BLUE LINE SHOWS SUPPORT OF LAW ENFORCEMENT

Whether you turn on the radio, television, pick up a newspaper or sign onto social media you will see law enforcement agencies and first responders being denigrated; law enforcement officers everywhere are being portrayed in a bad light. The Borough of Kenilworth takes this personally. Our first responders are our fathers, mothers, sons, daughters, brothers, sisters, friends and neighbors.

They don the uniform every day, they have taken an oath to serve and protect, to be the line between us and the dangers all around us, to make our world a safer place. We felt it was necessary to make it understood that the Borough of Kenilworth appreciates and supports the Kenilworth Police Department as well as all law enforcement officers.

Our public expression of appreciation was to have a blue line painted down the Boulevard from Borough Hall through downtown center.

(right) Kenilworth Department of Public Works painted a blue line down the Boulevard in support of the Kenilworth Police Department as well as all law enforcement officers.

MEMO FROM THE MAYOR

Hello Kenilworthians! September was a rough month, let us all hope and pray for a better October. I'd like to take this time to speak to you all about the recent current events. This might be hard on some ears and eyes but I need to express to all of you the seriousness of the situation. And as hard as this is to think about, we have to realize this is the reality and we all have to accept the fact that terroristic threats and attacks are happening HERE, not on YouTube, not in some other county but HERE. This is not the time to insulate yourself, your family members or your children from the fact that there are people in this world that have a belief system that want to eradicate our way of life. If you see something, say something, be wary, be vigilant educate yourself and your loved ones on what to do in the event of another attack and how to prevent one. I ask you not to be afraid, this is not the time, have hope and faith, be cautious but our way of life must continue. I love this Country, my Town and my Kenilworthians, as a Mayor, First Responder, Husband, Father and Friend and I know you will all join me in doing whatever we can to protect it..

MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR A BUSY OCTOBER, HERE ARE SOME IMPORTANT DATES:

- 10/5 is our North side Bulk Pick-up followed by 10/12 with will be our South Side Pick-up,
- 10/10 is Emergency Nurse's day

BEYOND DANCE CELEBRATING 14TH SEASON

Beyond Dance is proudly announcing our fourteenth season. The studio is owned and operated by the husband and wife team of Jorge and Kara Cortes who truly believe that putting the fun back into dance instruction will create a lifelong love of dance.

We at Beyond Dance believe in hiring nothing but the best, our teachers are second to none and remain very active in the NYC dance scene. Take a look at our website and read all about them, you will be impressed.

All classes have a professional teacher who's main goal is making your child the best he/she can be. These teachers have brought so much to our studio, their professionalism and intensity is what has made our dancers the areas #1 competition team, no one comes close!

The classes offered at Beyond Dance are for beginners to advanced and include Ballet, Tap, Jazz, Hip-Hop, Lyrical, Acro, Pointe, Musical Theater and Competition Training.

The studio also offers programs for primary students ages 3-8. For our younger students we also offer: creative dance for ages 3-4, kinder combo for age 5, and dance combos for ages 6-8. The philosophy of these programs is to teach the students the love of dance.

For further information on how to have fun, build confidence and be a great dancer please visit our website BeyondDanceNJ.com. Or you can just call us, we will be happy to book a free trial class for your child.

JAMES ARTHUR – THE STORY OF 100 HOUSES IN 100 DAYS”

“Four Centuries in a Weekend” Program at the Oswald J. Nitschke House to Celebrate

Living History Program to Feature Colorful Characters from Kenilworth’s Past and Introduction to Garden-to-Table Foodways Demonstrations

Visitors to Kenilworth’s historic Oswald J. Nitschke House (c. 1880) at 49 South 21 Street on October 15 and October 16 will meet colorful characters from the late 1800s local building boom that brought acclaimed builder James Arthur (1866-1931) and other tradesmen to the Kenilworth area (then known as New Orange). An exhibition, “James Arthur – The Story of 100 Houses in 100 Days,” featuring some never-before-shown historic photographs, brochures and artifacts, will be on display in celebration of the 150th anniversary year of Arthur’s birth.

Visitors also will be able to preview the newly installed “Teaching Gardens” at the Nitschke House, which have been created, in large part, with funding generously provided by the Merck Foundation, and to observe cooking demonstrations that show the importance of home food gardens in the lifeways of the Nitschkes and other late 19th-century immigrants.

The planned program at the Nitschke House will be presented for the general public between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on October 15 and from noon to 5 p.m. on October 16, during Union County’s annual historic sites tour, “Four Centuries in a Weekend.” Admission is free. The site is equipped with an elevator and is fully accessible.

