WALTER BORIGHT WILL HIGHLIGHT THE HISTORY OF KENILWORTH'S OLDEST HOUSES ON NOVEMBER 17TH

Distinguished historian and author Walter E. Boright, Ed.D., will highlight the history of Kenilworth's oldest houses, both those still standing and those that no longer exist, during a celebration of local history being hosted by the Kenilworth Historical Society on Thurs., November 17. All are welcome to attend the event, which will begin at 7 p.m. at the Oswald J. Nitschke House (49 South 21 Street). Admission is free, but interested attendees should register in advance by calling 908-709-0434, as seating is limited. Light refreshments will be served. Parking is available in front of the Nitschke House and in the municipal parking lot across the street from the Kenilworth Veterans Center.

The featured presentation will trace the history of Kenilworth's oldest homes, some of which are of the Revolutionary War time period and no longer exist, through old maps, sketches and photos. "We will also examine the few homes that were here when New Orange (the area now known as Kenilworth) was created in 1894," says Boright, adding, "Many of the homes that will be highlighted have interesting stories and occupants."

Attendees will have an opportunity during the program to ask questions. They also will be able to view a newly installed exhibition, "James Arthur: The Story of 100 Houses in 100 Days," which includes some never-before-shown historic photographs, brochures and artifacts portraying the colorful story of acclaimed builder James Arthur (1866-1931) who, together with other tradesmen, came to the Kenilworth area (then known as New Orange) in the late 1800s during a major local building boom.

Boright, a native of Kenilworth who now resides elsewhere in New Jersey, has authored five popular books about Kenilworth history: A History of Kenilworth as Told Through its Streets and Street Signs; Kenilworth: Houses, People, Pictures, and Stories; Women of Kenilworth; A History of the Kenilworth Free Public Library and Kenilworth Memories: A History of Kenilworth in Story and Pictures. He also has written a series of articles about Kenilworth history for the former Cranford Chronicle.

Boright is a retired superintendent of schools and a retired director of Kean University. He earned his bachelor's degree at Kean, and master's and doctoral degrees at Seton Hall University. He has taught New Jersey and American history. Additionally, he has held elected office as a councilman and as a member of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders. His father, Walter, Sr., was a Kenilworth mayor in the 1950s and 1960s.

The Kenilworth Historical Society is an independent, volunteer-based, non-profit, tax-exempt, 501 (c) 3 organization dedicated to the research, preservation and interpretation of the Oswald J. Nitschke House, local history and culture.

LEARNING ABOUT SEEING EYE DOGS

Learning About Seeing Eye Dogs was recently presented at the Kenilworth Public Library. Jim Kessler from The Seeing Eye located in Morristown provided children and their families the opportunity to meet a young puppy who will be trained as a seeing eye dog, and an adult dog who has currently been trained. Children learned how these service animals can assist visually impaired people.

Students in Mrs. DeMaio's 2nd grade class from St. Theresa School in Kenilworth recently enjoyed a tour of the Historical Nitschke House in Kenilworth. They toured the garden showcasing colorful rainbow corn and gigantic cabbage along with a garden of herbs and spices. The Teaching Garden which was funded by a grant from Merck Foundation was the highlight of the visit. Mrs. DeMaio is teaching her students all about the Native Americans and the "Three Sister Way" of planting beans, squash and corn.

Mrs. Shirley Maxwell and Mrs. Shari Combs-Tlack greeted the students in full costume and spoke to the students about the living conditions during the late 19th century.

The children were all presented with a small pumpkin at the end of their visit.

KENILWORTH KIDS WIN THE GREAT ZUCCHINI RACE

Kenilworth Life • Page 9 • November 2016

Michael, Mathew and Danielle Skeffington had never before raced a zucchini squash until recently. With the oversight of their mother and dad, the brothers and sister team created their winning racer using bamboo skewers for axles and sliced Daikon Radishes for wheels. Their racer was not only fast but also eye catching, as it was adorned with racing flags and a miniature driver. The Great Zucchini Race, supported by the Garden Club of NJ, was part of the Youth Section's special events at this year's New Jersey Flower and Garden Show.

THE JUNIOR MUSICAL CLUB WILL HOLD AUDITIONS ON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20

The Junior Musical Club, a club for students in 8th -12th grades from Westfield and nearby towns, welcomes applications from young instrumentalists and vocalists who have a personal commitment to performing music of any and all genres. For more information about the Club and how to apply, please email juniormusicalclub@gmail.com.

