RESCUE SQUAD 26TH ANNUAL TREE OF LIGHTS FUNDRAISER

On Saturday, December 3rd, 2016, members of the Watchung Rescue Squad lit the tree in the village green during the annual Tree of Lights Festival.

The tree was dedicated to three longtime members of the Watchung Rescue Squad who passed away in 2016: Steve Gussis, was honored by Squad Captain Alison Diecke; Walter Niegisch, was honored by his daughter Karen Niegisch Grayboyes; and Claire Ohl, was honored by Squad Treasurer Robert Winston.

In addition to the honorees, the crowd was treated to holiday music from Babygrand Entertainment as well as a live performance from the Valley View Middle School Chorus class under the direction of Music Teacher Gen Webber.

The ceremony concluded with thankful remarks from Mayor Steven Pote, who took the time to appreciate all the volunteers in Watchung and the service to the community. Mayor Pote then led the countdown to the 26th lighting of the tree. Once lit, the crowd was treated to a wonderful fireworks display courtesy of Garden State Fireworks.

Many Watchung families took part in the celebration by placing a light on the tree in remembrance or in honor of family, friends, and others. The names of honorees will be posted on the illuminated display on the Village Green through January.

Lights are still available to anyone who wishes to participate: To place a light on the tree, please complete the Dedication Order Form available at Watchung Borough Hall and mail it along with your tax-deductible donation of $50.00 per light to Watchung Rescue Squad, 10 Stirling Road, Watchung, NJ 07069.

To learn more about the squad or membership information, please visit our website www.watchungems.org, email president@watchungems.org or call 908-755-1297.

TREE DEDICATION

The members of the Watchung Rescue Squad dedicate this year's Tree of Lights in recognition of three Watchung residents, Walter Niegisch, Claire Ohl, and Stephen Gussis, who dedicated their lives to serving their country, their community, and the Watchung Rescue Squad.

Walter Niegisch

Walter Niegisch (1929- 2016) was born in Atlantic City, and grew up in Brooklyn, eventually attending Columbia University for his undergraduate and Stevens Institute of Technology for his graduate degree. Walt served in the US Army from 1954-1956, where his scientific knowledge was instrumental in the development of food preservation. After discharge, he worked for Union Carbide for more than 42 years as a research scientist. Walt was an active leader in the Boy Scouts and his Church.

Walt joined the Squad in 1977 and was a Distinguished Life Member, as well as one of the first volunteer responders in New Jersey to earn his EMT certification. He received a Community Service Award and the prestigious Governor's Award. He was a pioneer in the development of the Squad's extrication team, and served in many officer positions.

Claire Ohl

Claire Ohl (1929- 2016) was born in Newark, attended Montclair State Teachers College in 1941, then worked as a Technical Assistant Bell Laboratories before serving her country as a US Navy Wave in World War II from 1943-1945. Claire returned to Bell Labs, then left the workforce to raise her two sons, finally becoming a Mathematics Teacher at Governor Livingston until her retirement.

Claire joined the Squad in 1983, served as Treasurer for 22 years, and received every honor the Squad awards, including Distinguished Life Member and Lifetime Achievement.

Stephen Gussis

Stephen Gussis (1923-2016) was born in New Brunswick, and graduated from New Brunswick High School in 1942. In 1943, during World War II, he enrolled in the U.S. Air Corps, serving as a Staff Sergeant with the 20th Air Force in Guam, working on B29 Bomber engines until the war's end. After returning to New Brunswick, Steve obtained his barbering license and ran the Rutgers's Campus Barber shop for many years. He was an active member of his community, attending the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church, and serving as Secretary for the local chapter of AHEPA.

Steve joined the Squad in 1988, actively riding the

BAYBERRY FOOD DRIVE

(above) Fourth graders CJ Brown, Aaron Williams and Ben Carvalho are standing in front of the Fourth Grade Food Drive and Pie Vote display. Fourth graders collected food as part of their service learning project. For each item donated, students in grades K-4 were able to cast a vote for their favorite pie; either apple or pumpkin. The winner was apple pie. The fourth grade classes donated the food to the Somerset County Food Pantry in December.

The smiles. The laughs. The hopes and dreams. You know they're in there. But how do you bring them out when your child is struggling in school? Imagine your child working one-on-one with a personal trainer, doing fun, challenging mental exercises that work on the skills the brain uses to learn and perform. It's an innovative solution with lasting results that's different than tutoring. We call it brain training. Parents and kids call it life changing.

