On December 5th the Linden Police Department gathered with family and friends to celebrate the promotion of three officers to the rank of Sergeant. The promotions of Kenneth Mikolajczyk, Martin Jedrzejewski, and Joseph Rivera were approved unanimously at the November City Council Meeting.

Michael Babulski, president of the Linden Police Superior Officer Association, said he was pleased to see continued progress in the Police Department "We thank Mayor Armstead and the City Council for their support in bringing our department back from years of neglect. The guidance and leadership shown by Chief Parham during this process has been instrumental."

Kenneth Mikolajczyk joined the Linden Police Department in January 1993. He worked in the Patrol Division for about six years. In 1999 he was assigned to the Narcotics Bureau, where he participated in over 1000 investigations before he was transferred to the Criminal Investigations Bureau in 2012. In 2016 Det. Mikolajczyk was selected as Officer of the Year for his work as lead investigator in the shooting and subsequent homicide of Linden resident Tyrita Julius.

Martin Jedrzejewski joined the Linden Police

Department in July 2005. He served with distinction in the Patrol Division until his assignment to the Narcotics Bureau in January 2015. Within his first year he led a six month, multi-jurisdictional investigation that dismantled heroin mills in both Linden and Carteret that resulted in eight arrests, the recovery of two guns, raw and packaged heroin with a street value of over $1,000,000, and approximately $240,000 in cash.

Joseph Rivera joined the Linden Police Department in January 2009. He has worked in the Patrol Division, and in March 2016 was chosen as a Field Training Officer. He was tasked with mentoring and training officers following their graduation from the Police Academy.

"The vision the Mayor, City Council and I have of improving the safety of the citizens of Linden is closer to being realized, as today we promote three highly decorated police officers to the rank of Sergeant" said Chief Jonathan Parham. "Today's promotions demonstrate the unified effort between city government and the police department, and brings us closer to reaching our goals of safer streets, and safer citizens."

11 CRITICAL HOME INSPECTION TRAPS TO BE AWARE OF WEEKS BEFORE LISTING YOUR HOME FOR SALE

Linden NJ - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To order a FREE Special Report, visit www.njhomeinspectiontraps.com or to hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free 1-888-243-5861 and enter 1003. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Get your free special report NOW to learn how to ensure a home inspection doesn't cost you the sale of your home.

SCHOOL NO. 1 CHILI COOK-OFF COMPETITION

The searing flavors of this fiery competition guaranteed that the Chili Cook-Off brought some five-alarm fun to School No. 1! Thanks to visionary committee of School No. 1, the Chili Cook-off was a resounding success. On December 8, 2016, School No. 1 hosted a L.E.A.D. (Linking Education and Dads) Chili Cook-Off which was provided by the Linden Education Association, in conjunction with F.A.S.T. (Families and Schools Together). Pomptonian, (Linden Public Schools food service) provided drinks, snacks, sandwiches and desserts to go with the chili.

School No. 1 families were invited to come and participate as either a judge or enter their family chili recipe to win the most prized trophy. This was a fun filled evening for the School No. 1 community enjoying imaginative booths, kid's activities, entertainment galore, and world famous chili made by the parents. Families were able to partake in Mathematical Basketball and Jeopardy, Readers Theatre, visit the Mad Science Station or decorate their very own kitchen apron. This year's Chili Cook-Off was a spicy competition that School No. 1 will be hosting this event again in the 2017 school year.

RAHWAY GARDEN CLUB EXTENDS INVITATION TO LINDEN RESIDENTS

Your local garden club is a great way to learn more about gardening, exchange ideas, ask questions, hear speakers and meet other gardeners that live in your area. You might be surprised how much you know and can share with others. Personal experience is the best teacher.

The Rahway Garden Club (RGC) was founded in October 2010. The objective of the RGC is to enhance the gardening knowledge of the membership through education and discussion in a social atmosphere. Membership is open to residents of Rahway and surrounding towns, 18 years of age and older. Meetings are free and open to the public.

The Rahway Garden Club is organized under the umbrella group of the 'New Jersey Garden Club'.

Garden clubs give citizens a wonderful opportunity to meet and socialize with folks that have a common interest. After all, gardening is one of the most popular hobbies in our country.

If you have a passion for gardening, come visit us. The RGC meets on the third Thursday of the month, except July, August and December.

The next meeting is on Thursday, January 19, 2017 at the Rahway Library which is located at 2 City Hall Plaza, Rahway, NJ.