Teen-aged musicians may audition to join the club on Sunday, November 20, 2016, between 5:00 and 7:00 pm. Exact audition times will be set after the candidate submits an application. Auditions will take place at the home of Beverly Shea, Senior Advisor to the Club, 2121 Princeton Avenue in Scotch Plains.

Each candidate must perform two pieces in contrasting styles. Total playing time should be 5 to 8 minutes in length. Auditioners are encouraged to perform some portion of a piece from memory and must provide their own accompanist, if needed. To obtain an audition form and to request the name of a possible accompanist, applicants may email Samantha Sprechman at juniormusicalclub@gmail.com.

The club meets once each month on a Sunday evening at the homes of various club members. Each meeting consists of discussions about future concerts or events, and club members perform some of their current repertoire for one another. The club holds two concerts each year at the First Baptist Church of Westfield, open to the public free of charge. On March 29, 2017, at 7:30 p.m., The Ensemble Concert presents all club members in duets and group performances; on June 1, 2017, at 7:00 p.m., the high school junior and senior members will perform solo pieces in the Upper Class Recital. Club members also perform at senior citizen centers and play chamber music, solos and duets during the Tour of Notable Homes for the New Jersey Festival Orchestra, Saturday, May 13, 2017.

For additional information contact Beverly Shea, 908-654-1036, Senior Advisor, The Musical Club of Westfield.

ST. THERESA’S SEEKING THANKSGIVING FOOD PANTRY DONATIONS

St. Theresa’s Social Concerns Food Pantry is gearing up for their Thanksgiving food basket distribution. Last year they distributed 250 baskets including a $10 supermarket gift card, and 280 turkeys. They anticipate a bigger need than any year before. Nonperishable food items can be dropped off at the back of the Church on Sundays or any day of the week between 9 am to 3 pm at the Rectory. There is a special need for gravy, stuffing, cranberry sauce and canned yams. Frozen turkeys can be dropped off the Friday before Thanksgiving (November 18th) between 9am - 5 pm at St. Theresa’s Rectory. Baskets will be distributed the Saturday before Thanksgiving (November 19th).

If you need a basket call the Rectory to reserve one at (908) 272-4444. Only first names are required. There will be no baskets given out without a reservation.

Gift cards to any supermarket in $10.00 denominations are also needed. Gift cards and checks payable to St. Theresa’s can be mailed to Social Concerns c/o The Church of Saint Theresa, 541 Washington Avenue, Kenilworth, NJ 07033.

GIVING TREE

With Thanksgiving behind them, Social Concerns will then be collecting donations for a “giving tree” which will be located in St. Theresa’s church starting November 26th. The tree is decorated with tags with needed items written on them. Donors simply take as many tags as they wish and return the items to the church for distribution. The orders on the tags were collected from needy families within the community as well as Covenant House, Catholic Charities and St. Joseph’s Social Service Center located in Elizabeth. If you are in need please call the Rectory (908) 272-4444.

RUSSO AND PADULA RECOGNIZED BY KBOE

This year the David Brearley “Bruins that Care” conducted its most successful food drive to benefit local families. Under the direction of the club’s advisor, Mrs Diana Westbrook, the David Brearley Middle School students gathered 17 full boxes of food to donate to the 15th annual 911 Memorial Food Drive. Two students that were instrumental in the efforts were 7th grader Isabela Russo Diuro and the Club President, 8th grader Michael Padula.

Isabela is a 7th grader who is off to a great start at the David Brearley Middle School. She is a focused student who always tries her best. Her respect for her classmates is evident, showing help whenever it is needed. Due to her dedicated nature to help other, Isabela was able to procure and donate 9 bags of food to the Bruins that care 911 food drive. This is a true showcase of her generosity, kindness, school spirit, and overall care for those in need. Isabela is already looking forward to the next community outreach project to show her support and continue giving back to the Kenilworth Community.

8th grader Michael Padula is this year’s president of the Bruins that Care and oversaw the majority of donations made for the food drive. Michael was instrumental in promoting the food drive, raising awareness in school, and monitoring the donations. Michael is a hard-working and dedicated member of the David Brearley’s Scholarship Academy. Michael is active in many clubs, and other community service projects in Kenilworth. Michael has been described by one of his teachers as having a “heart of gold” and is always willing to help other before himself. Michael has been a valued member of the Bruins that Care for the last two years and has participated in other food drives, community service projects and opportunities, including events at the Senior Citizens Center.

For more info, contact Mr. Vincent Gonnella at 908-276-1644, extension 1550 or by email at Vincent_gonnella@kenilworthschools.com