WATCHUNG LIBRARY FRIENDS THANKS SUPPORTERS FOR A PRODUCTIVE 2016

The Friends of the Watchung Library had a busy 2016! In addition to supporting more than 18 Watchung Library program, many focusing on summer reading to help young readers retain literacy skills, the Friends also donated thousands of books "weeded" from the library - many to schools. Further, the Friends supported the Watchung Public Schools by contributing items for PTO fundraisers and helped make Watchung's farmers' markets a success by drawing customers in with a diverse selection of hundreds of DVDs and CDs. Patrons also sought out the Friends' many sidewalk sales taking home favorite selections at bargain prices.

held at Bayberry School with its display of hundreds of gift-worthy books. Finally, in an effort to keep our planet green, during the holidays and throughout the year, the Friends continued to provide residents affordable reading materials, movies, and music at Second Story Books (upstairs in the Watchung Library), keeping thousands of materials out of landfills. Visit us on Facebook to read the latest Friends' news, trivia and information about how to join.

With each action listed above, the Friends has striven to serve the public and in turn, appreciates the public's support; this fellowship being the true meaning of community. The Friends of the Watchung Library thanks its many supporters in 2016 and wishes everyone a happy 2017.

SCOUTS TEAM-UP FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE

Cub Scout Pack 32 and Girl Scout Troop 65036 worked together to complete two separate community service projects ahead of the holidays. The Girl Scouts set up for their annual donation of hand-decorated sugar cookies to St. Ann's Soup Kitchen in Newark. Using imagination and lots of icing, sprinkles, and small candies, the scouts turned plain, beige cookies into festive explosions of color and excitement. Girls, boys, moms, and dads all spent time making each cookie an individual piece of edible artwork. By the end of the night, the scouts had filled over 20 boxes with dozens upon dozens of delicious treats which will be shared with St. Ann's guests during the holiday season.

On the other side of the room, the Cub Scouts used the simple, but precise nature of origami folding to create paper poinsettias which were then attached to a wreath. The decorative holiday wreath was given to Brandywine Assisted Living Center in Watchung to add some local, home-made decor for the holidays. The mostly-red wreath has touches of other colors in a playful nod to the little boys and girls hands that created them.

Parents and scouts of both the Pack and the Troop had a great time working side-by-side to achieve their service goals. Each group also got to share and participate in the others opening and closing ceremony.

The similarities of those ceremonies was eye opening to each group and should serve to reinforce the mission of both programs in raising a generation of girls and boys into fine women and men who will continue to serve their community.

COMMUNITY ACCESS UNLIMITED TO HOLD OPEN AUDITIONS FOR "ALADDIN JR." IN JANUARY

The CAU Community Players will be holding open auditions for their 2017 production of "Aladdin Jr." Tuesday, Jan. 17, 6:30-8:00 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 19, 6:30-8:00 p.m., and Saturday, Jan. 21, 10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. All auditions will take place in the auditorium of Community Access Unlimited (CAU) at 80 West Grand Street, Elizabeth, 07202.

The CAU Community Players is a troupe of individuals with developmental disabilities and actors and actresses from the broader community. Formed in 2012, the troupe allows CAU members to engage in the pleasures of acting, singing and dancing with people from the wider community and to be judged for their talents rather than disabilities.

CAU is a statewide Elizabeth-based nonprofit providing support programs and services to adults with disabilities as well as youth served under the Department of Children and Families (DCF) to enable them to live independently in the community, providing supports in areas including housing, vocational skills and life-skills training, education, advocacy and recreation.

The CAU Community Players stages a three-day production each year that draws hundreds. This year the troupe will be staging "Aladdin Jr." Based on the Disney movie, which itself was based on the folk tale of the same name, "Aladdin Jr." is the story of a street urchin, a princess and a genie all overcoming their respective obstacles to escape the traps of their lives and achieve their fullest potential and happiness.

Each year the CAU Community Players select a play that is representative of the agency's message of inclusion, acceptance and believing in oneself, as well as everyone's worth regardless of disability.

Auditions will be held at 80 West Grant Street, Elizabeth, NJ and are open to all members of the public, including youths and adults, as well as all members of Community Access Unlimited. For more information and a downloadable audition packet, visit www.caunj.org and click on Recreation/CAU Community Players.