For more information

MOURNING DOVES (PART ONE) WINTER BACKYARD BIRD FEEDING

Mourning doves are the most successful wild dove in North America, with a range from Alaska, Canada, Maine and as far south as Panama.

Although most Mourning doves migrate south during the winter months, many stay in our area where they depend on back yard bird feeders for survival.

Mourning doves feed on a vast assortment of seeds including weed seeds which makes it a valuable ally of farmers and gardeners. If you keep your bird feeders stocked Mourning doves will stay close, eating off the ground (gleaning) under feeders which helps keep that area clean.

Snow and ice make it difficult for these birds to scratch up seed, but there are a few things that you can do to help them. During the snowfall sprinkle seed on top to keep food in reach. If possible flatten an area and sprinkle the seed on that area. After a big storm I put cardboard on top of the snow and sprinkle the seed on top of that. I feed Mourning doves millet which is their favorite seed and black-oil sunflower seed because it is high in protein.

Mourning doves also utilize a heated birdbath for drinking water if you can provide it.

Also known as 'Turtle Doves', Mourning doves are medium size birds around 5 to 6 ounces, with brown pointed wings and tail, white and black markings and a crescent on its neck. Males have blue and pink highlights on the head and around their eyes. The pointed falcon like wings give them the ability to reach speeds of 40 to 55 miles per hour. Mourning doves are related to the now extinct 'Passenger doves' used in wartime to deliver messages.

(above) President of The Rahway Garden Club, James Keane has been researching and answering garden questions since 1995. Visit 'Keane Gardener' blog at: keanegardener.blogspot.com

During takeoff their flapping wings make a loud whirling sound and their strong feet enable them to push off the ground quickly. The call from the male is a hollow mournful coah, cooo, cooo.

Habitat is open farmlands, towns, roadsides, open grasslands and scrubs. I'll provide more information on Mourning doves mating and raising their young in the spring.

Enjoy your garden all year long,

James

LINDEN SCHOOL NO. 6 LINGS VISIT

School No. 6 collected food during November and donated it to the Linden Interfaith Network for Community Service food pantry (LINCS). Students helped sort and box the donated food. Mrs. Redgate's class had a rewarding experience visiting the food pantry and learning about how it is run and how the community benefits from it.

BOY SCOUT PROJECT HELPS CHIMNEY SWIFTS

Michael Palay, a Linden resident and a 12th grader attending Roselle Catholic High School, built a Chimney Swift for his Eagle Scout Project. Michael has been involved with scouting for about 12 years and is currently in Boy Scout Troop #330.

A Chimney Swift is a bird native to the area and they like to nest in chimneys or hollow trees, so this chimney provides a place for them to nest. Michael built this Chimney Swift tower for Cox Printers, an environmentally conscious business located in Linden, for their sustainability project. He wanted to help keep these birds in the area.

Michael said "I chose this project because it was different and I had never heard of a Chimney Swift before and I thought it would be a good learning experience to build it not really knowing how it goes together. I started researching the project about how to build it. And started to plan how it had to be put together and this way I had more knowledge of it when assembling it."

Michael credits his family members, friends, and a few troop members for helping him make this project become a reality.

FREE WORKSHOP OFFERED ON STARTING A NEW SMALL BUSINESS

UCEDC reviews steps to increase likelihood of success

Starting your own small business may be the fulfillment of a long-held dream, but it's also a very risky proposition: about half of all businesses fail within five years. That's why UCEDC, a non-profit, small business lender and entrepreneurial training organization, is offering a free workshop, "Starting a Business in NJ – the Steps you Need to Take" on Tuesday, January 10, 2017 at 6 pm at its Cranford headquarters.

Led by UCEDC Director of Training Erich Peter, the session will cover the mechanics of starting a business including the pros and cons of different legal business structures, required insurances; understanding your tax liabilities, and HR issues.

"You may have the greatest product or service to sell, but it won't matter if you don't prepare yourself for the many challenges you will inevitably face," warns Peter. "We'll review some of the more critical factors that contribute to a successful small business and give you a strong foundation to move ahead."

UCEDC is the entrepreneurial training arm of the NJ Economic Development Authority and provides scores of free business literacy workshops throughout New Jersey.

Online registration for the free workshop is available on the UCEDC website: www.ucedc.com. For more information, contact Erich Peter at 908-527-1166 or epeter@ucedc.com.

UCEDC (Union County Economic Development Corp.), a nonprofit economic development corporation, is dedicated to promoting New Jersey's small businesses with resources tailored to every stage of business growth. Since our inception in 1977, we've provided over $24 million in loans to start-up and established businesses through a variety of SBA programs and other funding sources. Our Procurement Technical Assistance Center helped local businesses win over $2 billion in awarded government contracts. And thousands of entrepreneurs have attended our workshops and seminars, giving them a strong foundation for success.

