NEWCOMERS AND NEIGHBORS ANNUAL MEET AND GREET

By: Edir Coronado

With work, family, and the everyday hassle of dealing with the intricacies of life, it is hard to imagine making new friends past your college years. Social media and daily interaction at one's workplace might create the illusion of friends, but it might be rare for those Facebook friends to actually get together for a night out. These social life complications are magnified when you arrive in an unfamiliar town. A person might have daily interactions with several people throughout the week, but rarely do they find themselves with the opportunity to hold a meaningful conversation that might lead to a genuine friendship.

Since the 1950's The Scotch Plains- Fanwood Newcomers and Neighbors organization, a non-profit social club, have been bringing people together and creating bonds among fellow citizens. On October 19th the Newcomers and Neighbors held their annual Fall Meet and Greet event at the Darby Road Restaurant. At first glance an outside observer might conclude that attendees were longtime friends, but some guests were newcomers, like Callie Campbell, who just moved to the area 2 months prior. Her story is a unique one, Callie was originally from the area, but has been away for 10 years, including 2 years in Hong Kong. The experience of living out of the country can be rewarding, but disorienting when moving back. Callie, who is expecting a child, was excited to attend her first event with the Newcomers and Neighbors group, just two months living in her new neighborhood.

Kelly Gilson is from Weehawken, her and her husband are first time homeowners. Gilson joined the group before she moved to Fanwood and just two months in town, she has already attended 5 events. She started off by going to the book club events.

Natalie Duncan has a similar situation; she recently moved to the area in May and bought a new home. The Fall Meet and Greet event, was her first function, but "not my last," said Duncan. She moved from the nearby town of Cranford.

The Fall Meet and Greet was a success. Throughout the year the organization hosts several events centered on a variety interests. Whether it is sports, book club, or a night out, the Scotch Plains – Fanwood Newcomers and Neighbors organization has something for everyone.

Meeting new people isn't the group's only activities; the organization is also involved in community service projects. They host book and blood drives, support veterans and military service members through "Holiday Mail for Heroes", and other projects like "Project Night Night," where the club provides essential items to Raphael's Life house in Elizabeth, a transitional living residence for homeless pregnant women and new moms ages 18-23. For more information about the club please visit www.spfnewcomers.com.

Auditions will take place at the home of Beverly Shea, Senior Advisor to the Club, 2121 Princeton Avenue in Scotch Plains.

Each candidate must perform two pieces in contrasting styles. Total playing time should be 5 to 8 minutes in length. Auditioners are encouraged to perform some portion of a piece from memory and must provide their own accompanist, if needed. To obtain an audition form and to request the name of a possible accompanist, applicants may email Samantha Sprechman at juniormusicalclub@gmail.com.

The club meets once each month on a Sunday evening at the homes of various club members. Each meeting consists of discussions about future concerts or events, and club members perform some of their current repertoire for one another. The club holds two concerts each year at the First Baptist Church of Westfield, open to the public free of charge. On March 29, 2017, at 7:30 p.m., The Ensemble Concert presents all club members in duets and group performances; on June 1, 2017, at 7:00 p.m., the high school junior and senior members will perform solo pieces in the Upper Class Recital. Club members also perform at senior citizen centers and play chamber music, solos and duets during the Tour of Notable Homes for the New Jersey Festival Orchestra, Saturday, May 13, 2017.

For additional information contact Beverly Shea, 908-654-1036, Senior Advisor, The Musical Club of Westfield.

OUR PAIN IS YOUR GAIN

Due to an unusually mild December last year our sales figures dipped for the 2015 – 16 fur season. This means we are taking a more aggressive start to our 2016 – 17 selling season. Our first sale will begin in October with a 40% markdown on all current inventory. As always, La Marque will continue to feature many one of a kind garments not available elsewhere. I'm also very excited to introduce our new accessory line. Scarves, flings, headbands, earmuffs and fur trimmed shearling gloves ($40 - $250!) in assorted colors that can be worn to enhance any garment in your wardrobe. We look forward to seeing you at the store!

Mobile Meals of Westfield does not have a financial need requirement. They serve residents in Westfield, Scotch Plains, Fanwood, Mountainside, Clark and Cranford. For $6.25 per day for a hot meal, including dessert and beverage, with an optional lunch for an additional $2.35 per day, they deliver Monday through Friday. The tasty, nutritious meals are prepared daily by a professional cook and are packed and delivered by volunteers around noontime each day.

So much more than just a meal, Mobile Meals of Westfield provides a friendly smile and a daily check in for residents that might otherwise be alone all day.

