AÁSE FORBES AMONG NEW FOSTER CARE ADVOCATES

On December 14, 2016 Union County Superior Court Judge Daniel R. Lindemann administered oaths to two graduating classes of community members — among them Aáse Forbes of Union — who've stepped up to serve as extra eyes and ears for Family Court judges on cases involving the county's abused, neglected or abandoned children currently in foster care. Of the two classes, one had 19 participants, including CASA of Union County's new executive director, Marla Higginbotham. The second is the result of the nonprofit offering for the first time a five-session, intensive day training at its offices, and included nine volunteers.

The new CASA volunteers completed 30 hours of training. After performing the oaths, Judge Lindemann stepped off the bench and personally thanked each advocate for committing to serve children in need of a voice. Members of the organization's board participated, and each new advocate received a commemorative pin and certificate. During celebratory luncheons that followed, advocates were matched to their new case and learned about their youth.

Volunteers with varied backgrounds and experiences make successful advocates, and these classes are no exception: They range in age from 22 to 75 and most have no prior knowledge of the foster system. They include parents, non-parents and empty-nesters; a recent college graduate and recent retiree; careers include health professionals, school personnel, counselors, legal professionals, former military, business entrepreneurs and homemakers. Languages spoken in addition to English include Spanish, German, French and Yoruba.

Several experienced abuse in their own childhoods.

William "Joe" Goodson of Plainfield, a CASA volunteer years ago who returned to help another child now that his own schedule allowed, said this work is a calling. "I know the situation in the African-American community, and I want to give back. I've been there and done that. We need more positive role models for these children who need us. I can make a difference and be someone they relate to, and that's what I'm looking for." Goodson added that on Thanksgiving, his CASA youth weighed heavily on his mind: "I'm looking at a table full of food and family and thinking of him, wondering, 'Is he ok, today?'"

CASA volunteers have court-ordered access to all parties in a child's life, including foster parents, doctors, caseworkers, therapists and teachers, and incorporate into court reports findings from these contacts as well as time spent with the youth. Volunteers advocate both in the community and court to ensure their youth's needs are met and time in care is as short as possible. There are 600 Union County children currently in foster care; CASA of Union County serves approximately one-third of those and its mission is to provide an advocate for every child that needs one.

For details on future training sessions, several of which incorporate new, flexible options and timeframes, contact Lisa at 908-527-7048 or lporis@casaoofunioncounty.org.

To inquire about other ways to support CASA of Union County, contact Marla at 908-527-7041 or marlah@casaoofunioncounty.org.

(above) New CASA volunteers include Katherina Abreu and Karen Flood of Fanwood; Mureen Allen and Padmini Bagchee of Linden; Anne Bristow and Phyllis Dunlop of Westfield; Quanae Chambliss of Rahway; Julie Exarhakos of Cranford; Aáse Forbes of Union; Julie Goldman of Short Hills; William "Joe" Goodson of Plainfield; Nataly Gutierrez of Elizabeth; Maryann Higgins of Mountainside; Marty Jeiven, Carol Pinkus and Maria Rodriguez of Scotch Plains; Katherine Taylor of Somerset; and Ashley Trotter of Piscataway.

THE GATEWAY FAMILY YMCA ADDS WISE CENTER YMCA BRANCH IN UNION

The Gateway Family YMCA Adds Fifth Branch to Association

The Gateway Family YMCA announced the addition of a fifth YMCA branch to the New Jersey association, serving Eastern Union County and Northern Middlesex County. The WISE Center YMCA Branch, located in Union, NJ is the fifth official YMCA branch within The Gateway Family YMCA. The WISE Center YMCA Branch joins two current Union branches, the Five Points Branch and the Wellness Center Branch, as well as the Elizabeth Branch and Rahway Branch.

The WISE Center YMCA Branch is located at 2095B Berwyn Street in Union, NJ and is host to programs such as the W.I.S.E. (Wellness, Independence and Socialization for our Elders) Adult Day Services Program, Connections – a specialized program for individuals diagnosed with early state dementia or mild cognitive impairment, and community support groups such as a Bereavement Support Group and an Alzheimer's NJ Caregivers Support Group.

"Since 1900, our YMCA has served communities in New Jersey," stated Krystal R. Canady, CEO, The Gateway Family YMCA. "With the addition of the WISE Center YMCA Branch, we have strengthened our commitment to serving individuals and families of all ages."

The WISE Center YMCA follows the addition of a fourth branch, the Wellness Center Branch, also in Union, in 2011. "We are excited to see our YMCA grow to better serve our members and community," stated Melynda A. Mileski, EVP/COO, The Gateway Family YMCA.

As stated in a proclamation signed by Kevin

Washington, CEO, YMCA of the USA, "This branch has been welcomed into the worldwide family of YMCAs so that it may put Christian principles into practice through programs that build healthy spirit, mind and body for all."

The Gateway Family YMCA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, health and community service organization of caring staff and volunteers dedicated to strengthening the foundations of community and stands For Youth Development, For Healthy Living and For Social Responsibility. The Y impacts the community by providing quality services to people of all ages, races, faiths or incomes. The Y is a powerful association of men, women and children of all ages and from all walks of life joined together by a shared passion: to strengthen the foundations of community.

SONNY AVERONA JR. & JOHNNY BONES TO PERFORM COMEDY SHOW AT UNION VFW

Sonny Averona Jr. & Johnny Bones bring a splash of classic stage comedy to the Michael A. Kelly VFW Hall on Saturday, February 11th in support of our veterans and troops. The comedy duo comes to Union as a part of a fundraiser that will benefit the 2017 Veteran’s Alliance Memorial Day Parade.

The comedy duo brings to life a traditional comic show with jokes and music from the 50’s and 60’s. Averona Jr. and Bones carry on the tradition of a comical pair that first gained popularity with the working of Bing and Bob as well as Martin and Lewis.

Their show contains a variety of entertainment routines that mix with some original material while also borrowing some routines from the 1946 Martin and Lewis show with additional new twists.

“This is a wonderful event kicking off our year with laughs and comedy” stated Phyllis Monguso, fundraising chairman of the Veteran’s Alliance Memorial Day Parade, “I encourage families to come out and laugh along with us”.

The comedy show will take place in the

Michael A. Kelly Post 2433 VFW Hall on High Street. Tickets for the show are $35. Doors will open at 7:00 p.m. and the show will start at 8:00 p.m. For more information, call (908)-851-5290.
