SUPER FAMILY LITERACY NIGHT

During the last week of October, the Linden Community came together for a night of learning. Linden Schools #4 and #10 joined together to host "Super Family Literacy Night." This Superhero themed event was led by Instructional Coach, Suzanne Olivero. Over thirty teachers and staff members facilitated the activities. Families entered the Superhero Café to enjoy a light supper provided by the Linden Education Association and Pomptonian. From there they traveled to Readville, where they participated in a Read Aloud, featuring the story, "Super Dex." Family Reading Pledges were discussed and then composed by families. They promised to establish an at-home daily reading routine. Children also created Superhero capes. At the Reading Headquarters families participated in activities such as Comprehension Crusaders, Smack Attack, Super Words, and I Need a Hero; activities which concentrated on the essential components of Literacy. The Physical Education teacher, Fran Kreisberg demonstrated how Physical Literacy is demonstrated in P.E. classes. The night concluded with a raffle of leveled book baskets and Barnes and Noble gift cards. Parents and their children left the event with a deeper understanding of the simple ways they can support the core skills of literacy.

RESIDENT PRESENTS ARCHITECTURE RESEARCH AT NOTRE DAME DESIGN CONFERENCE

Kean University architecture students Robert Gallagher, John Grega and Gabriel Morales, of Linden, presented the findings of their Students Partnering with Faculty grant-funded research project to an audience of professional architects on Saturday, October 1 at Notre Dame University's The Art of Architecture: Hand Drawing and Design conference. The Michael Graves College at Kean University, named for the internationally acclaimed architect who helped develop the program, shares its namesake's commitment to hand drawing as a part of the art and science of architecture.

"Twenty years ago designers used paper and pencil; today they use computer-aided drafting (CAD) programs," said Gallagher. "We looked at the large touch-screen table as a way to mix mediums between the physical and digital."

Gallagher, Grega and Morales presented research quantifying and qualifying the advantages of touch-screen interfaces over mouse and keyboard. The students performed a series of five tasks on both a laptop and a digital table and recorded the time necessary to complete each task and the user experience, along with anecdotal commentary. The researchers found touch-screen interfaces to be more intuitive and efficient than keyboard and mouse based interfaces. Efficiency improved by four to 13 percent for most tasks and an astonishing 66 percent in one isolated case.

"The students were equally nervous and excited to be at Notre Dame but did a fantastic job of articulating their experiences with the grant," said Kean professor Craig Konyk.

Konyk delivered a presentation entitled digital at the conference. His lecture further explored how touch-screen surfaces can reengage the hand-drawing dynamic in architectural design.

Founded in 2015, Kean's Michael Graves College is rethinking the role of technology in its architectural curriculum. Utilizing a curriculum developed in part by Michael Graves himself before his death, the program encourages hand drawing as a discipline for creative expression and exploration.

COURTNEY VILLANI NAMED ONE OF 2016'S TOP 25 LEADING WOMEN ENTREPRENEURS

LIFE in LINDEN • Page 9 • December 2016

The Top 25 Leading Women Entrepreneurs were recognized at a reception held on November 14, 2016 at the Liberty House in Jersey City, NJ. Among them was Courtney Villani, President of Villani Bus Company.

Leading Women Entrepreneurs is a media and events company that recognizes outstanding women business owners. Their annual award was developed for the purpose of acknowledging female, business owners who exhibit outstanding performance in four areas: market potential, innovation, community involvement, and advocacy for women. Courtney Villani excels in all categories and is well deserving of the recognition.

The twenty five awardees were chosen from 150 finalists. Approximately seven hundred nominations were received from women entrepreneurs who are all accomplished, intelligent and inspired by their work.

Courtney Villani, daughter of Diodato and Linda Villani, is President of Villani Bus Company located in Linden, NJ. Honored to be the third generation running the company, Courtney leads the charter and school bus company created by her grandfather, Frank Villani, Sr., and successfully developed by her father, Diodato Villani who more than doubled the business in size when he was President. Courtney looks to continued growth as Villani Bus approaches its 100th year in business.

Courtney joined the family business because it had provided her with every opportunity in life at the time her father encountered some health issues. Prior to working with buses, she studied Sociology and Anthropology at Hofstra University.

At the age of 16, Courtney became a firefighter in Upper Black Eddy, PA and continued to serve while studying at Hofstra in Uniondale NY's Engine Co. 3.

Courtney's resume of community service includes charities in Elizabeth and its Peterstown Community through the Elizabeth Chapter of UNICO National, an Italian-American service organization. In 2012 Courtney Villani served as the club's president. Courtney also served as Governor to UINCO National District X. She also served as co-chair of the Linden Chamber of Commerce.

LINDEN HIGH SCHOOL VETERANS DAY CEREMONY

The Linden High School Navy Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps. (NJROTC) celebrated Veterans Day on Monday, November 7, 2016.

This special day is dedicated to the brave men and women of the armed forces who have risked their lives to keep the rest of us safe and free. The Linden High School NJROTC played a special honor to our Vietnam Veterans as it is the 50th Anniversary of that conflict. In addition, we had the privilege of having several local World War II Veterans at the event.

At Linden Public Schools celebrating our Veterans is a great opportunity for our students to honor those that have sacrificed through their service to our country. Linden students had the opportunity to sit down with our Veterans and ask them questions about their experience in the military.

Linden Public Schools give thanks and honors all veterans and their families for their service, valor and sacrifice.

(above l-r) Chapter 779 President Carl Periera of the Vietnam Veterans of America, along with many members of the chapter, are presented with the ceremonial flag and a commemorative flag case. Pictured are Linden Superintendent Dr. Danny Robertozzi, NJROTC Senior Instructor CDR Boyd Decker (Ret), Linden School Board President Sue Hudak, and Linden High School Principal Yelena Horre.

LINDEN HIGH SCHOOL: HISTORY HONOR SOCIETY

On Tuesday November 1, 2016 the Rho Kappa History Honor Society held its annual induction ceremony. The Rho Kappa Honor Society celebrates the Linden High School students who have demonstrated superior work in their Social Studies classes and have been active participants in the the school community. Front Row: Karina Amaral, Dina Bader, Emily Estrada, Gianna Falco, Izabela Dubiel, Bermuda Pierre, Keshni Rajeswaran, Kristeen Piloto, Alexandra Alvarez

Back Row; Boris Delvalle, Karolina Budkiewicz, Michal Pudlik, Miesha Burnam, Nyssa Joseph, Alaziah Campbell, Emma Buckley, Precious AntwiA huge congratulations to all new inductees!!

Rho Kappa was founded in 2014 and was named after Linden resident John Russell Wheeler. Our name, RHO KAPPA, is taken from two words Semitic origin. RHO is derived from "resh" meaning "head" and KAPPA is derived from "kapf" which means "palm of the hand." Both these terms symbolize our firm belief that knowledge without service is useless. Members of Rho Kappa are encouraged to pursue a deeper and more comprehensive understanding of all the disciplines under the Social Studies umbrella. Rho Kappa members will be working throughout the year to learn more about the history of Linden and will work to bring that knowledge to the larger community.