NEW VIRTUAL BLOCK WATCH PROGRAM TO BE UNVEILED IN LINDEN

Mayor Derek Armstead announced on December 7th his new initiative with the support of the Linden Police Department, that the City of Linden will be unveiling their Virtual Block Watch Program.

Mayor Derek Armstead said, "This virtual block watch will bring residents and business owners together in an attempt to prevent crime and improve the quality of life in our community. It is what one might call the 21st Century Neighborhood Block Watch". The Mayor went on to say, "the virtual block watch is an attempt to answer, "How do we come up with another solution to ensure that we are capable of protecting our community and assist the police department in their efforts to keep us safe."

Chief Jonathan Parham said, "In a virtual block watch, police partner with businesses, community groups and concerned residents to acquire video surveillance involving crime, and having access to these cameras will aid in investigation purposes." The Chief added, "Having cameras in our neighborhoods and downtown area will help relieve all day canvassing efforts that officers have to do when investigating a crime. This initiative will help the police connect with the community and reach out to residents working proactively helping our department to help better protect and serve the residents and businesses."

By registering your camera you can directly contribute to the safety of our community by making it an undesirable target for criminals. If you register you are advising Law Enforcement that a particular area is under video surveillance. Registration does not imply consent, and law enforcement will not view your video without your permission. Should a crime occur nearby, a police representative will contact you and request to view the video.

Linden residents and businesses who already have cameras can register their cameras with the Linden Police Department either online or by submitting a registration form, in person to Linden Police Headquarters. The form will be located on the city website and can be downloaded.

Free cameras will be distributed on a first come first serve basis to qualified senior citizens as part of the initial pilot program.

HAWK RISE SANCTUARY AUDUBON PROGRAMS

The Hawk Rise Sanctuary is located on Range Road in Linden, NJ and is open to the public daily from dawn until dusk. The city-owned natural resource and wetland complex has long been recognized by numerous Federal, State and non-governmental organizations as an important environmental feature in the Rahway River and Arthur Kill watersheds. Please note dogs are not allowed on the trails.

Under the stewardship of the New Jersey Audubon Society, a full suite of natural history programs for families and adults are offered, many are free.

In 2012 the City transformed their closed landfill and adjacent property into a wildlife and passive recreational setting—a place for the public to visit and walk trails through the Hawk Rise forest and to enjoy overlooks of the Rahway River. Designed to encourage hiking, bird watching and nature appreciation, Hawk Rise has nearly a mile and a half of elevated walkways and an observation deck to enjoy the panoramic view of the Rahway River. The trails are equipped with interpretive signage to provide visitors with habitat descriptions and information regarding the 123 species of birds and other wildlife that have been encountered in the area.

Hawk Rise also represents an opportunity to reach youths of all ages to infuse an appreciation and commitment to ecological restoration, enhancement and preservation. The City of Linden has worked with the Linden Public Schools to integrate the Sanctuary with the Science curriculum as well as to provide professional development for teachers who will be taking groups of students to Hawk Rise for ecological studies. The first two phases of the Sanctuary were constructed with Green Acres grant monies, and assistance from local corporations.

Winter NJ Audubon Programs at Linden Hawk Rise Sanctuary

Hawk Rise Sanctuary is located on Range Road, in Linden, NJ. Programs are free, however, registration is requested for all programs. Please call the Scherman Hoffman Wildlife Sanctuary (908) 396-6386 to register.

Owl Moon Winter Walk - Saturday, January 21, 4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

As the sun goes down on a winter's eve join us at Hawk Rise for a winter walk at dusk. We'll see whooo we can find and look for footprints in the snow (hopefully!). End the hike with a reading of "Owl Moon" by Jane Yolen while drinking hot chocolate and looking at the moon with binoculars. This program is for children ages 5 and up with their families.

Hawk Rise Great Backyard Bird Count - Saturday, February 18, 10:30 a.m. to Noon

This is the weekend of the Great Backyard Bird Count (GBBC) an annual, national citizen-science event sponsored by Cornell University and the National Audubon Society. Learn how to identify common suburban birds and then take a hike to see who is staying at Hawk Rise. After we get some practice we will officially participate in the GBBC and log our data! This program is intended for birders of all ages and ability; loaner binoculars will be available. Dress warmly and be prepared to walk in snow or mud.