The featured James Arthur exhibition at the Nitschke House is being made possible in part by a 2016 HEART (History, Education, Arts Reaching Thousands) Grant from Union County. Funding for other aspects of the site’s weekend program is being provided, in part, by the Kenilworth Municipal Alliance Against Alcohol and Drug Abuse.

During “Four Centuries in a Weekend,” visitors to the Nitschke House will be able to view the building’s five historic rooms, which are authentically furnished in the 1905-1934 period (the time of Kenilworth’s first wave of suburban development when former Mayor Oswald J. Nitschke made his greatest contributions to its growth), as well as its exhibition center, the venue for an ever-changing array of year-round historical and cultural exhibits. For further information, please call 908-709-0434.

The Kenilworth Historical Society saved the Nitschke House, home of former Kenilworth Mayor Oswald J. Nitschke (1867-1934), by moving it in 2003, following Dr. Jerome Forman’s donation of the building to the Society, to its present location (land acquired with the help of the Kenilworth Veterans Center and a New Jersey DEP Green Acres grant).

The Society’s project to restore the Nitschke House for transformation into Kenilworth’s first “living history” museum and cultural arts center and to add an elevator to the site, has been funded, in large part, by historic preservation/rehabilitation grants awarded by the New Jersey Historic Trust, New Jersey Cultural Trust, Preserve Union County Grant Program, Union County Community Development Block Grant program, E.J. Grassmann Trust, The Hyde and Watson Foundation, Schering-Plough Corporation, the Merck Foundation, numerous individual, corporate and institutional donors and grant makers, and with financing assistance from ConnectOne Bank. Connolly & Hickey Historical Architects (Cranford) designed the elevator addition, as well as the plans for the building’s exterior and interior restoration, and Wagner Construction (Kenilworth) and Straightline Restoration and Construction, Inc. (Cranford) carried out the most recent interior restoration and elevator construction plans, respectively.

The Nitschke House project was recognized by the State of New Jersey with a 2008 New Jersey Historic Preservation Award and most recently was cited as one of six “success stories” statewide in the 2011-2016 New Jersey Historic Preservation Plan, “Preserving New Jersey’s Heritage: A Statewide Plan.”

Now that major restoration work at the Nitschke House site has been completed and an official Certificate of Occupancy has been granted, plans for a Kenilworth Heritage Walkway featuring engraved commemorative pavers sponsored by local donors are in the process of being implemented.

I TOTALLY RECOMMEND TOUCHSTONE

I hurt my back at the gym and was out for almost a month without working out. For the first week I wasn't even able to turn around on my bed. I thought the pain was going to go away but it never did.

After a week from hell I decided to come to this place. After the third adjustment I was already able to turn around in bed. After two weeks I was already bending over and I was able to dress myself again. On my third week I was easily benching weights I never did before, squatting was decent and back exercises were not a problem. Finally after my fourth week was over I was able to start doing some decent deadlift too, there is still a long road, my treatment should last a whole year but it is totally worth it. I am feeling stronger than ever.

The staff is very friendly and helpful always finding the best options for you. They are very flexible with the appointments and payments. Doctor is very informative, always making sure that you understand how the process is going and how well/bad your condition is, very professional and quick. Totally recommend this place.

7 THINGS YOU MUST KNOW BEFORE PUTTING YOUR HOME UP FOR SALE

Kenilworth NJ - A new report has just been released which reveals 7 costly mistakes that most homeowners make when selling their home, and a 9 Step System that can help you sell your home fast and for the most amount of money.

This industry report shows clearly how the traditional ways of selling homes have become increasingly less and less effective in today's market. The fact of the matter is that fully three quarters of homesellers don't get what they want for their homes and become disillusioned and - worse - financially disadvantaged when they put their homes on the market. As this report uncovers, most homesellers make 7 deadly mistakes that cost them literally thousands of dollars. The good news is that each and every one of these mistakes is entirely preventable. In answer to this issue, industry insiders have prepared a free special report entitled "The 9 Step System to Get Your Home Sold Fast and For Top Dollar".

To order a FREE Special Report, visit www.njhomesellermistakes.com or to hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free 1-888-243-5861 and enter 2004. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

'A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM' AT STATE THEATRE IN NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J.

American Repertory Ballet is pleased to announce A Midsummer Night's Dream at the State Theatre on Thursday, October 13 at 8:00 p.m. The performance is part of its 2016 fall series. Led by Artistic Director Douglas Martin, ARB will once again present the finest ballet available to the residents of New Jersey and beyond. Tickets are currently available and start at $27.