Audition schedule: Tuesday, Jan. 17 – 6:30-8:00 p.m.; Thursday, Jan. 19 – 6:30-8:00 p.m. ; Saturday, Jan. 21 – 10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

WATCHUNG ARTS CENTER FEATURES LOCAL ARTIST LISA BROWN

During the month of January, the galleries of the Watchung Arts Center will highlight the work of Watchung resident Lisa Brown, both as an artist and as an art teacher. The Center's Heinz W. Otto Gallery will present "Celebrate Art", an exhibition of Lisa's own works. At the same time, the Lower Gallery will feature work by some of Lisa's adult students, while the walls of the Studio will showcase the talents of her younger students. The exhibits will be on display from January 7 through January 31, with an opening reception to be held on Sunday, January 8 from 1 to 4 PM. The reception and exhibition are free and open to the public.

Lisa Brown is a local Watchung self-taught artist who has spent many years experimenting in mixed media while exhibiting and selling work in shows. While experimenting she has discovered unique methods that best express her passion for nature and a sense of fun. She has three distinct series: Her "Gardens of Hope" series brings you Spring gardens with its beauty, splendor and a feeling of Hope. Her "Children at Play" leaping frog-leaping frog scenes are torn paper collages where children are enjoying life. Her "Texturescapes" are made of mixed media, textured papers, acrylics, and beads to create nature scenes with a sparkle.

Lisa has dedicated her life in the belief that art is therapeutic and can help express emotions, relieve stress and suffering, and allow you to escape for a few hours. Towards that end she developed "art-as-therapy" workshops for those suffering with illness and adversity. She has a BA in Art, a MA in Creative Arts Ed. and is a certified east coast supervisor for Creative Journal Expressive Arts (a program which incorporates art with journaling). She has facilitated programs for support groups: (cancer, brain injured and bereavement) at the local hospitals, cancer centers, high schools, and (CEU's) colleges, as well as facilitating a variety of workshops in her studio. For more information: art-as-therapy.com

The Watchung Arts Center, located at 18

Stirling Road in Watchung on the Watchung Circle, is a multi-disciplinary arts facility serving Watchung, the surrounding communities and the Tri-State Area. The Gallery is open Tues.-Fri. noon-5pm and Sat. 10:00am-3:00pm. To obtain more information about upcoming performances, classes and workshops, and monthly art exhibitions, please visit WatchungArts.org or call 908-753-0190.

WATCHUNG ARTS CENTER HOST JAZZ AND ROCK CONCERTS IN JANUARY

On January 14, the Watchung Arts Center's "JaZZ in the Gallery" series will present a concert by pianist John Colaiacovo. John has recently appeared at the WAC, playing piano and accordion, with "The Woodford Brothers", but this will be John's first solo appearance at the Arts Center. The following week, on January 21, the WAC welcomes "Acoustic Road", a NJ-based acoustic rock and classic rock duo. Both concerts are at 8:00 PM, and each will include a dessert reception following the performance.

John Colaiacovo brings a unique, personal quality to his work as a pianist, composer, and arranger. His performance career began in his youth when he would rise to become a national prize-winning accordion virtuoso. At age 16, he studied guitar and theory with the late jazz guitar legend Harry Leahey, who eventually encouraged him to apply to The Berklee School of Music in Boston to study piano. At Berklee, John earned degrees in Music Synthesis and Music Education.

With ears and mind continuously open, John matches extraordinary technical proficiency with effortless beauty and freedom, as a pianist with several bands, as a music minister, as a teacher at his own school of music in North Plainfield and Princeton area, and especially as a solo artist -- versatile, pushing, continually searching for more as player and composer. His collaborations as arranger, recording engineer, and performer on two distinctive recordings with Metropolitan Opera tenor Ronald Naldi have received praise from Gramophone magazine, Opera News, and other publications.

"Acoustic Road" specializes in the faithful recreation of the legendary music that helped define the 60's, 70's, 80's. The duo, consisting of Jeff Friedman (Keyboard, Vocals) and Matt Robinson (Guitar, vocals), play classic rock favorites by such artists as The Allman Brothers, America, Beatles, CSN, Eagles, Grateful Dead, Rolling Stones and U2. Jeff and Matt both have had extensive experience as solo performers, as well as with other groups, before joining together as "Acoustic Road" in 2007. With their strong lead vocals, precise harmonies, solid musicianship and reverence for every song they play, "Acoustic Road" consistently succeeds in making audiences smile, sing along and have a great time.

