BRENNAN AND MELAO CROWNED 2016 KING AND QUEEN

Arthur L. Johnson High School celebrated Crusader athletics and its newly crowned Homecoming King and Queen, Michael Brennan and Julia Melao, at the 2016 Homecoming Rally. The event was hosted by ALJ's Student Council and its advisors, Marie Palma and Lisa Bukowiec, who prepared for the rally many months in advance.

The night began by celebrating the accomplishments of the ALJ fall athletes. It also was an opportunity to cheer on the Football team as they prepared to play Rahway during the Thanksgiving game. Later in the night, the homecoming court was announced.

The head speakers of the event included Juniors Amy Wysocki, Lindsey Hofschneider, and Brandon Kennedy. According to Ms. Palma, "Each of them did a tremendous job introducing the teams, the honorary nominated couples, and of course announcing the Homecoming King and Queen at the conclusion of the event!"

She continued, "The candidates for Homecoming King and Queen were among the very finest Johnson Crusaders. Our homecoming court this year consisted of men and women who truly embody a well-rounded Johnson student. They have shined in the classroom and have distinguished themselves as academic all-stars among the senior class. In addition, they have led the morning show, sports teams, and clubs. They have also managed to give their time outside the walls of Johnson through volunteerism and community service."

The students nominated by fellow ALJ teachers and staff for Homecoming King and Queen this year included: Michael Brennan, Gina Pace, Vincent Campbell, Brett Roessle, Gianna Randazza, Ty Schafer, Julia Melao, Natalie Carnovale, Julia Sapia, Payton Wiese, Matthew Gallo, Casey Dohn, Jon Duffy, Cameron Hund, Gina Ferdinandi, Alex Hampp, Mike Cepparulo, and Jennifer Casalino.

Each couple was announced to their chosen song, and short autobiographies of the students were read.

Prior to the crowning, ALJ Principal Rick Delmonaco stated that he was honored to have the opportunity to congratulate these seniors on their accomplishments, and he was grateful for their devotion to the school and

The night ended with a celebratory bonfire hosted by the Clark Fire Department.

"The accomplishments of this year's nominees are a true testament to what homecoming means at Johnson. Homecoming is a night about coming together as a school and community to celebrate the triumphs and successes our students have achieved in the classroom, on the sports field, and as the leaders of tomorrow," Palma stated.

MAJESTIC WINDS TO PERFORM A FUNDRAISER

Majestic Winds, the professional wind band of the New Jersey Workshop for the Arts, will present a winter concert at the First Baptist Church, 170 Elm Street, Westfield, NJ on Thursday, January 12, 2017 at 7:30 p.m.

The ensemble will be directed by Howard Toplansky, an NJWA staff instrumental instructor. "Our musical offerings are geared to please a variety of musical tastes and range from Renaissance to Ragtime favorites," stated Toplansky.

"Marinarella" Overture by Julius Fucik, Highlights from "Exodus" by Ernest Gold and "Reine de La Mer" by John Philip Sousa will be some selections. "Slavonic Rhapsody No.

2" by Carl Friedemann will also be featured on this program. Several fine marches will also be performed.

Rounding out this concert will be "Rhapsody for Band" by John Cacavas, "Zoot Suit Riot" by Steve Perry, "Elite Syncopations" by Scott Joplin, and Hungarian Dances Nos. 7 & 8 by Johannes Brahms.

2016 HOUSE DECORATING CONTEST RESULTS

Clark Recreation held its Annual House Decorating Contest this season. Winners of this friendly family competition were awarded Thursday night. The committee, consisting of four anonymous judges, drove around town for the last week seeking to review and judge each of the 24 homes that entered the contest. The judging was difficult as each home was unique and really out did themselves. In the end, five homes were awarded an Ace Hardware Gift certificate, a lawn sign and bragging rights. In the past, only three homes are selected, but due to the overwhelming response this year, Recreation Director Ralph Bernardo expanded the number of recipient winners. Bernardo hopes "all residents enjoyed driving around town reviewing all the homes". The following homes are the 2016 winners:

Most Outrageous
Knob Family – 16 Durham Dr
Roseman Family – 892 Raritan Rd

Most Traditional
Bonney Family – 15 Roberts Rd

Overall Favorite
Sangiuliano Family – 105 Mildred Tr.
Minnitti Family – 94 Jupiter St.

HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR VISITS ALJ

Students in Arthur L. Johnson's Holocaust and Genocide Studies course had the opportunity to hear guest speaker Fran Malkin's story of surviving the Holocaust. Ms. Malkin was born in a part of Poland, which is now part of the Ukraine. At five-years-old, she went into hiding with her family for 18 months. During her visit to ALJ, she described her experience hiding in a barn and her eventual journey to America. In addition, Ms. Malkin showed part of a documentary "No. 4 Street of Our Lady" featuring her visit back to where she spent her time in hiding.

At the end of the program, Mr. Franklin Stebbins, teacher of the course, addressed his students, "As you prepare to enter college and beyond, you will have a chance to shape your surroundings and your world. Start small. Start with yourself. Start by asking questions. Be friends with people you have a lot in common with, but also take the time to learn about those who are different from you. Have an active role in your surroundings because then and only then will change happen."

Hailey Lara, a senior, commented, "Reading about an event in a text book does not even come close to thinking about the actual individuals involved in an atrocity like this. Six million deaths sound unimaginable but the six million lives that existed before this genocide is what matters."

All of the Clark schools, Arthur L. Johnson High School, Frank K. Henhly School and K Kids, Valley Road School and Carl H. Kumpf Middle School participated in the program and the response was overwhelming.

In addition to the holiday trimmings, many people also donated staple items such as canned tuna, canned soups, pasta and rice meals and canned fruits which will help carry us into the New Year.

Clark is a great community of supportive residents and businesses. As the saying goes "Need knows no season" and Clark Township is a true example.

RAHWAY GARDEN CLUB EXTENDS INVITATION TO CLARK RESIDENTS

Your local garden club is a great way to learn more about gardening, exchange ideas, ask questions, hear speakers and meet other gardeners that live in your area. You might be surprised how much you know and can share with others. Personal experience is the best teacher.

The Rahway Garden Club (RGC) was founded in October 2010. The objective of the RGC is to enhance the gardening knowledge of the membership through education and discussion in a social atmosphere. Membership is open to residents of Rahway and surrounding towns, 18 years of age and older. Meetings are free and open to the public.

The Rahway Garden Club is organized under the umbrella group of the 'New Jersey Garden Club'.

Garden clubs give citizens a wonderful opportunity to meet and socialize with folks that have a common interest. After all, gardening is one of the most popular hobbies in our country.

If you have a passion for gardening, come visit us. The RGC meets on the third Thursday of the month, except July, August and December.

The next meeting is on Thursday, January 19, 2017 at the Rahway Library which is located at 2 City Hall Plaza, Rahway, NJ.

For more information write to Jkeane54@aol.com.

MOURNING DOVES (PART ONE) WINTER BACKYARD BIRD FEEDING

Mourning doves are the most successful wild dove in North America, with a range from Alaska, Canada, Maine and as far south as Panama.

Although most Mourning doves migrate south during the winter months, many stay in our area where they depend on back yard bird feeders for survival.

Mourning doves feed on a vast assortment of seeds including weed seeds which makes it a valuable ally of farmers and gardeners. If you keep your bird feeders stocked Mourning doves will stay close, eating off the ground (gleaning) under feeders which helps keep that area clean.

Snow and ice make it difficult for these birds to scratch up seed, but there are a few things that you can do to help them. During the snowfall sprinkle seed on top to keep food in reach. If possible flatten an area and sprinkle the seed on that area. After a big storm I put cardboard on top of the snow and sprinkle the seed on top of that. I feed Mourning doves millet which is their favorite seed and black-oil sunflower seed because it is high in protein.

Mourning doves also utilize a heated birdbath for drinking water if you can provide it.

Also known as 'Turtle Doves', Mourning doves are medium size birds around 5 to 6 ounces, with brown pointed wings and tail, white and black markings and a crescent on its neck. Males have blue and pink highlights on the head and around their eyes. The pointed falcon like wings give them the ability to reach speeds of 40 to 55 miles per hour. Mourning doves are related to the now extinct 'Passenger doves' used in wartime to deliver messages.

During takeoff their flapping wings make a loud whirling sound and their strong feet enable them to push off the ground quickly. The call from the male is a hollow mournful coah, cooo, cooo.

Habitat is open farmlands, towns, roadsides, open grasslands and scrubs. I'll provide more information on Mourning doves mating and raising their young in the spring.