Martin's full-length ballet, A Midsummer Night's Dream, premiered in early 2015 to high praise. Set to an enchanting score by Felix Mendelssohn, the ballet brings to life the wit and splendor of one of William Shakespeare's most popular comedies. Featuring colorful choreography, costumes and sets, the story portrays the weaving tales of cunning fairies, quarreling lovers and a hilariously amateur acting group as their paths cross in a magical forest.

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

Choreography:

Artistic Director Douglas Martin

Music: Felix Mendelssohn

"Feuding lovers, doltish tradesmen, and endearing woodland fairies are the roles that have been taken on by ARB dancers. And it is heartening to see that Martin and his principals have made every role, every sequence count; in fact, they have even addressed and improved upon a few of the weak points in Shakespeare's material." — Broadway World

American Repertory Ballet's mission is to bring the joy, beauty, artistry and discipline of classical and contemporary dance to New Jersey and beyond through artistic and educational programs, presented by a financially responsible organization.

CELEBRATE OKTOBERFEST IN KENILWORTH!

German Band, Folk Dancers and Feast to Highlight the Celebration

On Sunday, Oct. 23, 2016, the Kenilworth Historical Society will present "Oktoberfest," a festive celebration featuring live German music, folk dancing and a delicious feast, at the Kenilworth Veterans Center (33 South 21st Street) from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The fun-filled event will feature a dance performance by Bayern Verein Newark, a long-established club dedicated to the preservation of traditional German and Bavarian folk dances; live music for everyone's dancing/listening pleasure played by Bernie's Orchestra, a popular four-piece German-American band led by Bernie Bunger; and a catered buffet-style Oktoberfest Feast including such traditional favorites as knockwurst, bratwurst, herb roasted chicken, sauerkraut, glazed baby carrots, spaetzle, German potato salad, tossed salad, dessert and more!

Admission is $35. Advance reservations (by Oct. 14) are requested. The event seating plan accommodates eight to ten people per table. Early reservations are encouraged to avoid disappointment. For reservations/tickets, please call 908-709-0434 or visit Especially Yours Florist (13 North 20th Street, Kenilworth), where tickets for the event are being sold.

Proceeds from "Oktoberfest" will benefit the Kenilworth Historical Society's Oswald J.

Nitschke House (c. 1880) "living history" museum and cultural arts center by helping defray the cost of an elevator that makes all levels of the newly restored site fully accessible to everyone.

OCTOBER TRIP TO MOHEGAN SUN (CONN.)

The Kenilworth Historical Society will host a bus trip to Mohegan Sun Casino (Uncasville, Conn.) on Sat., October 22, 2016.

The trip will depart Kenilworth (St. Theresa's School parking lot) at 8 a.m. and return to Kenilworth at approximately 9 p.m. Cost of $53 includes comfortable motor coach transportation, an approximate six-hour visit to the casino, which additionally houses a wide range of distinctive shops and popular restaurants, and a great package that includes a $15 coupon for the casino's sumptuous buffet or another type of meal, and a $10 free bet coupon.

There will be complimentary door prizes on the bus. For further information and reservations, please call 908-709-0434 or 908-709-0391. As space is limited on this popular outing, it is suggested that reservations be made early to ensure availability. Payment by October 12 is requested. Gift certificates for the trip are available for purchase.

Proceeds will benefit the Kenilworth Historical Society's historic Oswald J. Nitschke House (c. 1880) by helping defray the cost of an elevator that makes the newly restored "living history" museum and cultural arts center fully accessible to everyone.

CHURCH OF SAINT THERESA FOOD PANTRY NEEDS ASSISTANCE

Due to an unforeseen emergency which caused the destruction of about $1,000 worth of food, St. Theresa's food pantry is in emergent need of the following items:

Grains: Pasta, rice, noodles, instant potatoes, boxed stuffing, boxed macaroni and cheese, crackers, pancake mix, oatmeal, Ramen noodles.

Paper products: Toilet paper and paper towels.

No appointment is necessary to make a donation. Non-perishable goods and gift cards to any supermarket can be left in the Crying Room in the Church on Sundays. Monday through Friday donations can be dropped off at the Rectory during business hours 9 am – 5 pm. Supermarket gift cards and checks made payable to St. Theresa's can be mailed to Social Concerns c/o The Church of Saint Theresa, 541 Washington Avenue, Kenilworth, NJ 07033.

If you are in need of food you can contact the Rectory at 908-272-4444, they will arrange for a volunteer to meet you at the pantry. The identities of people who receive assistance from the pantry are kept confidential. Names and contact information aren't required to receive assistance. For more information contact: The Church of Saint Theresa - 908-272-4444.

