WHRHS STUDENTS SING AND DANCE WHILE RAISING FUNDS FOR PROJECT ALS WITH TALENT SHOW

Students and teachers at Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) demonstrated their performance skills and entertainment savvy, while raising funds for Project A.L.S. (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis), at a Talent Show, Wednesday, Jan. 11, in the school's Performing Arts Center (PAC). Some 16 acts were presented for the enjoyment of the audience, including solo and group performances of song, dance, musicianship, and poetry. Three of the acts were awarded prizes in the talent show competition at the event.

First prize went to Peri Martins of Warren Township, who sang "Rise Up," by Andra Day, and accompanied herself on piano. Second prize went to Eliana Neuwirth of Warren Township, who sang, "Almost Lover," by Fine Frenzy. Third Prize went to Isabella Zhou of Warren Township, who performed a Chinese Dance to the music of the number titled, "Incense."

According to the program, the Talent Show was presented, "In loving memory of Tom Shea (1968-2012) and Jenifer Estess (1963-2003)." Shea is the late brother of WHRHS English Teacher Laura Goodson, who died from A.L.S.

Two summers ago, WHRHS students read, as part of a summer reading assignment, "Tales from the Bed: A Memoir," by the late Jenifer Estess, as told to her sister, Valerie Estess. The work of non-fiction was about Jenifer Estess' battle with ALS, often also referred to as Lou Gehrig Disease. In addition, several representatives from Project ALS, including Jenifer's sisters, Valerie and Meredith Estess, spoke to assemblies of WHRHS students. WHRHS student government leaders have held several fundraising events in the last couple of years, such as this year's and previous years' Talent Shows.

"Since its inception, Project ALS has advanced ALS research, accelerating the testing of potential drugs, establishing the world's first and only privately funded stem cell laboratory and developing the first laboratory models of ALS," according to published Project ALS literature.

"We have brought together the top stem cell biologists, geneticists, motor neuron experts and ALS neurologists to work on ALS and related diseases—transforming the field. In 17 years, Project ALS has raised over $75 million, directing between 80-93 percent annually to research programs."

One of the highlights of the Talent Show was an ensemble performance of "The Room Where It Happened," from the current award-winning Broadway musical, "Hamilton." Among the performers were WHRHS History teachers Rebecca Brown, Sean New, Ken Karnas and Greg O'Reilly.

Students in the ensemble include Adele Rotondo, Jack Melillo, Suchir Govindarajan, Hannah Melillo, Kyra Anthony, Claire Vickery, Matt Obob, Maddy Goffredo, Elisabeth Russo, Grace Shanahan, Julianne Lin, Francesca Meehan, Stephanie Moreno and Sarah Kelly. In a separate performance, Dana Wasserman and Summer Stuart sang another song from Hamilton, "Dear Theodosia."

BAYBERRY SPELLING BEE CHAMPIONS

THE GARDEN CLUB BEGINS 60TH YEAR

The Garden club of Watchung began 2017 with a presentation by Alma Jones, Floral Designer. Alma bases her floral creations on the works of Leatrice Eiseman, author of "Colors for Your Every Mood". Alma described how certain color combinations-easily expressed in floral arrangements-can stimulate and relax the senses, release happy memories and enhance our moods.

The celebration of our 60th anniversary will take place in February with Club members donning apparel from 1957, the year our club began. Garden club president, Karen Gelotte, expressed how her 30 years in the Garden Club has made a difference in her life. "When I moved to Watchung, I wanted to become integrated in the community and the Garden Club was the perfect stepping stone to do so. As we go forward into our 60th year, we will continue to serve our members and communities by stimulating an interest in gardening, encourage preservation of our natural environment, and plant and maintain our four gardens in Watchung."

Residents from Watchung and surrounding communities are invited to join our active club.

DONATIONS SOUGHT FOR CONSTRUCTION OF WATCHUNG 9/11 MEMORIAL

Watchung's 9/11 Memorial Committee is seeking donations to complete the construction of the Borough's 9/11 Memorial "A Journey of the Heart."

Construction is beginning soon on the Watchung 9/11 Memorial on the Village Green. It will be dedicated to all who perished as a result of the attacks of September 11, 2001 and in memory of Watchung residents, Christopher Noble Ingrassia and Honor Elizabeth Wainio. It will be a respectful tribute with a stone mural and a pedestal with a piece of steel from the World Trade Center — a place of quiet reflection for anyone who remembers that tragic day and a meaningful way to educate young people — today's high school seniors were only 2 years old in 2001.

Residents and businesses are encouraged to participate in the 9/11 Memorial's addition to Watchung's Village Green by making a monetary donation, dedicating a brick paver for the walkway leading to the 9/11 Memorial and/or donating goods or services (for example, construction, landscaping).

A mailing, describing how to donate, was recently sent to all Borough residents and businesses, is available in the municipal building and will be featured in the Mayor's next newsletter.

The design and architectural plans for "A Journey of the Heart," the cost of which were generously donated, received final design approval in 2016. Construction is scheduled to be completed, and the dedication to be held, in the second and third quarters of 2017.

