KEIONA MILLER HONORED WITH DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

On Sept. 15, North Plainfield Councilwoman, Keiona R. Miller, was honored at the Elks Club in Bridgewater with the 2016 Eleanor Roosevelt Distinguished Service Award.

A commitment to the most vulnerable among us, and an abiding belief in the power of individuals to transform society for the better, most accurately defines the life and work of Keiona Miller. Drawn to the art of inspirational singing at a very young age, Miller competed and performed as a soloist and in groups throughout her entire teen and young adult years; refining a voice that would later find full expression in public service.

It was in church that she first heard her calling to devote herself to the public good. After attaining a Psychology degree from Seton Hall University and completing internships in several communities with at-risk inner city populations, Miller combined her voice and passion for helping others and started a local church youth choir. For over seven years, she provided guidance and safe social activities for local area youths as a Youth Choir Director and Youth Leader/Speaker. Additionally, she created a concert series to raise much needed funds for the local church charity. In 2003, she joined forces with several other local vocalists and became a founding member of HERITAGE Inc., a non-profit volunteer adult choir performing to raise funds for scholarship programs and resources benefiting disenfranchised communities.

A dedicated volunteer and activist, Miller also participated in grassroots organizations, such as the Obama for America Campaign of 2008, and the People's Organization for Progress. She became involved in various community efforts seeking to improve conditions in local communities, and to expand social and economic opportunities for all. In 2009, she was appointed to the North Plainfield joint Youth Services Commission and Municipal Alliance Committee Against Alcoholism and Drug Abuse. She served the joint committee as both Chair and Coordinator; securing annual grant funding and managing the budget for the borough's drug, alcohol and juvenile delinquency prevention programs for four years.

In 2012, Miller became the first African-American ever elected to the North Plainfield Borough Council. Today, in addition, she serves on the New Jersey State League of Municipalities General Legislative Committee; Vice President of the Somerset County Governing Officials Association; Executive Board Member of the Somerset Community Action Program; Council Liaison to the North Plainfield Youth Services Commission; the North Plainfield Rent Stabilization Board, and the current President of the North Plainfield Democratic Club. She is also a member of the North Plainfield Business Association and the North Plainfield Chamber of Commerce- Spanish Business Association.

Miller's professional work includes group psychotherapy facilitation, health counseling, grants and programs coordination, project management, writing, and corporate communications. She frequently extends her influence as a community leader making regular inspirational speaking appearances and contributing articles as an online political columnist.

This summer, she founded Keiona's Platform: For Public Discourse and Ideas in Action event series; a leadership forum aimed at reinvigorating the public domain with problem-solving oriented discussions.

"My only aspiration was to inspire others to make changes necessary to live socially responsible lives," Miller said. "I never thought pursuing that desire would one day lead me to serve in public office, but it has, and I thank God for the opportunity to serve others," she said.

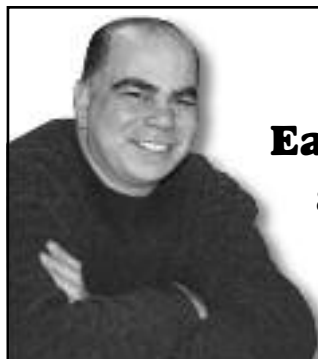

Held under the auspices of the Somerset County Federation of Democratic Women, Miller was one among eight esteemed women leaders from around Somerset County to receive the Eleanor Roosevelt Distinguished Service Award. The women were dubbed "Super Volunteers."

THERAPEUTIC RECREATION

North Plainfield has a cooperative agreement with the Somerset County Park Commission Therapeutic Department to provide Therapeutic Recreation programs and services to North Plainfield residents who need specialized/adapted recreation programs or inclusion support services.

The Therapeutic Recreation (TR) Department is dedicated to providing year round recreation and leisure opportunities for people with developmental disabilities. The goal of the TR department is to promote an active leisure lifestyle that improves social, physical, cognitive and emotional functioning and health while enhancing each participant's abilities. With highly qualified staff at programs, participants can register for many types of programs. By providing a variety of social, cultural, artistic, and culinary programs, as well as sports, fitness, community outings, horticulture, and special events, participants can recreate in the day, evening, or weekend.

Benefits to participation may include improving social skills, enhancing self-esteem, improving overall health and well-being and physical ability, enhancing communication skills, constructive use of leisure time and eliminating boredom, and reduction of stress and anxiety. Come discover the benefits with us.

Programs are offered for the following age groupings: Adults 31 and older, Young Adults 18-30, Teens 13-17, Children 6-12

With this approach to programming, participants can now attend programs with peers that share more common interests. We work to ensure a fun and trusting environment for you or your child that is conducive to learning while engaging in recreation activities.

This season program offerings include Pasta Making, Born to Jive music and dance program, Dining Out, Body Shop Fitness, Out and About, Seasonal Botanicals, Holiday Party, Fall Formal, and much more. Kids Yoga is back for both children and teens. There will be more craft, cooking, and enrichment programs offered. Call the TR office to find out what programs are being offered for your age group. If you have questions or if you want to receive a flyer/brochure, please call the TR department at 908 526-5650 or visit us on the web at www.somersetcountyparks.org. Individuals with speech or hearing impairments, please call the Relay Service @ 711.

“ I finished the 40 days at the end of March, 28 pounds down. For the next 4 weeks I used the tools that I was taught by this wonderful staff to maintain my weight even while on vacation at an all inclusive resort. When given the green light, I was able to lose 10 more pounds on my 'own', but still using Nutrimost tools and support. I am 38 pounds down now and am thrilled to be feeling so much more energetic and healthy.

COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE BRINGS 'ADOPT-A-ROAD' PROGRAM TO NORTH PLAINFIELD

In an effort to provide cleaner county roadways for Somerset County residents Sheriff Provenzano and Freeholder Director Patricia Walsh, in the company of North Plainfield Mayor Michael Giordano Jr., kicked off a third Adopt-A-Road location October 19th on Somerset Street in front of the North Plainfield Police Department.

"The Adopt-A-Road program allows organizations and individuals to help the county provide safe, attractive, litter-free roadways within their communities," Sheriff Provenzano said. "We previously kicked off Adopt-A-Road programs in Franklin at the intersection of Cedar Grove Lane and Amwell Road and in Bedminster at the intersection of Burnt Mills Road and Route 202-206.

"We're continuing to survey county roads to find out where the services are needed," he said. "The cleanup will be provided by Somerset County inmates, which is an excellent way of utilizing jail resources to support our community at no cost to the taxpayers."

"The Adopt-A-Road initiative is a dedicated beautification project that benefits our businesses and our residents," Freeholder Director Walsh said. "It also ties in with our goals of environmental protection and sustainability."

The Somerset Sheriff's Office will clean a stretch of the adopted county roads for the next two years on a monthly basis. The Sheriff's Office has been cleaning roads, ballparks, streams and other areas in the county for over 20 years at the request of municipalities, but this is the first time the office has adopted roadways. "Our goal with Adopt-A-Road Program is to help keep our communities clean, help taxpayers save money, and remind people not to litter," Sheriff Provenzano said.

NORTH PLAINFIELD GIRL SCOUTS GATHER THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKETS FOR TOWN NEEDY

Fourteen families, (64 people) from four North Plainfield schools received Thanksgiving Food Baskets collected and donated by North Plainfield Girl Scouts. The food baskets contained the fixings for a fine Thanksgiving meal, other staple food items and also a supermarket gift card each - intended for fresh meat and/or produce purchase.

Nurses from North Plainfield schools, West End, East End, Stony Brook and Somerset, identified the needy families. The baskets were gathered by the local girl scouts and delivered to the local school nurses, who distributed the baskets to ensure the families remained anonymous.

Troop 65255 Cadette Girl Scout Nicole Lindemeyer said, "Deserving and grateful families should get special treatment - especially at Thanksgiving."

Co-leaders of the organizing troop 65516, Diana Ehling and Renee Hobson, said, "We are proud of our girls who commit to this project year after year."

One Thanksgiving Food Basket recipient family member said, "We can not put in words how we appreciate what the girls have done."

(above l-r) North Plainfield Cadette Girl Scouts Olafade Omole and Alyssa Ehling sort donated food for Thanksgiving food baskets for local families.

GIRL SCOUTS SERVE THANKSGIVING MEALS

Nearly 150 North Plainfield Community residents were treated to a fantastic Thanksgiving Feast November 19, 2016, thanks to the North Plainfield Ambassador Girl Scout troops 65133 and 65937.

This year marks the scouts fourth year for this girl scout annual event. "We recognized that there was a need in town and wanted to provide an opportunity for those less fortunate. We also wanted a place for the community to come to have great company and a great meal," said Jana Lattimore, coleader of organizing troops 65937 and 65133.

"I really enjoy helping others and seeing the smile on their face – it's priceless," said troop 65133 Ambassador girl scout Daniela Barriga.

Open to the public, the event served hundreds over the years. "It's a testament to the girls' dedication to the community and girl scouts. They are so pleased to do what they do," said Jim Roselli, Tech/Photographer Elder for the Watchung Avenue Presbyterian Church (WAPC) in North Plainfield.

Each year the dinner is hosted at the WAPC and this year Pastor Joel Biggers said, "It is a joy and a privilege for the girls to hold this event at WAPC."

Mary Moore, a local resident and attendee said, "It is beautiful and thoughtful the way the girls fix Thanksgiving dinner each year for the community. It is all done to perfection."

LaJuan Dardignac, coleader with Lattimore of organizing troop 65937, said, "Girl Scouts is about working with others. What better time to do it than at Thanksgiving and give back to the community."

"We are proud of our girl scouts. They are strong leaders of today and tomorrow. Our Ambassador scouts are graduating, going the college and hope to inspire another generation to continue this wonderful girl scout community tradition," said Lattimore and Theresa McGrath, coleaders of organizing troop 65133.

Sponsors of the event include: Stop n Shop, Costco, BJs, Unity Bank, Lyons Club, LaStrada Ristorante and Pizza, Orlando Kitchen, North Plainfield Democratic Committee, Mayor Michael Giordano, North Plainfield Council President Lawrence La Ronee and North Plainfield Council Woman and President of the North Plainfield Democratic Club Keiona Miller.

HOLIDAY DECORATED HOME CONTEST

The Department of Parks and Recreation is sponsoring a town-wide holiday decorations contest for all North Plainfield residents.

The Recreation Department will judge all entries from Dec. 20 to Dec 22. First, second and third place gift cards will be given to the winners. First place is $100, 2nd place is $75 and 3rd place is $50.

The top three prize winners will be notified and announced on Facebook on Dec. 23.

Rules: In order to be eligible you must register (free) by submitting your name, street address and phone number to rec@npmail.org.

Homes will not be considered unless they are registered. Outdoor decorations visible from the street will be judged by recreation members.

Registrations will be taken up until 10 p.m. on Dec. 19. For more information on this and other programs, go to np-recreation.com
