KARI PHAIR AWARDED 2016 COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

The Junior League of Summit (JLS) proudly presented this year's Jean Hudson Gano Community Service Award to Kari Phair of Summit. This award is given annually to recognize outstanding contributions to the community by either an individual or a nonprofit organization. Through this award, the JLS honors Jean Hudson Gano, a JLS member, mother of three, and outstanding community volunteer who died of breast cancer in May of 1997 at 41 years of age.

Kari, a distinguished EMT, has been with the Summit Volunteer First Aid Squad (SVFAS) for 25 years and has held multiple positions within the organization. She is currently Chief of Operations, a position she has held for more than 14 years. While a typical volunteer donates upwards of 600 hours of service per year, Kari dedicates well over 900 hours to the squad in addition to volunteering her time elsewhere in the community. She also proudly serves as a Special Olympics Volunteer, caring for special needs children; an EMS State Task Force member; a Union County Office of Emergency Medical Services Coordinator; a Union County Superior Court Mental Health Committee Member; a Summit Area Chapter of American Red Cross Board Member; a Central Jersey Technical Rescue Team Member; and a YMCA Board Member. Kari clearly exhibits an exemplary and extraordinary commitment to volunteerism, community service and particularly to issues regarding women and children just like Jean Hudson Gano, for which this Award was named. Congratulations and thank you Kari! The Junior League of Summit is currently accepting nominations for the 2017 Jean Hudson Gano award. If you know someone who's exceptional contributions to our community deserve to be recognized, please contact our office at jlsofficemanager@gmail.com.

The Junior League of Summit is a nonprofit, charitable and educational organization of women who are committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. For more information about the Junior League of Summit or to inquire about membership, please visit the website at www.jlsummit.org or contact the office at 908-273-7349.

SUMMIT LOOKING TO RESOLVE SANITARY SEWER ISSUES

The City of Summit has been experiencing blockage issues with its sanitary sewer system caused by the flushing of adult and baby wipes, feminine hygiene products, and improper disposal of cooking oils.

Although these items are often labeled as biodegradable, when flushed, wipes and feminine products can create massive blockages in the sewer system and potentially cause problems for homeowners. The City asks residents to please dispose of these products in the trash rather than the toilet. When cooking oil is disposed in the sewer system, it can clog pipes and eventually pollute local waterways. Please avoid disposing cooking oil in the kitchen sink. Allow it to cool and add it to household garbage.

For more information on the City of Summit sewer system, please contact the Department of Community Services at (908) 273-6404.

VFW PATRIOT PEN YOUTH ESSAY COMPETITION

Three Lawton C. Johnson Summit Middle School eighth grade students were awarded prizes for their essay submissions in the annual VFW Patriot Pen youth essay competition. The Patriot Pen is conducted nationwide and gives students an opportunity to express their views on an annual patriotic theme.

LCJSMS has participated in the contest for many years, routinely producing winning essays. This year's winners are Thomas Henry, Gia Kalro, and Hadley Wimsatt.

They responded to the theme of "The America I Believe In." Mr. Frank Perlzak and Mr. Steve Falk, members of the Berkeley Heights VFW Post 6259, presented the students with their certificates and prizes.

Special thanks to LCJSMS teachers Neal Sharma, Gary Burns, and Grace Buonpane, who organize the essay contest in their classes each year.

SUMMIT ACTIVIST TO BE TOPIC OF DISCUSSION

Dr. Betty Livingston Adams will present “Black Women's Christian Activism: Seeking Social Justice in a Northern Suburb” at 2 pm on Sunday, March 19, at Connecticut Farms Presbyterian Church, 888 Stuyvesant Avenue, Union. The event will be hosted by the Union Township Historical Society. This is a free event and is opened to the public. No registration is required.

Dr. Adams’ talk will be based on her book of the same title. One of the women featured in the book is Violet Johnson, a domestic servant, who moved to Summit, in 1897. She was one of less than 100 black residents in a town of 6,000. Summit was then a liberal Protestant community, yet observed some race and class barriers. But Violet didn’t accept the status quo. She established Fountain Baptist Church in 1898—“a seemingly moderate act” that affected more than religious services. Miss Johnson challenged thinking on gender and race and worked for an equal place for African Americans in the U.S. She was only one of many working-class activists integral to the birth of the civil rights movement.

Dr. Adams said Miss Johnson and her colleagues used their religious convictions to work for social change and helped turn New Jersey’s women’s suffrage movement into a “multiracial, cross-class movement” and started a statewide women’s Republican club.

Dr. Adams holds a Ph.D. in American Studies from Yale University and a Master of Divinity degree from Drew University. She researched 19th-and 20th-century African American/American religious and social history from gender, race, and class perspectives. She received a post-doctoral fellowship at Rutgers University and a Ford Foundation Doctoral Fellowship. Dr. Adams was a Global Scholar at the Rutgers Institute for Research on Women and a Fellow at the Rutgers Center for Historical Analysis. She serves as an Associate Minister and on the Board of Drew University’s Theological School Alumni Association.