Tickets for each of these events are $16 in advance, $20 ($18 WAC members, $10 students) at the door. Tickets may be purchased online at watchungartscenter.eventbrite.com. Tickets may also be purchased by mail or by visiting the Watchung Arts Center during office hours: Tues-Fri noon-5PM or Saturday, 10AM-3PM.

The Watchung Arts Center, located at 18 Stirling Road in Watchung on the Watchung Circle, is a multi-disciplinary arts facility serving Watchung, the surrounding communities and the Tri-State Area. To obtain more information about upcoming performances, classes and workshops, and monthly art exhibitions, please visit WatchungArts.org or call 908-753-0190.

LITERACY VOLUNTEERS PARTNERS WITH LOCAL LIBRARIES IN 2017

Watchung Post • Page 11 • January 2017

Hundreds benefit from organizations services; additional programs offered at SCLSNJ libraries

Earlier this year, Literacy Volunteers of Somerset County reported that, in one year, more than 350 students received LVSC free services: 236 adults received weekly tutoring from 184 volunteer tutors; more than 100 students participated in Conversation Groups; and 20 students completed U.S. Citizenship Preparation Classes. In all, volunteers provided more than 8,000 hours of free literacy instruction. And that's just the beginning.

"There are many adults in our community who are eager to improve their English literacy and become an integrated part of the community," said Aimee Lam, LVSC executive director. "Each has a different reason to seek literacy instruction: some want financial independence but need better literacy skills on the job, others want to read to their child or grandchild, and the vast majority want to be able to communicate confidently. We are proud to help these hard working individuals and are grateful to our volunteers who commit the time and energy to provide literacy instruction. To meet the local need, LVSC plans to train a greater number of volunteer tutors in 2017 while increasing Conversation Group and U.S. Citizenship Preparation class offerings in county libraries."

LVSC has announced that the organization will once again partner with Somerset County Library System of New Jersey to provide services to the community. Services will include English Conversation Groups, Become a Literacy Tutor information sessions, and a U.S. Citizenship Preparation Class.

"The English conversation groups and citizenship classes led by LVSC and hosted by our libraries are helping new Americans integrate into our communities," said Marcela Dunham, SCLSNJ system programming coordinator. "By giving these adult learners the gift of language, they are now better able to communicate with their children's teachers, as well as successfully navigate doctors' visits and job interviews. By partnering with LVSC, we're welcoming new Americans into our libraries, opening a new world of knowledge and opportunity to experience everything the libraries have to offer to them, while creating positive experiences and lasting bonds with tutors, fellow students, and the community in general. We look forward to collaborating with LVSC in 2017 to develop new classes and initiatives to serve the community and help newcomers achieve their dreams of a better life for themselves and their families."

LVSC programs hosted at your local SCLSNJ's library branches:

Become a Literacy Tutor

LVSC invites you to become a literacy tutor and change a person's life! LVSC will be hosting information sessions at:

- SCLSNJ's Bridgewater Library branch, located at 1 Vogt Drive in Bridgewater on January 9, 10-11 a.m. & January 12, 6-7 p.m.
- SCLSNJ's Hillsborough Library branch, located at 379 South Branch Road in Hillsborough on January 17, 10-11 a.m. & January 18, 6-7 p.m.

English Conversation Groups

FAMILY STEAM NIGHT

Bayberry Elementary School conducted a Pre-K - Grade 2 Family STEAM night was held on November 15th. STEAM is the acronym for integrating Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics. Students and parents worked together on a specific challenge. The challenge for PreK - 2nd grade families was to build a "Little Red Riding Hood" basket out of newspaper, pipe cleaners, tape and other materials that could support as much weight as possible. A fun time was had by all.

LIBRARY PET COLLECTION A BIG SUCCESS

During November and December, Somerset County Library System of New Jersey collected about 700 pounds of dry pet food, 50 pounds dog biscuits, 500 cans of pet food, five dog beds, three animal carriers, and numerous toys, leashes, towels, laundry detergents, pet bowls, pet treats, and gift cards from SCLSNJ staff and the community for the Somerset Regional Animal Shelter. SCLSNJ staff member Edith Lit (pictured center left) coordinated the collection and delivered, thanks to the help of SCLSNJ staffer Mike Constante (pictured center right), the largest donation SCLSNJ has given to the shelter to date with Somerset County Library Commissioner Sherri Lynn (pictured left) on Tuesday, December 20. Shelter Manager Brian Bradshaw (pictured right) gladly accepted the donations on behalf of the shelter.