A Scotch Plains resident recently thanked Mobile Meals of Westfield, "Our mother looked forward to the stimulation of your daily visits and enjoyed your meals and the special occasion gifts.

You cheered up her life and provided structure that was caring and helpful. Your service shared in the success of helping her to live productively till almost 100 years old."

TINY TIM NEEDS YOU

By: Bernadette Hoyer, Tiny Tim Fund Board

The annual tiny Tim Fund Caroling Night is scheduled for Wednesday, December 7th from 4:00PM to 8:00PM. Residents of Fanwood and Scotch Plains are needed to form groups to sing seasonal songs door to door and solicit donations for the Tiny Tim Fund. A group can consist of family members, friends, co-workers or any combination of participants. Caroling and collecting can be done in the neighborhood of the group leader's choice.

The Tiny Tim Fund is a non-profit organization that provides financial assistance to help families pay for the medical needs of children from Fanwood and Scotch Plains. The organization has been providing financial assistance to local families since 1983.

The annual Tiny Tim Caroling Night is the organization's sole fundraising event. Many groups of adults and children are needed to make the evening a success. All donations collected are used for medical needs.

Anyone interested in doing a community service while having fun in the spirit of the season can form a group or volunteer to join an existing one. To register a group, reserve materials and/or to obtain further information please contact Barbara Anilo at 322-4472 or Mari McDevitt at 233-6513.

ATTORNEY SETTLES HOME EXPLOSION LITIGATION FOR $975,000.00

Attorney David C. Bendush announced settlement of a lawsuit arising from a home explosion in Hunterdon County in September of 2014. The blast was caused by a contractor who was converting the home of his clients, from oil to natural gas. The clients were in the home with their infant daughter at the time of the explosion and fire. Davis Heating and Cooling was attempting without success to purge the new gas lines. Large amounts of natural gas were caused to accumulate inside the basement until the gas exploded, nearly levelling the structure and knocking the clients to the ground where they stood. Mr. Bendush litigated the liability issues aggressively, and attained the unusual result of summary judgment for plaintiff. The defense had little choice but to settle quickly and on favorable terms, in order to avoid a trial.

ADVOCATES NEEDED FOR LOCAL FOSTER YOUTH: CASA OFFERS NEW FLEX-TRAININGS IN DEC, JAN

CASA of Union County is seeking Scotch Plains residents to step up and be the voice for one of the nearly 600 Union County youth, ages 0-21, currently in foster care through no fault of their own.

Traditionally, the required 30-hour training is held over six weeks, with volunteers meeting several evenings each week. However, two new training options are now available, in response to prospective volunteers seeking more scheduling flexibility. A December training — which begins Monday, Dec. 5, 2016 — allows those home during the day to complete all training within five days from 9 am to 4 pm at the CASA offices; the January training — which begins Thursday, Jan. 12 — continues the traditional six-week format, but incorporates online learning at the volunteer's convenience, and fewer in-person sessions. Lunch or light dinner is provided. At the conclusion of training, a Superior Court judge swears in the new child advocates at the Union County Courthouse.

Trained CASAs are court-empowered to speak to foster parents, teachers, doctors, lawyers, therapists and more. CASAs visit the youth regularly and incorporate findings into a report for the judge. They attend quarterly court hearings, working to ensure a youth's time in care is as short as possible and their best interests remain the priority. Although not required, there is an additional need for male advocates and advocates who speak Spanish. Just who is a typical child referred to CASA of Union County? Meet 12-year-old Marissa:

When my mother was pregnant with me, she drank alcohol and used cocaine, and I was born with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome. Even though the state was working with my mom to help her get clean and be a better mom to me and my brother, she couldn't stay away from the drugs and alcohol. My older brother tried to take care of me, but he said it was too hard, and our house was so dirty and cluttered. A worker from the state came and took me, and put me into a foster home. That worker left and I have a new worker. When I met her, she said the plan was for me to go back with my mom as soon as she's better. I was so happy. But I just found out that now my mom is missing! I'm so worried and hope she's okay. Is she drinking again? Is she hurt? Every day I wonder what will happen to me and what's happened to her. I'm so scared. I don't see my brother anymore at all. My family is so broken and I feel all alone.

Scotch Plains residents are encouraged to contact Rachel at (908) 527-7044 or rwhite@casaoofunioncounty.org to RSVP for an information session below, or for more details on claiming a seat in the December or January class.

Evening information sessions are: Thursdays, Nov. 17 and Dec. 15 at the County Clerk Building, 300 North Avenue East, Westfield; morning sessions are 10 a.m. Fridays, Nov. 18 and Dec. 16 at CASA's offices, 1143-45 East Jersey Street, Second Floor, Elizabeth.
