Cartnick (ASM), Orest Hrycak (ASM) and Lou Constable (ASM) all worked hard to make this year's excursion a success.

Membership represents an excellent and rewarding way to donate time back to the community of Cranford. Being a Cranford Auxiliary Police Officer is an exciting, fun, and productive way to serve your community and help ensure public safety and satisfaction. I TOTALLY RECOMMEND TOUCHSTONE

I hurt my back at the gym and was out for almost a month without working out. For the first week I wasn't even able to turn around on my bed. I thought the pain was going to go away but it never did.

After a week from hell I decided to come to this place. After the third adjustment I was already able to turn around in bed. After two weeks I was already bending over and I was able to dress myself again. On my third week I was easily benching weights I never did before, squatting was decent and back exercises were not a problem. Finally after my fourth week was over I was able to start doing some decent deadlift too, there is still a long road, my treatment should last a whole year but it is totally worth it. I am feeling stronger than ever.

The staff is very friendly and helpful always finding the best options for you. They are very flexible with the appointments and payments. Doctor is very informative, always making sure that you understand how the process is going and how well/bad your condition is, very professional and quick. Totally recommend this place.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CHIEF CZECH ANNOUNCES THEME FOR FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Each October, the Fire Service promotes fire and life safety initiatives during Fire Prevention Week throughout the country. Fire Prevention Week was proclaimed in 1920 by President Woodrow Wilson to commemorate the Great Chicago Fire of 1871 which claimed hundreds of lives and destroyed over 17,000 structures. Chief Czech notes that this year's theme is "Don't Wait, Check the Date!" and stresses the importance replacing smoke detectors after ten years. The National Fire Protection Association recommends that:

- Smoke alarms should be replaced every 10 years.
- Make sure you know how old all the smoke alarms are in your home.
- To find out how old a smoke alarm is, look at the date of manufacture on the back of the alarm; the alarm should be replaced 10 years from that date. After that age, the sensitivity of the detector can be impaired, potentially delaying the alarm feature in the event of a fire. Residents should visit www.firepreventionweek.org for more information and fire safety tips.

Fire Prevention week beings October 9th.

In the coming days, the Fire Prevention Bureau will be visiting the Township Schools to conduct fire safety education programs for various age groups. Lieutenant Matthew Lubin, who directs fire prevention, risk reduction, and code enforcement, stresses the importance of proactive public education programs. "In Cranford, Fire Prevention is a year-round initiative across all age groups and risk populations." The Cranford Fire Prevention Bureau conducts programs from Kindergarten through High School and also has programs to help train employees and occupants of business, industrial, and special-hazard occupancies. In addition to the school programs, the Fire Department will have a fire prevention display at the Downtown Street Fair on October 16th.

Chief Czech is also excited for the upcoming arrival of the Township new aerial fire apparatus. This new vehicle replaces Tower 1, which is over 25 years old and has reached the end of its useful service life. The new aerial truck should be in service sometime in late October or early November.

OUR PAIN IS YOUR GAIN

Due to an unusually mild December last year our sales figures dipped for the 2015 – 16 fur season. This means we are taking a more aggressive start to our 2016 – 17 selling season. Our first sale will begin in October with a 40% markdown on all current inventory. As always, La Marque will continue to feature many one of a kind garments not available elsewhere. I'm also very excited to introduce our new accessory line. Scarves, flings, headbands, earmuffs and fur trimmed shearling gloves ($40 - $250!) in assorted colors that can be worn to enhance any garment in your wardrobe. We look forward to seeing you at the store!

FIRST AID SQUAD SEEKS VOLUNTEERS WITH VARIOUS SKILLS AND TALENTS

The Cranford First Aid Squad is in need of volunteers of all ages, from 16 to 75+. Various skills and talents are needed to run a non-profit organization.

According to Captain Kent Lucas, those interested in becoming an EMT (Emergency Medical Technician) do not need previous knowledge or training. To become an EMT a member will be required to take a one-semester class and pass the NJ certification exam. Prospective volunteers may also be interested in becoming a CPR instructor, or ambulance driver. The Cranford First Aid Squad provides all training free of charge.

Captain Lucas also said they are especially in need of older members, such as those who have experience or interest in any of the following: fundraising, recruiting, grant writing, basic knowledge of Microsoft Excel and Word, webpage and graphic design, organizing events, media and public relations. Administrative volunteers do not need to have any interest in the medical aspect of EMS, just the desire to be a part of a vibrant and diverse organization which provides a valuable service to the Township of Cranford.

To see what the Squad is up to, check them out on Facebook.

For questions contact cfascaptain@gmail.com or 908-912-6911 and leave a message.