SUMMIT HIGH SCHOOL & SEEING EYE

Mrs. Jennifer Renn teaches AP Psychology at Summit High School. To make some unique connections to the curriculum, she invited a very special student to class, Lulu. Along with her puppy raiser Wendy Kern, Lulu demonstrated basic commands and how reinforcement learning happens in dogs, a process very similar to that with humans. This opened up a great dialogue amongst the students and teacher, and the reaction from the high school students was so positive that many wished to have Lulu stay as a therapy dog! Kern and Lulu are affiliated with The Seeing Eye in Morristown.

FREE TUTORING RETURNS TO THE DCP

Summit students in grades 3 – 8 will once again be able to take advantage of free tutoring as part of the DCP's Share the Fun Club. This tutoring is made possible by the Junior League of Summit.

The Share the Fun Club is a free after-school program which meets daily from 3:00 – 4:30 pm at the Summit Community Center, 100 Morris Avenue. Throughout the academic school year, club members participate in sports & games, arts & crafts projects and more.

Members of this program have previously enjoyed homework help thanks to several student volunteers from Seton Hall University and the DCP is proud to bring tutoring back!

Free tutoring help will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays during the Share The Fun Club hours. Interested students must register with the Share the Fun program by calling 908-277-2932 or visiting the Summit Community Center. Once they are registered, students simply sign in at the tutoring room and a tutor will be there to assist.

5TH ANNUAL BLANKETS FOR BABIES DAY

Christ Child Society of Summit recently hosted their 5th annual Blankets for Babies Day. The event was attended by more than 150 student and adult volunteers, and over 275 blankets were completed. Blankets for Babies is a day of cutting, pinning and sewing to produce wonderfully cozy fleece baby blankets that are included layettes. The Christ Child Society of Summit provides layettes to local hospitals to be distributed to newborns in need.

This year's goal is to provide 350 layettes to the free pediatric clinics of the area hospitals, with a blanket in each.

To date the Christ Child Society in Summit has provided layettes to over 1,500 newborn babies in our community. The layettes are packed full with necessary items to get a newborn started in life, and include onesies, pajamas, outfits, hand knit sweaters & hats, receiving blankets, and a handmade fleece blanket. The Blankets for Babies project is made possible by a very generous grant from the Summit Elks Lodge #1246.

The Summit Chapter of the Christ Child Society is a nondenominational not-for-profit organization dedicated to serving at risk children in our community. The Christ Child Society of Summit is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization.

Your gift is tax deductible to the extent permitted by law.

For more information, or to become a member, please visit www.christchildsummit.org.

BRAYTON STUDENT CITIZENS

The recent "Citizens of the Month" at Brayton Elementary School were the classes of Rob Gannon and Matthew Stanbro. These 2nd and 4th grade students joined together to make a difference in the lives of others, who make a difference in our community on a daily basis! They had first hosted a Summit Pride Day, at which time students showed off their love and spirit for their hometown by wearing Summit gear and apparel. The students were allowed to donate $1, and the money raised was used to buy members of the Summit Fire Department and Summit Police Department a full lunch and dessert in February, as a sign of appreciation for their service to the whole community.

"TASTE OF SUMMIT" MARCH 26TH

On Sunday evening, March 26, 2017, from 6:00pm to 8:30pm come dine and socialize with your family, friends and neighbors at the 30th Annual "Taste of Summit" hosted by the Grand Summit Hotel located at 570 Springfield Avenue in Summit. The "Taste of Summit" is a gourmet extravaganza featuring more than 20 of Summit's finest restaurants and food merchants. Each restaurant will be serving delicious "tastes" showcasing their special dishes spanning many cuisines, including Italian, Japanese, American and Mexican. There will also be scrumptious desserts from Summit's finest bakers and a cash bar.

A very special chef from YouTube's "Cooking with Nonna" fame, Rossella Rago, will be joining us at the Taste this year.

During the Taste of Summit, we will draw the winning raffle ticket for a Private Craft Beer Dinner for the winner and 19 guests. The craft beers will be supplied by NJ's Kane Brewery and the food will be catered by chefs from the Grand Summit Hotel's HAT Tavern. The $10 raffle tickets are now on sale at the Carter House located at 90 Butler Parkway in Summit (Tuesdays 9am to noon and Wednesdays 1pm to 4pm) or at the HAT Tavern (Monday to Sunday 11:30am to midnight). There are only 600 tickets for sale and they are going quickly – so buy one soon!

The Taste of Summit is the key fundraiser for the Summit Historical Society, an all-volunteer not-for-profit organization dedicated to preserving and promoting the history of Summit through the Carter House Museum and its archives.

Tickets for the Taste of Summit are on sale now; priced at $50 per adult and $20 per child (ages 6 through 12). To ensure a place at the table, please call 908-277-1747 or send a check payable to The Summit Historical Society, PO Box 464, Summit, NJ 07902-0464. Tickets for the event will also be sold at the door.

For more information about the Taste of Summit, please visit us on the web at www.summithistoricalsociety.org