Enjoy your garden all year long,

CLARK UNICO TOURS DYKER HEIGHTS

Clark UNICO held their 2nd Annual Brooklyn Lights tour this holiday season. Fifty Unicans took a tour bus to Dyker Heights in Brooklyn to see the amazing decoration and light display that the neighborhood is famous for.

The homeowners of Dyker Heights are largely of Italian decent. The entire community participates where homes are mostly said to be decorated by decorating companies. Some cost estimates are $1,000 to upwards of $20,000. The Unicans enjoyed dinner on the bus, and cannoli's on the way home.

UNICO is one of the last remaining service organizations in the area. That is what makes UNICO unique in that we are proud of our Italian heritage and live our motto of "Service above self." For more information about joining Clark UNICO call Ralph Bernardo 908-337-7773.

FREE WORKSHOP ON STARTING A NEW BUSINESS

UCEDC reviews steps to increase likelihood of success

Starting your own small business may be the fulfillment of a long-held dream, but it's also a very risky proposition: about half of all businesses fail within five years. That's why UCEDC, a non-profit, small business lender and entrepreneurial training organization, is offering a free workshop, "Starting a Business in NJ – the Steps you Need to Take" on Tuesday, January 10, 2017 at 6 pm at its Cranford headquarters.

Led by UCEDC Director of Training Erich Peter, the session will cover the mechanics of starting a business including the pros and cons of different legal business structures, required insurances; understanding your tax liabilities, and HR issues.

"You may have the greatest product or service to sell, but it won't matter if you don't prepare yourself for the many challenges you will inevitably face," warns Peter. "We'll review some of the more critical factors that contribute to a successful small business and give you a strong foundation to move ahead."

UCEDC is the entrepreneurial training arm of the NJ Economic Development Authority and provides scores of free business literacy workshops throughout New Jersey.

Online registration for the free workshop is available on the UCEDC website: www.ucedc.com. For more information, contact Erich Peter at 908-527-1166 or epeter@ucedc.com.

UCEDC (Union County Economic Development Corp.), a nonprofit economic development corporation, is dedicated to promoting New Jersey's small businesses with resources tailored to every stage of business growth. Since our inception in 1977, we've provided over $24 million in loans to start-up and established businesses through a variety of SBA programs and other funding sources. Our Procurement Technical Assistance Center helped local businesses win over $2 billion in awarded government contracts. And thousands of entrepreneurs have attended our workshops and seminars, giving them a strong foundation for success.

UMPIRE CERTIFICATION CLASS HELD IN JANUARY

the games ASA/USA Softball NJ hosts throughout the state, including the 3,500 games hosted by District 2 in and around Union County. Please contact District 2 Commissioner Keith Hoffman at khoffcran@aol.com, 908-463-3960 with interest.

BECOME A LITERACY VOLUNTEER

Literacy New Jersey is dedicated to providing free, student-centered tutoring services to adults who struggle with reading, writing and speaking English. Registration is now open for its Winter 2017 Tutor Training classes.

Tuesday, January 24 - 7:00 PM – 9:30 PM;
Thursday, January 26 - 7:00 PM – 9:30 PM;
Tuesday, January 31 - 7:00 PM – 9:30 PM;
Thursday, February 2 - 7:00 PM – 9:30 PM;
Tuesday, February 7 - 7:00 PM – 9:30 PM

All sessions will take place at the Cranford Community Center, 224 Walnut Ave, Cranford, NJ, except for Thursday, February 2, which will take place at Summit High School, Kent Place Blvd, Summit.

After completing the five training sessions, volunteer tutors are matched with a small group of students from the growing waiting list of adults who need to improve their literacy skills. Tutors meet with their students in a public place, usually a Union County library, for 2 hours each week. New volunteers are asked to make a commitment of at least 50 hours.

LNJ provides ongoing supervision and support to tutors in the form of free Professional Development workshops on specific topics such as Health Literacy, Learning Disabilities, Financial Literacy, and ESL Conversation and Small Group Instruction.

To volunteer, you must be at least 18-years old, able to speak and read English and willing to tutor in Union County. You do not need to have any teaching experience and you do not need to speak a foreign language. The training will provide volunteers with techniques and strategies for working with adult learners, as well as sample instructional materials and activities.

There is a $45 non-refundable registration fee to cover the cost of materials distributed to new volunteers.

For more information, or to register, please call Literacy New Jersey at 908-486-1777 or email Nancy Lama at nlama@literacynj.org.