CFEE AWARDS GRANTS TO SUPPORT EDUCATIONAL INNOVATION

Submitted by the Cranford Fund for Educational Excellence

The Cranford Fund for Educational Excellence (CFEE) has awarded more than $16,000 in grants to the Cranford public schools for the 2016-2017 academic year. The grants will pay for various educational resources sought by teachers who want to engage and challenge their students in inventive ways.

The grants will benefit children at all levels—from kindergarten through high school—across a range of subjects, from the sciences to literacy to music and art.

The CFEE is a nonprofit, Cranford-based foundation that supports excellence and innovation in the Cranford public schools by generating additional resources through community involvement. Founded more than 15 years ago and relaunched two years ago after a hiatus, the CFEE has awarded more than $200,000 for educational initiatives that are beyond the scope of the school district's budget. Funding comes entirely from Cranford residents, businesses and organizations. More information about the CFEE, including the criteria for awarding grants and descriptions of grants in action, can be found at cranfordfund.org.

The CFEE received 18 grant applications in May and funded eight of them. They are:

PebbleGo Database Subscription. Bloomingdale Avenue, Brookside Place, Hillside Avenue, and Walnut Avenue schools. Applicant: Arline McCloskey. All of the district's K-2 students will use this award-winning database to build literacy skills while completing projects in social studies and the sciences.

Ukuleles in the General Music Classroom. Livingston Avenue School. Applicant: Colleen McDonald. Fourth- and fifth-graders will learn instrumental performance on the ukulele, a user-friendly instrument that's well suited to developing a love of music making.

Aerodynamics in STEAM. Hillside Avenue and Orange Avenue schools. Applicants: Kristin Girone, Steve VanDam. A Flow Visualization Wind Tunnel will be used for hands-on study of aerodynamics and design processes in grades 6 through 8.V

DrumFit. Orange Avenue School. Applicants: Suzette de Araujo, Amanda Innis, Connie Thomas. Students in grade 3 through 5 will take part in DrumFit, a drumming-based activity that promotes mental focus as well as physical and musical education.

Virtual Reality with Google Cardboard.

Orange Avenue School. Applicant: Shannon DellaFortuna. Students in grades 6 through 8 will use Google Cardboard glasses, smartphones, and virtual reality apps to simulate science-related adventures.

STEM Learning. Brookside Place School. Applicant: Carolyn Chelland. This grant paid for materials needed for problem-solving exercises that will bring together the STEM fields (science, technology, engineering, math) for second graders.

STEM/Gifted and Talented Program Development. Orange Avenue School. Applicant: Lisa Lesiak. The CFEE supported a teacher attending Confratute, a professional development conference, to learn about strategies for STEM and gifted and talented education that would be shared with educators in grades 3 through 5 districtwide.

3-D Printing and Design. Cranford High School. Applicant: Liz Azukas. A 3-D printer, and accompanying software, is being procured to support student projects across a variety of subjects including science, applied technology, computer science, business, social studies, and fine arts. CELEBRATING 75 YEARS AND MORE

Although activities and responsibilities of the Rosary Society of St. Michael Church in Cranford began longer than 75 years ago, it was chartered formally in 1941. The Society was established to foster communication between clergy and laity regarding spiritual and material needs within the parish family and to cooperate with other churches and civic organizations in serving the community at large. Seventy-five plus years later, the Society currently has a membership of over 150 women, which includes daughters and granddaughters of those who have moved on, and will hopefully be carried forward by their successors. Needs do change, but there is no doubt about the past and present contribution of St. Michael Rosary Society to all facets of community life. Congratulations, Rosarians!

PAL BASKETBALL TRYOUT ANNOUNCEMENT

"The Cranford PAL Basketball is a travel level basketball program for boys and girls in grades 4 through 8. Basketball Program Director John Frieri explained the tryout process. "We have one team at each level that is selected after competitive annual tryouts typically conducted in October. We have a panel of at least three evaluators select each team after two days of tryouts. After the teams are selected the Director selects the head coach for each team based upon candidates that have expressed an interest in coaching a specific grade level", he said.

The season itself runs from November through mid-March and could last an additional week if your child's team should be lucky enough to make the championship game in their specific league.

Teams practice twice a week and will usually play one game a week either home or away. It is up to the coach which leagues and tournaments the team will compete in but the PAL allows for up to two leagues and five tournaments for each team. More often than not the teams compete in one league and three to four tournaments. Younger teams usually compete in one to two tournaments in addition to their league play.

Cost to parents is the registration fee after your child makes the team in the amount of $175, uniform as may be necessary and any team costs for leagues and tournaments that is incurred beyond the first league and most expensive tournament for which the PAL pays on behalf of each team.

Please encourage your children to put on their sneakers and show up for tryouts when they are announced as it costs nothing to tryout, no pre-registration required and your child just shows up and plays basketball. It's a great sport and we look forward to seeing your child at the tryouts come October. For more information including the tryout schedule visit www.cranfordpal.org. Thank you."