To date, $22,600 has been contributed through the financial support of more than 70 residents and businesses. Over $20,000 in goods and services has been given or pledged by local contractors and businesses.

Donations are encouraged at this time so Watchung's 9/11 Memorial "A Journey of Heart" can be completed and dedicated in time for the September 11, 2017 Memorial ceremony. Donations are tax deductible. Please see the town website or contact Linda Monetti at (908) 756-0080 (ext. 210) or email at lmonetti@watchungnj.gov.

The Watchung 9/11 Memorial Committee is chaired by Andy Baldassarre. Councilman Dave Mobus serves as the Borough's liaison; Committee members are Seth Alexander, Anthony Ingrassia, Dan Lorimar, Don Monetti and Susan Tucker.

LOCAL GIRL SCOUTS LEARN SELF-DEFENSE

Soo Bahk Do Karate of Gillette hosted Girl Scouts from Troop 65624 of Watchung on Sunday, January 8th for a self-defense clinic taught by Instructors Ria Zazzarino and Michelle Cavett, both 3rd degree blackbelts in the traditional martial art.

"We've hosted this troop before and were happy they wanted to come back for more", said Cavett. The Instructors began the clinic with focus on the principles of self-defense such as common sense and general awareness.

"The main goal is to avoid getting into a dangerous situation in the first place", said Zazzarino. The girls worked on knife defense, where an attacker lunged forward at them with a knife. "They all did very well", said Cavett, who also emphasized the importance of practicing not only technique, but also cultivating the ability to remain calm when confronted. "We can show you many debilitating techniques, but if you freeze when confronted, they will do you no good", she said.

An intensive 6-week long self-defense course for young women ages 16-20 is planned for the late Spring, said Cavett, who is also Program Director of the karate studio. "We want to be able to provide young women with some basic skills for self-defense as they prepare to go away to college and be out on their own", she said.

If your non-profit group or club would like to have a free clinic, contact Cavett at (908)647-4194 or mcavett@karate4peace.com

APPLICATIONS DUE FOR DELEEuw SCHOLARSHIP

High school seniors wishing to apply for the Adele DeLeeuw Scholarship should obtain applications now from their school guidance office. The scholarships range from $1,000 to $5,000. Deadline for submission of applications is March 8, 2017.

The awards are made in accordance with the terms of a bequest from Ms. DeLeeuw, author of 75 books, journalist and arts activist.

The Plainfield Rotary Scholarship Foundation, headed by Michael R. Townley, acts as selector for the scholarships. Area Rotary Clubs assist in the selection process. Only students attending high schools in Plainfield, North Plainfield, South Plainfield, Warren, Watchung, Scotch Plains, Fanwood and Edison are eligible. Location of high school, not student's residence, is the qualifying factor. The student must also be accepted to an accredited college or university.

Applicants must plan to major in one of the following areas of study: art, poetry, writing, journalism or engineering.

Interested students should consult their guidance counselors to obtain the necessary application information or go to the Plainfield/North Plainfield Rotary Club website at www.rotarynpn.org/cs-adele-deleeuw-scholarship.php. Questions may be directed to Johanna Salvemini, Scholarship Administrator, at (908) 755-8098.

Lose 20lbs! OUR GUARANTEE*

Before After

“ I was out of shape, overweight, and it was beginning to really effect my way of life. I have had 4 babies in five years, and I just wasn't able to get the weight off. I had tried dieting and other expensive programs and nothing worked. I wanted my life back and wanted to be able to have the energy to keep up with my 4 boys. So what did I have to lose by trying NutriMost, so I jumped right in.

When I started the program I weighed 152 lbs, my BMI age was 58 and I was extremely dehydrated. I wore a size 11/12 in clothes. The first couple of days on the program was a real struggle but I stated my affirmations everyday and continued to push through. After my first week I was hooked, it became easier and easier and the weight was just falling off. Before I knew it my body was changing and I had more energy. At the end of my 40 days I had lost 27lbs, I now weigh 125lbs, my BMI age is 33 (which is my actual age), my water levels are up and my visceral level was down to a 3. I wear a size X-small or 5-6 in clothes and I feel the best I have in years! I am more confident in my self and how I look and I am so proud that I pushed through and stayed focused on completing this amazing program.

If within 90 days you have not lost at least 20 pounds, your NutriMost office will refund a pro-rated amount up to the entire cost of the program upon request. Restrictions apply. Most participants lose an average of 1-2 lbs. per week. Testimonials are from actual clients who completed the program and did not receive any compensation for their endorsements.

January 21, 2017 (Watchung, NJ) – The Center for Contemporary Art in Bedminster, NJ will hold its annual Members’ Juried Exhibition at the Watchung Arts Center. The Center for Contemporary Art is a vital regional art center with a vibrant studio art school, extensive exhibition program and important community outreach component. Each year The Center offers over 200 art classes for adults and children and 50 summer art camps for its over 600 members and the community. acrylic paint, pastel, gouache, watercolor, drawing, photography, and ceramics.

More information about the Center for Contemporary Art can be found on their website: www.ccabedminster.org