SONDHEIM'S ASSASSINS OPENS CDC THEATRE'S 98TH SEASON

CDC Theatre, New Jersey's oldest continually producing community theatre, oped its 98th season Friday, October 7 at 8pm with the bold, original, disturbing and alarmingly funny musical Assassins.

A multiple Tony Award-winning theatrical tour-de-force with music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim and book by John Weidman, Assassins combines Sondheim's signature blend of intelligently stunning lyrics and beautiful music with a panoramic story of our nation's culture of celebrity and the violent means some will use to obtain it, embodied by America's four successful and five would-be presidential assassins.

Assassins lays bare the lives of nine individuals who assassinated or tried to assassinate the President of the United States, in a one-act historical "revusical" that explores the dark side of the American experience. From John Wilkes Booth to Lee Harvey Oswald, writers, Stephen Sondheim and John Weidman, bend the rules of time and space, taking us on a nightmarish roller coaster ride in which assassins and would-be assassins from different historical periods meet, interact and inspire each other to harrowing acts in the name of the American Dream.

Director Alan Van Antwerp says, "In the weeks leading up to the election, there is never been a better time to produce a musical about the men and women who felt the peaceful transition of power we strive for every first Tuesday in November was not enough. Assassins challenges us to see the stories behind those who felt alienated, lost, and forgotten and went to extreme measures to make their situation better."

The cast includes Keith White as John Wilkes Booth, Gene Lough as Charles Guiteau, Zach Love as Leon Czolgosz, Shane Long as Giuseppe Zangara, Matt Burns as Samuel Byck, Lindsay Braverman as Lynette "Squeaky" Fromme, Lauren Grof-Tisza as Sarah Jane Moore, Zach Mazouat as John Hinckley, Chris Cantalupo as The Balladeer/Lee Harvey Oswald and Rich Colonna as The Proprietor.

Performances will run Friday and Saturdays at 8pm from October 7 through the 22 with a 1pm matinee on Saturday, October 15. Tickets and additional information can be found by visiting www.cdctheatre.org. Funding has been made possible in part by the NJ State Council on the Arts, Dept. of State, and a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, through a grant administered by the Union County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs.

THE GREAT PUMPKIN CARVE OUT RETURNS

Carved pumpkin contest and display and spooky movie; for all ages

The Great Pumpkin Carve Out will be at the Hanson Park held in Cranford, NJ on Saturday, October 22nd (rain date of October 29th). The pumpkin carving contest is open to all ages with awards given for funniest, scariest, and most original in age groups 4-8, 9-12, 13-17 and 18-adult. Drop off your creatively carved pumpkins from 10 -3 pm at Hanson Park, 38 Springfield Ave, Cranford on Saturday October 22nd along with a completed registration form. Stroll along the lighted pathway through the garden of Hanson Park to see the carved pumpkins on display, each on its own pedestals, from 6-9 pm (rain day of October 29th).

Bring your blankets for a big screen outdoor showing of the 1958 camp classic, THE BLOB, starring Steve McQueen. The movie, stroll and contest are all free. Hot cider will be available.

Registration forms are available on line at www.jcas.org or from the Cranford Community Center, 220 Walnut Ave., Cranford before the event. Pumpkins can be picked up after the event.

This will be the fourth GREAT PUMPKIN CARVE out, which has drawn hundreds of visitors from throughout the area. This is a Jersey Central Art Studio's (JCAS) Events, along with its cosponsors the Cranford Jaycees and the Friends of the Cranford Library.

JCAS is a group of artists and citizens dedicated to raising awareness of the arts and the artistic process as well as integrating the arts into the community through education, events and economic development. We see art as a vital component to our lives and one that will also enrich our community.

BOB LAURIE, AUTHOR OF "THE BOOK OF SONNY," TO VISIT LIBRARY

New Jersey author and Kenilworth resident Bob Laurie will visit the Kenilworth Public Library on Monday, October 17th at 6:30 pm to speak about his new novel, The Book of Sonny. This event will be a terrific opportunity to hear about the writing process, and learn more about the story's influences from the author himself. Copies of The Book of Sonny will be available for a signing after the author's talk.

A story of family, faith and healing, The Book of Sonny was published in June 2016 through I AM Publishing. It was recently reviewed in Kirkus Indie, described as "a heartfelt story of a broken family beginning to heal." Mr. Laurie, a longtime resident of Kenilworth, will share his insight and experience with attendees. New authors looking for information on self-publishing are encouraged to attend.

To RSVP, please call (908) 276-2451,

or contact the Library Director

Michael Maziekien at maz@lmxac.org.

To learn about more upcoming programs at the library, visit www.kenilworthlibrary.org.
